

His Precious Love novel chapter 15

Chapter 15 Fawn Over Him

Then they all stared at Rayna again.

Rayna knew Meredith's intention in saying those words. She pursed her lips and said, "Not all pregnant women have the same symptoms. Some seem energetic, while some feel tired all day. You've never been pregnant, so it's normal that you don't know these."

Meredith's face clouded over.

Rayna continued, "Ms. Jones, I went to the hospital for a check-up already, and the pregnancy test report was issued by the doctor. Why do I have a feeling that you're suspecting that I faked my pregnancy?"

"Of course not! I'm just curious." Meredith smiled slightly, and her voice was soft. "It's just that I heard from Mr. Faymon that you have some medical condition and are not easy to get pregnant."

"Thanks for your concern, Ms. Jones. But I know my body better." Rayna smiled back. She then fiddled with her phone casually and glanced at Julian.

Seeing that, Julian began to feel nervous.

Rayna looked so domineering that it was as if victory was within her grasp.

Julian was afraid that Rayna really had some video in her hands that could destroy him.

On the other hand, Meredith remained calm as usual. She was the one who booked the hotel room. Thus, she was confident that it was impossible for Rayna to take a video of them in the room. She sneered inwardly and wanted to tell everyone that Rayna had a sexual disorder.

However, before she could speak, she was interrupted by a voice that attracted everyone's attention. "This way please, Mr. Faymon."

Everyone looked up.

Rayna did not hear it clearly. Seeing that everyone was looking in the same direction, she looked over too and saw two figures walking in her direction. Both of them looked tall and imposing.

It was Curtis and his assistant.

Curtis was wearing a black suit with a high-quality burgundy shirt underneath. He did not wear a tie, and his cuffs were unbuttoned. He looked unruly yet gave people a strong sense of oppression.

Rayna was dumbfounded.

He's here?

When she looked at the empty seat next to her earlier, she had been certain that Curtis would not come. She also knew that Curtis did not like occasions like this. But to her surprise, there he was.

This isn't his style!

Curtis walked over and stood behind Rayna's chair. Rayna turned around quickly with her head lowered. Her heart was thumping violently, and she could not calm herself down for a long time.

He just came. I guess he didn't see what I did just now, did he?

"U-Uncle Curtis..." Shawn got up from the chair and looked at Curtis excitedly. He did not expect that Curtis would really attend the party.

Although Curtis was not biologically related to the Faymon family, he was a legend in the family. Everyone wanted to flatter him to get some benefits from him.

Julian was stunned for a while, then he quickly got up from his chair to greet Curtis.

Meredith looked at this outstanding, rich, and good-looking man, and her face blushed.

Curtis only managed the company in Norham and seldom interacted with the staff in the country. Hence, Meredith rarely saw him, and she did not expect to see him at this welcome baby party.

In fact, Meredith had approached Julian with the ultimate intention of approaching Curtis because Curtis was Julian's uncle. She wanted to curry favor with Curtis to climb the corporate ladder.

Curtis nodded slightly in response to everyone's greeting.

He looked at the top of Rayna's head inadvertently for one second before he looked away.

"I'm sorry for being late. I had something urgent to attend to at the company." With a look from Curtis, Gabriel immediately took out a monetary gift from his bag and handed it to Astrid.

The monetary gift was so thick that Astrid could not stop smiling after receiving it. Both Astrid and Shawn were so happy, while the other relatives were jealous.

Curtis' generosity astonished everyone at the scene. From the thickness of the gift, they could tell that there were at least two hundred thousand inside.

Shawn ushered Curtis to sit down and asked the waiter to prepare more food.

Rayna's body was still stiff. The next second, Curtis pulled the chair next to her and sat on it. The cold breath that rushed to her face made her body tremble.

Since Curtis was here, naturally, Rolanda would not miss this opportunity to fawn over him.

She approached Curtis and said with a smile, "Curtis, my daughter-in-law is also pregnant. It would be our pleasure if you could attend the welcome baby party of my grandchild too!"

"Oh? Really?"

Curtis' questioning tone sent a chill down Rayna's spine. She turned her head away and felt so awkward that she wished the ground would swallow her whole.
