

Priceless 2331

Chapter 2331: Worry

The content of the news was about An Jichuan bringing his so-called “mysterious girlfriend” to various events in Rongcheng. The two of them seemed to be very intimate with each other.

There was also a photo attached. Xue Yating could vaguely tell from the photo that the woman was Yun Fenglan.

Had Yun Fenglan and An Jichuan become a couple?

She recalled that Yun Fenglan had not sent her a message recently. Could it be that the two of them were too busy dating to care about her?

If not, how could she explain why An Jichuan had not called her for so long and why he had not called to ask about Su Su about it?

Xue Yating recalled how he had praised Yun Fenglan over the phone. She now admitted that she was very jealous and angry.

Because of the scandal, Xue Yating could no longer stay calm. She immediately decided to fly to Rongcheng and see for herself how far the two had progressed.

Xue Yating bought the earliest flight and entrusted Su Su to her father. She then left for the airport.

The plane finally landed at C Nation's Rongcheng Airport, and Xue Yating returned to the An family home.

Rong Lihua did not receive any news of her return and was surprised to see her home. “Tingting, you're back! Why didn't you tell me in advance?”

“Mom, I came back to see the children.”

The child had become Xue Yating's best excuse. Otherwise, she would really have no excuse to return to Rongcheng.

“You're back just in time. Binbin and Lele were still talking about looking for their Mommy!”

“Okay, I'll go see them.”

After entering the house, Xue Yating went to see the child first. Binbin and Lele were playing in the back garden. When they heard their mother's voice, the two little ones stopped and craned their little heads to look around.

When they saw their mother appear at the flowers, the two little guys ran towards her excitedly.

“Mommy...”

“Mommy, mommy...”

Xue Yating squatted down and opened her arms to welcome the two little swallows.

She hugged them tightly in her arms. "Baby, Mommy misses you so much..."

She really missed her children. Both of them were her flesh and blood. She would miss them dearly when she could not see them.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myboxnovel.com THANKS!)

"Mommy, we miss you too!"

The two little guys began to kiss their mother sweetly.

Xue Yating looked at the two little guys seriously and praised, "You guys have done well during Mommy's absence. You've grown taller!"

"Yes. Lele eats a lot every day."

"Binbin also eats a lot of meat."

Binbin lifted his shirt and showed his mother his belly.

After petting her kid's heads, Xue Yating started to ask indirectly, "Has Daddy come back recently? Does he accompany you guys every day?"

"Daddy is very busy. Daddy wants to find us a new mommy."

Hearing this, Xue Yating was depressed. It seemed that the scandal was real. An Jichuan was going to find a stepmother for the children. The stepmother was not someone else but her own friend.

She was suddenly worried about the two children. If they had a stepmother in the future, how would it affect their growth?

Also, would Yun Fenglan treat her children as her own?

Thinking of the future, Xue Yating's heart was filled with worry.

She stayed at the An family home and did not see An Jichuan coming back for dinner.

Xue Yating looked at his usual empty seat and asked, "Is Ji Chuan not coming back for dinner?"

"Brother brother has been busy lately..." An Zhitong answered.

"Don't speak when you are chewing!"

Rong Lihua stuffed a piece of braised pork into An Zhitong's mouth to stop her from talking nonsense.

Chapter 2332: Finally Taken the Bait!

An Zhitong stopped talking and continued to eat while looking down.

"What has he been busy with lately?" Xue Yating asked.

It was not that she had not been deceived by that man. That was why she still had lingering fears.

That guy knew how to disguise himself and hide things. If he didn't tell her what he wanted to do, who knew what he would do?

Rong Lihua smiled and explained, "Tingting, don't think too much about it. The rumors outside are all groundless. Ji Chuan is not that kind of person."

Rong Lihua began to suspect that Xue Yating had suddenly come back because of the scandal that Ji Chuan had spread. She quickly helped her son clarify.

The more Rong Lihua explained, the more Xue Yating felt that something was amiss. It seemed that the An family really wanted to marry their second son out. They were all trying to hide it from her, afraid that she would find out.

"Mom, I'm not worrying too much about it. It's his freedom to be with whoever he wants. And he's not young anymore. He should find a suitable partner."

Xue Yating pretended to be generous, but in reality, she was secretly slapping herself deep down/

"It's not like I haven't tried to persuade him before. But he's so stubborn that no one can persuade him. I think only you can persuade him, and he might listen. Why don't you help me persuade him? Also, if you have suitable friends, perhaps you could introduce them to Jichuan?"

After Rong Lihua finished her words, she secretly observed Xu Yating to see how she would react.

"Oh, I know. I'll tell him if I see him. As for introducing friends, I don't really have anyone suitable."

Xue Yating lied. Even if there was, she didn't want to introduce any to him!

After dinner, Xue Yating took her two sons upstairs to shower.

Rong Lihua had a discussion with her daughter, An Zhitong. After the two of them had a discussion, Rong Lihua quickly informed An Jichuan of Xue Yating's return and asked him what to do next.

At this time, the man sitting in the president's office of the An Group was leaning against the leather chair. He had one hand supporting his head and his legs were crossed elegantly. The top two buttons of his shirt were unbuttoned, revealing a touch of sexy skin.

After hanging up, An Jichuan smiled.

His little fishy had finally taken the bed!

The next day, An Zhitong invited Xue Yating to go shopping with her.

"Sis-in-law, do you have time? I want to buy a new set of clothes. Can you give me some advice?"

Xue Yating and An Zhitong hadn't always been on the best terms with each other. They had always minded their own business. Now that her sister-in-law had taken the initiative to beg her, she could not refuse.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myboxnovel.com THANKS!)

"Okay, I'll go with you later!"

Xue Yating did not notice that her sister-in-law was smiling at her mother-in-law.

After breakfast, Xue Yating went upstairs to tidy up. She changed into a pair of flats that were suitable for shopping. She greeted the children and her mother-in-law before leaving the house with the two women.

When they arrived at the shopping center in the city, Xue Yating accompanied An Zhitong to the women's clothing floor and helped her choose as much as she could.

However, An Zhitong kept looking left and right, not knowing what she was looking at. Xue Yating asked her if the clothes looked good, but she didn't even look at them and directly nodded and said they looked good.

"What's wrong, Tong Tong? What are you looking at?"

"Oh, no. I didn't see anything."

The more An Zhitong tried to hide it, the more curious Xue Yating became. She walked past An Zhitong and looked in the direction she had just looked at.

The back of a man standing in a women's clothing store not far away was very familiar. Xue Yating's heart jumped and her eyes widened.

Wasn't that...

Chapter 2333: As If!

"Sis-in-law, let's continue choosing our clothes!"

An Zhitong quickly came over to pull Xue Yating. Xue Yating's legs seemed to be pinned to the ground, unable to move at all. She muttered, "Tongtong, do you think that looks like your... second brother?"

"No way! That person is wearing sunglasses and a mask. I couldn't tell! And why would my brother buy clothes with another woman? Sis-in-law, you must've seen wrongly!" An Zhitong deliberately explained.

Xue Yating noticed that the man who looked like An Jichuan was really shopping with a woman.

If she could not confirm that the man was An Jichuan, she could see the undisguised woman clearly.

It was her friend, Yun Fenglan!

With Yun Fenglan there, it further confirmed that the man was An Jichuan.

"That's your brother. Are the rumors about your brother true? He has a girlfriend."

"No way! It can't be my brother!"

"It is your brother!"

"Impossible!"

Seeing that the two of them had bought their stuff and left the women's clothing store, Xue Yating felt a rush of heat in her head. She pulled An Zhitong and said, "Tongtong, help me figure out if he's your brother first. I'll go shopping with you later."

"Okay." An Zhitong did not reject her. But in her heart, she felt that her sister-in-law was so pure and innocent. She was so gullible that she was hooked in an instant.

Xue Yating followed the two people in front of her and kept a safe distance from them. She could already tell that they were An Jichuan and Yunfeng Lan.

Xue Yating watched as An Jichuan helped Yun Fenglan carry the bags and the two of them chatted happily. She felt very sour in her heart.

She followed them out of the shopping center and saw them getting into a car that belonged to the An family.

Xue Yating could not describe the complicated feelings in her heart as she watched the car drive away. She wanted to leave him, but she was attracted to him. She wanted to fulfill his wish, but she could not be magnanimous.

An Zhitong observed her expression and said, "Sis-in-law, that's my brother. He really has a girlfriend! What should we do? What about you, Binbin and Lele?"

"What do you mean?"

Xue Yating suddenly said coldly, "I have nothing to do with your brother. I don't want to ask anything about him. Don't you want to shop for clothes? Let's go! I'll accompany you!"

Xue Yating pulled An Zhitong away. An Zhitong could hear the jealousy in her voice.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myboxnovel.com THANKS!)

No one would believe that her sister-in-law did not like her second brother at all!

After a day of shopping, the two women were exhausted.

After returning to the An family home in the afternoon, both Binbin and Lele told her that their father had come back to visit them in the afternoon and had even bought new toys for them.

Xue Yating scoffed in silence. He was already in love with Yun Fenglan. How could he still think of her sons?

She decided that she would bring Binbin and Lele back with her this time and not leave them for that guy!

At night, Xue Yating coaxed the two children to sleep. She also took a shower and put on her pajamas to get some rest.

"Tingting... Tingting..." A voice accompanied urgent knocking on the door.

Xue Yating opened the door and saw the anxious Rong Lihua. "Mom, what's wrong?"

“Just now, Ji Chuan called and said he had a stomach ache. But his medicine was left at home. I wanted to send it to him, but I had to take care of your father and couldn't leave. Tongtong went out with her classmate at night and hasn't come back yet. Now, no one can go and deliver the medicine. What do you think we should do? Can you help mom make a trip?”

“Sure, but...” Xue Yating turned around and looked at the child.” Binbin and Lele are sleeping. ”

Chapter 2334: Touched Again

“It's fine. Bring them into my room. I'll look after them.”

Under her mother-in-law's suggestion, Xue Yating carried the two children to her mother-in-law's room. She took her medicine and drove out.

No one knew how anxious she was at the moment. The anger from the day and the worries from the night were all mixed together, making her unable to calm down.

She drove all the way to Shui-mo Lan Ting Residence and followed the familiar path back to the place where she had once been imprisoned. In the darkness, she saw the light in the master bedroom of the villa. It was like a beacon found in a lost ocean. The light shone into her heart and drove away the darkness in her heart, allowing her to see her future more clearly.

She had come in a hurry and was still hesitating deep down. However at this time, her footsteps were much more firm this time.

She pushed the door open and walked into the villa. She went upstairs and opened the door to the master bedroom.

The man was on the bed lying on his back. He hadn't even removed his clothes. Even from afar, Xue Yating could smell the strong smell of alcohol.

He was drunk!

He seemed to have drunk a lot!

Damn it, why does he drink so much when he knows he has stomach problems?

Xue Yating couldn't help but curse him in her heart. She walked over and checked on him.

“An Jichuan... An Jichuan...”

She shouted a few times and the man seemed to have a reaction. His thick eyebrows furrowed with jealousy. He raised his arm in discomfort and pressed on his stomach.

“Is your stomach still hurting? I'll get you some water!”

After Xue Yating finished speaking, she got up and went to get some water. She had no idea that when she turned around, the man opened his eyes secretly and glanced at her anxious back view.

Xue Yating returned to the room and brought him a glass of water. She then followed the instructions and poured out the pills from the bottle. She helped him up and tried to feed him the medicine.

“An Jichuan! Open your mouth! Take your medicine!”

She patted his face and called his name. An Jichuan opened his mouth slightly in a daze. Xue Yating took the opportunity to stuff the pill into his mouth and fed him some water.

After he drank the medicine, she placed him on the bed and adjusted his posture. She took off his shoes and jacket.

It was harder to take off his jacket. She finally managed to lift his broad body and take off one of his sleeves. In the end, the man fell down again and pressed down on her arm.

She tried to pull it, but she couldn't get it out. Her position was so awkward that she was practically lying on his chest.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myboxnovel.com THANKS!)

She could hear the man's breathing and his strong heartbeat. She could also feel the man's hot breath with the smell of alcohol spreading over her head. She raised her head slightly and could see the man's perfect chin and sexy Adam's apple.

It was as if a stone had been thrown into her heart lake, stirring up waves of ripples. Her heartbeat also became fast, and she felt terrible.

She wanted to escape and pull her arm out. She used a lot of strength and almost broke her arm before she finally pulled her arm out. But the next step, her wrist was grabbed again and her body fell back onto his chest.

The man seemed to be drunk. He hugged her and turned over to press her down.

“An Jichuan, wake up... wake up...”

Xue Yating realized that she could not wake the man up no matter how hard she tried. And the man clearly wanted her.

She was worried about his health, but she could not wake him up. She was extremely anxious.

The man's actions became more and more unrestrained. In the end, she was actually tempted by him again.

Chapter 2335: A Empty Heart

Throughout the second half of the night, the man kept asking for love. When it was almost dawn, he finally fell asleep beside her. Xue Yating was tired and sleepy, but she did not dare to sleep.

Why did it feel like his stomach wasn't acting up at all?

Why was he still as vicious and fierce as before?

But she did not dare to think too much. Now that the man had finally let her go, she had to escape while he was still unconscious.

Xue Yating ran away from Shui-mo Lan Ting Residence in a panic as if there was a man-eating monster behind her. After she ran back to the An family home, she took a shower and changed her clothes before getting rid of An Jichuan's smell.

The sky was still dark. Xue Yating lay on the bed to catch up on her sleep, but she could not fall asleep.

All she could think of was the ridiculous night she had with An Jichuan. She had only gone to deliver the medicine, but in the end, she had been used as an antidote.

Oh my god!

How embarrassing!

It was not until dawn that Xue Yating fell asleep. When she woke up, it was already morning.

She heard a familiar voice coming from the living room. It was Rong Lihua and An Jichuan.

"Tingting, you're up! What do you want to eat? I'll get the kitchen to prepare it for you," Rong Lihua said.

"No need, mom. I'm not hungry."

"Oh, you came down just in time to have a chat with Ji Chuan. I'll go see Binbin and Lele first."

Rong Lihua got up and walked outside. Xue Yating stood where she was and looked at An Jichuan awkwardly. An Jichuan leaned on the sofa and turned to her with a faint smile. "Tina, why did you suddenly return to Rongcheng?"

Xue Yating looked at the man's perfect and handsome face and took a deep breath, pretending that nothing had happened. "I'm back to see the children."

"Mm."

"I heard from my mother that you were the one who gave me the stomach medicine last night, right? Thank you."

"Oh, you're welcome."

Xue Yating smiled awkwardly and let out a sigh of relief in her heart. He probably didn't remember what happened last night, right? Fortunately, it was fortunate. Otherwise, it would have been so awkward.

Just as they were talking, An Jichuan's phone rang. The man looked at the phone screen, then got up from the sofa and picked up the phone.

"Hello? I'm at home! I miss you!"

The man's voice was so gentle that it was numbing. He glanced at Xue Yating, probably because he didn't want her to hear him, and turned to walk towards the door.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

Xue Yating looked at An Jichuan's back as he left and felt her heart fall into a deep valley.

There was a problem in front of her that she could not ignore. The man that she had always regarded as a monster had now found his other half, and their relationship had a new home.

She should be happy for him, but why was her heart so empty?

It was as if a hole had been dug in and the wind had been pouring in. It felt empty, aching and lost.

After An Jichuan finished his call, he came in to greet her. "Tina, you're here. I have something to do at the company, so I'll go now."

He waved and quickly disappeared through the door.

Xue Yating took a deep breath. What company was he busy with? He must be going to accompany his girlfriend.

For the next two days, Xue Yating did not see An Jichuan again. Mu Chenguang called twice and urged her to leave. Xue Yating could only pack her luggage and prepare to leave.

Before leaving, Xue Yating went to her mother-in-law to discuss. "Mom, I want to take Binbin and Lele to my father's place for a while. I'll send them back after a while, okay?"

Chapter 2336: So Soft

Rong Lihua was surprisingly magnanimous this time. "Sure, go ahead! They miss you very much at home. The child has to follow her parents."

"Thank you, Mom." Xue Yating hugged her mother-in-law. "Mom, whenever I have time in the future, I will definitely come back to see you often."

"Okay, come back often."

Rong Lihua wiped her tears away.

Just like that, the An family arranged for a driver to send her and the two children to board the plane.

Before they left, the two children were still asking, "Mommy, why didn't Daddy come to see us off?"

"Your daddy is busy. He'll come and pick you up when he's done."

"Don't come and pick us up! We don't want to be separated from Mommy."

The two little guys hugged Xue Yating, afraid that they would be separated from their mother again.

The child's dependence on her was even more firm in Xue Yating's heart. Perhaps taking the child away was the best choice. If they stayed in the An family, how could An Jichuan have the time to care about them?

It was the first time the two little guys were going on a long trip. They were extremely excited and performed very well. They did not cry or make a fuss.

Xue Yating led Binbin and Lele back to the Xue family home. Xue Yating was holding a child in each hand. When she saw her father, she asked the children to call him. "Binbin, Lele, he is your grandfather. You have to call him Grandpa!"

"Grandpa!" Binbin called.

"Grandpa!" Lele raised his voice loudly, not wanting to lose out.

"Hey! Hey! Okay, okay, okay. Let Grandpa take a good look at the two little babies. They've grown so big!"

Xue Zhengrong opened his arms. The children walked into his arms together and let him examine them.

The old man rubbed the heads of these two little boys. His heart softened as he looked at the two little guys who looked exactly the same.

"My cute grandsons. Not bad! Both of you look handsome and obedient. Come in with grandpa!"

Xue Zhengrong loved the two children from the bottom of his heart and brought them into the house.

When Su Su heard that her mother and brother were here, she ran downstairs excitedly. When she saw them entering the house, she shouted happily, "Mommy! Binbin! Lele..."

"Big Sis! Big Sis..."

The three children jumped around happily when they saw each other. They could finally have fun together again.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

On the second day of her return, Xue Yating received a call from Yun Fenglan, who asked her out to meet her.

Xue Yating walked into the cafe. When Yun Fenglan saw her, she waved at her. "Tina! Here!"

Xue Yating noticed Yun Fenglan and sat down in front of her. "Did you have fun?" Xue Yating asked.

"I'm so happy! This is the most romantic trip I've ever had. I can't help but share the whole trip with you. Listen to me slowly."

After that, Yun Fenglan shared with her how she met Nick at the airport. The two of them chatted all the way until they arrived at Rongcheng. Nick turned into a tour guide and accompanied her throughout.

They had a lot to say to each other, like long lost friends.

During the two weeks of travel, they even held hands, hugged and kissed. They had quickly become a couple.

They discussed and decided to get married soon. The wedding would be held in Peijing.

Xue Yating's heart was filled with bitterness as she listened to Yun Fenglan blabber on. She did not want to hear about everything that had to do with An Jichuan, but somehow, she listened to the whole story.

"Tina, when I get married, you have to be my bridesmaid. My best friend is you. I hope you can witness my happiest moment."

Yun Fenglan grabbed her hand and invited her.

Chapter 2337: No Way Out

Xue Yating nodded. She was envious of Yun Fenglan and An Jichuan for being able to talk about love freely. She was jealous of Yun Fenglan for being able to get into An Jichuan's good books. She hated herself for being useless and weak. She did not dare to show her feelings so easily.

Now that things had come to this, she could only give her blessings generously.

Yun Fenglan had just announced that she was getting married. Elsewhere, Mu Chenguang and Wandou were also getting married.

Xue Yating attended their wedding. She looked at the two men and women in formal attire standing in front of the altar and making their vows. She recalled the time when she was married.

She did not know that the person who had married her was An Jichuan. She thought that it was An Xianming. They had vowed together in front of God that they would always trust each other, love each other, and never leave each other. Even until death, they would never separate.

He had kissed her in front of God.

Their vows were also protected by God at that moment.

But who would've thought that he wasn't An Xianming?

Because he wasn't one to begin with, he didn't care about those vows anymore. Now, it was his freedom to be with whoever he wanted.

The livelier the atmosphere was, the more lonely and bitter she felt.

For the next few days, Xue Yating did not contact the An family. Other than taking care of the three children, she was preparing for the concert.

The costumes, props, and sound effects for the concert had to be handled by her.

There was only one thing that Master Clayde's beloved disciple, Fredle, had yet to show up. Mu Chenguang was the only one who could play the duet.

After the rehearsal, Mu Chenguang handed her a bottle of mineral water. Xue Yating took it and said, "Thank you."

"Tingting, what's wrong? You don't seem to be in a good mood," Mu Chenguang asked. "Are you under too much pressure?"

"I'm fine."

"It's not good to be too tense. I think you should go back and rest. There won't be any problems with the music. Don't worry."

Mu Chenguang comforted her.

"Got it."

Xue Yating wasn't worried about the concert, but about someone else.

There had been no news for a long time. An Jichuan had not even asked about the child. It was understandable if he did not ask about Su Su, but what about Binbin and Lele?

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

They were both his sons. Ever since she brought Binbin and Lele back, did he ever call or send a message to ask?

None!

The news from Rongcheng was also gossiping about An Jichuan and his mysterious girlfriend. It made Xue Yating even angrier, but she had no way to vent her anger.

Forget it. She could only comfort herself. It was impossible between them anyway. Why should she be troubled over a man she could not rely on?

It was finally the day of the concert. The opening time for the concert was 7pm. At this time, many listeners had already arrived at the venue.

Half of them were people who really loved music, and the other half were probably invited by friends. No matter what their purpose was, it was fate that they were able to meet here.

At the very least, they could guarantee that the first concert after so many years would not be awkward.

Xue Yating's father and three children also came to watch her performance. She helped them arrange a private room on the second floor.

Mu Chenguang, Wandou, and other friends also came to support her.

Xue Yating was putting on her makeup backstage. After putting on her makeup, she changed into a long black dress with wide sleeves and a long tail. She picked up her beloved Hecate violin, and the confidence and flamboyance she once had returned.

Chapter 2338: Infuriating

Xue Yating walked onto the stage with her violin.

When she arrived at the center of the stage, she first bowed to the audience and gave them a warm round of applause.

The first part of the interview was the Q & A session. The host gave a simple question and Xue Yating gave a response to the interview, introducing Xue Yating's past experiences.

“First of all, I would like to thank all the new and old friends who came to listen to my concert. Thank you for your support and encouragement. In the past few years, I did not go on stage to play the violin because I had returned to my family. Those who have seen the news might know the story between me and my husband, Mr. An Xianming.

“He passed away in a car accident a few years ago. From then on, we were separated by life and death. Today is the anniversary of our marriage. I chose to hold this concert today to express my longing for him!

“I believe that everyone will meet all kinds of people in their lives. Some of them are like stars, shining in your world, while others are like meteors that disappear in a flash. You might not be able to help but think of this person in the dead of night.

“Next, I will play Reminisce, a song by Drola to commemorate with everyone.”

Xue Yating stood on the small round stage. The light shone on her body, and her fair skin seemed to glow. Her long, soft hair was draped behind her, dancing without wind.

She gently raised her hand and placed the bow on the strings. Her black sleeves danced with her movements as beautiful notes slowly flowed out.

Compared to a few years ago, many old fans could hear the changes in her music. After many years, her music had gained a deeper emotion.

It was this kind of deep sentiment that was most infectious.

At this time, in a corner that she did not know, a man was silently watching her. His admiring eyes were filled with longing.

After the opening, Xue Yating played a few more songs in succession. Every song was carefully selected and painstakingly practiced before the music fans could not help but be immersed in the world she had woven with music.

In the middle of the concert, Xue Yating and the most famous symphony orchestra were working together to perform Beethoven's Symphony of Fate.

The next performance after the symphony was a duet between her and the famous piano master, Clyde's beloved disciple, Fredle.

The host announced and invited the talented pianist Fredle, who had won first place in both the Chopin International Piano Competition and the Muscovski International Piano Competition.

Amidst the applause, Xue Yating saw a man in a black tuxedo and a half mask slowly walking onto the stage towards the piano.

The moment he walked up to her, Xue Yating felt as if someone had poked her acupoint. She stared at him without blinking. Why did she feel like she missed An Jichuan so much when she first saw him?

Their figures, facial features, and temperament were so similar.

Thinking of a possibility, Xue Yating panicked. Could it really be An Jichuan? When did he change his name?

Fredle came to the piano, pressed his hands on the suit in front of him, and greeted the audience. Then, his cold eyes behind the mask swept across Xue Yating. He nodded slightly and finally sat down on the piano stool.

Chapter 2339: They Did It

She took a deep breath and pulled her bow.

When her solo performance reached a certain point, the melodious and smooth piano music was also inserted. As the music deepened, the duo's duet also gradually reached a climax.

The sound of the violin and the piano perfectly matched each other. They were like two free fairies dancing in the forest. They crossed the mountains, crossed the rivers, rushed into the clouds, and then fell into the galaxy.

Xue Yating closed her eyes and focused on the performance. She could already hear Feredel's piano playing. It was exactly An Jichuan's style.

When they were performing in Vienna in the past, they also cooperated perfectly with each other.

Even their professor had said that when the two of them combined their music, they could create a magnificent world that transcended the soul.

And now they did.

When the duet reached the crescendo, it also pushed the atmosphere of the venue to the high court.

When they picked up the pace, the audience stood up and applauded.

In the end, Xue Yating put away her bow, and Fredle's hands left the piano keys. The perfect cooperation ended.

She, Fredle, and all the listeners were immersed in the world of music. It took them a while to leave.

Amidst the thunderous applause, Fredle got up and thanked the audience. Xue Yating walked off the round stage and hugged Fredle out of habit and to show her thanks

"Are you that Nick?" Xue Yating took the opportunity to whisper in his ear.

The man let go of her and did not answer. He only stared at her with his deep eyes for a second, then turned and left the stage. He returned the stage to Xue Yating.

He was Nick, An Jichuan.

Even though he was wearing a mask, the familiar aura from his body did not change. It was him, that's right!

Xue Yating watched him leave and forced herself to control her surging emotions. She then returned to the round stage to finish the performance.

At 9: 30 pm, the concert came to a perfect end. Xue Yating stood on the stage and accepted the applause and encouragement from the audience. Many fans went on stage to give her flowers.

She was the brightest star that night.

Her comeback concert was a great success. She had opened a new door with music again. In the future, she would continue to accompany music and bring better music to everyone.

Xue Yating returned backstage and asked where Mr. Fredle was. The staff told her that he had just left.

She chased him all the way to the back door of the venue and found him in the VIP passage.

A few bodyguards accompanied him and escorted him away. Xue Yating could not care less and chased after him with her skirt.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

She was about to call out to him when she saw a woman waiting for him with a bouquet of flowers.

Seeing that he was here, she gave him the flowers. He took the flowers and they hugged each other gently.

Seeing this scene, Xue Yating stopped in her tracks. Her heart suddenly ached and her eyes blurred.

She saw Yun Fenglan coming to pick him up. The two of them got into the car and left together.

And what was she chasing after?

There was nothing she could do. She didn't even have the courage to call his name.

She was the one who had been restraining herself and treating him as her uncle. She was his sister-in-law.

Therefore, no matter what happened, no matter who he was with, she could only give him her silent blessing!

Xue Yating took a few steps back and ran back into the bathroom. She hid in the cubicle and cried silently.

Chapter 2340: Too Late

She was the one who pushed An Jichuan away. Who else could be blamed?

She thought of An Xianming and asked him silently.

Little Uncle, if I fall in love with Ji Chuan, will you blame me?

I'm sorry. I really can't control my heart. I'm not a good wife. I can't even control my own heart.

I fell in love with him, but it was too late. It was all too late.

After leaving the bathroom, Xue Yating walked back to the backstage dejectedly, but she fainted at the door.

"Ms. Xue has fainted! Call the ambulance!"

The staff noticed her and quickly called her. When the ambulance arrived, they immediately sent her to the hospital.

At the hospital.

When Xue Yating woke up again, it was already the next morning. Her father and the three children were all in the ward.

"Tingting, you're finally awake. Do you feel better?"

"Mommy! Mommy..."

The children were also very worried.

"I'm fine. I made you guys worry."

Xue Yating shook her head and tried to get up, but Xue Zhengrong stopped her. "Lie down and don't move. The doctor said you're under too much pressure and you have anemia. You're weak now. You have to rest."

In reality, she was just too sad and fainted from excessive grief.

No one could understand what she was feeling. She could only feel the pain in her heart by herself. She could not tell anyone.

"You've been too busy with this concert recently. I think you should take a good rest after this. Don't be in such a hurry to start the next concert."

Xue Zhengrong reminded.

"Okay, Dad. I know."

"Oh, right. Ji Chuan called me and said he wanted to see you. I've already told him your room number," Xue Zhengrong said.

"Oh," Xue Yating replied simply. The thought of the man she loved and hated made her feel even more miserable.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

Xue Yating was alone in the ward when someone knocked on the door. She turned around and saw two people in the ward.

It was An Jichuan and Yun Fenglan. They appeared together, arm in arm.

Yun Fenglan was holding a bouquet of flowers while An Jichuan was holding a fruit basket. Both of them had come specially to visit her.

“Tina, how are you? Are you feeling better now? I saw the news and learned that you fainted after the concert and was sent to the hospital. I came to see you with Nick.”

Yun Fenglan walked over and handed her the flowers.

Xue Yating really did not want to see the two of them appear together. But since they were already here, she could not chase them away.

“Thank you for coming to see me.”

“Why did you faint? What happened?”

An Jichuan walked up to her. As an “assistant”, he only expressed his concern.

“It's just anemia, nothing serious.”

Xue Yating thought that he was trying to keep his distance from her because he was afraid of being misunderstood by Yun Fenglan.

Actually, she wanted to talk to him about the concert. She wanted to know why he was Master Clayde's beloved disciple, Fredle.

However, with Yun Fenglan around, it was not convenient to say many things.

To change the topic, Xue Yating asked Yun Fenglan, “When are you guys getting married?”

Xue Yating was asking for it. It was as if she had stabbed herself in the heart.

It hurt, but she had to pretend to smile.

“Nick and I have already decided on the 26th of this month. By then, your body should be almost fully recovered. You can't shirk the responsibility of being my bridesmaid!”