

Priceless Baby 1071

Chapter 1071: Ruthless

The playboy vibe that Ma Haodong used to rock with was nowhere to be found. With the beard that he had grown, he looked more mature and attractive.

Ma Haodong and Xu Xiyao walked past the reporters with the help of their bodyguards and left the signatures on the signature wall.

Following behind them was Shen Mengyuan and her male counterpart in Golden Lion, Shao Chi.

Shen Mengyuan waved to the crowd as she walked up to the signature wall, standing next to Jing Xi.

Shen Mengyuan couldn't help but smile wryly at how ruthless Jing Xi could be.

No matter how Shen Mengyuan tried to spread the scandals, all of them were blocked by the media.

But Shen Mengyuan was not about to give up just yet, as she has set her sights on the Newcomer Award.

Almost all of the well-known celebrities gathered at the Cultural Arena.

Singers such as Mu Chenguang and Tang Shixue were present at the awards as well.

The hosts for the award were two of the most famous hosts in Zstan, Huang Yan and Tao Hong.

As long as they were partnered together on stage, those two basically did not need to prepare scripts for the show.

They began with a history of the Golden Goose Awards and kicked off the ceremony with the Newcomer Award.

The hosts announced the nominees for the award.

Shen Mengyuan in Golden Lion.

Jing Xi in Root of Evil.

The two actresses got nominated due to their outstanding performances in their respective films. The judges would be the ones who would decide the winner of the award.

Xu Xiyao and Shen Mengyuan both stood on the stage as the judges began to cast their votes with the results on the screen.

Four of the five judges had cast their votes, and Xu Xiyao and Shen Mengyuan both stood on equal grounds, two to two. The last judge, Qin Shousheng, still hadn't cast his vote.

"Both actresses were outstanding, but my vote goes to the one with the most promising future..." Qin Shousheng said. "I'll give my vote to Miss Shen Mengyuan.

Shen Mengyuan won the award as she had expected. Even though Xu Xiyao did not win, she still hugged Shen Mengyuan as her way of saying congratulations.

From going onto the stage to leaving, Xu Xiyan's mind was completely blank. All she could think of was her own husband.

She kept messaging her husband during the whole awards.

[Hubby, where are you? Please don't get angry.]

[Hubby, you know I never keep anything from you. I only love you and have no feelings towards that guy.]

[Hubby, I know that I can't explain that picture, but please believe me. I have never betrayed our love.]

[Hubby, Please forgive me.]

Chapter 1072: Save This Mistake

At this time in Shengshi Yujing Apartment No. 101, the living room was dark. The lights were not turned on.

Huo Yunshen sat on the sofa at home watching the live broadcast of the awards ceremony, staring at his wife in a black dress on the stage.

His eyes were as dark as night; inside, his heart was a constant knot that couldn't be loosened.

Messages from Jing Xi kept coming to his phone. After reading the messages, the man became even more silent and began to reflect on his behavior.

He had been a bit too rash. He clearly knew Xu Xiyan's feelings for him, and yet he had been enraged by those photos.

If he were to back down and look at the situation, could he not love Xu Xiyan anymore even though she was involved in a scandal with another man?

The answer was no.

Just like Tang Yichen had said: he should believe in his own heart and also believe in Jing Xi. Do not be blinded by the scandals.

He watched his wife returning to her seat sullenly after she was defeated on stage. At this moment, he was very worried about her.

Maybe he shouldn't have been angry with her. Maybe he should've accompanied her on the red carpet. Maybe he should've sat next to her, and given her the encouragement and comfort when she needed it.

This was all because he loved her deeply!

As he thought of this, Huo Yunshen told himself to forgive her, got up, picked up his jacket and car keys and left the house.

At the venue of the awards ceremony, Shen Mengyuan's golden dress dazzled as she stood waiting on the stage to receive her award.

The host invited a heavyweight star guest to read out the prize presentation speech as Shen Mengyuan's career achievements appeared on the big screen.

Just as the star guest was about to present the award to Shen Mengyuan, the big screen changed, causing an uproar in the audience.

The pictures on the screen were no longer photos of Shen Mengyuan working hard at the set, nor of her professional performance in her shoot; they were replaced by photos of her engaging in intimate sex play with men.

Among the men were the judge of Legendary Star Chef, Yan Nan; Qi Guohua, the president of the Qi Group; and even the old artist, Qin Shousheng, who was currently sitting in the judges' seat today.

As these photos were revealed, the judges who had approved of Shen Mengyuan just now felt as though they were given a slap on their faces.

This was a live show. The intimate photos of Shen Mengyuan having sex with a variety of old men showed that she had relied on her talents to win the newcomer award tonight—that's right, talents to get into bed with men.

For a time, the entire awards ceremony was chaos. Below the stage, the face of the judge Qin Shousheng had turned as dark as coal.

When Shen Mengyuan discovered that something was amiss, she looked back at the big screen subconsciously. She felt cold all over.

What happened?

Who had changed her photos to photos of her exploiting men?

Aaaaaahhh... Shen Mengyuan felt unwell.

The organizers began to save this mistake. According to award rules, they announced that Shen Mengyuan's personal relationship with the judges was a violation of the rules.

Following the regulations, Qin Shousheng's vote was invalidated and his qualification as a judge was stripped. A film critic was selected from the audience to participate in the next voting.

Shen Mengyuan's newcomer award was also canceled and her nomination became invalid.

Finally, after going through the organizer's adjustments, the newcomer award would be awarded to the other nominee—Jing Xi.

On the stage, Shen Mengyuan could not believe what had happened. She had been chosen as the winner of the newcomer award and the trophy was just before her eyes. But in the next second, everything was taken away from her. She was being replaced by Jing Xi.

This scene was exactly the same as the time when her championship in Legendary Star Chef was taken away.

Chapter 1073: Unexpected Ending

Shen Mengyuan lost her mind, and instead of blaming herself, she put the blame all on Jing Xi.

She was sure that Jing Xi was the one who was responsible for the photos, trying to snatch the award from her hands again.

When Jing Xi was invited to the stage once again, Shen Mengyuan scolded her on her way back down.

“You cunning bitch! This is all on you! I'll never forgive you!”

Her voice was small enough for only Jing Xi to hear, but Jing Xi only looked at Shen Mengyuan coldly without turning her head, as if she was looking at a clown.

Shen Mengyuan was forced off the stage as her hatred towards Jing Xi had reached its limit.

After being humiliated in front of everyone, Shen Mengyuan vowed to take her revenge the same way.

The award ceremony continued after the small incident.

After the Newcomer Award came the most important awards of the night, the Best Actor and Actress Awards.

The special part about the last two awards was that the nominees were announced just before the awards.

A lot of actors and actresses were nominated, but after votes and scores were gathered, the winners were announced on the on-stage screen.

The Best Actor Award goes to Ma Haodong in Root of Evil!

The Best Actress Award goes to Jing Xi in Root of Evil and Landscape!

As soon as the results were announced, the crowd ruptured into excitement as Xu Xiyao could not believe her eyes.

She won the Best Actress Award the same day as she won the Newcomer Award.

It was an unexpected ending.

But there was another ending that was more surprising, as Ma Haodong used the chance to announce an important decision.

He told the whole world through the screen that he was going to retire from acting from that day onwards.

The announcement shocked the whole crowd as they discussed Ma Haodong's decision to retire when he was in his prime.

But it wasn't a spur of the moment decision but something he had thought through thoroughly.

He decided to quit acting and take on his role as his father's Ma Group's CEO.

He used to hate doing business the most, but he had long since changed his opinion. He decided to become a successful businessman so that he could give the people he cared about a good life.

The reason for his huge change was due to Xiao Yuqian and her son that she had kept quiet about for five years.

Everything he would be doing from that day onwards would be for Xiao Yuqian and Yuanbao.

Xiao Yuqian was watching the awards on her television with her son. When Ma Haodong announced his retirement, she was shocked the most.

Ma Haodong had once told her that he was willing to give up everything for her.

And Xiao Yuqian replied to him by asking him if he was willing to give up all the fame he had earned as an actor or not.

Ma Haodong did not reply to her question that day but chose to answer it by taking actual action instead. There was no way Xiao Yuqian would not be touched by that.

Ma Haodong accepted his award, and it was Xu Xiyan's turn.

After a simple hug between the two winners, Xu Xiyan was handed her award, and the host asked her about her feeling at that moment.

“I have to thank everyone for your support. If not for all of you, I would never be standing here right now.”

Chapter 1074: She Had Created A Miracle

When asked why she had chosen to take the path of an actor, tears flowed from Jing Xi's eyes before she could speak.

The host handed a paper napkin to her. Xu Xiyan wiped her tears with it, then said these touching words:

“The main reason I've chosen the entertainment industry was because of my mother.”

“Thirty years ago, she was also nominated for the Golden Goose Best Actress Award, but a scandal about her broke out the night before the awards ceremony. In the end, she was not destined to receive the award, as she died in grief.”

“Today, I'm wearing the dress my mother had wanted to wear for the awards ceremony more than ten years ago. I stand here now to represent her and to complete her legacy.”

“I've worked hard as an actor so I can stand here today to ask for justice for my mother: my mother's death in the past was not suicide—she was murdered.”

“Though the murderer is not known, I believe that one day he or she will be brought to light.”

When Xu Xiyan's powerful speech ended, the entire awards ceremony fell into deep thought and the hall was deathly silent.

Everyone was thinking about her words, Jing Ruyue's past, and the mystery she had left behind.

They all looked at the regal and noble woman in a black dress on the stage and felt as though they saw Jing Ruyue from the past. Everyone was shocked.

It turned out that Jing Xi had been bearing the burden of humiliation for her mother.

The awarding session ended. Next would be the selection and awarding of the best supporting actor and actress, and also the best production crew.

Xu Xiyuan returned to her seat. Her mood was very somber. She glanced sideways at the shadow that fell onto the empty seat next to her but she did not turn her head. She continued to sink into her own emotions.

It was not until someone held her hand quietly, only then did she turn around in shock.

When she saw the other person's face clearly, the tears she had struggled to hold back broke out once again.

The man reached out to pull her into his arms, then took out a handkerchief and wiped her tears, whispering in her ear, "I'm sorry, dear."

As the word "sorry" escaped from his lips, her heart felt even sorer. She was so upset that she felt like shedding tears.

She thought that the man would not care about her anymore, but she did not expect that he would actually come. Xu Xiyuan felt deeply touched and her tears began to flow down in greater amounts.

After Huo Yunshen lowered his head and gently comforted her for a while, her tears finally stopped, her mood calming down.

All this while the couple was leaning in close to each other, whispering to one another. In the eyes of an outsider, they would think that Mr. Huo was comforting his wife who had won the award and was so moved to tears, but no one knew what they had really gone through.

As the awards ceremony was coming to an end, the organizers announced the final award—the Most Popular Artist award.

The winner was still Jing Xi.

The whole audience screamed and cheered, congratulating the big-winner actress tonight, who alone had won the Newcomer Award, Best Actress Award, and the Most Popular Artist award.

She had created a miracle.

She had ascended the throne as a movie queen at such a young age.

She had become the first actress to win multiple awards at the Golden Goose Film Festival.

Xu Xiyuan had no choice but to go on to the stage for the third time to receive the award. She gave a thank-you speech: "Actually, the person I want to thank the most is my husband. Without his support and encouragement, I would not be getting this award today. I thank him for staying by my side always, and I thank him for believing in me. You could say that without him, there would be no me. So, I love my husband.”

Xu Xiyan's moving confession made the audience scream in excitement.

The awarding was over. Xu Xiyan was about to step down from the stage from the side but no one thought that an emotional fan would rush up to her. He yelled “Jing Xi, I like you” madly, but pushed her hard as though he had gone crazy.

Chapter 1075: An Unexpected Incident

Xu Xiyan could not control her balance well due to the heels she was wearing and fell from the big stage.

It was so sudden that no one could react to it, even Huo Yunshen.

When Huo Yunshen rushed to her side, Xu Xiyan was already unconscious.

“Jing Xi! Jing Xi!”

No matter how much Huo Yunshen shouted her name, Xu Xiyan did not wake up. He thought of lifting her up and getting her to a hospital right away, but Ma Haodong and Huang Guoqiang stopped him just in time.

The height that Xu Xiyan fell from might've caused damage to her brain and spine, and unexpected consequences could follow if Huo Yunshen moved her body suddenly.

Huo Yunshen was not willing to take the risk and could only wait for the ambulance to arrive while holding his wife's hand.

The whole hall was thrown into chaos where guards and police were needed to control the situation. The fan that had pushed Xu Xiyan had already been apprehended by one of the police officers.

The ambulance arrived not long after and got Xu Xiyan to the hospital.

Shen Mengyuan was waiting outside the hall. When she saw the video of Xu Xiyan falling from the stage and being carried away by an E.R. team, a huge smile appeared on her face.

Let's see if you can come back from that, even if you survive the fall! Shen Mengyuan scolded.

The ambulance took Xu Xiyan to the nearest hospital for treatment.

The report showed that Xu Xiyan was suffering from intracranial hemorrhage and needed to be operated on right away.

The situation was critical, and any delay could leave a really bad after effect on her.

Huo Yunshen signed the consent that was requested by the doctor with his shaky hand.

“Doctor, please!” Huo Yunshen begged. “You have to save her! I can give you anything you want!”

Huo Yunshen was willing to give anything as long as the doctors could do their jobs correctly.

After seven long hours of surgery, Xu Xiyan was pushed out from the operating theater and into the ICU room.

The doctor told Huo Yunshen that Xu Xiyan would be fine as long as she could survive the next 24 hours.

The only thing that Huo Yunshen could do at that moment was to wait patiently for her to wake up.

The news about Jing Xi falling from the stage after being crowned as the Best Actress had already spread throughout the country.

The news even mentioned that she was still lying unconscious in the hospital.

The person who had pushed her was found out to have previous cases of mental illness and would possibly be deemed criminally incapacitated by the court.

Shen Mengyuan learned from the news that Jing Xi was still unconscious, and she laughed. "Yes! She better lie on that bed forever!"

Shen Mengyuan did not pay much attention to what had happened to her at the ceremony since a lot of actresses did the same thing that she did.

As long as she had her representing label to protect her, nothing much would happen to her.

Reporters had gathered outside the company, all there for the press release. Shen Mengyuan scanned the crowd and was pleased with the number of reporters there.

Chapter 1076: A Wife Beating Up A Homewrecker

She got down from the car with her assistant. With sunglasses over her eyes, she waved elegantly to all the reporters.

Under the spotlight, she constantly struck various poses, trying to make herself look perfect and impeccable before the cameras.

However, as she was posing, a woman suddenly rushed out from the crowd.

The woman was very fast. She ran forward and grabbed onto Shen Mengyuan's clothes, cursing her loudly, "You stinking, shameless homewrecker! You've seduced someone else's husband..."

The situation happened too suddenly. As Shen Mengyuan was wearing 10 cm high heels and due to her unsteady footing, she was immediately knocked over to the ground by the woman.

The woman started to beat her madly, strangle her, tear her clothes, her mouth cursing ceaselessly that she was a man-stealer who had wrecked someone else's family.

The reporters did not expect that such an interesting scene would suddenly occur. They all aimed their cameras at them and began to snap away madly.

Shen Mengyuan did not wear much in the first place. Her dress and her jacket were quickly torn into rags by the woman and she was becoming barely dressed in front of everyone.

This was not finished. Like a mad person, the woman even tore Shen Mengyuan's small clothes off her body.

Shen Mengyuan was exposed to the air without anything covering her body. If she wanted to cover her body, she would be beaten. If she wanted to protect herself from the beatings, she would expose her body.

At this point she had no more energy to fight back; she could only curl up on the ground and take the beatings.

The woman pulled her hair, scratched at her fair-skinned body, punched and kicked at her. Yet no one came forward to help.

Someone had already recognized the identity of the woman. That person knew that she was the wife of Yan Nan; she had probably seen the news and in her rage had come to settle the score with the demon fox woman who had seduced her husband.

What a drama of a wife beating up a homewrecker!

What a great show!

No one had actually come forward to break up the fight. They even felt that a homewrecker like Shen Mengyuan deserved to be beaten up.

Lying on the ground, Shen Mengyuan's hair was ripped off in great amounts and her body was covered by footprints and scratches. She climbed up from the ground and began to cry loudly.

Finally, it was Lu Jun from her company's public relations department who appeared and put a coat over her in time, rescuing her and taking her into the car to leave.

Because of this incident, the press conference was canceled.

Lu Jun brought Shen Mengyuan back to his place of residence. Shen Mengyuan sat on the edge of the bed, crying as she said, "I want to report the crazy woman to the police and let them arrest her. This is too much!"

Seeing Shen Mengyuan in her miserable state, Lu Jun poured a glass of water for her, sat next to her and advised her, "Mengyuan, I don't think you should call the police. Look at it morally—you're the homewrecker. The police will not help you."

"So I could only be beaten up for no reason and I can do nothing about it?"

Shen Mengyuan felt angry as she thought about it. She was clearly a star, and yet she had to suffer such abuse.

"For the time being, you should stay here in peace. You can think about your next plan after the matter has died down."

As Lu Jun looked at Shen Mengyuan, a look of fervor appeared in his eyes.

“Thank you, Lu Jun. I didn't think that it would be you who would help me in the end!”

In the past, Lu Jun had fancied Shen Mengyuan. But Shen Mengyuan was a proud woman; she would look down at an ordinary company employee and a loser like him.

But now, Lu Jun had lent her a hand in her most difficult time and had successfully brought her back to his residence.

He had seen her completely naked just now. At this moment, he could not control his desire.

His big hand slid over her inner thigh. His breathing became more and more heavy. “Mengyuan, do you know that I've always liked you?”

“Lu Jun, you—”

Shen Mengyuan found that she did not even have the strength to resist. She could not push him away.

Chapter 1077: Her Ending

“We both know that you've been used by a lot of men now, so you can drop the saint act,” Lu Jun said, showing his true side. “You're just a whore that everyone can use.”

It was then that Shen Mengyuan realized that being saved by Lu Jun might not be as good as she thought.

“How should I treat you? Maybe I should tie you up first,” Lu Jun said, exposing his inner sadist to Shen Mengyuan.

He loved to tie his women up and inflict pain on their bodies. He could find pleasure in doing so.

When Shen Mengyuan woke up from her nightmare, she realized that she was locked in a basement with a bed and a few other daily necessities. There was nothing else other than those; not even a piece of clothes could be found near her.

She peeked out the window on the top of the wall and realized it just led to another basement with naked women in it too.

Other than her, there were at least three other women that were trapped in the basement with her.

They were kept as pets by Lu Jun so that he could find pleasure whenever he wanted to.

Shen Mengyuan never saw sunlight after that day.

The people just thought that she ran away after being exposed for tearing a family apart.

Shen Mengyuan had never thought that her ending would be that she'd become a plaything for a man, living a life of being tortured ever since.

The Golden Goose Awards came to an end, and it was dubbed the most talked-about awards ever.

The news of Jing Xi winning the Best Actress Award even spread to other countries.

Helian Wei was at a hotel in Kstan when he learned about the news.

When he heard Jing Xi's name on the news, it immediately got his attention.

Ever since the fire at the Estan National Theater, he was busy and had no time to watch Landscape.

Now that the news was talking about Jing Xi, he put the work he was working on down and focused on the TV.

He could see the young lady standing on the stage in her black dress, just like a beautiful black swan.

His sight stopped at Jing Xi's collar where she wore a sungrass brooch, and it shocked Helian Wei.

The sungrass brooch was Dragon Kingdom's royalty emblem that only the king could wear. He even recalled the promise he had made to the Dragon Kingdom's previous king, Long Rui, that their children would marry each other when they came of age. The brooch was the item that tied the promise together.

But ever since the Dragon Kingdom had perished a few dozen years ago, the promise was cancelled.

After that, Helian Wei gave the brooch to his Little Moon as his token of affection.

He still remembered her words clearly.

“Feng, I will give this brooch to our child, and they will carry on our legacy...”

Little Moon did tell him that she would give the brooch to their child.

Helian shifted his focus back to Jing Xi and realized that from her attitude to her face, it was all the same as Little Moon.

Chapter 1078: A Shocking Discovery

He looked carefully at her eyes and facial features. He found that her eyes were quite similar to his and felt a familiar closeness to her.

Did his eyes deceive him?

Or was it because he had terribly missed Little Moon?

But the paternity test he had taken last time had long shown that Jing Xi was not the child of him and Little Moon.

He continued to watch the news. He heard Jing Xi say that she had stood on the stage of the film festival for her mother, and she also wanted to bring justice for her mother.

She said that her mother did not commit suicide but she was murdered.

This sentence brought a great shock to Helian Wei. His little moon had not taken her own life but was murdered?

Who had killed her mercilessly?

Helian Wei finally realized that all those years of separation from Little Moon and his deliberate avoidance of her had caused him to know nothing about what had happened to Little Moon.

What had he missed?

Helian Wei immediately asked Jin Xiu to find a copy of the film Landscape. He wanted to watch it now.

Jin Xiu discovered that the film that was banned in Estan was also difficult to look for in Kstan. In the end, he spent 100 million yuan on an international trading website for a copy of the film.

Unfortunately, it was not in English, but in Zstanese.

But this was not an obstacle. In the past, Helian Wei had specially studied Zstan's culture and language and read newspapers and books in Zstanese so he could communicate easily with Little Moon. This was not a problem for him.

This evening, Helian Wei watched the movie Landscape, which Jing Xi had starred in, on his computer in the hotel.

As he watched the film, it was just like his love between him and Little Moon was relived. Those bits and pieces of the past were vividly remembered, refreshing his memory.

He thought that for so many years, he had forgotten Jing Ruyue and the love they had shared before. But now, whenever he saw something related to Jing Ruyue, he still had a hard time restraining himself from thinking of her.

A cigarette burned between his fingertips. His heart was full of lingering memories and melancholy.

Their initial encounter and their love for each other in the movie was so sweet. But later, they were separated by ruthless reality. It was so painful.

He could feel the pain cutting into his skin, seeping into his very bones.

He also noticed Jing Ruyue's words at the end of the film:

"Besides leaving him, I have no other choice. These two children will be gifts that God has given me. I will give birth to them, and raise them well..."

In the film, Little Moon said that she had two children with him. Was this really true?

Why did she not tell him at that time?

If this was true, then were the two children still alive?

The unsolvable mysteries came to him one by one, getting bigger and bigger like a rolling snowball.

Who could tell him what had actually happened in the past?

He watched the film carefully again without missing a single word before finally understanding the cause and effect. The discovery shocked him: it was Mo Xie and Lady White Tea who had teamed up to separate him and Little Moon!

Although he didn't know who Lady White Tea was, he knew the name Mo Xie—he happened to be his former arch-rival!

Conspiracy!

This was all a conspiracy by his enemy!

Helian Wei finally knew what kind of grievances Little Moon had suffered in the past. It was the wicked who had deliberately dismantled them, not she who had betrayed their love.

He was too stupid. Why hadn't he seen it through that time?

Why had he foolishly accept when she proposed to break up?

This night, Helian Wei went to bed heartbroken and sleepless.

Only god knows how many cigarettes he had smoked, and how many times the film had been replayed.

He only knew that there was a hole in his heart now, and it could no longer be mended.

Little Moon, I'm sorry. I didn't protect you well...

In order to clarify the truth, Helian Wei decided to go to Zstan after settling state affairs in Kstan to look for Jing Xi to understand the situation.

Chapter 1079: Utter Panic

Xu Xiyan finally opened her eyes after sleeping for quite a long time.

The scene she saw was not familiar to her as she struggled to get up.

But as soon as she moved, she could feel an intense pain coming from her back, and it made her lie back down.

“Don't move, you have to stay still,” a voice said, but that voice did not belong to Huo Yunshen.

She turned her head, and to her surprise, the man was Mo Yutian.

“You?” Xu Xiyan asked with fear in her eyes. She tilted her head and noticed that she was wearing a night robe.

“What... What have you done with me?”

“Don't worry, I didn't do anything to you,” Mo Yutian quickly explained. “The maids were the ones who changed your clothes.”

Xu Xiyan felt a little relieved when she heard Mo Yutian's explanation. She did not feel any abnormality with her body, which meant he didn't do anything indecent to her.

“Where is this? Why am I here?” Xu Xiyan asked.

The last thing she could remember was being pushed down off the stage at the Golden Goose Awards.

She remembered the pain she felt from the waist as if she was being pricked by something, and everything was blank after that.

"This is my home, I brought you back here," Mo Yutian said, staring at Xu Xiyan as if he was admiring his masterpiece.

"You hired someone to do that to me, didn't you?"

Mo Yutian remained silent when asked this question, admitting it without saying anything.

"You're really ruthless!" Xu Xiyan scolded, completely disgusted by Mo Yutian's actions. "If Huo Yunshen learns about this, he'll never forgive you!"

"He won't find out. He's with Jing Xi now and has no idea that you're here."

"What do you mean?"

"It's simple, I have given him another Jing Xi while you will remain by my side forever."

Mo Yutian's smile was bright as the daylight, but under the smile was a ruthlessness that sent a chill down Xu Xiyan's spine.

"Did you find a person that looks like me?" Xu Xiyan guessed.

"You could say that."

Mo Yutian believed that there was no reason to explain the clone to Xu Xiyan.

Xu Xiyan suddenly recalled the photos of "her" having an intimate relationship with Mo Yutian.

She finally realized that those pictures weren't photoshopped, but were pictures of Mo Yutian having sex with the fake her.

Xu Xiyan fell into an utter panic when she thought of the fact that Huo Yunshen had mistaken the girl in the picture for her.

"You really are despicable!" Xu Xiyan scolded as her body trembled.

"I did tell you that I would obtain you by any means necessary. I was never a gentleman to begin with."

"My husband will definitely find out about the truth!"

Xu Xiyan tried to get down from the bed but fell as soon as she stood up. Seeing her fall, Mo Yutian quickly rushed over to help her.

Chapter 1080: Could He Recognize Her?

Xu Xiyan pushed him away hatefully. "Don't touch me! Mo Yutian, if you still have some humanity, send me back right now!"

"You sure? Who knows? Maybe when you go back now, you'll see your husband in bed with the counterfeit! Instead of going back and getting yourself hurt, why not stay here with me obediently."

Mo Yutian closed in towards her. Xu Xiyan backed away until her calf hit the side of the bed and she fell sitting down on it.

Right now, she must've been sedated by him because she had no strength to escape. She could only glare at him with hateful eyes. "You want me to be with you? In your dreams!"

"There is a saying in Zstan that goes 'love will come in time.' It is said that when two people have been together for a long time, they will grow feelings for each other even though they had none in the first place."

Mo Yutian did not continue to force her. Instead, he turned around and walked towards the door leisurely, then turned his head around. "You can rest assured that I will not force you. I will wait until the day when you become willing."

It could be said that Xu Xiyan was lucky.

She was the only woman in the world whom Mo Yutian was willing to be patient with.

It was because he wanted to win her heart that he did not use violence against her.

The man disappeared into the doorway. Xu Xiyan fell into despair.

She didn't know what would happen next, or how much patience the man had...?

Also, would Huo Yunshen be deceived by her substitute?

After the critical period had passed, "Xu Xiyan" was transferred to the intensive care unit and woke up in due course.

She opened her eyes. After her eyes adapted to the light, she could clearly see her surroundings, as well as the handsome man who had appeared in front of her.

"Dear... you finally woke up!"

Seeing that his wife had woken up, Huo Yunshen held her hand agitatedly.

"Xu Xiyan" retracted her hand in reflex and stared at him with slightly befuddled eyes.

No one knew that at this moment, she was the domesticated clone, Alice.

Huo Yunshen thought that it was because she had just woken up, or because of their quarrel that day that she was still angry with him.

"I'm sorry, dear. I was wrong. I'll not quarrel with you anymore in the future."

Huo Yunshen's heart was full of remorse. He vowed to treat Xu Xiyan well from now on and not simply flare his temper.

"You are... Huo Yunshen?"

Alice had identified the man and knew that the man was now her "husband."

"I am. Take a good look at me."

Huo Yunshen couldn't describe how distraught he was for her. The doctor said that she had symptoms of a concussion, so there would definitely be an impact on her cognition after her recovery.

Her reaction was a bit sluggish, but fortunately, she could still recognize him.

Alice didn't continue to talk. She seemed to be at a loss on what to do as she lay in bed. Her master had ordered her to pretend to be Jing Xi. What exactly should she do?

At this moment, the door of the ward was open, and Ye Xun came into the ward with Ying Bao.

“Mommy~~!”

A tender and childish voice came to her ears. Alice turned to see a beautiful, cute little baby running towards her.

Ying Bao had heard that her mother was hospitalized, and had waited anxiously for a few days before she could finally see her mother.

Now, seeing her mother lying on the bed, the little girl hurried over and immediately took hold of her mother's hand and began to ask questions. “Mommy, are you feeling better? Does it still hurt?”

Although Alice knew that Huo Yunshen and Jing Xi had a daughter, she could not show her motherly love towards the child, as she had never given birth to children before.

She was just a clone and she didn't understand enough of the feelings a normal person has.

So when the little girl tugged on her hand, she just gave a perfunctory answer: “Mommy is much better.”
