

Priceless Baby 1081

Chapter 1081: Hints

Ying Bao looked closely at her mother and did not see anything different from her usual mother, but Xu Xiyan's hands felt different to her.

The calluses that Xu Xiyan got from playing violins weren't on her right hand anymore.

Ying Bao was the first one to notice something was off. She climbed onto the bed, trying to hug and kiss her mother.

But Alice wasn't as kind as Xu Xiyan was to kids. After the little girl kissed Alice on her cheek, she turned her head away and even frowned a little.

"Mummy, why aren't you kissing me back?" Ying Bao asked, hurt by the little changes in her mother.

"I'm sorry, baby, but my head hurts a little," Alice tried to explain, as she had no idea how Xu Xiyan usually treated her daughter.

"Ying Bao, let your mummy rest a little," Huo Yunshen said, thinking that his "wife" was really experiencing a headache. "Why don't you go and play with Uncle Treeleaf?"

The woman in front of him was so perfect a copy of Xu Xiyan that Huo Yunshen couldn't even realize the difference.

After the kid had left, Huo Yunshen told his wife to lie down and get some rest. Alice listened and closed her eyes to rest.

Even though the act was successful, using it every day would be impossible.

Friends and family came to visit almost every day when they were at the hospital. Whenever Alice met with someone that she couldn't recognize, she would fake having a headache.

Huo Yunshen finally realized something was off with his wife but couldn't tell what went wrong.

After Alice had gotten a little better, Huo Yunshen transferred her to Professor Qin's care.

When Qin Kun first visited "Jing Xi" in her room, he never expected for her to not recognize him.

"Don't you know him?" Huo Yunshen asked.

Alice looked at Qin Kun and couldn't recall anything about him. Her master never told her anything about the doctor in front of her.

"My head hurts..." Alice faked having a headache once more.

"All right, here, lie down."

After Alice lay down, Huo Yunshen saw Qin Kun off.

When they were outside the room, Huo Yunshen asked, "Professor Qin, do you think people who are suffering from brain injuries will have symptoms like Jing Xi's? I realized that she could only recognize me and no one else. What is going on here?"

"In most cases, the patient will experience temporary amnesia or selective amnesia," Qin Kun explained. "In Jing Xi's case, I'm guessing it's the latter one. We'll have to do a scan on her brain before we can be sure of it."

"All right."

But after the scan was done, Qin Kun found something quite shocking and quickly called Huo Yunshen into his office.

"What's wrong?" Huo Yunshen asked.

"I checked her medical history in the other hospital," Qin Kun explained, going straight to the point. "They said that she was suffering from intracranial hemorrhage and that they did an operation on her, am I right?"

Chapter 1082: Something Is Amiss

"Yes, that's right."

"That's why I suspect that her loss of ability to recognize is related to the operation, a lingering side effect from the surgery. What do you think?" Qin Kun said.

"Yeah. The doctor also said the same at that time. He said that her cognitive ability would be affected after waking up," Huo Yunshen explained. As long as he recalled the situation at that time when he was needed to sign his name on the risk consent form, he would still feel a lingering fear.

Qin Kun nodded in acknowledgment, then explained what he had discovered: "But you see, Yun Shen, this is the problem."

"What problem?"

Huo Yunshen felt his heart sink. He was beginning to have a bad feeling about this.

"The CT scan report shows that Jing Xi only has an extracranial injury, and she has not had an intracranial removal of blood stasis. So are you sure she has had an intracranial operation?"

Qin Kun held the CT scan film at Huo Yunshen. Huo Yunshen could not understand the film, but Qin Kun's words came like thunder to him, booming and ringing in his heart.

Jing Xi had not had surgery?

Then why was her head wrapped in gauze, and why was she always complaining of a headache?

In the end, Huo Yunshen asked puzzlingly, "What is going on?"

"According to my many years of medical experience, there is no need to perform surgery to clear the blood stasis if it was only a mild extracranial injury. Furthermore, it will not cause memory loss to the patient."

Huo Yunshen fell into a long silence. He was thinking carefully and was trying to piece together what had happened before. The more he thought about it, the more he felt suspicious about the whole thing.

When he recalled the time when Mo Yutian had used the bone marrow transplant operation for Tang Shixue's son to attempt a craniotomy for Jing Xi, he felt goosebumps rising on his skin. Could it be that he had fallen into Mo Yutian's trap again?

What went wrong?

If Mo Yutian had the ability to change a person's memory...but Jing Xi was still here!

With all kinds of questions in his mind, Huo Yunshen left Qin Kun's office. Outside the ward, he happened to meet Ye Xun who was coming out of the ward with Ying Bao.

There was a scowl on the little girl's face, and she looked unhappy. Her pouting little mouth was puckered so far out that you could hang an oil pot on it.

“Cherry!” Huo Yunshen called out to his daughter. Ying Bao saw that her father was back and immediately threw herself into his arms.

“What's wrong? Why are you not happy?” Huo Yunshen asked his daughter.

Ying Bao hugged her father tightly, looking so upset as though she was going to cry in the next moment.

Huo Yunshen told Ye Xun, “Please help keep watch here. I'm going to take Ying Bao out to play.”

Ye Xun stayed back to guard the ward. Huo Yunshen took his daughter outside and bought her cotton candy, then sat with her on a bench in the hospital corridor and asked, “Tell Daddy, why are you in a bad mood?”

Ying Bao looked at her cotton candy before turning to ask him, “Daddy, has Mommy gone stupid? Why doesn't she remember what she had promised Baby?”

“What did you two promise?”

“Mommy said that when spring is here, she will buy a shiny magic wand that goes bling-bling. But when Baby asked her just now, she didn't remember it at all. Why is my mommy different from before?” the little girl said in a huff. Then she asked her father hopelessly, “Daddy, do you think that Mommy doesn't like Baby anymore?”

“Of course not! Mommy is ill, otherwise she would definitely remember. If you want a magic wand, Daddy will buy it for you later.”

Huo Yunshen had long been shocked and there was a storm roiling in his heart now, but he was calm outside as he tried to ask his child, “Baby, think about it again. What else is different about Mommy?”

The little girl thought about it for a while, then replied, “Mommy's hands feel different. Also, Mommy will not kiss Baby anymore. She seems to hate Baby very much.”

Chapter 1083: Resisting Him

“...” Huo Yunshen was shocked by his daughter's words. What the little girl had said was like a wake-up call for Huo Yunshen.

He was not the only person who had realized the changes in his wife.

But the problem was that he lacked the proof on where the difference was.

Huo Yunshen stayed and talked to Ying Bao before taking her back to play with Ye Xun and Tang Feimo.

He went back to the room and checked up on his wife.

The girl was lying quietly on the bed. She was pretty even when she was sleeping. Just from her appearance, there was no doubt that she was Jing Xi.

Huo Yunshen took her hand and realized there was something different about it.

The calluses that Xu Xiyan got from playing the violin weren't there anymore. They were the same hands but somewhat different from Huo Yunshen's memory.

The hands that Huo Yunshen was touching were silkier than he could remember, but it was something that could be done from good skincare.

Huo Yunshen still had another method up his sleeves.

He slowly lifted the cloth on her waist, if she really was Jing Xi, then the “Ni Yun” tattoo would be on her waist.

After lifting the cloth, Huo Yunshen did find the tattoo there, and Huo Yunshen was more confused than before.

He lifted her shirt even further up, recalling that Xu Xiyan had a surgery done near her breastbone.

But no matter how hard Huo Yunshen looked, he couldn't find the scar that was left from the surgery.

Just as he was suspecting something, the girl suddenly woke up and pulled herself away from Huo Yunshen.

“What are you doing? Don't touch me!” Alice shouted, unintentionally exposing her true feelings.

She did not like Huo Yunshen touching her.

Even though she was a clone, she still possessed feelings, and her feelings were directed towards Mo Yutian who she had spent most of her time with.

“Isn't it normal for me to touch you? You're my wife,” Huo Yunshen joked.

Huo Yunshen closed in on her to try and test her.

Alice's body trembled when Huo Yunshen's face was close to her and she said, “Didn't you promise to not do that before I get out of the hospital? Did you forget?”

“Of course not, but I really want you.”

Huo Yunshen raised his hand and wiped away the hair that was covering Alice's face. It made Alice close her eyes tightly and turn her head away.

No matter how one looked at Alice right then, it was clear that she hated Huo Yunshen.

"Are you tired? Why don't you rest..." Huo Yunshen said, pulling his hand back.

"Yes, I need to rest more," Alice said, lying back down and pulling the sheet over her.

"Have a good rest," Huo Yunshen said, the smile on his face disappearing.

Without saying anything further, Huo Yunshen turned and left.

The usual Jing Xi would talk a lot about what was on her mind with Huo Yunshen when she woke up, but the girl that Huo Yunshen had just talked with did not.

Every time he tried to bring something up, she would just avoid the topic.

The link that tied them together was not there anymore.

Huo Yunshen went to look for Qin Kun, giving him a sample of "Jing Xi's" blood and Ying Bao's hair and asking him to identify if the girl in the room was really his wife.

Priceless Baby's Super Daddy 1084 Who Was She Exactly?

Three days later, the results of the maternity test came out.

In the office, Qin Kun showed Huo Yunshen the report. When he saw the report, he fell silent again.

The maternity test report told him that the woman in the ward and Ying Bao had a genetic match of more than 80%. This meant that it was completely proven that they shared a biological mother-daughter relationship.

The DNA test should be the most scientific proof. Huo Yunshen did not know what to say. "Professor Qin, their DNA is so similar. Where did it go wrong? I'm very sure right now that the woman in the ward is not my wife, Jing Xi."

Qin Kun also felt that there was something very fishy about this; it couldn't be explained logically. "Do you think that she is Jing Xi's twin sister?"

"No!" Huo Yunshen immediately denied. "As far as I know, Jing Xi has a twin brother but his whereabouts are still unknown. I'm certain that they are not twin sisters."

Qin Kun furrowed deeply. In his decades of experience in the medical field, he had encountered all kinds of strange cases before, but today's case had really baffled him.

He carefully studied the maternity test report again, checking the order of the gene sequencing from beginning to end. As though suddenly enlightened, he thought of something and slapped on his thighs hard. "I've thought of a possibility!"

"What possibility?"

"Do you know that on July 5th in 1996, the first cloned animal, Dolly the sheep, appeared in the world?"

"I know about it."

"The birth of cloned animals born from somatic cell nuclear transfer was a great breakthrough in embryology and developmental genetics, but it is limited to animal and plant experiments. So far, the world is banned from cloning humans. However, there is still no shortage of crazy scientists or extremists who would illegally develop clones for profit or for illegal purposes."

After saying this, Qin Kun retrieved relevant information he had collected before from his computer and let Huo Yunshen look at it. "You see, this is a case of a human clone who appeared many years ago. He looks no different from the original. There is also a very high degree of identicalness and similarity in his gene sequencing and therefore it could be passed as the genuine one. So, I'm suspicious of the Jing Xi we have with us right now. Is she a clone?"

If this was the case, then this was really terrifying!

After listening to these words, Huo Yunshen felt his blood freezing all over and a chill took over his body.

If Qin Kun's inference was true, then where did the real Jing Xi go?

Who had switched his wife away?

Don't tell him that this was Mo Yutian's conspiracy again?

Both of them fell into deep thought. In a moment, Qin Kun said again, "There is still another way to identify whether she is Jing Xi!"

"What way? Please tell me!" Huo Yunshen said anxiously. No one could understand what he was feeling right now. He wanted to find out very badly who exactly the woman in the ward was.

"You have to know that your daughter is the best evidence, and Jing Xi has given birth to a child for you. In fact, whether a woman has given birth before or not can be identified with a gynecological examination." Qin Kun's words came like a revelation.

Enlightened, Huo Yunshen said, "What are you waiting for? Arrange an examination for her now!"

"Okay."

Half an hour later, the results of the gynecological examination came out. The specialist doctor in charge of the examination told Huo Yunshen, "Generally, the external opening of the cervix of a woman who had a vaginal delivery before is usually slit-like, but the external opening of Mrs. Huo's cervix is smooth and round, and her pelvis has no signs of widening. It is confirmed that she never had childbirth before. If it was a cesarean section, it would at least leave scars on her abdomen, but Mrs. Huo has none."

...

Chapter 1085: Fear

Huo Yunshen finally confirmed that the girl lying in the room was not Jing Xi and was a clone instead.

Even though he was furious, he knew that the first thing he had to do was to locate his wife.

He went back to the room, and the girl was already awake.

“Hubby, when can I leave the hospital?” Alice asked.

“Any time you want,” Huo Yunshen said, walking towards her without averting his stare from her.

He closed in on her and strangled her when she was not paying attention.

“What... what are you doing?”

Alice was caught off guard, as she felt as if her neck was being tightened by a pair of pliers.

“Who are you?” Huo Yunshen scolded. “Who sent you? Where's Jing Xi?”

“I.. I'm... Jing Xi...”

“Do you think you can still fool me?” Huo Yunshen said while taking a report from behind his back. “This is a report saying that you were never pregnant with a child. I'm giving you one more chance...where is Jing Xi?”

Huo Yunshen tightened his grip on Alice's neck as if he could snap it in half whenever he wanted to.

Alice kept struggling, trying to pull Huo Yunshen's hands away, but it was futile.

It wasn't until Alice was about to pass out that Huo Yunshen loosened his grip. After being freed from the man, Alice gasped for air.

“How does it feel? How does looking death in his face feel? Do you want to go through that again?” Huo Yunshen smiled coldly.

Alice had already learned how ruthless the man could be and shook her head.

“I'll talk...”

Huo Yunshen finally learned from Alice that she was a clone and what her name was.

Mo Yutian was the one who had trained her and switched her with Jing Xi when she was on her way to the hospital.

After learning that Xu Xiyan was in Mo Yutian's hands, Huo Yunshen was so furious that destroying the world would not be enough to calm him down.

He quickly ordered his men to lock Alice up and save Jing Xi from Mo Yutian at the Darkwater Manor.

Yet when they reached the manor, the door was wide open for them and there was no one inside.

They were a little too late, and Mo Yutian had already changed his base of operation.

Fear rose up in Huo Yunshen's heart when he imagined what Mo Yutian would do to Xu Xiyan.

He was worried that Mo Yutian would try to change her memory and make her forget him.

To stop Mo Yutian from leaving the country, Huo Yunshen had already contacted the government to check all flights coming in and out of Zstan.

Just as Huo Yunshen was pondering on what to do next, he got a call from the airport saying that Mo Yutian had already prepped his private jet and was ready to leave the country.

“To the airport, now!” Huo Yunshen ordered, not wasting any time after getting the lead.

Chapter 1086: Her Little Tricks

At this time, at Zstan Airport, Mo Yutian carried Xu Xiyan in his arms as he boarded his private plane.

After boarding the plane, he placed Xu Xiyan in a first-class seat and then sat down beside her.

If the large shawl wrapping around Xu Xiyan was removed, you could see that Xu Xiyan's hands and feet were tied.

To be precise, she had been carried aboard the plane by force.

She was very anxious right now. Mo Yutian was going to take her out of Zstan. Once she left, there would be a very small chance for her to return.

She didn't know when she could escape his evil grasp as far as her current situation was concerned.

She was also very worried about Huo Yunshen.

Mo Yutian had told her that the clone Alice had replaced her and she was now staying by Huo Yunshen's side. After such a long time, Huo Yunshen still had not come to save her. Did this mean that he did not see through Alice's identity?

As long as she thought that she was going to be separated from her husband in a foreign land from now on and that they would never be able to see each other again, Xu Xiyan felt extremely sad and terrified.

During these days of imprisonment, she had tried various methods to escape but she was unsuccessful.

Mo Yutian was too strict with his watch. She was completely unable to find a suitable opportunity to escape.

No!

She couldn't just sit still and do nothing!

She must find a way to escape!

Otherwise, the chances of coming back were very small if she was taken abroad by him.

Xu Xiyan rolled her crafty eyes around, then said, “I want to go to the bathroom.”

“You just went there two minutes ago.”

Mo Yutian knew her little tricks very well.

"I have a weak bladder and I have to urinate frequently. Can't I go? Even if I'm your prisoner, don't I have the right to go to the bathroom?" Xu Xiyang argued with reason.

Mo Yutian was amused by her. "Alright! I will accompany you!"

"Unbind me, I can go there myself!" Xu Xiyang requested.

"Do you think that I'm that stupid? If you want to go, I can carry you there!"

Mo Yutian had already gotten up and bent down to pick her up.

"Forget it, I don't want to go to the bathroom anymore."

Xu Xiyang hated his physical touch very much. If she could avoid him for a while, she would do so.

"Okay then, take a nap now. The plane is going to take off after this."

After urging her, Mo Yutian took out his black ultrathin laptop, turned it on, and began to type on the keyboard.

While he was typing, Xu Xiyang pretended to be obedient. Actually, she was constantly trying to wiggle her legs free from the ropes. She could feel the ropes loosening, about to unfasten.

As long as she kept wiggling her legs, she would definitely undo the ropes in no time.

Sure enough, and just as Xu Xiyang thought, the ropes around her legs were not secure enough. After wiggling her legs for a moment, she managed to unfasten the ropes.

It took even less effort to unfasten the ropes around her wrists. Very quickly, all of her limbs were freed.

She seized the opportunity to jump out from her seat, running straight to the cabin door.

The man behind her didn't even lift his head as if he did not see her escaping. But Xu Xiyang was quite unlucky. Just as she touched the cabin door, Mo Yutian's men blocked her way.

"Miss Jing Xi, please go back to your seat and sit down. Thank you."

"..."

Don't mention how frustrated Xu Xiyang was. She had a hard time unfastening the ropes just now, and there was no way she was going to give up such a good opportunity.

She reached out to catch one of the bodyguards but they defended. Very quickly, she and the bodyguards got into a fight, staging a battle scene at the small airport.

After successfully subduing several bodyguards, Xu Xiyang tried to escape through the open cabin door. But it was at this time that Mo Yutian, who had never taken action all this while, spoke up.

"Wait, Jing Xi. Are you sure you want to leave?"

Chapter 1087: Impossible

Xu Xiyan was breathing heavily from the fight and replied with certainty.

“Yes!”

“Are you sure you don't want to meet your mother before you leave?” Mo Yutian said, slowly raising his head.

He was calm and still, as if Xu Xiyan was his pet now, not worrying that she would try to escape.

“What do you mean?”

Xu Xiyan could not understand why Mo Yutian would bring her mother up.

“Don't you want to know if your mother is doing fine or not?”

What? Xu Xiyan was confused. Why does he sound like mum is still alive?

“Don't try and fool me! My mum died when I was six!”

“What if I told you she's not dead and is very much alive?” Mo Yutian dropped the bomb as he stared at Xu Xiyan.

“...” Mum's alive? Is he serious?

“I really applaud your method!” Xu Xiyan laughed. “Do you think you can fool me with a clone like how you tried to fool Huo Yunshen? Do you think I'm that stupid?”

Xu Xiyan could not bring herself to believe that a person who had been dead for more than 10 years was alive.

“I know you won't believe me, but that is the truth. I can only tell you that your mother did not die that night, the one you saw was just a clone. Your mother was stolen from you and is now hidden from the world.”

Xu Xiyan could not process the story fast enough. She was just told that the mother that she saw who passed away was just a clone, where cloning was being used ever since a dozen years ago. She could not believe that the people she was dealing would go so far as to abandon their humanity for the things they wanted.

She couldn't help but wonder where her mother was if she was still alive.

“Here, see for yourself,” Mo Yutian said, turning the screen to Xu Xiyan, showing the CCTV in the old castle.

The screen showed a woman lying on a crystal bed, her face so familiar to Xu Xiyan's. It was her mother.

Mum's really alive? Xu Xiyan asked herself as tears of joy, suspicion, and sadness rolled down her cheeks.

The tears blinded her sight as they dropped silently to the ground.

Xu Xiyan wiped the tears off her face and strolled towards the screen, staring at her mother.

“Where is she now?”

“I got this from Lady White Tea. You have to follow me if you want to meet your mother, or else...”

Mo Yutian was implying that he would take action if Xu Xiyan were to not follow him.

Xu Xiyan was shocked when she heard Mo Yutian mentioned Lady White Tea, suspecting that they were close to each other.

There were a lot of questions in Xu Xiyan's head. She wanted to learn who Lady White Tea truly was and where her mother was at.

Chapter 1088: Forcing Her To Divorce

If she wanted to see her mother, she had to go with him. It could really be said that he had put in a lot of effort and thought to his interlinking schemes.

He had long expected that this move would successfully “subdue” her. So when she was fleeing, he was not even flustered as though he had no intentions to stop her.

After thinking about it, Xu Xiyan could only agree with him. “Okay, I'll go with you. If I find out that you were just deceiving me in the end, I'll take my own life together with yours.”

“Don't worry, I've never lied to you. However, if you want to see your mother, you must agree to one condition.”

“What condition?”

“Announce to the public that you're divorcing Huo Yunshen.”

“And if I don't want to?”

Xu Xiyan was extremely angry. Her heart was trembling inside.

This was too much!

It was really too much!

It turned out that his purpose was still to break her and Huo Yunshen up?

“Still I have nothing to worry about. Anyway, the plane is about to take off, and it's not for you to decide whether it flies or not. At most, you won't be going to see your mother. There is no loss for me.”

Mo Yutian closed the lid of his laptop and leaned back in his seat, looking assured of himself.

Xu Xiyan was struggling violently inside. What should she do?

Divorcing Huo Yunshen was tantamount to cutting her heart and flesh out!

But if she did not divorce him, she would miss out on this opportunity. She was afraid that she would never find any clues related to her mother.

This meant that Mo Yutian would still not let her go whether she divorced or not. If she divorced, then she would have the opportunity to find her mother.

She thought about it. For the sake of the problem at present, divorcing was the only way.

She could pretend to agree to the divorce. After her mother was found, she would plan the next move.

It was just like the saying: Nothing ventured, nothing gained. Even if it wasn't for herself, she would still make sacrifices for her mother.

She could only do an injustice to Huo Yunshen for the time being. As long as she could come back safely, she would explain it all to him later!

She clenched and loosened her fists repeatedly as though in hesitation. Finally, she steeled herself and agreed to Mo Yutian with a pained heart. "Alright. I agree to your condition!"

Mo Yutian looked very pleased. He waved her over, "Come here! I want you to announce the divorce to the public now!"

"..."

In the end, Xu Xiyao used his computer, logged in to her Weibo account and posted a microblog titled "Let's divorce, Mr. Huo," stating her views on the divorce.

"Satisfied now?"

Tears swirled in her eyes. The pain in her heart was so extreme. She didn't know how much harm she would bring to Huo Yunshen after suddenly proposing a divorce.

After seeing the post, Mo Yutian was very satisfied. He immediately made a phone call and ordered the media to make a full report of this news.

At this time, Huo Yunshen had hurried to the airport with his men. After determining the location of Mo Yutian's private plane, they immediately surrounded the aircraft.

"Mo Yutian! Listen! You have been surrounded! Come out and surrender! Or else there will be consequences!" Huo Yunshen yelled through the loudspeaker.

Inside the plane cabin, Xu Xiyao suddenly heard Huo Yunshen's voice. She wanted to get up from her seat but Mo Yutian held her down, reminding her with his threatening eyes. If she did not obey, the consequences would be terrible.

"I give you three minutes to hand Jing Xi over!"

Huo Yunshen kept pressing onto the man inside the plane. Within three minutes, the cabin door opened, and the woman he had yearned for night and day finally appeared at the door.

"Jing Xi!"

Without thinking, Huo Yunshen threw down the megaphone, wanting to go towards her.

Chapter 1089: Tricked

“No, stay right there!” Xu Xiyan shouted, stopping Huo Yunshen in his tracks as he noticed the man hiding behind his wife.

Mo Yutian walked out from his hiding and stared at Huo Yunshen. Huo Yunshen could see from their looks that Xu Xiyan was being threatened by Mo Yutian.

“Let my wife go unless you want to go to war!” Huo Yunshen shouted, staring at Mo Yutian with anger in his eyes.

He was ready to kill.

But Mo Yutian was not even concerned with it as he whispered something into Xu Xiyan's ear.

After listening to what Mo Yutian had said, Xu Xiyan raised her head and shouted, “Huo Yunshen! Go back! I'm filing for a divorce, so don't come for me!”

“What?” Huo Yunshen could not believe what he had heard and asked to make sure.

“I said I'm filing for a divorce!”

“No! You're not! I know you're being forced by Mo Yutian! Don't be tricked by him!” Huo Yunshen shouted, and he turned to address Mo Yutian. “You better let her go! Or else I'm going to tear you apart!”

“Stop being so stubborn! This is my own decision!” Xu Xiyan shouted as tears filled her eyes. “The photos you saw were real! I've already fallen for him! Let me go! I don't want anything from the divorce, but please take care of the kid!”

Even when Huo Yunshen knew that Xu Xiyan was being forced to say those words, he was still hurt.

His wife was determined to leave him.

She had fallen for someone else.

And in just a few minutes, the social media was filled with news about their divorce.

A lot of people saw the news and were shocked by it.

Their new movie, Deep In the Shadows of the Stars, was still in theaters, but news of their divorce was already made public.

[Is it true? Jing Xi is leaving Huo Yunshen?]

[I think it is. She announced on her official page.]

[Please tell me this is a joke! I believed in love once again because of them, are they trying to ruin my life?]

[No! This must be fake! Jing Xi's love for Huo Yunshen is real! This must be a joke!]

A lot of people could not believe the news, but the person who could not believe it the most was the man involved in it.

"I'll count to three!" Huo Yunshen shouted. "Let her go, or I'll shoot!"

Mo Yutian knew how accurate Huo Yunshen was with a gun, but he was not fazed by it.

Mo Yutian pulled his and Jing Xi's jackets up, showing Huo Yunshen what he had planted underneath them.

"Then shoot me! If I cannot be Jing Xi's husband, then we'll die together! Come on! Let's see who's faster, your bullet, or me pushing the button!"

Chapter 1090: The Conspiracy Succeeded

Huo Yunshen was shocked once again.

Mo Yutian had actually tied explosives to himself and Jing Xi, and made preparations to take their lives together?

No wonder Jing Xi had decided to divorce. She was really forced helpless!

As he thought of this, Huo Yunshen's heart felt so painful that he couldn't breathe.

It was so painful!

He felt terrible and guilty for not protecting his wife well, and also at the same time extremely worried about Jing Xi's safety.

Huo Yunshen was helpless in the face of the stalemate at this time. Even if his shooting was fast, what would it achieve?

He couldn't gamble with Jing Xi's life!

In the end, after struggling in his heart, he said with great pain, "Fine! I agree to the divorce! Just don't hurt her!"

Xu Xiyan couldn't help bursting into tears when he heard him say this.

At this moment, she had already prepared to be separated from her husband. Once she left, she didn't know when she could see him again.

But Huo Yunshen, the one I love most, and most deeply in my life forever, will always be you!

Mo Yutian's conspiracy had succeeded, but he was still not satisfied yet. He continued to make more demands. "I want to see the divorce certificate. You have half an hour. I believe that Mr. Huo has the ability to settle this."

There was no other way. In order to protect his wife, he had no choice but to agree with Mo Yutian's unreasonable demands. "Fine. Just wait!"

Huo Yunshen made a phone call and began to give Yi Xiao orders to handle the matter.

Urgently and without daring to delay, Yi Xiao found a connection to settle the matter in the fastest speed possible and brought the document to the airport by helicopter.

Half an hour passed. Mo Yutian was becoming impatient. "Mr. Huo, where is your sincerity?"

Just as he finished his words, the helicopter landed at the airport. The hatch opened and Yi Xiao jumped down from the helicopter and madly rushed toward Huo Yunshen.

No matter how urgently the matter was settled, it still took 40 minutes. Huo Yunshen received the certificate and held it up to Mo Yutian so he could see it. "Look here! This is me and Jing Xi's divorce certificate! You have to promise not to hurt her!"

"That is certain!"

It could be confirmed that the divorce certificate was authentic. Someone arranged by Mo Yutian lurking in the Civil Affairs Bureau had confirmed the validity of the divorce certificate.

Mo Yutian's demands were fulfilled. He dragged Jing Xi back into the cabin of the plane and ordered the plane to take off.

Helplessly, Huo Yunshen watched the plane take off. A void filled his heart as Jing Xi was taken away.

But he only despaired for a moment. Huo Yunshen jumped into the helicopter immediately, ordering the pilot to take off and pursue Mo Yutian's plane at full speed.

Above, in the blue sky, a luxury private jet was followed by a helicopter, which maintained a fixed distance behind it.

The pilot discovered that there was another aircraft tailing their plane. He contacted Mo Yutian through the intercom, "Sir, there is a helicopter following behind us. Do you want to shoot it down?"

Mo Yutian knew that Huo Yunshen would definitely come after them, but he did not order his men to shoot down the helicopter. "Ignore it. Keep flying."

Before Jing Xi would fall in love with him, he would not easily kill Huo Yunshen because he did not want that guy to occupy Jing Xi's heart forever after he died.

Xu Xiyan faintly heard the pilot's voice coming out from the intercom. So Huo Yunshen was behind them chasing them. What was she going to do?

She was so worried that Mo Yutian would take on Huo Yunshen.

No, she had to find a way to escape!

The search for her mother could wait. But now, she couldn't let Huo Yunshen be in danger because of her.

At this time, the plane was already flying at a high altitude and Mo Yutian had relaxed his vigilance towards her. He was now focusing his attention on how to get rid of Huo Yunshen and did not mind her.

Xu Xiyan seized the opportunity and secretly tried to remove the explosives on her body.

She had learned how to disarm bombs and mines during her time in the JS1 squadron. This kind of explosive was not difficult for her to remove. All she needed was time.
