

Priceless Baby 1151

Chapter 1151: No Going Back

Jing Xi wore an elegant long dress with a tail over 10 meters long. She ambled towards the throne with her head slightly down.

It was clear that she was not happy about the wedding, but it gave her a feeling of nobility.

Huo Yunshen was finally able to see his wife. As she walked towards Mo Yutian in her wedding dress, he almost could not hold himself back from standing out to challenge the emperor.

If Helian Qingyu was not beside Huo Yunshen, he might've done so. No man in the world could watch blindly as their beloved one was being married to another man.

It was as if his heart was bleeding, and he was having trouble breathing.

Mo Yutian stared at Jing Xi on his throne, unable to hide his excitement when he saw her elegant appearance in the dress.

She's finally going to be my wife! Mo Yutian celebrated in his mind. How would Huo Yunshen react if he was here to see this!

He waited until Jing Xi stood in front of the throne, and the pope began to host the ceremony.

After the wedding was a crowning ceremony. Mo Yutian personally put the crystal crown on Xu Xiyan's head and bent down to try and kiss her.

Huo Yunshen's eyes were filled with blood when he saw that Mo Yutian was trying to kiss his wife, but other than cursing quietly, he could not do anything.

Xu Xiyan averted her head, and the kiss only landed next to her lips.

"Oh, my queen," Mo Yutian said as he grabbed Xu Xiyan by her shoulder. "There's no turning back for you. You better not anger me, you hear me?"

"I get it..."

"Very good."

Mo Yutian brought her up to the throne and sat her down next to him.

"From today onwards, Jing Xi will be our emperor's first queen!" the pope announced. "Let us congratulate them on their wedding and wish them a wonderful future! Long live the king and the queen!"

Everyone began to kneel in front of their ruler, except for one of Lan Ling'er's bodyguards, who remained standing and stared at the emperor.

Helian Qingyu was afraid that Mo Yutian would notice something was off and quickly pulled Huo Yunshen down.

Even though he despised it, he had to bear the humiliation to save his wife.

After the ceremony had ended, Mo Yutian brought Xu Xiyan to patrol the city for the people to meet their new queen.

“When will we have the chance to get close to Jing Xi?” Huo Yunshen asked after Mo Yutian and Xu Xiyan had left.

“I'll think of something when they are back from the patrol,” Lan Ling'er assured.

Since she had the power to go in and out of the palace without being inspected, it would be easy for her to sneak them in.

The patrol lasted for an hour before the emperor and his queen returned.

Xu Xiyan was sent back to her room to wait for the wedding dinner to come.

And that was the chance that Huo Yunshen was waiting for. Lan Ling'er brought all three of her guards and went to the queen's chamber.

But the chamber was heavily guarded, and anyone who wanted to meet the queen had to have the emperor's permission.

Chapter 1152: Holding Him Tight

“I'm Princess Lan. Can't I visit my own sister-in-law?”

Lan Ling-Er questioned the guards.

The guards had to reply frankly, “Our apologies, Your Highness. His Majesty ordered that no one can see the Queen privately, not even you, Princess Lan.”

“Not even me?”

Lan Ling-Er winked at the two behind her. Huo Yunshen and Helian Qingyu got her hint, took down the guards and dragged them away in no time.

Then they came into the Queen's chamber to witness such a scene.

The woman inside had already gotten rid of her wedding gown and was throwing a long rope made of tied strips of cloth out of the back window.

She checked on the height and made sure the rope was firm enough. Then she stepped carefully onto the sill and tried to flee from there.

Upon seeing this, Huo Yunshen darted to her without hesitation and got Jing Xi down from the sill.

She would definitely be smashed if she slipped from such a soaring castle.

Xu Xiyan was caught in the middle of fleeing. Her plan was ruined and she was taken back.

Once she stepped onto the floor, she hit hard on the man behind her and cried, "Let go of me! Let go..."

"Stop, Jing Xi..."

All of a sudden Xu Xiyan was chilled upon hearing the familiar voice.

The man let go of her when she stopped struggling. Xu Xiyan turned to look at the unfamiliar face behind her and wondered why she seemed to have heard Huo Yunshen's voice just now.

Was it an illusion?

Lan Ling-Er came to her with a faint smile and said, "So, sister-in-law, are you trying to run away from the window? Don't you know how high it is? I swear you will be smashed if you ever tried."

Xu Xiyan hated to see Lan Ling-Er. If it was not because of her, she would have been successfully on the run.

She had waited for so long until everyone was gathered in the main hall. The guards were the least intense at that moment. But Lan Ling-Er ruined it.

God knew how outrageous she was.

"What are you doing here?" she asked angrily.

"Definitely to help you, my sister-in-law. Aren't you trying to run away? I have an option for you!"

"You?"

Xu Xiyan stared at Lan Ling-Er doubtfully. She would never believe that she could be so kind to her. She should thank god as long as she did not try to do her harm.

"Don't you believe me?"

Lan Ling-Er looked at her assistant Qu Na, who was taking off the mask and revealing the identical face.

Xu Xiyan was shocked, "You... You are... Alice?"

"That's right, Jing Xi. I'm Alice," Alice replied.

Xu Xiyan knew that Huo Yunshen had kept Alice for a while. Since Alice was here now, it meant that Huo Yunshen must have come too.

Where was he?

"So is Huo Yunshen here too?"

Xu Xiyan looked at the two tall bodyguards beside her, and recalled the voice of the man who had caught her earlier on. It sounded so familiar...

"Jing Xi, it's me."

The bodyguard spoke again and looked at her with tears in his eyes.

It was indeed Huo Yunshen!

Was it a dream?

“Yunshen...”

Xu Xiyan could no longer control herself. She threw herself into his arms and held him tight.

She held him so tight, in fear of losing him in a blink, or that it was all an illusion.

“Jing Xi...”

The couple finally found each other and clung together. Xu Xiyan burst into tears after all she had suffered these past few days.

Chapter 1153: Executed

Huo Yunshen understood what Xu Xiyan had gone through and he could only hug her tightly to calm her down.

Lan Ling'er could not stand staring at them, acting all lovey-dovey, and said, “Hurry up! If my brother comes back, we'll all be in trouble.”

“Right!” Helian Qingyu said. “Let's go!”

“Hurry up and change your dress with Alice's,” Huo Yunshen said. “We have to get you out from here.”

“No,” Xu Xiyan said while shaking her head. “I can't leave yet.”

“Why?”

“Because my mother is here, in Lstan. I can't leave without her.”

Xu Xiyan had planned to escape from the window to get away from the wedding dinner. She never expected that Huo Yunshen would show up.

She was worried that if she left, she would miss the chance to save her mother.

Huo Yunshen was surprised when he learned that his mother in law was also in Lstan, but with the given situation, they had no chance of saving Jing Ruyue.

“We can come back for her, believe me,” Huo Yunshen said. “We can think of how to save her once we are safe. If we're both stuck here, then we will lose our chance to do so.”

“I think you should leave too. Even if you find your mother, we can't leave with another person on board,” Lan Ling'er added.

“All right, I'll leave...” Xu Xiyan nodded.

Xu Xiyan exchanged her clothes with Alice's, and no one could tell the difference.

“Wish you the best of luck,” Xu Xiyan said as she hugged Alice, putting all her hope on Alice.

“You too,” Alice replied with a hug too.

Both of them looked the same. Even though both of them loved two different men, they held the same dreams and hopes, wishing that their loved ones could live happy lives.

It was then when they heard footsteps coming from outside.

“All hail the emperor!” the guards shouted.

“Shit! Mo Yutian is here!” Xu Xiyan cursed.

If they were found by Mo Yutian, all of them would definitely be executed.

“Where are the guards here?” Mo Yutian scolded when he did not see the guards that had been stationed outside the queen's chamber.

“Sire!” the guards woke up when they heard Mo Yutian's roar.

“Who gave you permission to leave your spot? Kill them!” Mo Yutian scolded.

“Have mercy!” one of the guards pleaded. “The princess was the one who knocked us out! There's no way we would dare to leave our station!”

“Oh?” Mo Yutian raised his eyebrows and kicked the guard before entering the queen's chamber.

When he entered, he could see his queen sitting on her bed with her back to him while Lan Ling'er stood in front of her.

Chapter 1154: The Priceless Romantic Moments

Her bodyguards waited respectfully by the door. Mo Yutian took a glance and did not find them suspicious.

“Ling-Er! What are you doing here? And you even knocked out my guards?”

Lan Ling-Er sensed the anger in her brother's voice and explained, “Brother, I just wanted to see my new sister-in-law. But the guards refused to let me in. I had them knocked out because I was mad.”

“I stated clearly that no one could enter!”

Mo Yutian was irritated that his sister never listened to his orders.

Lan Ling-Er had always been spoiled by her brother. She got hold of Mo Yutian's arm and played cute. “Brother, now that I'm already here, are you going to take my head off? It's your wedding day! You should be extremely happy to marry such a beautiful wife like Jing Xi. I swear I will behave myself and never do it again. Please.”

Playing cute was always effective with men. Mo Yutian could do nothing to his sister and ordered, "I'll let you go today. But you have to promise you won't do it again. Now get out and leave us alone!"

"Got you. The romantic moments are priceless. I'll leave you with my beautiful sister-in-law. I'm heading back to Estan."

Lan Ling-Er patted her brother on the shoulder then left the palace with her bodyguard and assistant successfully.

Upon stepping out of the chamber they were relieved for not being caught.

Inside the chamber, Mo Yutian was left with his charming new wife in extreme happiness.

"Jing Xi, finally you are mine. You will live a peaceful life in Lstan with me from now on. We will have our own children and I will be your loving and gentle husband."

Upon saying these words, Mo Yutian lifted her chin, found that she was not even struggling, then placed a kiss upon her lips.

He was very satisfied with her reaction today. It could have saved him lots of trouble if she had been acting like this before.

"Jing Xi, I can wait no more."

Mo Yutian took her onto the bed and started to untie the bells on her wedding gown.

Alice knew she was merely Jing Xi's substitute. But she was still happy to regain the love of this man.

Instead of resisting, she let him do whatever he wanted and even responded to his caresses.

Sensing her response Mo Yutian released her and looked at her with joy, "You should have been welcoming me like this. Once you respond to me, I can make you much happier."

When reaching to her body he was even more surprised. "You see. You said you never loved me. But your body never lies. Jing Xi, believe me, you will definitely fall in love with me."

The man stopped talking and started his business.

He finally conquered the woman he had always dreamed of. Mo Yutian was so eager, and indulged himself in the romance until they both passed out.

At the harbor, Huo Yunshen took Jing Xi and Helian Qngyu to board the cruise with Lan Ling-Er.

They took the same route back. The sea patrol released them with no hassles.

Looking at the island fading behind them and the soaring castle on Ghost Island, Xu Xiyao could not stop worrying.

Her mother was still in that castle. Sooner or later they would find a way to get her out.

She hoped it would not take too long.

They came to the critical point and got pushed out by magnetism.

They returned to Estan and got ashore safe and sound. Huo Yunshen had finally gotten his wife back. He had so much to say to her and wanted to leave with her right away.

Chapter 1155: A Touching Kiss

“Come to my place tomorrow,” Helian Qingyu said. “I’ll prepare a feast for both of you.”

“Thank you. I’ll contact you later,” Huo Yunshen said and was about to leave.

He was really grateful to both Helian Wei and Helian Qinyu. There was no way he could have gotten Xu Xiyuan back without their help, and a huge thanks was needed.

“General, do you still remember our promise?” Lan Ling'er stopped Helian Qingyu who was about to leave.

Helian Qingyu did remember that he had promised to bring her to his parents if the rescue was successful.

It was all an act to get Lan Ling'er to help them. In truth, Helian Qingyu had no feelings towards her.

But they still needed to go back to Lstan to rescue Jing Ruyue, and they needed Lan Ling'er's help for that.

“Of course!” Helian Qingyu said. “Have a little patience, I’ll talk to my parents, and we’ll choose a suitable date.”

“Why not tomorrow? You’re having a party there, right? Let me join you.”

Lan Ling'er was eager to meet Helian Qingyu's parents and confirm their relationship.

“Tomorrow is fine, I guess...”

As long as Alice remained in Lstan as Xu Xiyuan, Helian Qingyu knew that he had to act as if he liked Lan Ling'er.

“But I hope you can keep everything that happened today a secret,” Helian Qingyu reminded. “We don't need another person in the loop.”

Only a handful of them knew of the event that had happened that day, and most would definitely keep their mouths shut, except for Lan Ling'er.

“Don't you worry about that,” Lan Ling'er assured him. “I will be dead too if my brother finds out.”

“Good. I’ll send someone to pick you up tomorrow.”

After he sent Lan Ling'er back, she instantly announced to the media that she was in a relationship with Helian Qingyu.

Li Ruochu was sitting in the mansion, staring at the news as a bitter smile appeared on her face.

[The General's Secret Girlfriend!] was the headline of the day.

So, it was Lan Ling'er... The nation's goddess... Li Ruochu smiled wryly in her head. Then, what am I? A mistress?

Tears fogged up her eyes as she told herself that she should never have held any hopes to begin with.

She thought that if she was just expendable to him, then she should be the one leaving.

After she made her decision, she wiped her tears away and began to pack her stuff.

As soon as Huo Yunshen entered the Yunjing Manor, he picked Xu Xiyang up and put her softly on the couch.

Xu Xiyang took off her mask, and they stared at each other before they began to hug and kiss.

They had no idea whose tears began to fall first, but when they tasted the salty tears, the bitterness spread throughout their bodies.

If Huo Yunshen had been any later to arrive and save Xu Xiyang, they would've been separated forever.

Chapter 1156: Extremely Evil

After the kiss, Huo Yunshen found that his wife was already covered in tears. So was he.

He pressed his forehead on hers and sobbed, "I'm sorry, my dear, for what you have gone through."

"Honey..."

There was a lot Xu Xiyang wanted to tell him. But right then she could utter no words, and threw herself again into his arms, holding him as tightly as she could.

She knew it. As long as she would not give up on Huo Yunshen, he would never give up on her.

After quite a while Huo Yunshen asked, "Did he hurt you?"

"No. I never let him succeed."

She was still purely his, body and soul.

Xu Xiyang found herself fortunate that she had managed to remain chaste for him.

She did not dare to think about what would happen if Huo Yunshen had not come today, or if she had been caught by Mo Yutian while on the run.

That man had said he would never give her another chance.

"Sweetheart, it has been like hell since you were gone. Grandfather, father and mother, they were all..."

Huo Yunshen sobbed and pounded on his own head, again and again.

Every time he tried to talk about the tragedy he felt like a knife was twisting in his heart, or that he was being thrown into a sea of fire. He regretted and blamed himself profoundly.

Xu Xiyan had been knocked out when she was kidnapped. So she had no idea what had happened to the Huo family.

Seeing Huo Yunshen suffering from such profound sorrows, she realized and tried asking, "Honey, do you mean grandfather, father, and mother are all gone?"

"Yes..."

Huo Yunshen nodded in grief. When he raised his head she found his eyes filled with tears.

Xu Xiyan was grieved. She identified with Huo Yunshen upon the loss of his family.

She did not know how to comfort him, but could only hold him in her arms and stroke his back.

"I'm sorry, honey... It was all my fault. If it was not because of me, the Huo family would have never suffered from this..."

First Huo Sanyan was endangered in Hawaii. Then Huo Erqi was attacked. Now the three seniors were killed. It was all caused by the frenzied Mo Yutian.

That man did all this to Huo Yunshen and his family only to take her.

After all, she was the one to blame.

"It's not your fault. Not at all. Mo Yutian is after me. He is seeking revenge. He wants to take away my family one by one and leave me in misery."

Huo Yunshen knew clearly that it was the feud between him and Mo Yutian, namely the daggers drawn between the Dark Zone and JS.

If it was not because of Jing Xi, Mo Yutian might have launched his revenge attack long ago instead of waiting until today.

"Honey, it was Mo Yutian. He is extremely evil. As long as he is alive, the danger is everywhere."

"Right. Now I know where his headquarters are. We will plan it well and never give him a chance."

Huo Yunshen knew Lstan pretty well. Now the key was how to make a plan for his men to break into the Black Sea.

But right now, he wanted to put it aside and simply stay together with his wife.

They told each other about what had happened throughout those days. Xu Xiyan described in detail what she had found in Lstan.

Chapter 1157: Leaving Him

Huo Yunshen told Xu Xiyan the details of her rescue, and it shocked her.

“Even the President was in it? And the General too. He's risking so much just for me...” Xu Xiyan said in awe.

Xu Xiyan was worried that Lan Ling'er might have a reason to not leave Helian Qingyu's side after this, and Li Ruochu would be the victim.

“Yes, if not for them, I would've never gotten you out from Lstan,” Huo Yunshen said.

“We really have to thank them for their help.”

“We can do that when we visit them at the President's Mansion tomorrow.”

“But...” Xu Xiyan hesitated a little.

“I don't think I should show up in public as myself,” Xu Xiyan said, expressing her worries. “Now that Alice is pretending to be me, the Dark Zone would notify Mo Yutian if another Jing Xi surfaced outside of Lstan.”

“Then, what should we do?”

“Maybe I can pretend to be someone else for the time being?”

“Good idea.”

It was then Huo Yunshen heard a rumbling voice coming from Xu Xiyan's stomach and asked, “Are you hungry?”

“Not me, the babies are.”

Huo Yunshen let Xu Xiyan lie down as he went to the kitchen to prepare a meal for her.

Yet Xu Xiyan could not fall asleep as she was worried about her daughter, and about Li Ruochu's relationship with Helian Qingyu.

Li Ruochu had already packed her stuff and was about to leave. She turned around and looked at the now-empty mansion as her heart was filled with bitterness.

It was a place that belonged to a man that did not belong to her; leaving was the right choice, she thought.

With her mind set in place, she stepped out of the mansion.

But her timing was off, as the moment she exited the mansion, Helian Qingyu parked his car in front of her. He noticed the luggage that Li Ruochu was carrying, and he frowned.

“Where are you going?” Helian Qingyu asked, stopping Li Ruochu in her route.

“Away from here,” Li Ruochu replied without looking at Helian Qingyu.

“What's gotten into you? Are you crazy or what?” Helian Qingyu scolded, unable to believe that Li Ruochu was leaving him when he'd finally found the time to visit her.

“Yes, I'm crazy, so please let me go. Let me leave,” Li Ruochu said without showing any expression on her face.

“Do you think I'll let you go that easily? Did you forget what kind of relationship we are in?”

“No, I did not forget. I'll pay you back all the 80 million I owe you one day,” Li Ruochu said, not forgetting that he'd bought her for 80 million, and only money still stood between them.

She was not going to be his mistress that he could not show to the world.

Chapter 1158: He Was Rude And Violent

How could they be even!? How could she be so heartless!?

Helian Qingyu was enraged. He lifted her chin and stared right into her eyes. “Why? Why are you so desperate to leave? Are you in love with someone else?”

In order to leave him, Li Ruochu lied without hesitation, “That's right. Can you let go of me now?”

“Let go? I've told you that you belong to me in life or death. If you dare to cheat on me, I'll kill you!”

Helian Qingyu pushed her back until Li Ruochu hit the wall. It was painful.

The man pressed on her and roared, “Say it. Who is he?”

How could there be anyone?

Li Ruochu felt that her chin was almost smashed. But she still stared back at him without surrendering. “Who do you think you are? Did I ever ask about your affairs? Now you already have Miss Lan. Why can't you just let me go? I'm a human being, not your pet!”

When did he ever have an affair?

His scandal with Lan Ling-Er was only created because he was helping Huo Yunshen.

The fewer that knew, the better. Therefore Helian Qingyu never gave an explanation.

Furthermore, he never explained anything to anyone.

Right now, Helian Qingyu did not realize that this woman was overreacting to his scandal with Lan Ling-Er.

He was blinded by anger and said to her with a cold voice, “You should know exactly what you are to me. You are my pet. You have to do whatever I tell you to. Should you ever dare to disobey, I'll have you pay for it.”

Hearing him saying that she was nothing but a pet, Li Ruochu found her heart broken and bleeding, and she was in great pain.

She had loved him for so many years, and was hoping that they could spend the rest of their lives together. But how could it turned out to be like this?

“How can I be freed?”

Her clear eyes were filled with tears. And she was trying hard not to let them fall.

Seeing her eyes filled with crystal tears and her being so helpless, Helian Qingyu found himself irritated but could not figure out why.

He wanted to keep her, but could not express it properly. Instead, he could only be rude and violent.

“When I get bored!”

He pressed her onto the wall, tore her dress... and punished her hard.

Right then at dusk, right there at the entrance of the house, the man had her.

Apparently he never treated her like a human being, not even with the least respect.

She was merely a pet to him, something that he could vent on whenever he wanted.

Li Ruochu felt desperate. She could only feel pain when being around him.

His rudeness and violence had destroyed every bit of her good memories with him.

She even became a bit resentful.

Throughout that night, Helian Qnigyu acted like a frightening beast that kept draining every bit of her.

He never let her go until she was drained.

Helian Qingyu sighed upon a glance at the woman on the bed. Now he was completely confused by his feelings for Li Ruochu.

Chapter 1159: A Very Kind Smile

Helian Qingyu knew that the thing between them was not love, but he still could not let her go.

He was confused. He had a lot of women in his life, but Li Ruochu was the only one who could make him lose all his composure all the time.

The President's Mansion was busy from early morning.

The servants began to prepare for a feast by order of the President.

Helian Wei also woke up early and showered after working out. He put on a new bespoke suit and appeared dashing in front of his servants.

The servants were shocked as they could clearly see the excitement and happiness hanging on the President's face, and they were wondering if he had met something happy in the past few days.

"Helian, who's the guest today?" Yun Xuerou asked.

"Some acquaintance, you might know them too," Helian Wei replied.

Only Helian Wei and Helian Qingyu knew that Huo Yunshen and Xu Xiyan were the guests for the feast. It was all done in secrecy, and no one other than them knew of the details because they knew that exposing Xu Xiyan's identity would be catastrophic.

As for the news that Jing Xi was, in fact, Helian Wei's daughter, he also kept it a secret from Yun Xuerou.

Helian Wei even canceled the council meeting for the day and waited in the White Tower until noon when his servant came in and reported that his guests had arrived.

"Hurry up and invite them in!" Helian Wei ordered as he put down the documents he was working on.

He went to the garden and waited until all four people were coming in.

Helian Wei could see that his son was walking with Huo Yunshen while Lan Ling'er walked slightly behind Helian Qingyu. On the other side, a short-haired man was walking behind Huo Yunshen.

Is that... Jing Xi? Helian Wei was shocked by Xu Xiyan's appearance. She really looks like a man!

Helian Qingyu raised his head and noticed that Helian Wei was waiting for them and said, "Let's go, my father is waiting for us."

Xu Xiyan raised her head too and saw the President standing at the door; he looked as if he was waiting for something to happen.

They arrived at the garden, and Huo Yunshen greeted the President.

After a few formalities, Helian Wei looked at Xu Xiyan and smiled at her.

Xu Xiyan could feel something special from the way Helian Wei smiled and looked at her. It was as if he was meeting a long lost friend.

His smile was a very kind one.

Xu Xiyan did not say anything because she was disguised as Jun Yan, Huo Yunshen's assistant. She could only bow at the President and had no right to raise her voice.

Helian Wei invited them into the mansion and guided them to the dining room.

"Thank you for the invitation," Huo Yunshen said as Xu Xiyan sat next to him.

"I admire Mr. Huo's achievements at such a young age, and since you're my son's best friend, you are free to visit us whenever you feel like it," Helian Wei smiled.

"Thank you very much."

Helian Wei intended that if Huo Yunshen were to visit him from time to time, he had more chance to meet with his daughter.

Chapter 1160: Nothing Strange

As for when he could claim their relationship, he did not dare to tell the truth abruptly to disrupt his daughter's life.

He was more worried that it would bring her into trouble. He did not want her to be called illegitimate. It would harm her fame instead of his.

If she was harmed because of him, what could he tell his Xiao Yueliang?

Helian Wei was about to ask Huo Yunshen about their further plans in Lstan, but found it inappropriate with Lan Ling-Er's presence.

When the banquet was about to start, a woman's voice was heard from outside.

"Are our distinguished guests here?"

Following the voice, people saw the elegant Yun Xuerou proceeding gracefully inside.

"Mother!" Helian Qingyu stood up and made a seat for his mother.

Yun Xuerou came to sit down by Helian Wei. She looked around at everyone and was surprised by the sight of Huo Yunshen. "Isn't this Mr. Huo?"

"Yes. Mrs. President," Huo Yunshen answered.

Yun Xuerou found Huo Yunshen but not Jing Xi, and asked deliberately, "Where is Mrs. Huo?"

Huo Yunshen pretended to be sad and answered, "She was occupied and could not join me here."

Ha...

What the hell? She was obviously in Lstan and already married to her nephew Long Xiao. Huo Yunshen was merely making awkward excuses.

Yun Xuerou found it so cheerful to know that the bitch was forever trapped in Lstan now.

But she had to pretend to feel bad about it. "What a pity. When Mrs. Huo is available in the future, Mr. Huo, please do bring her here again."

"Thank you, Mrs. President."

While Huo Yunshen thanked her, Yun Xuerou nodded and noticed another young man by his side. "Who is this..."

“My assistant Jun Yan.”

Huo Yunshen briefly explained while Xu Xiyan stood up and bowed, “Mrs. President.”

“Please be seated.”

Yun Xuerou found nothing strange and waved to let the assistant sit down.

Then she turned to Lan Ling-Er. “There you are Miss Lan.”

Lan Ling-Er was excited to see her future mother-in-law and stood up to bow. “Mrs. President.”

“Well, well, well, since everyone is here, let's start!”

Yun Xuerou ordered that the banquet be launched, as the hostess.

Delicate cuisines were served in a short while. Helian Wei called the guests to start, “We have prepared a humble dinner for our distinguished guests. Hope you will enjoy it.”

“It's so kind of you, Mr. President.”

The men started speaking in a bureaucratic tone. It was already weird enough to have Lan Ling-Er here, and now even worse with Yun Xuerou.

They talked about nothing important over the dinner, while Yun Xuerou and Lan Ling-Er were engaged in their heated conversation over the weather and fashion.

Yun Xuerou already assumed that Lan Ling-Er was her future daughter-in-law. Her assumption was further confirmed when she saw her coming back with her son, plus the scandals of the two lately.

She even proposed to schedule their wedding. “Helian, you see, Ling-Er and Qingyu are such a good match. I bet they are deeply in love. How about we plan for a wedding now?”

Upon hearing this, Lan Ling-Er secretly chuckled to herself. If Mrs. President would like to take charge, she was definitely marrying Helian Qingyu.
