

Priceless Baby 1211

Chapter 1211: Likeable

Ying Bao could not make out whether her father was happy or not, but she tried to be helpful.

"I think it's good to have another daddy," Ying Bao said. "He can take care of me so that you and mummy can have some rest."

"I see... Sure, if you want to," Huo Yunshen smiled as he rubbed his daughter's head.

Helian Qingyu sat quietly, waiting for Ying Bao to call him daddy,

Ying Bao turned to Helian Qingyu and said, "Third Dada!"

"What? Say that again," Helian Qingyu requested.

"Third Dada."

"No, no. It should be Third Daddy!"

"Yup, Third Dada."

"It's Daddy!"

"Dada."

"Daddy!"

"Yes?" Ying Bao replied with a smile.

"..."

Helian Qingyu finally realized that the little was just playing with him.

"You little... How dare you make fun of me!" Helian Qingyu laughed as he pinched Ying Bao's cheek.

Ying Bao laughed slowly as Helian Qingyu realized that the kid was very likable.

He couldn't help but imagine how his life would be if Li Ruochu were still by his side, and if they had a child.

It made him regret wanting her to get rid of the baby, which he thought was another man's.

After sending Ying Bao to the school, the two adults went to Estan's marine port.

"I had my men check on the systems on Lan Ling'er's ship, and we have a breakthrough," Helian Qingyu told Huo Yunshen as they boarded the ship.

Helian Qingyu asked the captain to steer the ship to the Dark Sea's border, and they parked it there, switching off the engine.

Without any power or wind, the ship remained unmoved on the water.

“We are completely in stasis now,” Helian Qingyu explained. “I’ll have them turn on the special system and let’s see what will happen.”

With the general’s order, the captain turned on the system, and their ship began to move towards the Dark Sea on its own. Both Helian Qingyu and Huo Yunshen knew which direction the ship was moving towards: it was the island country that resided in the Dark Sea.

After they had switched off the system, Helian Qingyu continued, “The system operates on the magnetic force around us. As long as we have this in our hands, we can easily go through Lstan’s barrier.”

“I have a plan,” Huo Yunshen said as he nodded. “I have to get into Lstan to save Jing Xi’s mother. Looks like you have to charm your way with Lan Ling’er again.”

“No problem!”

Helian Qingyu knew what Huo Yunshen was asking him to do. Huo Yunshen was hoping that he could persuade Lan Ling’er to bring them into Lstan again.

As soon as they left the port, Helian Qingyu went straight looking for Lan Ling’er.

Lan Ling’er was shooting a movie when she got news of the general’s arrival, and she was excited.

“General!” Lan Ling’er greeted as soon as she got into Helian Qingyu’s car. “What brings you here?”

“To check up on you.”

“Thank you, I’m doing well.” Lan Ling’er smiled.

“Come on, let’s have lunch together. What do you want to eat?”

Chapter 1212: It Was Not Easy To Muddle Through

“Whatever. As long as I’m with you, General, anything is good.”

“OK.”

Helian Qingyu took her to a fine dining restaurant.

With the help of the romantic ambiance, the delicate dishes, and a glass of wine, Helian Qingyu asked, “Ling-Er, if I want to visit Lstan again, would you help me?”

“What?... Cough...”

Lan Ling-Er was enjoying her wine when she was choked by his words. It was her brother’s wedding that helped them muddle through.

She was still afraid of being found out, even until now!

What if they went to Lstan again and got caught?

“General, are you going there to save Jing Xi's mother?” Lan Ling-Er asked, because she heard last time that Jing Xi's mother was in Lstan.

Helian Qingyu did not lie to her. “Indeed, we want to save Jing Xi's mother.”

“But... No, no. It's too risky.”

Lan Ling-Er kept shaking her head and seemed really worried.

She had already heard that Jing Xi's mother was kept in the castle on Ghost Island, supervised by her father.

No one could ever enter without his permission, not even her and her brother.

“Ling-Er...”

Helian Qingyu got hold of her hand suddenly and stared at her affectionately and with a look of concern. “You might not know that Jing Xi once saved my life. If it was not for her I would be dead. Therefore I have to pay her back. I want to save her mother in return. As long as you can help me, I will do whatever you want!”

“Seriously?” Lan Ling-Er was excited.

“Absolutely! I always keep my promises.”

“Then I need you to announce our engagement. Can you?” Lan Ling-Er tried to ask.

Helian Qingyu frowned and thought for a while, then raised his head and confirmed extremely seriously, “Yes, I can.”

“Once we are engaged, I can use this as an excuse to return to Lstan. Then you can come with me,” Lan Ling-Er explained.

“All right.”

Helian Qingyu agreed without hesitation.

Having settled the plan with Lan Ling-Er, Helian Qingyu went back to the presidential palace for his mother.

When entering the red chamber he dispelled the guards and went upstairs for his mother directly.

The red chamber was delicate and luxurious.

Yet it felt nothing like home.

Because his father and mother were never together. He never saw them stay together as long as he could remember.

Helian Qingyu stepped in quietly but did not find his mother. He went further into the room, lifted the gauze and saw his mother sitting by the bed and cutting some stuff.

Having no idea what she was doing, he did not disturb and went closer to her quietly.

He stood behind his mother and saw her taking out some pictures from an old case.

Once she took them out she started cutting them.

The pictures were cut into pieces and scattered on the floor.

“Mother, why are you cutting these pictures?”

Helian Qingyu picked up a bigger piece and saw a face on it.

He was shocked at the sight of the face. It seemed like Jing Xi. But upon a closer look, he figured that it must have been Jing Xi's mother.

Just as depicted in the movie, The Perfect Scenery, it was Jing Ruyue.

Yun Xuerou had been focusing on cutting the pictures with resentment and did not hear anyone coming in. It was too late when she saw her son picking up the piece of picture from the floor.

Chapter 1213: Asking For A Kiss

“Oh, these are all some old photos,” Yun Xuerou explained after recovering from her shock instantly.

“There's no use keeping them.”

Helian Qingyu noticed that a few of the photos were left in the box and grabbed them before his mother could destroy them.

“Since you don't want them, let me keep them,” Helian Qingyu said.

“Why do you want these?”

“Come on, the person in the picture is the Violin Diva that was once known throughout the world. I can add these into my collections.”

“Fine,” Yun Xuerou sighed as Helian Qingyu had already hidden all the photos behind him. “Just don't let your father see them.”

“Why's that?”

Helian Qingyu was curious, not understanding why his mother was being wary of her husband noticing the photos.

“Because I'm worried he will fall for her,” Yun Xuerou said half-jokingly.

“You're overthinking it,” Helian Qingyu laughed. “Dad is not like that.”

Yet Helian Qingyu was wrong because Yun Xuerou knew that Helian Wei had already fallen for Jing Ruyue.

“So, what do you want?” Yun Xuerou asked.

"I need to discuss something with you."

"What's that?"

"I want to marry Lan Ling'er, and I need you to take care of things for me."

"Are you sure?" Yun Xuerou gasped. "I thought you were disgusted by the idea? What changed your mind?"

"The situation is different now," Helian Qingyu said and bowed. "I hope you can allow us to be married."

Yun Xuerou had been planning for something like this to happen for quite some time, but her plan was wasted because both Helian Wei and Helian Qingyu were against the idea.

Now that her own son was willing to marry Lan Ling'er, she was happy.

"Of course! But you still have to get your father's permission first."

"I will."

Helian Qingyu left the Red Tower and went straight for the White Tower to look for his father.

He met Le Xiu on his way up, and Le Xiu told him that Helian Wei was in his study. Helian Qingyu went up the stairs and stopped in front of his father's study room. The door was slightly opened, and Helian Qingyu peeked through it.

His father was leaning on his leather armchair with his back to the door and was looking at some photos.

Helian Qingyu found it funny, as he had just found his mother cutting some old photos up, and now his father was reminiscing at some.

Helian Qingyu crept into the room and took the photos straight from his father's hands.

Helian Wei turned around, panicked, and found that it was his son who took away the things in his hands.

"Do you even know how to knock? Where are your manners?" Helian Wei scolded.

"Dad, why are you looking at another woman's photos behind my mother's back?" Helian Qingyu asked jokingly.

"Give them back!"

"You don't need to be embarrassed by it," Helian Qingyu laughed. "I get you. Any grown man would want to look at pretty women."

Chapter 1214: It Was Indeed Abrupt

Unfortunately, he pissed off his father even further. Helian Wei pounded on the table and yelled, "Nonsense! How could you have been the chief commander of the armies? Hand me the picture! Right now!"

"Who the hell is in that picture? Why are you so pissed off?"

Helian Qingyu had not had time to take a glance at the picture until now.

What the...

What was going on today?

Were his father and mother thinking of the same person?

"Isn't this Jing Xi's mother, the former world-renowned violinist? Father, did you like her too?"

Helian Wei: "..."

Helian Qingyu winked and handed him the picture. "Take it easy. I won't tell anyone!"

Helian Wei grabbed back the picture and locked it in the drawer.

He raised his head and warned his son, "General Helian Qingyu! You are not allowed to enter the white chamber without my permission ever again!"

"Yes, Mr. President!"

Helian Qingyu gave him a salute.

Recalling that he was indeed being abrupt just now, he took out a few more pictures in order to ease his father's anger.

"Dah! My dear father, I was indeed being rude just now. Take these as my apology, please."

Helian Qingyu presented the pictures. Helian Wei was surprised to see all those photos of Jing Ruyue.

After quite a while he asked, "You... How did you get these photos? And what are you going to do with them?"

Helian Qingyu could vaguely guess what was going on. His father treasured Jing Ruyue's photos while his mother was cutting them. There could be only one reason.

His father liked Jing Ruyue. And his mother was jealous.

How could they still play such games at their age?

Helian Qingyu was sensible enough not to give his father a hard time. He answered, "I happened to find them and was about to give them to Jing Xi. If you'd like, father, take them. Otherwise..."

Before Helian Qingyu could take back the pictures, Helian Wei had already opened the drawer again and locked them inside too. Meanwhile, he tried to change the topic. "What are you doing here?"

Helian Qingyu pulled out the chair, sat down and said, "Father, I'm getting engaged to Lan Ling-Er."

Helian Wei slightly frowned and asked, "Are you sure?"

Helian Wei was the victim of a dreadful marriage. He did not want his son to go through it again. It would only make his life miserable.

“Yes, that's the plan.”

Helian Qingyu came closer to his father and told him about his plan with Huo Yunshen to save Jing Xi's mother.

Helian Wei seemed frozen upon hearing his words.

What did he just hear?

Did his son say that Jing Xi's mother was in Lstan?

Jing Ruyue was still alive!

Was she?

“Are you sure? Is she still alive?”

“Absolutely sure. Jing Xi saw her in Lstan earlier on.”

It was such a shock. When he came back to himself he started rambling. “Can I... I mean... Shall I... No, no... Right now, get Huo Yunshen here... We need to talk in person.”

Chapter 1215: Conscience

“That's easy!” Helian Qingyu smiled.

The plan that Helian Qingyu and Huo Yunshen made up needed the President's approval before they could deploy armies into Lstan.

Helian Qingyu called Huo Yunshen right away, and Huo Yunshen rushed to the President's Mansion without any delay.

Xu Xiyan also came with Huo Yunshen as Jun Yan and waited in the White Tower's lobby.

As she waited, she walked around the garden and overheard the First Lady's conversation.

Yun Xuerou was sipping on her tea while her servant was reporting to her about the President's routine.

The conversation caught Xu Xiyan's attention when she heard Yun Xuerou mentioning Huo Yunshen, and she got closer to Yun Xuerou.

“What does the President need from Huo Yunshen?” Yun Xuerou asked.

“My apologies, I'm not informed,” Yun Xuerou's servant replied.

“Get the butler to send some tea over and plant a bug in his office,” Yun Xuerou ordered after thinking for a while.

"Yes, ma'am."

After hearing what Yun Xuerou had planned, Xu Xiyuan left the garden quietly and waited.

Before long, she spotted an old man with a tray of tea approaching Le Xiu. After going through Le Xiu's inspection, the old man approached the President's office.

"Halt!" Xu Xiyuan shouted as she came out from hiding and stopped the old man. "What's that?"

"Tea for the President and his guest," the old man, Old Man Xia, said, not giving much attention to the outsider.

"I've checked the contents," Le Xiu said from behind the old man. "Mr. Jun, is there something wrong?"

"I think there's something wrong with the tea," Xu Xiyuan said.

"Something wrong?"

"Yes, I think it's bugged."

"What?" Old Man Xia scolded as his hands shook. "Are you accusing me? I've been working here for over 20 years! There's no way I would do something like that!"

"I think you're mistaken, Mr. Jun," Le Xiu said. "Old Man Xia has been here for a very long time, and I've already checked the tea too."

"If there's nothing in the tea, then the bug must be on him!" Xu Xiyuan said. "I think he's a spy."

"This is absurd!"

"Oh? Am I? Why don't you let me check you then?"

Upon hearing that the man in front of him wanted to check him, Old Man Xia threw the tray away and tried to run.

But Xu Xiyuan was already prepared for that. She grabbed Old Man Xia from the back and pinned him to the ground.

"Mr. Le, please check if there's any bugs on his body."

"You have no right to do so!" Old Man Xia shouted.

"He has the right if the President's life is at stake," Xu Xiyuan said.

Le Xiu began to search Old Man Xia, and as Xu Xiyuan had said, he found a bug planted on the old man.

"Why are you doing this?" Le Xiu questioned. "You're a traitor!"

Chapter 1216: They Planned It

Old Man Xia realized that they had already failed. So he refused to say anything further.

“Take him away and get something solid from him!”

Jin Xiu asked his men to take away Old Man Xia. He turned to thank Xu Xiyuan and said, “We are truly grateful, Mr. Jun...but I do wonder how you found that Old Man Xia had a bug.”

“I've got some good ears.”

Xu Xiyuan made a random excuse. She took over the bug and said, “It was not activated. I suppose Xia was about to place it somewhere in Mr. President's room and bug their conversation.”

“Right. So now we'd better figure out who the source is.”

“That's not a big deal. But I need some tools.”

Xu Xiyuan used to learn hacking from her Eldest Brother Jun Yan. It was a piece of cake for her to deal with bugging.

“Sure. Name it and I'll get it for you.”

Xu Xiyuan asked Jin Xiu to bring her some tools so that she could find the source of the bugging.

She wanted Jin Xiu to know who had been hacking Mr. President and have them pay enough attention to the issue.

Xu Xiyuan started searching for bugging devices downstairs, while Jin Xiu delivered a new round of tea to the President and his guests.

After the episode today, he had to do, himself, whatever the president needed.

When he presented the tea, they had already started their conversation.

Helian Wei sat on the couch and asked, “I heard from Qingyu that you are going to Lstan again. What's your plan?”

“Frankly, we are going to save Jing Xi's mother.”

Huo Yunshen told him the truth.

If he had doubts when Helian Qingyu said that Jing Ruyue was still alive, now he finally believed it from the third person.

And he was deeply shocked again.

His Xiao Yueliang was still alive! What a blessing!

He pretended to be calm while he'd already burst into tears in his heart. “Jing Xi's mother passed away more than a decade ago. How could she be in Lstan now?”

“Mr. President should know Mo Xie better than I do. He deceived everyone else many years ago and took Jing Xi's mother away. My wife was kidnapped to Lstan last time, and she saw her mother in the castle on Ghost Island herself. She has been in a coma throughout these years and is being kept in the basement of that castle.”

Upon hearing this, Helian Wei clenched his fists tighter with resentment.

From the movie The Perfect Scenery, he came to know Mo Xie and Lady Camellia's plot. But he did not realize that her death was a part of their plan.

He thought his woman had died more than a decade ago. But she had actually been lying in that gloomy castle on Ghost Island all these years!

What did Mo Xie do to her?

Why had she been in coma?

Knowing that his Xiao Yueliang had been kept in danger down in that gloomy world, he felt like being set on fire. He wished he could go and rescue her right away.

“OK. Tell me about your plan. I'll do whatever I can to help.”

Helian Wei would rather go to save his Xiao Yueliang himself.

“It will be much more difficult to save Jing Xi's mother this time. We know that Mo Xie is exceptionally cautious and his castle is intensively guarded. Even if Qingyu and I could take her out of the castle, we would definitely be caught. There will be a hard fight. I am asking for an expedition order from you, Mr. President, so that we can have the support of your navy whenever needed.”

Chapter 1217: It's Her?

Even though JS's army was highly skilled in ground warfare, their marine warfare capabilities were inferior to Estan.

“Of course! I'll lead the team myself!” Helian Wei assured.

It was a chance for the President to participate in the battle himself, and he was not going to let the opportunity pass by.

But with the role he played and the responsibility he held, he could only keep his distance from the actual battlefield and intercept Mo Xie if needed.

Helian Qingyu opened the map of Estan's marine defense and began to plan a route to take Lstan.

They began to make plans and work out countermeasures. With everything in place, all they had to do was wait for the engagement to happen.

It was then that Helian Wei finally understood why his son had decided to marry Lan Ling'er; it was all to save Jing Ruyue.

“Qingyu, sorry for putting you through this,” Helian Wei said as he patted his son's shoulder.

“This is nothing, father,” Helian Qingyu smiled. “I have to repay Jing Xi the favor for saving me. You're the one who taught me that no favor should go unpaid.”

“That's my son! Hurry up and make any preparations needed and wait for my order.”

“Yes, sir!”

“See you soon, Mr. President.” Huo Yunshen also took his leave.

After they left, Le Xiu came to the White Tower to make reports on the bug that was planted in it.

“Who ordered Old Man Xia to plant the device?” Helian Wei asked.

“Please take a look at this,” Le Xiu said while he pointed at a screenshot on his computer screen. “This is the source of the bug.”

“This is... It's her?” Helian Wei stammered as he could not believe his eyes.

He had never expected that the one who was spying on him was his own wife, Yun Xuerou.

“Where is Old Man Xia?”

“In interrogation.”

“I want to interrogate him myself.”

“Sir!”

Le Xiu quickly made arrangements and brought Helian Wei to meet with Old Man Xia.

Old Man Xia was tied to a chair in the interrogation room, and he raised his head when he heard people coming in.

“Did he say anything?” Helian Wei asked the interrogator.

“No. His lips are sealed very tight.”

“Is that so?”

Helian Wei stopped in front of Old Man Xia and stared at the man, who was covered in blood.

“Why did you betray me?” Helian Wei asked.

It was hard for Helian Wei to believe it because the Xia family had been serving the Helian family for generations and had gained their trust.

“Mr. President... I'm sorry...” Old Man Xia finally began to speak when he was confronted by the President.

“What else did that woman ask you to do?”

“No... nothing else...”

“Still not talking, are we? You know I can make everyone in the Xia family a traitor to the country, right? You better consider your options. To keep the pride of your family, or have them spend the rest of their lives in prison with you.”

Chapter 1218: It Had Always Been Her!

“You can try my patience. I'll only count to three.”

Helian Wei turned to leave and said, “One!”

Old Man Xia started sweating and was quickly soaking wet.

“Two!”

Mr. President was about to reach the door. But if he told him the truth, would Mrs. President give him another chance?

“Three...”

Before Helian Wei finished the word, Old Man Xia rushed to say, “OK, OK, Mr. President, I'll tell you what I know...”

From Old Man Xia, Helian Wei came to know a series of terrifying facts.

Yun Xuerou had been spying on him since many years ago. She knew whatever he was after.

She had informants all over the presidential palace.

Old Man Xia had heard a lot from Yun Xuerou too.

For instance, she had planned the fire in the theatre in Estan.

She secretly banned The Perfect Scenery nationwide and made it vanish from the market.

She had her assistant Eugene follow Jin Xiu and replace the result of the test.

And so on and so forth.

It had always been that woman!

Helian Wei recalled the series of happenings and realized that each time he had tried to visit Zstan, there was an emergency that kept him from leaving.

Now it turned out to be her conspiracy rather than coincidence.

It had always been her who tried whatever she could to stop him from finding the truth about Jing Ruyue's death. That was the reason for all her evil deeds.

Helian Wei grew outraged upon hearing the truth.

He had always been trying to be a good leader and provide his people with a better country. But his so-called wife had been committing all those horrible crimes.

How many innocent people had died because of her selfishness!

He rushed to the red chamber carrying his anger.

It was the first time he stepped into the red chamber throughout the years.

Inside the red chamber, Yun Xuerou was waiting for the signal from Old Man Xia's bug. But she got nothing.

"Eugene, go find Xia and ask him what is going on. Why didn't we hear anything so far?" Yun Xuerou asked Eugene.

"Yes, madam."

Eugene took her order. But before he could turn around someone announced at the door, "No need."

The two in the room turned at the same time and found Helian Wei standing at the door. They screamed as if they had seen a ghost.

Yun Xuerou rushed to cover the bugging devices and stood up, "Helian... what brings you here?"

It was such a surprise.

She had never expected Helian Wei to come to the red chamber. She had sent for him with various kinds of excuses throughout the years, but he never came even once.

What was he doing here today?

"I want to know what you are doing."

Helian Wei entered the room step by step, with a chilling coldness that could almost pierce their skin.

Yun Xuerou tried to pretend to be calm. She dispelled Eugene and smiled. "What could I be doing? You never came whenever I've sent for you. What brought you here today?"

Helian Wei pinched her chin unexpectedly and questioned her with the bug in his hand. "Take a close look, what is this?"

"I have... no idea."

Yun Xuerou felt that her chin was about to be crushed.

"Is that so? It was you who asked Xia to put this in my study and spy on me. Now he has been caught and told me everything. So tell me. What else have you done apart from spying, bugging and causing all those horrible incidents?"

Helian Wei questioned her with resentment.

Chapter 1219: Behind My Back

Yun Xuerou did not expect that Old Man Xia would get caught and even rat her out.

"Helian... Please listen to me... I did all of these things for you..." Yun Xuerou tried to argue.

“Bullshit!” Helian Wei scolded. “You were supposed to assist me in making the country better, and yet you did so many wrong things behind my back instead! Speak, woman! What is your goal?”

“I... I did not...” Yun Xuerou stammered. “If you had only focused on me, I would've never had to do all of these things to get your attention!”

“Silence! Do you think I really have no idea that you were the one responsible for stopping me from meeting with Jing Ruyue? You really are one sick person!”

Helian Wei pushed Yun Xuerou away, and she fell to the ground, looking at the man high above her with teary eyes.

There was no compassion nor mercy in Helian Wei's eyes, only anger.

“You are not fit to be Estan's First Lady anymore. You have forced me to file for a divorce!”

“No... Please... Anything but a divorce...”

Yun Xuerou was caught entirely off guard and grabbed onto Helian Wei's legs, begging him to not leave her.

“You should've expected that a day like this would come when you decided to take the wrong path,” Helian Wei said coldly and turned away.

“You're the President of Estan!” Yun Xuerou shouted. “Aren't you afraid that others will laugh at you?”

“So what if I become a laughing stock? It's still better than being the husband of a vile woman!”

“But you must've loved me! You even covered me with your coat in front of everyone once!”

Yun Xuerou thought that what Helian Wei had done was his way of showing his affection towards her.

“All I did was for Qingyu, not you,” Helian Wei said coldly as he kicked Yun Xuerou off his legs.

“Tomorrow is Qingyu's engagement, you better keep your act up!”

Helian Wei left, leaving the woman on the ground shivering in fear. She could tell that Helian Wei was serious about the divorce.

What to do? What should I do?

A huge engagement party was held at Lin City's best hotel the next day.

It was the engagement of Estan's General, Helian Qingyu, and the nation's goddess, Lan Ling'er. The party attracted reporters, local and foreign.

A lot of high ranking officials also attended the party, including the Secretary of State, Ouyang Qing, with his wife and daughter. The President's cousin, Helian Xiong, and his son, Helian Chen, were present at the party too.

Xu Xiyan attended the party with Huo Yunshen as Jun Yan, but her complexion was paler than the actual Jun Yan and was prettier than most women.

Chapter 1220: How Provocative

At the banquet, she ran into Helian Chen. And he recognized her as the young man who had messed up with him in front of the cafe last time.

Helian Chen stared at her rudely when he passed by. Huo Yunshen waited until he was gone and asked, "Why was that man staring at you?"

"Who knows? Perhaps he's gay."

Xu Xiyan did not dare to tell her husband about her heroic deed that day. And Huo Yunshen took it seriously that Helian Chen was gay. Because he found that man staring very inappropriately at Jing Xi who was disguised as a man.

While they were talking, Ouyang Feifei saw Jun Yan and came to greet him. "Hey, Mr. Jun. I wasn't expecting you to be here."

The young woman stared at him with her eyes glowing. She was definitely into him.

Huo Yunshen found this very inappropriate.

Fine. Now he wanted to hide his wife again.

How could she be so charming? Either as a woman or a man, she was too charming to be exposed to the public.

The guests were almost here. President Helian Wei and his wife Yun Xuerou showed up, followed by the newly engaged couple.

Helian Qingyu was featurely handsome in his uniform, while Lan Ling-Er looked gorgeous in her luxurious gown. They seemed a perfect couple.

They got engaged with the presence of many journalists.

Helian Qingyu was expressionless all the way through. No one could tell what he was thinking about.

It was probably only Lan Ling-Er herself that felt happy about the engagement.

When he helped her put on the engagement ring, Lan Ling-Er felt like she was the happiest woman in the world.

Xu Xiyan went to the restroom during the ceremony.

In order to avoid troubles, she went to the men's room instead. But when she came out she found a huge figure blocking her way.

She tried to see his face clearly and was shocked at the sight of Helian Chen.

Did he come for revenge?

“Master Chen, what do you want?”

Xu Xiyao was on alert.

“What do you think I want? You ruined my day earlier on. Now that I've got you here, what do you suggest I should do?”

Helian Chen lifted her chin and flirted.

“Master Chen, someone like you should never bother yourself with someone like me. Could you let me go?”

Xu Xiyao turned away from his fingers.

“I will consider your suggestion if you make me satisfied.”

Helian Chen was stunned when staring at him. This man was way too beautiful.

How could a man be more beautiful than a woman? It was pure seduction.

Plus he smelled faintly good. It was too provocative.

“I have no idea what you mean, Master Chen.”

Xu Xiyao found him so disgusting. She felt like vomiting at the sight of the hypocritical Helian Chen.

“I heard it feels much better to have intercourse with a man. I've always wanted to try.”

Disgusting!

Way too disgusting!

It turned out that Helian Chen was a bi-sexual freak!

Upon saying that, Helian Chen tried to push her back into the stall.

Xu Xiyao managed to push him away and ran as fast as she could.

Unfortunately, she was stopped by Helian Chen's guards at the door.

“Where are you going?”

The arrogant Helian Chen told the guards, “Catch him! I'll play hard with him today!”
