

Priceless Baby 1221

Chapter 1221: Assaulted

The two bodyguards tried to grab Xu Xiyan, and she defended herself.

Taking down the two bodyguards was not a problem for Xu Xiyan, but what troubled her was Helian Chen himself.

They exchanged punches for a few rounds, and Xu Xiyan was pinned to the wall in the end.

Xu Xiyan had her face facing the wall while Helian Chen locked her legs with his knees and her hands with his.

“What can you do now? Huh?” Helian Chen whispered beside Xu Xiyan's ear.

“Let me go, or you'll regret it!” Xu Xiyan warned as she struggled.

“You really are the first person who dares to talk like that to me! But let me tell you this: you've already got my attention. Now, I really want to try what another man tastes like!”

Xu Xiyan was in a dire situation and tried to scream for help, but Helian Chen had his other hand over her mouth.

She knew that if Helian Chen found out that she was a woman, he would've never let her go.

Just as Helian Chen was about to undo Xu Xiyan's clothes, he could feel someone closing in behind him. Before he could even react, the person kicked him and sent him flying to the door.

Helian Chen steadied himself and realized that the person who had kicked him was the Movie King who came with Helian Qingyu, Huo Yunshen.

Helian Chen began to suspect that both Huo Yunshen and Jun Yan were actually a gay couple.

The moment Xu Xiyan regained her freedom, she ran and hid behind her husband.

Huo Yunshen could not believe that his wife had almost been sexually assaulted again even when she was dressed up as a man.

“You dare pick a fight on my...” Huo Yunshen paused before continuing. “Man?”

Xu Xiyan turned her head and looked at Huo Yunshen, as what he'd just said felt too weird.

“So what? You're going to die anyway!” Helian Chen scolded and tried to punch him, thinking that Huo Yunshen only knew a few martial arts moves from his acting career.

But beyond his expectation, Huo Yunshen caught his punch and threw him back to the floor.

Helian Chen climbed back up and smiled. “Not bad! Looks like you've trained before. Come on!”

Helian Chen launched another attack, but Huo Yunshen did not hold back and threw him back to the ground, before raining down on his face with punches.

“Stop! Stop!” Helian Chen begged as he cowered in pain.

“Helian Chen!” Huo Yunshen shouted. “You better not lay another finger on him again! If you do, I'll make sure that you never see the daylight again!”

Helian Chen nodded quietly, not even daring to utter another word.

With everything taken care of, Huo Yunshen grabbed Xu Xiyan's hand and they left the bathroom together.

“Oh my god! You were really cool back there!” Xu Xiyan praised.

“You're not allowed to look that good when you go out in the future!” Huo Yunshen turned and scolded.

“Fine, fine! I'll pretend to be an old grandma next time.”

“What if you attract some weird old man?” Huo Yunshen said, recalling how pretty Xu Xiyan was when she had dressed up as an old woman in the past.

Chapter 1222: The Biting Truth

Xu Xiyan seriously doubted he would ever allow her to go out again.

The news of Helian Qingyu and Lan Ling-Er's engagement was spread throughout the world.

Everyone knew that the son of the president of Estan got engaged with Lan Lin-Er. Li Ruochu saw it in the newspaper in Zstan too.

Seeing the picture of Helian Qingyu and Lan Ling-Er in the engagement ceremony, she felt overwhelmingly heartbroken.

They told her that last time Helian Qingyu faked his relationship with Lan Ling-Er in order to save Jing Xi. But what was this about now?

Jing Xi was saved. But they still got engaged. What could that mean?

It could only mean that he was serious!

Helian Qingyu had fallen in love with Lan Ling-Er!

Alas... She knew she should not have had expectations. But she could not control her own heart.

Now that they were officially engaged, her secret wish finally came to nothing.

Heartbroken... Indescribable pain was devouring her.

If it was not for the child she was carrying, she barely had any other reason to live.

Helian Qingyu, it was my hugest mistake to fall in love with you...

After Helian Qingyu's engagement ceremony, they immediately started planning for a second visit to Lstan.

It was set to be the following morning. Huo Yunshen and Helian Qingyu disguised as Lan Ling-Er's bodyguards as they had done last time.

They prepared another mask for Jing Ruyue too.

Xu Xiyan accompanied them to the wharf. She hoped that they could come back safe and sound no matter if they could save her mother this time or not.

The ship set sail toward the Black Sea and successfully entered Lstan. They came to Palace Fillieres and met Mo Yutian and Alice.

Mo Yutian and Alice were sitting in the garden under the sun. Mo Yutian was half squatting by her side and placing his ear on her belly.

Alice enjoyed their life sincerely. She was filled with happiness to have Mo Yutian being exceptionally nice to her and the child.

Mo Yutian must have a profound love for Jing Xi. That was why he treated her so meticulously ever since she got pregnant.

Perhaps if he was not what he was brought up to be, he could really have made a very good husband.

“He is still tiny and can't hear anything.”

“He surely can. They say a father and his child are connected. I can definitely feel him.”

Mo Yutian raised his head and smiled at her.

Alice found that her heart stopped for a second. She was stunned that a devil could have the smile of an angel.

He must be very happy to be able to put on such a hearty smile.

If only she was not a clone, and he was not the king of Lstan, they could make such a perfect couple.

However, the truth was biting. The loss she was going to take was much more than the happiness she received.

Whenever thinking of this, Alice could not help weeping.

“What's up? Why are you crying again?”

Mo Yutian got up and sat down by her. He cuddled her and wiped her tears.

He thought that perhaps pregnant women were always sensitive. The tiniest matter might trigger their sensitive nerves.

“Stop crying. We will live happily together forever.”

Mo Yutian wiped her tears, raised her chin and placed a firm kiss upon her lips.

“Cough...”

Someone interrupted them abruptly.

Chapter 1223: No Can Do!

Mo Yutian let go of his wife and turned to look at the source of the cough. It was from his little sister who had just gotten home.

“Why did you not report when you got back?” Mo Yutian scolded.

“Why do I even have to report when coming back to my own home?” Lan Ling'er asked, with her assistant and two other bodyguards standing beside her as she walked forward.

“Looks like your relationship with my sister-in-law is getting better,” Lan Ling'er joked. “I'm getting jealous.”

“Aren't you the same? Getting what you want?”

Mo Yutian was referring to Lan Ling'er's wedding with Helian Qingyu; he had already gotten wind of the proposal.

“Yes, and that's why I'm here, to tell you the good news. I'll be married to the General soon, and I hope you can give us your blessings.”

“I won't go against your wishes,” Mo Yutian said and paused. “But I do have a condition. You are to get me Estan's Military Deployment Map once you have the chance.”

Mo Yutian planned on using his own sister to get the most guarded secrets of Estan.

Lan Ling'er turned to look at Helian Qingyu, disguised as a guard, awkwardly. She never thought that her brother would say something like that.

She was worried that Helian Qingyu might be angered by it.

“Are you asking me to be a spy?” Lan Ling'er asked, not willing to do what her brother has requested.

Lan Ling'er really wanted to have a good life with Helian Qingyu, and stealing was not part of her plan.

“Of course. Do you really think that I allowed you to marry into the Helian family just for happiness?”

“Why can't I? You got your happiness, I want mine too! If you're asking me to betray Qingyu, then I'm sorry, but I'm not going to do it!”

“You pass,” Mo Yutian smiled. “I'm just testing you. It's true that they say girls have outgoing personalities.”

“...” Lan Ling'er sighed, almost believing her brother's request was real.

Just as Lan Ling'er was thinking of a way to get to the Phantom Island, Long Xie's servant arrived before them, requesting the queen to meet with the former emperor.

Mo Yutian wanted to refuse, but Alice was already feeling better and said, "I want to meet mum..."

Alice has been accompanying Jing Ruyue as Jing Xi for the past few days, and that gave her a chance to feel what it was like to be loved by a parent.

Since Jing Xi gave her happiness, Alice felt that the most that she could do to repay the favor were to take care of Jing Ruyue.

"All right, I'll send someone to go with you," Mo Yutian said, unable to accompany his wife because he has a matter to attend to.

"Brother, why don't I accompany her?" Lan Ling'er took the chance and asked. "I kinda missed our father too."

"Fine," Mo Yutian agreed. "But you better take good care of her! If anything happens to Jing Xi, I'll feed you to the sharks!"

"I get it!"

And so, Lan Ling'er left Mo Yutian's room with her companions and Alice. They boarded the ship that was heading towards the Phantom Island and entered the castle.

Huo Yunshen noticed that the landscape of the castle was ultimately the same as Xu Xiyun's has described. He knew that it won't be long that he gets to meet his mother-in-law.

Chapter 1224: How Could She Trust Them?

Alice said that she had already woken up a while ago. It was in great favor of their rescue plan.

It would be much easier to take a sober person away than carrying a sleeping beauty.

They entered the castle and saw Jing Ruyue in a parlor.

Mo Xie was sitting next to her by the window.

She was looking at the azure sky outside and her sight followed the flying seagulls.

It was obvious that she longed for freedom.

"Mother!" Alice went to her and called out.

Hearing her daughter calling, Jing Ruyue turned and smiled, "Yanyan!"

Huo Yunshen was truly shocked by the sight of Jing Ruyue. She looked so much younger than she should have been.

She seemed gentle and elegant. Just like Jing Xi, her every move and smile was breath-taking.

No wonder back then Helian Wei was besotted with her and Mo Xie had given up all his fame and power for her.

Helian Qingyu was also surprised. Jing Xi's mother looked pretty, the same as he'd seen in the pictures. She looked young and somewhat familiar.

Seeing the others following her daughter, Jing Ruyue wondered, "Who are they?"

Mo Xie turned to them with his cold and malicious look. He did not seem to be happy to see his own daughter.

"Father."

Lan Ling-Er trotted to him and squatted by his side.

She was, after all, his daughter. Instead of trying to get rid of her, Mo Xie asked, "What brought you here?"

"Ling-Er missed you, father. I came for you!"

Mo Xie did not reply. Jing Ruyue knew that this girl must be Mo Xie's daughter.

"Long Xie, I'd like some privacy with my daughter, if you don't mind?"

Jing Ruyue hoped that Mo Xie could leave her alone for a while.

Lan Ling-Er seized the opportunity and asked, "Yeah, father, Jing Xi must have a lot to say to her mother. I have something to tell you too. Let's go!"

"Fine."

Mo Xie took a glance at Jing Ruyue and left the room with Lan Ling-Er reluctantly.

They were left alone in the room. Huo Yunshen already had told Alice about their plan on their way over. And Alice did want to help.

Then she got hold of Jing Ruyue's hand and said, "Mother, they came all the way to save you. Go with them, now!"

"What?"

Jing Ruyue looked at the two men and a woman she had never met before, and wondered what they were here for.

To save time, Huo Yunshen added, "Auntie, please come with us. We all came here to get you out."

Huo Yunshen could not explain his relationship with Jing Xi right now. Therefore he had to call her auntie.

"Came for me? How can I trust you?"

After being trapped in the castle for over a decade, Jing Ruyue found it hard to believe that these strangers came all of a sudden purely to save her.

What if they were sent by Mo Xie? If she followed them she would be walking into his trap.

“We mean no harm. Please trust us. There is your family in Zstan. Jing Zhannan, Jing Huaduo, and Xu Xiyan, they are all waiting for you.”

Huo Yunshen mentioned the people she knew in order to win her trust.

“My father, my brother, and my daughter?”

Chapter 1225: He'll Go Crazy For Sure

Jing Ruyue looked at the girl right next to her and laughed.

“Do you think I'm stupid? My daughter is right here next to me! What are you planning?”

“No, she's not your real daughter,” Huo Yunshen explained as he took out the brooch that was left for Jing Ruyue. “Your daughter is in Estan right now. If you don't believe me, then take a look at this.”

Jing Ruyue looked at the brooch, and tears began to fill her eyes. It was the memoir that Feng had left her years ago.

She felt like someone was tightening her heart as breathing became harder.

“I did leave this to my daughter... What is happening here?”

What confused Jing Ruyue the most was that her daughter was indeed standing right beside her.

“I'm sorry, but I'm not Jing Xi,” Alice said slowly. “I'm sorry for lying to you, but I'm just a clone of Jing Xi...”

“...” Jing Ruyue was shocked by the truth, and words could not escape her mouth.

“Please, we can't stay here any longer,” Huo Yunshen begged. “If Mo Xie finds out we're here, then we'll lose our only chance to escape.”

“Okay, I'll leave with you all. What should I do?”

Huo Yunshen explained their plan to Jing Ruyue. With Jing Ruyue up to speed, she changed her clothes with Qu Na, Lan Ling'er's assistant, so that they could switch roles.

After the preparations were done, Jing Ruyue stood where Qu Na had been standing, while Qu Na lay down next to Alice.

Not long after that, Lan Ling'er came back with her father. After exchanging looks with Huo Yunshen, Lan Ling'er knew that they were ready to leave.

“I should go back then, father,” Lan Ling'er said. “I'll come back and see you again next time.”

“Okay,” Mo Xie nodded, not being bothered whether his daughter actually would come back to visit him in the future or not.

Lan Ling'er quickly guided Huo Yunshen, Helian QIngyu, and Jing Ruyue out of the castle and left the Phantom Island.

It wasn't until they were far away from the island they could finally let out sighs of relief.

"Luckily we weren't found out," Helian QIngyu sighed.

"No, we can't let our guard down yet," Lan Ling'er warned. "I'm not sure how long Qu Na can trick my father. If he finds out we took her away, he'll go crazy for sure."

Mo Xie did not suspect anything was off at first as he sat down beside his woman.

Qu Na thought that if she kept quiet, Mo Xie would not realize that she was not Jing Ruyue. But there was one flaw in her plan: Mo Xie would talk to Jing Ruyue from time to time.

"Are you hungry? Do you want to eat something?" Mo Xie asked.

Qu Na shook her head, not even letting any of her voice escaped.

"The wind's wild. Here, put this on."

Mo Xie put a jacket over who he thought was Jing Ruyue. But when his finger accidentally touched the woman in front of him, she jumped up in fear.

"What's wrong?" Mo Xie asked curiously.

Qu Na shook her head and acted as if she had a headache.

"Are you feeling unwell? Come, let's get you back to your room."

Mo Xie took the woman by her shoulder and guided her back to the bedroom.

Chapter 1226: This Is No Good

When they entered the bedroom, Mo Xie released her and stared at her suspiciously, "What's going on? Are you OK?"

Mo Xie had extremely fair skin which made him look like a vampire. Qu Na was too scared to even look at him.

When he got closer, Wu Qa stepped back subconsciously and shivered violently.

Mo Xie noticed the difference. Jing Ruyue would never act like that.

Jing Ruyue had always been cold, but never scared.

That woman, she was never afraid of him. So who was this scared girl in front of him...

Mo Xie suddenly got hold of her wrist and stared at her for a while. Then he was shocked and asked, "Who are you?"

Qu Na did not dare to answer.

Mo Xie took her by the throat and rubbed on the edge of her cheek. Soon enough the skin was peeled.

Mo Xie picked the edge and tore off a mask.

The revealed face seemed familiar. Wasn't she his daughter's assistant?

Could it be his daughter who had planned this?

To replace Jing Ruyue with Qu Na?

Why did she do this to him?

Mo Xie found it out and was enraged. He yelled at her, "Tell me! What's going on? Where is Jing Ruyue? If you refuse to tell I will strangle you!"

Qu Na was lifted from the ground, taken by the throat. She could barely breath and was almost choking.

She kept beating on Mo Xie's arm and begged, "I... will tell you..."

Mo Xie threw her away and Qu Na told him everything about their rescue.

Knowing that Jing Ruyue had already been smuggled out, Mo Xie kicked Qu Na away and darted out of the castle. He ordered the warship to charge at full speed.

The cruise had passed the patrol and was about to cross the magnet shield.

Right then several dark warships came after them. People were calling it through speakers, "Stop the ship! Don't let them go!"

The patrol ships turned immediately to stop them upon hearing the order.

"Shit! My father is after us!"

Lan Ling-Er saw the warships from Ghost Island. She thought they would definitely be dead if they got caught today.

Huo Yunshen saw the steersman sweating. So he took over the steering controls and led the ship to proceed at full speed.

When they crossed the magnet shield, a bomb fell about two meters behind them. It splashed and soaked their ship and clothes.

Continuous bombing was heard behind them. They could only head forward as fast as they could without any hesitation.

Eventually they got out of the Black Sea. But the Ghost Warship followed them beyond the magnet shield.

The Ghost Warship followed them all the way from the Black Sea to the seas of Estan. When it was about to catch them, a huge number of Estan warships came from all around.

They fired at the Ghost Warship and saved Huo Yunshen's ship from the hunt.

Thundering fires were heard behind them.

Helian Qingyu turned to look at the battlefield and felt relieved. "Luckily my father helped. Otherwise, we would already be smashed."

"Probably not smashed, but we would have gotten caught and torn up later on."

Huo Yunshen knew that Mo Xie's bombs would never really hit them. He was merely trying to stop them and get Jing Ruyue back.

Chapter 1227: Complicated Feelings

Now that they were out of danger, they began to change out of their wet clothes.

Jing Ruyue tore off the fake face that she had on and put on a light beige dress with tree leaves as designs that she got from Lan Ling'er.

Even though the design of the dress was clean and pure, which was suitable for younger girls, it looked good on Jing Ruyue.

It was as if she had not aged ever since she fell asleep. She even looked better than Lan Ling'er in the dress.

After Jing Ruyue finished changing, she stepped out onto the deck and was met with a smile from Helian Qingyu.

Jing Ruyue was instantly stunned by him, as the man before her looked a lot like Feng.

It was as if the man before her was made from the same mold as Feng, the only difference being that the man was way younger.

Jing Ruyue turned to look at the other man, who was seriously attractive, and wondered what connections he had with the Jing family to make him risk his life saving her.

"Thank you, both of you," Jing Ruyue said.

Huo Yunshen smiled, thinking that there was no need for Jing Ruyue to thank him, and looked at the harbor that was not far away from them.

"Look over there," Huo Yunshen said while pointing at the harbor. "Jing Xi is waiting there for us."

Everyone turned to look towards the harbor and they could see a lot of people standing there.

Huo Yunshen was eager to let his wife meet her long lost mother.

Jing Xi was waiting impatiently at the harbor with Ye Xun and Huo Sanyan.

She kept praying to God that Huo Yunshen and co. could save her mother without any harm.

With Jing Xi was also Helian Wei, and his personal guards standing behind him.

He personally directed all marines to protect and provide safe passage for Huo Yunshen's boat that day.

As soon as he got the signal, he ordered his troops to fire at Lstan's Phantom Squad.

Among the explosions and gunfire, he could see a white yacht heading towards them.

At that moment, Helian Wei could not even express his own feelings.

He really wanted to meet his Little Moon, but another side of him was worried that she was not on the yacht.

It was very complicated.

The yacht finally stopped at the harbor, and the people waiting there could see those who were on board.

Huo Yunshen and Helian Qingyu stood by the edge and waved towards their waiting friends and families.

With the expressions that both of the men had, Jing Xi was sure that their plan was a success.

The yacht finally stopped, and both of the men onboard guided the ladies down.

The first to step out was Lan Ling'er, followed by a woman in a light beige dress.

Her hair moved slightly with the wind, covering half of her smile.

Her skin was pale under the sunlight as if she was a pearl that shone brightly.

The woman scanned the faces at the harbor and finally spotted one that she was familiar with.

It was the face of a man that she would never forget.

It was Feng.

He was standing at the harbor and was staring at her with his face slightly lifted up.

Feng? Am I dreaming? Jing Ruyue asked herself.

Chapter 1228: A Whole World In Between Them

Seeing him again, Jing Ruyue could not help bursting into tears. No one knew what she had gone through these years.

Time stopped at that moment.

The man on the shore felt the same way. He stared at her silently with tears in his eyes.

She was finally back!

Alive!

She looked no less charming and breathtaking.

But she seemed so weak, as if she was a tiny butterfly that could be blown away by a stronger breeze.

Seeing her back alive, Helian Wei was mad with joy and excitement.

How he wished that he could run to her and embrace her.

But right now there was a whole world between them. He could do nothing but watch her silently.

Eventually, Jing Ruyue was the one who managed to turn away. She collected her sorrow and got off the ship step by step, supported by Huo Yunshen.

She was slim and weak, and far from fully recovered. It was hard enough for her to walk.

It took her a long while to walk across the ten-meter board. And she almost fell off when she stepped onto the ground.

Luckily Huo Yunshen was by her side and kept her from falling.

Seeing her almost fall, Helian Wei's heart skipped a beat.

He stood there and saw her pass by in front of him. He reached out his hand but could only pull it back in vain.

They were indeed the most intimate strangers to each other now.

Seeing her mother coming back safe and sound, Jing Xi ran to her and hugged her hard. "Mother..."

She could no longer hold her tears. She just wanted to stay with her mother and never be parted again.

Jing Ruyue was surprised to see a man running to her and calling her mother.

It made her feel helpless.

She turned to Huo Yunshen for an explanation.

"This is Jing Xi. She is just disguised as a man."

He patted his wife on the back and tried to calm her down. "Jing Xi, let's take auntie home now!"

Jing Xi released her mother, wiped the tears and held her arm, "Mother, let's go home!"

Recognizing her daughter's voice, Jing Ruyue felt relieved. When she left the wharf with them, she turned to take a glance at the man standing by the shore.

He seemed sad and lonely.

Jing Ruyue turned away, as she knew it was their fate.

She had known since many years ago that he was already married to another woman.

She shed a tear when turning away, and said silently to him, Take care, Feng.

Huo Yunshen asked Jing Xi to take Jing Ruyue back to Yunjing Villa. The battle was not over. He and Helian Qingyu had to stay here with the president.

Inside Yunjing Villa.

Xu Xiyan washed off her makeup, got dressed and changed back to herself.

When coming to her mother again, they stared at each other in tears for a long while. Then Jing Ruyue opened her arms and said, "Yanyan, come to mother."

"Mother..."

Xu Xiyan did not want to control herself any further. She jumped into her arms and they cried on each other's shoulder.

Jing Ruyue lifted her daughter's face, wiped her tears and said, "I never expected that I could see you again."

Chapter 1229: Who Is He?

"I never thought that you would be alive either," Xu Xiyan sobbed.

"But the clone that looked like you in the castle...who is she?" Jing Ruyue asked.

Xu Xiyan began to explain to her mother how they had discovered her being held captive by Mo Xie on the Phantom Island, and how she was being forced to marry Mo Yutian but was saved by Huo Yunshen and Alice.

Ever since Xu Xiyan found out that her mother was alive in the castle, she knew that she had to find a way to save her.

And with her friends' and family's help, she was able to do so.

"So, you're saying that Estan's President and his son helped out too? The young man with Huo Yunshen is Helian Wei's son?"

"Yes," Xu Xiyan answered. "His name is Helian Qingyu and he's Estan's General right now."

"Oh..." Jing Ruyue sighed, feeling a little regretful, as Feng already had a son of that age.

"How about Huo Yunshen? Who is he?"

"Mum," Xu Xiyan laughed. "He's your son-in-law."

"Wait, so you're married to Huo Yunshen and not Long Xiao?"

"Yup, Long Xiao tried to separate us, but he has no idea that the woman lying next to him is Alice and not me."

“But I'm worried that her identity will be exposed...”

Jing Ruyue was worried that by saving her, they would put Alice in danger and would come to catch Xu Xiyuan again.

“Let's talk about this some other time. You need to rest now, we still have time to catch up.”

“No, I already have had enough rest. Stay and talk with me. I want to know what happened for the past decade.”

After being asleep for more than a decade, Jing Ruyue knew that she had to catch up on the recent development.

Xu Xiyuan nodded and began to tell her mother stories of the recent past.

The fight on the ocean finally ceased.

The Phantom Troop was defeated and the remaining members retreated back to Lstan.

When Mo Xie learned that his troops had not retrieved Jing Ruyue, he was furious.

“You guys are useless!” Mo Xie scolded and headed to his boat, speeding towards the middle island looking for Mo Yutian and Jing Xi.

Mo Xie believed that Jing Xi was responsible for sneaking Jing Ruyue off of the island.

Mo Yutian was having lunch with his wife when they heard the guards shouting outside.

“Lord Long Xie, you cannot enter!”

“Get out of my way if you cherish your life!” Mo Xie scolded, kicking the guards to the side and pushing the door open.

“Father? Why are you here?” Mo Yutian asked in surprise.

Mo Xie did not reply and flipped the table, throwing all the food and drinks to the floor.

“You!” Mo Xie stared at Alice. “You're the one who took Yue'er away from me!”

“I... I don't know what you're talking about,” Alice said as she hid behind Mo Yutian.

“Father! What happened? What angered you?”

Mo Yutian stopped his father in his path.

“Ask her yourself! There's no way Yue'er could have gotten away from me if she did not bring people onto our land!”

Chapter 1230: Would Rather Die Than Get Divorced

Mo Xie wished to kill Jing Xi. If only he had known that she had such plans, he would have never let her come to Jing Ruyue.

Mo Yutian figured out what had happened and tried to explain. "Jing Xi did not take them there. It was Ling-Er. You should blame Ling-Er for it."

"Whatever! You are all in this! You get my Yue-Er back!"

"Father, calm down!"

"How am I supposed to calm down! My Yue-Er is gone!"

Mo Xie was so mad that he passed out after vomiting some blood.

"Father!"

Mo Yutian had Mo Xie carried to his room and asked for a doctor to take care of him.

Then he turned to Jing Xi. "Was that you?"

Alice did not explain much. Mo Yutian could barely do anything to her. He understood how badly she wanted to save her mother.

"Fine. Even if it was you, I will take the blame from father. No worries!"

"Thank you, Yutian."

Alice knew that as long as Mo Yutian was on her side, Mo Xie could do nothing to her.

When the war was over, Huo Yunshen left the wharf with Helian Qingyu and his father.

He thanked them again and proposed to hold an appreciation party for them at the villa later.

It would be improper for Helian Wei to attend. But he agreed to his proposal somehow for the sake of Jing Ruyue.

Helian Wei returned to the presidential palace very depressed.

The butler reported, "Mr. President, Lawyer Qi has been waiting."

"Right."

Helian Wei stepped into the white chamber and met Qi Fang in the parlor. Qi Fang stood up and he waved for him to sit down.

"Mr. President, as you mentioned, I have proposed a divorce to your wife. But she did not agree."

Qi Fang had talked to Yun Xuerou in private about the divorce. But she was completely against it. So there was not much he could do at this point.

"There has to be a divorce!"

Helian Wei was resolute. Ever since he saw his Xiao Yueliang coming back alive, he knew that he could no longer stand this woman.

“It is better to have a peaceful divorce by consent. Try to talk to her again and see what she wants.”

“I see.”

After their conversation, Qi Fang left the white chamber for Yun Xuerou again.

An hour later, Yun Xuerou's voice was heard from outside. “Helian... I want to see Helian... Let me in!”

The guards disagreed. “No one can enter the white chamber without the President's permission!”

“I'm Mrs. President! How can you do this to me!?”

The guard remained untouched.

Yun Xuerou was outraged. How could the guard stop her in her own house?

“Helian... Helian...”

She kept calling and eventually Helian Wei showed up. The man seemed cold as ice as if she was a stranger.

“Helian, finally you showed up.”

“What do you want?”

Since Old Man Xia was caught, Helian Wei found out about what Yun Xuerou had done. She thought he was merely warning her by proposing a divorce, until his lawyer Qi Fang came to her.

There was no way!

She would rather die than get divorced!

Now she came to the white chamber to talk to him in person, hoping that he could withdraw the proposal.

“Helian, can we talk n private? I have something to say!”

As it was always said, domestic matters should not be made public.

It would be humiliating to talk about it in the presence of all these guards and servants.
