

Priceless Baby 1241

Chapter 1241: Bring Her Back

Helian Wei sat on the couch with a cigar between his fingers while he stared into the ceiling as if he was thinking about something, but in truth, he was worried about Jing Ruyue.

He felt relief when he learned that she was okay, and only needed time to recover from her weak body.

Helian Wei really wished that he could bring Jing Ruyue back to his place so that he could take care of her.

“Mr. President, Qingyu, I'll take my leave now. Are you guys staying?” Gu Yici asked as he had something else to do.

“No, let's leave together,” Helian Qingyu said.

They waited for Huo Yunshen and Xu Xiyan to come down and said their goodbyes before leaving the Yunjing Manor.

At first, the family planned to wait for Jing Ruyue to get better and bring her back to Zstan to meet Jing Huaduo.

But since Jing Ruyue was still weak, they had to push their plan to a later date.

A few days after Helian Wei visited, Xu Xiyan helped her mother to the living room where an old man was waiting.

The closer Jing Ruyue got to the old man, the harder it felt for her. She fell beneath the old man's feet and cried, “Dad...”

“Yueyue... It's really you...” Jing Huaduo sobbed as he helped his daughter up.

Ever since Xu Xiyan moved to Estan, she had been looking for a way to get her grandfather to live with her. But the old man was stubborn and did not want to leave the place he grew up in.

But Xu Xiyan finally succeeded when the old man learned that his daughter was still alive, and it pained him to see the state that his daughter was in.

“Oh, my daughter... What have I done... I should not have blamed you...” Jing Huaduo cried as he recalled how he had pushed his daughter away in the past.

Jing Huaduo only learned about the truth after he saw Landscape, about how his daughter was being coerced into a miserable life.

He blamed himself for not being able to notice it as her father and not offering her any form of protection.

“It's all right, let's just leave what's in the past as it is,” Jing Ruyue comforted. “I'm alive, aren't I?”

“You're right... As long as you're alive...”

Jing Huaduo did some thinking and wondered why he was still staying in Peijing when his family was all in Estan.

"You win," Jing Huaduo said to Xu Xiyao. "I've decided to move here too. Our family will no longer be apart."

Xu Xiyao was glad to hear her grandfather changing his mind.

She had already discussed it with her uncle. They decided to let Jing Huaduo stay in Jing Zhannan's rarely used mansion if he ever decided to move to Estan.

But for the time being, Jing Huaduo would be staying in JS's base with Jing Zhannan until everything at the mansion was sorted out, while Jing Ruyue would continue to remain in Yunjing Manor so that Xu Xiyao could help her get her health back.

Huo Yunshen and Xu Xiyao also planned to open another clinic in Estan for Jing Huaduo, shifting Renjing Chinese Medicine Hall's base of operation to Estan.

They agreed that it was the best way to keep the old man's mind occupied so that he wouldn't miss Peijing too much.

Chapter 1242: Wondered Upon A Second Thought

Their plans were carried out in order. Huo Yunshen received his own treatments as well as taking care of the Jing family.

After a course of treatment and medication, his mania was under control and seldom bothered him.

They believed that he would recover soon.

Outside the hospital, Helian Qingyu was waiting for him in the jeep.

Seeing Huo Yunshen stepping out of the hospital, he called, "Bro, over here!"

"How come you came yourself? Are you giving me a lift?"

Huo Yunshen only asked for his tally. But Helian Qingyu happened not to be occupied. Therefore he came himself to make up for his drunken episode.

"I didn't make it to the border last time for my silly drunkenness. Let me make it up today. Let's go!"

"Alright."

Huo Yunshen did not reject it. Helian Qingyu was like a living tally. It would only make it easier for them to cross the border.

On their way, Helian Qingyu could not help asking, "Bro, what did you do across the border last time?"

"We went for my master."

Huo Yunshen told the truth.

Helian Qingyu found it unbelievable. "Do you mean your master lives across the border? There's nothing but ice fields beyond that point. How could he live there by himself?"

"Do you know what's across the border of Estan?" Huo Yunshen asked.

"Of course. It used to be the Dragon Kingdom. But the country was ruined many years ago and has been covered in ice and snow ever since."

"I heard the iceberg over the Dragon Kingdom has been melting lately."

"Yeah, I heard that too! How strange!" Helian Qingyu felt excited, then wondered upon second thought, "But what does that have to do with your master?"

"You'll figure it out soon."

Huo Yunshen spared a mysterious look instead of providing an explanation and left him with doubts.

Arriving at the border, Helian Qingyu showed his tally. The soldiers saluted to their highest commander and let them pass.

Entering the Dragon Kingdom, they found that Qi Zhengming was already waiting for them with a group of people.

"Yunshen!"

Seeing that Huo Yunshen had come with another person, he wondered, "Who is this..."

"Uncle Ming, let me introduce General Helian Qingyu, the Chief Commander of Estan."

Then he turned to Helian Qingyu and said, "This is my master, Uncle Ming."

"Hello, Uncle Ming."

Helian Qingyu reached out to shake hands with him.

"Pleased to meet you. I've heard so much about General Helian Qingyu. I'm also an acquaintance of your father, Helian Wei."

Qi Zhengming used to assist the former king Long Rui, who had befriended Helian Wei. The two countries also had friendly relations and kept frequent commercial interactions as well as summit meetings.

"So Uncle Ming is a friend of my father. Nice meeting you."

Helian Qingyu was surprised to know that Huo Yunshen's master was acquainted with his father.

After getting to know Helian Qingyu, Qi Zhengming introduced his group to Huo Yunshen.

"Yunshen, this is Feng Tao, the former Minister of Communications. This is Nie Ying, a former ambassador. And they are..."

Qi Zhengming had gathered all the important former officials of the Dragon Kingdom. He wanted them to meet their prince, as well as plan for the rejuvenation of the Dragon Kingdom.

These people were already aware that Huo Yunshen was the son of their former king, who had been secretly sent out of the country at the time of strife.

Chapter 1243: Could Not Believe His Eyes

Huo Yunshen was a grown man when they were finally able to meet him, but they did not expect that he was also the head of JS, the person who brought all 24 countries together to fight against the Dark Zone.

They believed that if Huo Yunshen were to succeed the throne, it wouldn't be long before the Dragon Kingdom would rise again.

Everyone knelt before Huo Yunshen and greeted, "M'lord!"

"Please, get up," Huo Yunshen said as he hurried to help them up.

Helian Qingyu could not believe what he was seeing. Even if he had high expectations for Huo Yunshen, he could've never even dared to imagine that he was actually the heir to a throne, the emperor of the Dragon Kingdom.

Qi Zhengming brought Huo Yunshen to check on the ruins inside the kingdom on a helicopter.

"Ever since the system came back online, the ice has begun to melt," Qi Zhengming explained as he pointed at a tower. "Look, we can even see some of the buildings now. That's the capital's clock tower. And that is the palace!"

Everyone turned to look where Qi Zhengming was pointing and saw that the top of the palace was visible to them.

After flying over the capital, Huo Yunshen asked the pilot to take them to the border.

The nearby glacier had melted into rivers, flowing into Estan's territory.

"Uncle Ming, we have to inspect how the water flows to prevent flash floods," Huo Yunshen said.

"I will."

"And we have to prepare for any virus outbreaks."

Huo Yunshen predicted that the remains of those being slaughtered in the war were still under the ice.

When the ice melted and their bodies came in touch with the air, it could cause a huge virus outbreak.

"Will do."

Qi Zhengming and the other people were glad to see the way Huo Yunshen acted. He showed the compassion and the responsibility that a leader should have.

"I'll talk to my father too," Helian Qingyu said. "I'll try to get some of our people over to help with the rebuilding."

“Thank you.” Huo Yunshen thanked him from the bottom of his heart.

“Don't thank me. You're my brother, helping you is what I should at least do,” Helian Qingyu laughed.

Helian Qingyu knew that maintaining a good relationship was the right choice. If Huo Yunshen were to succeed in resurrecting his kingdom, they could continue the past friendly relationship between the two countries.

They could become best friends just like his father and Long Rui were in the past.

Huo Yunshen was also thankful for the support and compassion that Helian Qingyu and his father showed him.

If not for them, he would never have had the stable life with Jing Xi that he was enjoying.

They decided to head back to Lin City after the inspection.

“I'm not sure if I can succeed or not,” Huo Yunshen said to Helian Qingyu on their way back. “If possible, I would like you to keep this a secret for now.”

“Don't worry, I'll only tell my father about it. He will be delighted to learn that the son of his best friend is still alive.”

They began to talk about the details when a bullet shot through the car they were in.

Chapter 1244: A Hard Fight

Suddenly a bullet came out of nowhere. It broke the window and brushed past Helian Qingyu's nose.

“Shit, an ambush!”

Helian Qingyu pressed down on the accelerator and tried to speed up. But intensive bullets came from behind and hit the car.

In order to dodge the bullets, Helian Qingyu kept zigzagging and eventually got out of the attack.

The car sped toward the mountain road. Before they reached the mountain they already saw the ambush, with sentries on both sides.

Bullets were shot at the car, hitting the windshield and barely missing them.

“Bro, in the black case under your seat, there are weapons we can use.”

Helian Qingyu was driving and could not reach for the weapons.

But he turned to realize that the man next to him had already gotten hold of the weapons and assembled them.

Huo Yunshen had a sharp sense for assembling weapons and sniping. He reached out the window and fired back.

In a few shots the enemies were hit and fell down from the mountain.

“Brilliant!”

He'd barely finished his words just now!

He was so fast!

Helian Qingyu was filled with admiration and yelled, “How did you know I had guns in the car?”

“I saw them last time.”

They survived the first two rounds, but did not realize that there was a third one.

Their rivals were definitely after Helian Qingyu and wanted him dead. There were rocks scattered on the road.

They could not drive through and had to turn back.

Upon turning back they found that the road had already been blocked off by a few cars.

They stood aggressively on the cars and pointed the guns right at them.

“There's gonna be a hard fight today.”

Helian Qingyu's handsome eyes got stern as he took the guns and bullets from Huo Yunshen. They exchanged a look and got out to hide behind the car.

Huo Yunshen started shooting and their rivals fell down from the cars one after another.

Bang, bang, bang...

The fight began.

Their enemies had sufficient fire supply and kept shooting at them.

Huo Yunshen and Helian Qingyu could not afford to continuously suppress due to the limited ammo. They had to make each of their bullets count.

They made one shot after another, and their enemies were taken down one after another.

Huo Yunshen and Helian Qingyu worked together perfectly.

They hid behind the rear of the car. Helian Qingyu turned to Huo Yunshen and mocked, “We are Damon and Pythias now!”

Last time they were attacked in the small town in the south, they lay wounded in the bar. Today they fought together again.

“My wife saved your life. Take it seriously!”

Upon saying so, Huo Yunshen turned to shoot again, and so did Helian Qingyu.

After half an hour, they had managed to take down all the enemies.

Huo Yunshen stepped out and kicked the dead bodies. "Who are they?"

Helian Qingyu checked around and could only tell that they were from Estan. "No idea. They probably came for me."

"Why are you so sure?" Huo Yunshen asked.

Helian Qingyu frowned and said, "I'm not sure. But I know there is a secret force from Estan that has been trying to assassinate me. They have made several attempts in vain. Unfortunately I was not able to find out who they were and who they worked for till now."

"Could they be from the Dark Zone, like those in the small town last time?" Huo Yunshen conjectured.

Chapter 1245: A Great Body

"I don't think so," Helian Wei analyzed. "Every attack from Dark Zone was very well coordinated, but this one is just plain bad."

But Helian Qingyu could not find anything that could tell him who had sent the attackers. He called some of his men to come and clean the scene up when he turned and saw that Huo Yunshen was hurt.

"Shit! You got shot?"

Huo Yunshen had gotten shot in his lower left abdomen, but Helian Qingyu could not notice it at first because he was wearing a dark-colored shirt.

"I'm fine," Huo Yunshen said without wincing.

"Well, I'm not! If anything happened to you in Estan, Jing Xi will definitely kill me!" Helian Qingyu scolded as he got his keys. "Come on! I'll get you to a doctor."

Helian Qingyu drove as fast as he could to the Military Hospital.

He kicked Gu Yici's door open and shouted, "Yici! We need help!"

Gu Yici raised his head and saw Helian Qingyu carrying a pale Huo Yunshen.

"What happened?"

"There's no time to explain! Take care of his wound first!"

"Take off his jacket!"

Helian Qingyu quickly helped Huo Yunshen take his jacket off and showed his white shirt inside that was dyed in red.

"That too!" Gu Yici said, pointing at the white shirt.

After Huo Yunshen took his shirt off, his muscular body was in naked view.

Gu Yici stared at Huo Yunshen's perfect body, and his mind went blank.

Helian Qingyu noticed that Gu Yici was not moving and raised his head to check, only to see Gu Yici was staring attractively at Huo Yunshen.

“Hurry up, you moron!” Helian Qingyu scolded as he kicked Gu Yici.

Gu Yici's face reddened and he performed a quick check on Huo Yunshen's wound.

After a few minutes, Gu Yici took a bullet out from Huo Yunshen's body and put it on a small tray.

Then he continued to disinfect the wound and stitch it up.

“Don't let the wound come in contact with water for a week,” Gu Yici said. “Oh, and no sex either.”

Gu Yici took off his gloves but couldn't help but stare at Huo Yunshen's body again.

“What a great body...” Gu Yici blurted out.

“...”

Both Huo Yunshen and Helian Qingyu looked at Gu Yici with disgusted faces.

“Hey! Stop staring!” Helian Qingyu scolded. “He already has a wife and a kid! If you want a boyfriend, I can introduce someone to you.”

“No need for that,” Gu Yici smiled. “I'm satisfied with the two of you.”

“Go to hell!” Both of the men said and kicked Gu Yici.

Xu Xiyan was waiting for Huo Yunshen in the living room.

“Why are you so late?” Xu Xiyan asked, noticing that it was already quite late.

“Doctor Gu was kind of busy today, so I had to wait for a little longer,” Huo Yunshen lied, not daring to tell Xu Xiyan that he had been shot.

“I see... Wait, what's that smell?”

Xu Xiyan could smell a different scent coming from Huo Yunshen, and it seemed like medicine.

“I think it's the hospital,” Huo Yunshen explained.

There wasn't anything wrong with the answer, but Xu Xiyan could tell something was up.

Chapter 1246: Too Alluring!

As they always said, a man could easily cheat on his pregnant wife. Normally Xu Xiyan would never distrust her husband.

But now she was pregnant!

She was entitled to be a bit oversensitive.

She remembered that he was in a different suit when he'd left home earlier on. So she asked, "When did you get changed?"

Huo Yunshen felt a bit nervous and tried to cover it. "It got stained. So I bought another one."

To stop her from further questioning, Huo Yunshen tried to change the topic. "Come on, honey, let's go inside."

Xu Xiyan did not ask further. She tried to hold him around the waist but her man snuck away and moved to her right side.

Something is wrong!

Definitely wrong!

Xu Xiyan was sensitive enough to tell it. But she tried to convince herself that it was her being oversensitive.

Huo Yunshen loved her wholeheartedly. Even if every other man on earth would cheat, he would definitely not.

It made her feel better to think this way.

In the evening, Xu Xiyan took a bath and got into her new nightwear.

It was very thin and sexy. She'd bought it for him.

She came out of the bathroom, entered the bedroom and found that Huo Yunshen was focusing on his book as if he didn't see her.

"Honey..."

Xu Xiyan called him sweetly, slightly lifted the dress and asked when he raised his head, "Do you like it?"

Seeing his wife in such hot nightwear, Huo Yunshen found his blood flowing reversely. It was way too alluring!

She was literally seducing him!

But he could not do it tonight because of the wound!

What torture!

"Absolutely."

Huo Yunshen forced himself to calm down and planed to make it up when he got recovered.

He turned back to his book again and left Xu Xiyan wondering, Could the book look better than I do?"

He was obviously being perfunctory when he said "absolutely" just now!

Xu Xiyan was not giving up. She got onto the bed, snuck into his arms and cuddled him around his waist. She happened to hit his wound on the left side of his waist and Huo Yunshen groaned slightly in pain. But he tried hard to bear it.

Hearing that his voice had changed, she felt certain that he was provoked. She tried further, "Honey, it's bedtime."

"Yes, honey, goodnight."

Huo Yunshen placed a kiss upon her forehead, and kept reading his book.

"..."

"..."

Xu Xiyan was about to blow. How could he still remain calm while she played so hard?

She was so not giving up. She pushed away his book, cuddled him on the neck and insisted, "Honey, it's our bedtime!"

"Fine."

Huo Yunshen surrendered and they lay down together. Then, nothing happened.

Xu Xiyan found it unbelievable. Was this still her dear husband?

How could he be so apathetic?

Under the quilt, she placed her leg on him and could distinctively sense his response.

But why was he refraining from caressing her?

Was it because she was pregnant?

Or was he not in the mood?

Xu Xiyan tried to think of every possibility and almost felt like getting up and asking him straightforwardly.

Chapter 1247: Too Sexy

But he might have his own troubles too... Xu Xiyan thought.

She managed to calm herself down and fall asleep after hours of thinking.

Huo Yunshen held his head up with his hand and looked at his wife's peaceful sleeping face with the moonlight shining dimly.

After making sure she was sound asleep, Huo Yunshen turned on the night lamp and pulled their sheet up to take a good look at his wife's sexy nightgown.

Oh my! This is just way too sexy! Huo Yunshen gasped.

The nightgown was half-transparent, and Xu Xiyan wore nothing underneath it. He could ultimately see her perfect curves.

Huo Yunshen could not help but swallow his saliva.

He was trying hard to hold back his urge to jump onto her.

But he did not want to risk his wife finding out about his injury and could only continue to stare at her and imagine making out with her.

In the end, Huo Yunshen took care of his urges himself.

After feeling satisfied, Huo Yunshen landed a soft kiss on Xu Xiyan's lips and lay back down.

I'm sorry, but please wait a little longer... Huo Yunshen apologized quietly.

The married couple woke up the next day, like every other day.

Xu Xiyan helped Huo Yunshen pick a suitable suit and everything that went with it.

But she was still angry at Huo Yunshen for his attitude the day before and did not mutter a word to him.

Huo Yunshen got a suspicious call after breakfast and was ready to leave.

"I'm off to take care of something. I won't be back early today," Huo Yunshen said.

"Oh..."

Xu Xiyan watched Huo Yunshen leave in the back of his expensive car, leaving her with another suspect.

She wondered who the call was from and why Huo Yunshen acted like he had something to hide.

Huo Yunshen's car stopped at the President's mansion. He was guided by the butler to the White Tower.

After going through the usual inspection, he entered the President's office.

Helian Wei was waiting for him in the living room and greeted, "Mr. Huo."

"Please, just call me Yunshen. I'm friends with QIngyu after all." Huo Yunshen smiled.

"Very well, you can just address me as Uncle too. I'm friends with your father, after all."

Helian Wei looked at the man in front of him and realized why Huo Yunshen had seemed so familiar when he first saw him. It never occurred to him that Huo Yunshen was the son of Long Rui.

He still remembered the pact he and Long Rui made for their children, that they would be friends and companions in the future. It was as if fate had played its hand and brought them together in the end.

“Thank you for meeting with me,” Huo Yunshen said.

Huo Yunshen guessed that Helian Qingyu had already told Helian Wei about his past.

“Can you show me the thing that your father left you?” Helian Wei requested.

“Of course.”

Huo Yunshen took out the red silk pouch and handed it to Helian Wei.

Helian Wei opened the pouch and discovered the Dragon Emperor's Jade Seal lying inside it.

“Your father would've been happy to see his son growing into such a successful person,” Helian Wei said with a smile.

Chapter 1248: The Oversensitive Pregnant Woman

“I'm flattered, Uncle. There's a long way to go. The task is much tougher than I expected. I was not confident in restoring the country up till now.”

“No worries. From manufacturing, national defense to education and public health, I will give you full support, whenever and whatever you need.”

“Greatly appreciated. Thank you so much, Uncle, for sheltering our people after the strife in Dragon Kingdom. Thank you!”

“Don't mention it. Dragon Kingdom has been a good friend to Estan. We always have to help one another. I believe that, if Estan is in danger someday, you will definitely stand up for us too. We could only thrive via mutual support.”

“Sure.”

Huo Yunshen was filled with gratitude. With the help of President Helian Wei, he no longer felt like he was fighting on his own.

It gave him more confidence in restoring the Dragon Kingdom.

During their conversation Huo Yunshen's wife called.

He took a glance at the phone. It was silenced but kept flashing. He planned to call her back later instead of picking up right away.

Helian Wei saw the name on the phone and asked, “Is that your wife?”

“Never mind. I'll call her back later.”

“Take it. You should not keep her waiting. A pregnant woman could be very sensitive!”

Helian Wei hoped that his son-in-law could be kind to his daughter. But he could not say it too obviously. Instead, he could only try suggesting.

When Huo Yunshen reached to the phone, it was no longer flashing. Then he realized, "Uncle, how did you know my wife is pregnant?"

He never told anyone about her pregnancy. How could the president know?

Helian Wei realized that it was indiscreet, and explained, "I think so because I saw her belly slightly swollen the other day. Am I wrong?"

"Absolutely no. My wife has been pregnant for more than four months."

Huo Yunshen always felt excited and proud whenever mentioning it. He wished that he could tell the whole world.

"I see. Congratulations, Yunshen!"

Thank you, Uncle. I guess I have to leave now. I'll come again soon."

"Alright."

Helian Wei stood up to show him out. Huo Yunshen waved goodbye and headed home in his car.

Coming out of the presidential palace, Huo Yunshen hurried to call his wife back.

She picked up immediately and asked, "Hello? Honey, why didn't you answer my call just now?"

"I was in middle of something. But I'm on my way home now. What's up?"

"Nothing. I just wanted to remind you to pick up the kid in the afternoon."

"I know..."

Before he could finish, the driver made a sudden brake and his body moved forward involuntarily. His cell was dropped.

Huo Yunshen tried to figure out what happened and found a car stopped in front, with people coming toward them.

"I have to go now. See you at home."

He picked up the phone and ended the conversation right away.

Xu Xiyan was left sitting on the couch wondering, What is he doing?

Why did he have to go half way through our conversation?

Who is he hanging out with right now?

Chapter 1249: Checked His Background

Huo Yunshen quickly put his phone back into his pocket as the door to the driver's seat was forced open. Huo Yunshen's driver, Mo An, was pulled out from the car forcefully.

The assailants threw Mo An to the floor and began to beat him.

“Stop! What is this?” Huo Yunshen scolded as he hurried out of the car, unable to believe that the people in front of him were so daring.

The assailants threw Mo An to one side and turned to Huo Yunshen.

“This is payback for hurting Young Master Chen!” one of the assailants, who was the leader, scolded.

“What do you want?”

“Come with us, and we'll let him go,” the leader said, pointing at Mo An.

“No, sir! Don't believe them...” Mo An coughed, worried about his master.

But Huo Yunshen was not the kind of person who would let people who worked for him suffer, even when the person was only a driver.

“Fine! I'll go!”

Mo An looked as Huo Yunshen boarded the car and left. He quickly jumped back to his car, despite his injuries, and chased after them while he called Xu Xiyan.

Huo Yunshen was brought to Mingjue, the most luxurious club in all of Lin City.

His assailants took him to a VIP room and when the door opened, Huo Yunshen sighed.

In the room was Helian Chen with a few of his friends, and each of his friends had at least two women by their side.

“Mr. Huo, you're finally here,” Helian Chen laughed when he saw Huo Yunshen entering.

“Mr. Helian, what do you want?” Huo Yunshen asked with a disgusted tone.

Huo Yunshen never liked places such as this; even when he visited bars or clubs with his friends, he would only drink and chat with them and would not play with other women.

“Please, have a seat,” Helian Chen smiled.

Huo Yunshen was a little wary of Helian Chen's invitation. It was as if Helian Chen wasn't looking for revenge.

Huo Yunshen had no means to escape. If he really wanted to, he would have to fight his way out.

But he was worried about his injury and did not want to risk his wound opening up.

Huo Yunshen accepted Helian Chen's invitation and sat down on the couch. Helian Chen quickly poured a cup of spirits for him and called two other women over.

“You two, accompany Mr. Huo,” Helian Chen ordered.

Helian Chen had already done a background check on Huo Yunshen. He found out that Huo Yunshen was not only the Movie King, he was also the president of Zstan's Huo Group and Jingyue Group. But to Helian Chen's surprise, he also found out that Huo Yunshen was JS's leader.

With the newly found information, Helian Chen knew that he had to get Huo Yunshen on his side if he and his father wanted to take over Estan.

“Mr. Huo...”

“Have a drink, Mr. Huo...”

The two women began to latch themselves onto Huo Yunshen.

Chapter 1250: Shouldn't Have Come Here For Him!

Huo Yunshen frowned upon the pungent perfume and found it aversive.

“I don't drink.”

He refused flatly.

Seeing him rejecting the drinks presented by the pretty girls, Helian Chen thought it was because of these girls. So he had his men pick two other stunners and sent them in again.

He would never believe that a man could stand up to such temptations.

Helian Chen had switched the girls again and again. But Huo Yunshen still showed no interest. He asked, “Master Chen, what do you want from me? Stop calling more girls.”

Helian Chen seriously wondered, So is Huo Yunshen a homo?

Could that be his misunderstanding?

He should have called a few pretty boys instead!

Before Helian Chen could get his men to find some boys, he saw them being knocked off one after another. The last one was kicked away and fell on the coffee table right in front of him.

The coffee table was smashed immediately.

They raised up their head and found a man standing at the door.

Helian Chen recognized it was Jun Yan who had made him quite some troubles lately. What was he doing here? For Huo Yunshen?

Xu Xiyan had knocked down all his men and stood combatively at the door. Then she was stunned by what she saw in the room.

She came immediately after the driver Mo An called, so as to save her man no matter what.

She thought that Helian Chen was seeking revenge on Huo Yunshen.

However, she was never expecting a scene like this.

The men were sitting together with pretty girls around them. The girls were all in bikinis and looked as alluring as they could.

How the hell could this be dangerous?

It was obviously them hanging out together!

Apparently she was over reacting.

Xu Xiyan felt hurt by what she witnessed. Recalling Huo Yunshen's strange behaviors, his not picking up and hanging up on her, she could no longer hold her anger.

She shouldn't have come here for him!

Xu Xiyan was disguised as a man. She could not make a scene like that. Therefore she turned to leave without a word.

Huo Yunshen knew that his wife was definitely pissed off. So he rushed out after her.

"Mr. Huo, hey, Mr. Huo..."

Helian Chen was vexed. He figured he should have get rid of that Jun Yan first.

Huo Yunshen darted out of the pub and saw his wife running away fast. He felt so worried.

She was risking her own life just now. What if she endangered herself and the babies?

Huo Yunshen tried to reach out to her but Xu Xiyan shook him off and headed to the car.

Despite her pregnancy, she was still light as a swallow. She got in, started the car and whirled away.

"Hey..."

Huo Yunshen flapped on the window in vain. Seeing his own car right next to him, he got in and asked Mo An to follow her.

They speeded along the way until they arrived at the villa. Xu Xiyan pulled over and Huo Yunshen's car followed.

Huo Yunshen got out and saw his wife already got inside. He hurried toward her, "Honey..."

Xu Xiyan ran upstairs and went to the bedroom. She tried to close the door but Huo Yunshen blocked it.

She slammed the door and get inside. Huo Yunshen followed and closed it behind him.

Inside the bedroom, Xu Xiyan sat angrily by the bed. Huo Yunshen came to her and called gently, "Honey..."

Xu Xiyan was pissed off. She looked above and yelled, "Don't say a word. I know what is going on!"

"What do you know?"
