

Priceless Baby 1301

Chapter 1301: Never Leaving Her Alone

Sitting down by his side, she held his hand and murmured, "How could you be so silly?"

"You suffered from heart troubles yet you risked to give me your kidney.

"I was already a dead person for over a decade. Why bother saving me?"

"So now I am fine. But you are not coming back.

"If only I had known, I would never have let you do this.

"Feng, do you know how heartbroken I am now?"

"How I wish I could take out the kidney and give it back to you, together with my heart. I just want you to live a good life.

"I just want you to be fine. Do you understand?"

Having said so, Jing Ruyue lost control of her emotions and bent over him, her tears pouring down.

Helian Wei was in a coma. He felt as if he was trapped in a foggy world and was not able to see clearly.

There were no directions nor edges. He had no idea where to exit.

Amidst the fog, he seemed to have heard something. It sounded like a woman's cry.

Following the voice, he got closer and heard it more clearly.

Was that Xiao Yueliang crying?

It sounded like his Xiao Yueliang. She sounded heartbroken which made him heartbroken too.

He tried to look through the shadows but it was too foggy.

"Xiao Yueliang! Xiao Yueliang..."

He tried to call her name aloud and make her hear him.

He tried to break through the damn fog again and again, and kept falling back.

But he would never give up. Because his Xiao Yueliang was heartbroken. She needed him and he was coming for her.

Jing Ruyue kept weeping and failed to see the man's finger slightly lifting and his eyes rolling.

After a long while Jing Ruyue sat up and wiped her tears. "Feng, I've made up my mind. I'm staying here and never leaving you again. So please, do wake up soon for me. Will you?"

This time his eyelashes trembled and Jing Ruyue caught it. She was so excited. "Feng, you heard me, didn't you? If yes, can you try lifting a finger?"

Helian Wei did lift a finger. Jing Ruyue was overwhelmed. She held his hand to her cheek with her eyes filled with joyful tears.

“This is great! Feng, I knew you would never leave me alone. You said you would find our son and bring him to me. You have to keep your promise!”

Jing Ruyue decided to stay in the Moon Castle to take care of Helian Wei.

The Moon Castle was officially occupied.

Huo Yunshen arranged for two chefs, ten maids and a butler to take care of Jing Ruyue and Helian Wei.

In order to help her mother recover, Xu Xiyan stayed with them as well.

Ying Bao had to go to school. So Huo Yunshen took her back to Yunjing Villa. They came to the castle for dinner every day after school, and went back to the villa around eight to nine in the evening. On Fridays, they came directly after school and stayed for weekends.

It was very pleasant in the Moon Castle, especially good for a pregnant woman.

Xu Xiyan stayed here and did daily morning exercise in the open air together with her mother.

After a short while Jing Ruyue recovered rapidly and gained some weight. Color came back to her face. And she felt much more energetic.

People said that being happy was the key to a healthy life. Being able to stay with the man she dearly loved did help Jing Ruyue recover the quickest.

Chapter 1302: Not Going Back On His Words

Even though Helian Wei was still lying unconscious, Jing Ruyue was sure that he would wake up someday.

And she would wait even if it would take a long time.

Huo Yunshen arrived at the castle to pick up his wife.

It was clear that Xu Xiyan was pregnant, and five months in. Her belly was swelling, and she wore a bubble skirt to hide it.

Since she could not wear makeup, she wore a hat with a veil to hide her face.

She still looked like she was a celebrity, and people would not notice that she was pregnant if they did not look clearly.

“Mum, grandpa's new clinic is opening today, do you want to come with us?”

Jing Ruyue was tidying up her washed clothes. She looked at the man on the bed and shook her head.

“No, you two go ahead.”

Xu Xiyan knew that her mother did not want to leave her father's side and Xu Xiyan respected Jing Ruyue's choice.

"Okay, then we'll leave now. Call us if anything happens."

"Okay. See you."

After Xu Xiyan had left, Jing Ruyue put the clothes in the wardrobe and went to plant some things in small pots.

Since she had nothing to do, Xu Xiyan had bought her a lot of pots and plants so that she could pass the time.

She has been planting quite a few plants, and they covered every corner of the castle.

Jing Ruyue was tending to the plants. She needed a small shovel, and someone handed it to her.

She thought that it was one of the servants and did not raise her head. Jing Ruyue continued to place the plant in the pot and watered it.

"This should be fine, right?"

"Yes, it's pretty." A familiar voice came from behind.

Jing Ruyue thought she was hearing things that she shouldn't. But when she saw the slippers the man was wearing, she raised her head in surprise.

The one who had handed her the shovel was not a servant, but the man who had just woken up. It shocked Jing Ruyue so much that she let go of the pot in her hands.

The man was one step faster as he caught the plant and placed it right on the table next to Jing Ruyue.

Both of them stared at each other.

Jing Ruyue could not believe what was happening. She thought that she would have to wait for a long time for him to wake up, but miraculously, he was standing right in front of her.

Tears began to fog up her eyes as they dropped to the floor like pearls.

Jing Ruyue could feel the pain in her heart as her lips trembled, unable to utter a single word.

Tears were also apparent in Helian Wei's eyes. He felt like he was the luckiest man in the world, as when he woke up, the woman that he treasured the most was right in front of him, sitting on the balcony tending to some plants.

He walked slowly towards Jing Ruyue and extended his shaking right hand. He held her face softly like the wind touching her face.

He was afraid that if he were to use any strength, she would disappear.

He lowered his head as his tears dropped onto her face.

"The Helian Wei that you know of is now dead," Helian Wei whispered. "Now I stand before you as your Feng."

"I thought you would never wake up..." Jing Ruyue whimpered as she grabbed Helian Wei's hands.

"There's no way I would die if you didn't tell me to do so. I did promise you that I'd bring our son back, and I tend to keep that promise."

Helian Wei was lucky that Jing Ruyue was by his side when he was unconscious. It was her voice and cries that brought him back.

He missed her dearly and could not stand watching her being sad. That was what gave him the will to wake up.

Chapter 1303: All His For The Rest Of Her Life

Helian Wei lifted her up and held her in his arms.

"Xiao Yueliang, from today, from this very moment, I'll leave the rest of my life in your good hands. Please take care of it. Will you?"

"Yes. I will."

She nodded with her eyes filled with tears. That was also what she was thinking.

For the rest of her life, she was all his.

After all they had been through for all these years, luckily they found the way back to each other and could finally live a happy ever after.

Outside the Moon Castle, Xu Xiyan came back in their car to pick up something she had left.

She was surprised to see the two of them on the balcony. "Honey, look! It's mother and..."

"It seems he is awake," Huo Yunshen confirmed.

Seeing her parents holding each other, Xu Xiyan leaned over her husband's shoulder and felt sensational.

This is great! Father is finally back and mother has found her happiness. They are finally together.

"Do you want to meet your father now?" Huo Yunshen asked.

"Not today. I'll give them some privacy. Let's go. We shouldn't keep grandfather waiting."

Xu Xiyan wiped her tears and sat back. They left again.

On their way they heard a piece of news on the radio broadcast:

Breaking news: The municipal jail has reported that Yun Xuerou, formerly Mrs. President escaped at 3:40 this morning. The police are trying their best to locate her. Please report to authorities immediately if you see her.

Upon hearing the news Xu Xiyan got worried. "Honey, that woman is out there. I'm afraid she will come after my mother."

“Don't worry. The Moon Castle is intensively guarded. She wouldn't dare come any closer now.”

“She'd better not. If she dares, I won't let her get away with it.”

Huo Yunshen heard from Helian Qingyu that Jing Xi had given her a good beating last time in the hospital.

She even ran up and down stairs regardless of her pregnancy. How scary.

“Promise me you won't do that again. Let me take care of it.” Huo Yunshen could not help warning her. “What if you hurt yourself and our babies?”

“I will be more careful.”

“You simply never listen to me. Otherwise, how could you have run that fast just now?”

Being scorned, Xu Xiyan stuck out her tongue and made a promise. “OK, OK. I swear I will be more careful from now on.”

They arrived downtown shortly.

Xu Xiyan saw the signage of Renjing Chinese Medicine Hall. It took the same style of Chinese calligraphy but was designed distinctly different.

The decor echoed the tradition of Zstan but integrated the culture and language of Estan.

There were lots of flower decorations in front of the clinic. They even got lion dancing performance at the opening. Many journalists came to cover the story.

Huo Yunshen pulled over and led his wife out. They walked toward the Renjing Chinese Medicine Hall.

Recognizing Huo Yunshen, the journalists went immediately after him. But they managed to get inside with the help of the safeguard. Jing Huaduo and Jing Zhannan were waiting for them.

Xu Xiyan found that the cabinets and many other pieces of furniture looked very familiar. She tried asking, “Did you ship all these from Zstan?”

Chapter 1304: What's Wrong With You

“Yes, I've brought most of the things that can be used over from Renjing. I think it's best that he uses things that he's familiar with,” Huo Yunshen said.

“That's very caring of you,” Xu Xiyan said.

Xu Xiyan was really grateful that she had a husband like Huo Yunshen. Even though he had lost his family, he still did his best to live for her.

He kept all the sadness to himself and tried his best to help others.

Xu Xiyan knew that it would be impossible to find another man like Huo Yunshen.

Jing Huaduo was really happy with the setting. He sat in his office, which was decorated the same as the one he had in Zstan.

"How's the new place?" Xu Xiyan asked when she met with Jing Huaduo after greeting her uncle.

"Very good!" Jing Huaduo laughed. "All thanks to Yunshen. With the things he got from Peijing, it still feels like I am there."

"Well, as long as you're happy."

They chatted for a while, and the first customer arrived.

Helian Qingyu visited the clinic with his bodyguards which garnered the media's attention.

Since he was the President of Estan now, anywhere he visited would be interesting to the media.

"Oh, my dear Mr. President, thank you for advertising for my grandpa's clinic!" Xu Xiyan laughed.

"I'm here to see the doctor, not for advertising," Helian Qingyu scolded.

"Sure. Have a seat. Let my grandpa see what's wrong with you."

Xu Xiyan pushed Helian Qingyu into Jing Huaduo's office.

Helian Qingyu told Jing Huaduo about his symptoms. The latter remained silent after that, and it shook Helian Qingyu, thinking that his symptoms were severe.

"Grandpa, what's wrong with him?" Xu Xiyan asked.

"Mr. President's face is healthy, and his blood flow is normal. There's nothing wrong with his body," Jing Huaduo explained. "I think it has more to do with his mind than his body."

"I see," Xu Xiyan laughed. "I think it's lovesickness, big bro."

"Shut the hell up!" Helian Qingyu scolded and got up, denying everything. "Can I borrow bro for a moment?"

Huo Yunshen turned to look at Xu Xiyan, worried about her being alone.

"Go, I'll be with grandpa and uncle today," Xu Xiyan said, understanding that they might have something important to talk about.

Both of the men left, and Xu Xiyan stayed back in the clinic helping her grandfather.

Helian Qingyu brought Huo Yunshen to Estan's Naval Base.

They boarded a warship, and behind them were a thousand other warships on standby.

"Bro, look. These ships are installed with the special device to enter the Dark Zone. We now have two carriers, 2,000 warships, and 60 jets ready for war," Helian Qingyu introduced.

“Very good. JS is ready for war too. We can act once the tide lowers this month.”

The barriers of Lstan would be the weakest during the high tide, but they would go into Defcon 2 every time it happened.

Chapter 1305: The Perfect Candidate

That was why Huo Yunshen and Helian Qingyu chose to act exactly the opposite – to attack Lstan during the ebb tide when their magnet shield functioned at full capacity and their defense forces were least on alert.

When they left the warship, Huo Yunshen received a call from his master and told Helian Qingyu, “I have to go across the border again now.”

Helian Qingyu handed him the seal and proposed, “Bro, what would you say if I wanted to appoint you as our Chief Commander?”

As the current president, Helian Qingyu had been acting as the Chief Commander for a while. He had tried to find a suitable person to take his role in the army.

After rounds of screening, he still thought that Huo Yunshen was the perfect candidate. He had led the navy of Estan to defeat Lstan and demonstrated extraordinary military prowess.

Plus, he was Jing Xi's husband, namely his brother-in-law. He could rest assured if he would take the position.

“No way. Get someone else!”

Huo Yunshen took a few steps further then stopped. “If you cannot find one, I do have someone to recommend.”

“Who's that?”

“Jun Yan.”

Upon hearing the name Helian Qingyu could only think of the Jun Yan disguised by Jing Xi.

“You probably don't know him. But you must have heard of Jun Che.”

“Absolutely. Jun Che used to be our Chief Commander during my grandfather's regime. Unfortunately, he died in a war. Could he be...”

“Exactly. He is Jun Che's grandson, no less capable than you or me.”

“I see. Bring him to me some time.”

“Sure.”

Helian Qingyu trusted Huo Yunshen's judgment. Furthermore, he knew that Jun Che's descendants must be ardently loyal.

When Huo Yunshen got into his car, Helian Qingyu asked, “Bro, shall I come with you?”

“Don't bother. You mind your business and I'll take care of mine. I'll let you know when I'm in need.”

Helian Qingyu watched Huo Yunshen leave.

Since he had succeeded the presidency Helian Qingyu began to realize how heavy his burdens were. He could barely catch his breath.

Not to mention indulging himself like before.

Even his plan to go after Li Ruochu was postponed.

Whenever thinking of that woman on the run, Helian Qingyu felt his heart skip a beat.

She'd better stay out of his sight forever. Otherwise he would never let her go again when he got hold of her.

Across the border of Estan, there was the Dragon Kingdom.

The ice cover over the Dragon Kingdom had mostly melted since the Geothermal energy system was launched. The magnificent kingdom started to unveil itself.

Qi Zhengming welcomed him and took him on a helicopter tour. He reported, “Yunshen, we have already started the restoration in the areas where the ice is fully melted.”

“It's a massive project.”

Huo Yunshen followed Uncle Ming's direction and saw constructors busy working on the sites. They were trying their best to restore the previous architecture. The wooden structures had been eroded by the ice and had to be reconstructed.

The helicopter finally landed at the site of the royal palace. They got off and headed to the palace.

The palace was one of the earliest unveiled structures in this land. It had already dried under the sunlight.

Entering the palace, they saw well-preserved murals and decorations. Nothing seemed to have changed except for some water-soaked areas.

Chapter 1306: A Terrifying Discovery

“This used to be the palace, your home,” Qi Zhengming said as he guided Huo Yunshen.

Huo Yunshen felt as if someone had pricked his heart when Qi Zhengming introduced the unfamiliar place as his home.

To Huo Yunshen, his home would always be the Huo family in Peijing, but that place had also become a place of sorrow for him.

Huo Yunshen had been snuck out from the palace when he was a baby. He had no feelings attached to the castle; the only thing that he had was the responsibility he had to carry.

After taking Huo Yunshen on a tour around the palace, Qi Zhengming took him to the royal tomb.

“Yunshen, we found something really terrifying,” Qi Zhenming said.

“What?”

“We discovered that both your father's and mother's body are gone. That's the reason I called you over today.”

They both stopped in front of Huo Yunshen's parents' tombs, but the coffins were gone.

“Were you here when they were buried?”

“No, I was on my way to take you to Zstan. When I came back, the funeral was over, and most of the remaining people had left because the cooling system had started working.”

“Which means you can't confirm whether they were buried here or not?”

“But where would their bodies be? Could it be they were buried in another place?”

No one could answer Huo Yunshen's question. A lot of people died during the civil war, and the land was filled with dead bodies.

The people who were responsible for identifying the bodies had all passed away and no one knew what happened after that.

“Uncle Ming, is there a possibility that they are still alive?”

“...” Qi Zhengming was stunned by Huo Yunshen's question.

“I'm just asking. We have to conduct a search after all the ice has melted.

But the truth was, Qi Zhengming had also once thought of that possibility.

But it was a question that no one had the answer to.

Both of them left the tomb after that.

“Uncle Ming, we'll be going to war with Lstan on the next low tide,” Huo Yunshen said.

“I'll assist you then.”

After everything was settled, Huo Yunshen went straight back to Lin City.

He fetched his wife from the clinic and took her back to the Moon Castle.

When they walked into the living quarters, the butler told them that Jing Ruyue was preparing dinner in the kitchen.

The couple walked to the kitchen and saw something heartwarming.

Jing Ruyue was preparing dinner in the kitchen while Helian Wei was helping her from time to time. If Helian Wei was free, he would just stare at Jing Ruyue quietly.

“There's something on your face,” Helian Wei suddenly said.

“What?” Jing Ruyue asked as she raised her head. “Help me wipe it.”

Helian Wei walked up to Jing Ruyue and kissed her cheek and lips casually.

“Hey! What if the kids see us?” Jing Ruyue scolded when she noticed that it was a trick.

Helian Wei turned his head just to check if his daughter was back. To his surprise, Xu Xiyan and Huo Yunshen were standing just outside the door and had seen what just happened.

Chapter 1307: Finally Found Each Other

“They are here.”

Helian Wei stopped and came out to welcome them. He could not help staring at his own daughter.

Xu Xiyan looked back at him as well. Her eyes were filled with tears again seeing him coming toward her.

“I'm so sorry, Jing Xi. Please forgive me for my absence.”

As a father, he had failed to be there when she grew up. He had been absent throughout her life, which made him feel guilty and sad.

Xu Xiyan wiped her tears and put on a smile. “I never blamed you.”

Helian Wei choked and opened his arms to her. “Xixi, come to father. Will you?”

Huo Yunshen pushed her slightly forward. “Go, honey.”

Then Xu Xiyan ran into her father's arms. They had finally found each other.

“Father...”

Xu Xiyan cuddled in her father's arms like a lost child who had finally found her way home. She burst into pouring tears.

Jing Ruyue could not help weeping, and neither could Huo Yunshen.

It was such a memorable moment.

Xu Xiyan used to think that she would never find her father again. But now she had found her father and gotten her mother back. They were finally reunited.

When they all managed to calm down, Jing Ruyue placed the dishes on the table and called, "Dinner is served."

They sat down one by one. Her father and mother refilled her plate. Xu Xiyan never got rid of joyful tears but managed to finish all they'd gotten for her.

She finally knew how happy she could feel to have her father and mother by her side.

She was extremely excited, even too excited to care about the person next to her.

The happier they were, the more grieved Huo Yunshen felt.

Seeing his wife being happily together with her parents, Huo Yunshen could not help thinking of his own parents and grandfather.

He used to have a happy family too. But now they were all gone. It would be his regret for the rest of his life.

He felt heartbroken and the headache came back to him.

Huo Yunshen had to try his best to control his restlessness. He did not want to ruin their perfect reunion.

After dinner, Huo Yunshen proposed to leave Xu Xiyan in the castle with her parents. But she insisted on going home with him.

"Now my father is back. I don't want to be a third wheel here. Let's go home together, honey."

Xu Xiyan got hold of his arm and pushed him out of the castle.

Helian Wei and Jing Ruyue sent them to the gate and watched them leave.

On their way back Huo Yunshen barely said anything, nor did he respond properly to Xu Xiyan's talking.

"What's wrong with you, honey? Are you OK?"

Xu Xiyan sensed that he was somewhat upset.

"I'm fine."

He said nothing further. Xu Xiyan reasoned that it must have been her reunion with her parents that had made him feel sad. "Honey, was that because of me with my parents? Please do talk to me if you feel sad."

"I said I'm fine. Stop it."

Huo Yunshen lost his temper. He clenched the wheel and told her to stop talking. He was annoyed.

Xu Xiyan knew that he must be upset again. And there was nothing she could say right now.

Chapter 1308: Provoked

Huo Yunshen realized he should not get angry at Xu Xiyan.

"I'm sorry." Huo Yunshen apologized and stepped on the pedal.

He tried to get back home as fast as he could.

Xu Xiyan could feel that the car was drifting in and out of the lane, but they made it home safely.

Huo Yunshen did not help his wife out of the car. The first thing he did was run straight back to the manor.

Xu Xiyan could hear something break not long after.

She knew that Huo Yunshen might be provoked and he was going into a rage again.

Huo Yunshen had been suppressing himself the whole night, which was the reason he had remained quiet throughout dinner.

Xu Xiyan quickly rushed back into the manor to check on him.

She pushed open the door to the study room. The room was already a mess. Huo Yunshen stood in the middle of the room, his back towards Xu Xiyan. Xu Xiyan could feel the rage he had, but she still rushed to him and hugged him from behind.

"Hubby, please calm down..."

"Get out! Get out now!"

Huo Yunshen hugged his head as if he was trying to pull it off.

"Think of your daughter and our unborn baby! We can never leave you! Hubby..."

Xu Xiyan tried to calm Huo Yunshen's rage.

The man stopped as if he had finally calmed down.

Xu Xiyan let Huo Yunshen go and went to check on him.

But beyond her expectation, Huo Yunshen suddenly grabbed Xu Xiyan by her throat and pushed her to the door.

"Hu... hubby..."

Huo Yunshen had already lost his mind. His eyes were red, and his expression was scary.

Xu Xiyan used all her power to try and get his hand off her throat, or else she would suffocate.

With the remaining sanity that Huo Yunshen had, he threw Xu Xiyan out of the room, out of harm's way.

Xu Xiyan fell to the ground. The fall hurt her as she grabbed her belly and yelled in pain.

When all of that happened, Ye Xun and Ying Bao returned home. Ying Bao knew that her parents were back and ran upstairs to greet them first.

The little kid saw her mother being thrown by her father, and she quickly rushed to Xu Xiyan's side.

“Mommy!”

“No! Don't come here!” Xu Xiyan shouted in panic.

But the little kid still ran to her mother and looked at her father.

“Daddy, what happened? Why did you push mommy? Don't you know my brother is in there?”

Huo Yunshen had no idea what was happening anymore. The kid's voice was a nuisance to him. He grabbed Ying Bao by her shirt and lifted her up high.

Ying Bao thought that her father was playing with her, but she was utterly wrong. Huo Yunshen was going to throw his daughter out.

“No! Hubby! That's your daughter!” Xu Xiyan yelled.

But nothing worked as Huo Yunshen threw Ying Bao away.

Ying Bao screamed as she flew through the corridor.

Chapter 1309: Did Not Want To Make Him Feel More Guilty

Luckily, Ye Xun reacted immediately and got the child in time.

When he put her down Ye Xun saw that Huo Yunshen had gone after Xu Xyan instead. He darted to push him into the study and locked the door.

He lifted up Xu Xiyan and called to Ying Bao, “Run, my girl!”

They rushed downstairs and shut the door behind them.

Xu Xiyan was worried about Huo Yunshen. So she called Gu Yici to come over despite it already being midnight.

“Are you OK, Little Xixi?”

Ye Xun found her to be looking pale.

“No worries. I'll be fine in a minute.”

Xu Xiyan felt some disturbance with her unborn babies.

“How often does he get like this?”

Ye Xun did not dare to think what would have happened if he had not been here tonight. Would Huo Yunshen have dropped Ying Bao from upstairs?

“He has been on medication and it seems to be working. It might have been seeing me reunited with my parents tonight that provoked him.”

Xu Xiyan was so worried. She wished the best for her family. But they were never freed from sufferings.

When Gu Yici arrived at Yunjing Villa, he joined Ye Xun to go for Huo Yunshen. It turned out that he had ransacked all the rooms upstairs.

“Mo Yutian! Get the hell out! You're doomed!”

Huo Yunshen kept searching in the chaos. He had gone completely out of control.

He was trapped in a desperate illusion, where Mo Yutian kept flashing in front of him, but he could never get a hold of him.

Gu Yici and Ye Xun made eye contact and got hold of Huo Yunshen before he saw them.

He was extremely powerful when enraged. The two of them could barely control him and tied him up.

“Let go of me! Damn you!”

Huo Yunshen struggled maniacally. Gu Yici tried to hypnotize him.

After half an hour of hypnotization Huo Yunshen was finally calmed down. Gu Yici gave him some medication to help him get rid of the mania.

When Huo Yunshen was sober again, he wondered why Gu Yici and Ye Xun were there. “What are you doing here?”

Ye Xun sighed, “If we were not here, you probably would have pulled down the house.”

Seeing the havoc around him, Huo Yunshen was silenced. Had he done all of this when he was in mania?

Recalling that he had come home together with Xu Xiyan earlier on, he felt worried. “Where is Jing Xi? Is she alright?”

“Fortunately, yes. She is with Ying Bao downstairs.”

Ye Xun did not dare to tell him that he almost threw his daughter downstairs and pushed his wife away. He did not want to make him feel more guilty.

Huo Yunshen went downstairs with them and saw his wife and daughter in the guest bedroom.

Seeing him coming in, Xu Xiyan held her daughter closer and seemed to be anxious. Her reaction was prickling for him.

“Honey...”

“Are you OK now?”

“Yes.”

“Cherry, my baby!” He called his daughter.

“Ying Bao squeezed further into her mother's arms and complained, “Daddy was so scary just now. You almost killed me.”

Huo Yunshen almost lost his breath in stabbing pain.

He was supposed to protect them. But now he was a dangerous killer and could hurt them at any time. It was the last thing he would have wished to happen.

Chapter 1310: The Best Proof

“We're fine. Where's Doctor Gu?” Xu Xiyan asked with a smile.

“Outside. I'll let Ye Xun take you away from here for the moment.”

Huo Yunshen had asked Ye Xun to take Jing Xi and their daughter away for a while to prevent incidents like that from ever happening again.

“Why?”

“For your and Ying Bao's safety... I'll fetch both of you back once the house is tidied up.”

Huo Yunshen did not want to separate from his wife, but he was also afraid that he might harm her again and cause injuries that could not be undone.

“I see.”

Xu Xiyan decided to go along with Huo Yunshen's plan. She set her feet and tried to get up, but the pain in her belly made her sit back down as she frowned.

“Are you all right?” Huo Yunshen asked as he rushed to her side to help her. “I'm sorry... It's all my fault...”

“No, it's not. I'll go back with Ye Xun now. You take good care of yourself, okay? Follow every instruction that Doctor Gu gives you.”

“I will. Let me take you to the car.”

Huo Yunshen picked his wife up and took her to Ye Xun's car. He also helped Ying Bao onto the vehicle and told Ye Xun not to drive too fast before they left.

Ye Xun started the car and drove out of Yunjing Manor. When Xu Xiyan turned back to look, Huo Yunshen was still standing there looking at them.

It hurt Xu Xiyan to see that. It was as if her heart was being pricked by thousands of needles.

She prayed to God that her husband could live a happier life.

And when everything was over, she planned to bring Huo Yunshen somewhere quiet, on a trip with nothing to worry about.

Ever since Helian Qingyu had visited Renjing Chinese Medicine Hall, the clinic's business was getting better by the day.

People from Estan were worried at first about the doctor who came from abroad. But when they learned that even their President had visited the clinic, they started to visit Jing Huaduo too.

When Jing Huaduo managed to cure a few complicated symptoms, his name was finally known to the whole country.

The clinic became so famous that the media and magazines began to talk about it.

Other than that, pictures of Huo Yunshen and Jing Xi at the clinic's opening day also garnered a lot of attention.

When the people in Zstan saw pictures of Huo Yunshen standing next to a woman wearing a veil, they were sure that she was Jing Xi.

Ever since the bombing incident at the Huo mansion, Jing Xi had gone missing, and Huo Yunshen had left the country.

But when the people saw pictures of them still being together, they felt relieved. Fans began to leave messages on Jing Xi's social media account, asking when she would be back and when they could expect a new movie.

Three days after the clinic was opened, a director visited, asking to meet with Jing Xi. The director even gave them the name of the person who had introduced him to her.

Jing Huaduo called Xu Xiyan, telling her that a director that had been introduced by An Xianming was looking for her. Upon hearing An Xianming's name, Xu Xiyan agreed to meet with him.
