

Priceless Baby 1311

Chapter 1311: Pleasant Surprise

In a beachside cafe in Estan, Xu Xiyan came in disguise with Ye Xun and Huo Sanyan.

It was a man in his forties or fifties with whiskers. He dressed in a grey suit and seemed dignified.

Xu Xiyan recognized him at first sight. "Are you Mr. Hanson, the world renowned director?"

Hanson did not expect her to recognize him. He stood up to shake hands with her and greeted in Zstan's language, "Hi Jing Xi, nice meeting you."

"Nice meeting you. Mr. Hanson. These are my good friends."

Xu Xiyan briefly introduced Ye Xun and Huo Sanyan. Hanson greeted them too and everyone was seated.

"Did you say it was Director An Xianming who recommended me?"

Xu Xiyan heard briefly from her grandfather that it was An Xianming who had referred her.

"Right. An and I are good friends. He spoke highly of you. I've seen your movies and commercials. You are indeed talented."

Hanson had not been able to reach her until he saw the news the other day. He tracked down the Renjing Chinese Medicine Hall from Huo Yunshen and left a message, but was not expecting any solid feedback.

It was a pleasant surprise that Jing Xi called him back and even agreed to meet him.

"Thank you so much. Mr. Hanson. Have you been in touch with An lately? How is he doing?"

Xu Xiyan tried to ask about An Xianming, as she had not heard from them ever since he took Xue Yating away.

"We talk over the phone now and then but haven't seen each other for a while. I have no idea what he's been up to lately."

"I see." Xu Xiyan nodded. "So what would you like to talk about today?"

"It's for a movie I am working on lately. I need an Asian face and could not think of a better candidate than you. Therefore I'd like to invite you to join my team. Would you be available?"

It already made Xu Xiyan very grateful that Hanson had come all the way for her.

It should be a wonderful opportunity. She might be able to go international through Hanson's production.

But she had to think it through. She was in her fifth month of pregnancy and would give birth in another three to four months. In that case she would only be available again in a year.

“Thank you so much for your acknowledgement, Mr. Hanson. But I'm afraid I would not be able to join until next year. When do you plan to start shooting?”

“Well, luckily it's next year. In that case, do I have the honor of making a reservation with you?”

Xu Xiyan smiled. “I'm flattered. But I have to talk to my husband first. Can I get back to you after that?”

“Sure. Your husband, Elvis, used to work with me years ago. I hope he will speak good of me.”

“Haha...”

They all laughed at Hanson's sense of humor.

After the catch up, Hanson had to rush off for some other appointment. They sent him off and got ready to head home.

Right then a wretched figure rushed out and scared the two women.

Ye Xun thought it was a sneak attack and kicked the person away.

Being kicked away, the miserable figure got up and crawled back to them. She pushed aside her dirty hair and unveiled her face.

“Jing Xi! Jing Xi... It's me...”

Chapter 1312: The Nerves He Had

Xu Xiyan could not believe her eyes when she finally realized who the person was. The person she thought to be a beggar turned out to be Lan Ling'er.

“Why are you here?”

“I escaped! Please, Jing Xi, you have to help me. I have nowhere else to go.”

Lan Ling'er had been captured by her brother for committing treason against him and their father. She used her connection to escape Lstan through a trading ship.

She thought of going to Helian Qingyu. But when she learned that he had become the President of Estan, meeting him would be even harder than running from her brother. The only person that she could think of that could help her was Jing Xi.

But finding Jing Xi was no easy feat either. She had been scouting outside the Yunjing Manor for days until she finally saw Xu Xiyan leaving.

“What happened to you?”

Xu Xiyan could not believe that the person she was looking at right now used to be Estan's national goddess.

"Please, I must not let my brother find out that I'm here. I need your help!" Lan Ling'er begged.

She thought that since she had helped Huo Yunshen save Xu Xiyan back in Lstan, Xu Xiyan would help her.

The only thing Xu Xiyan did not expect was that the person who had tried to harm her in the past would come to beg her for help.

Xu Xiyan did not reject Lan Ling'er pleading because she thought that Lan Ling'er would be of use since she was related to Mo Xie.

Xu Xiyan exchanged glances with Ye Xun and said, "All right, follow me."

They took Lan Ling'er with her and settled her down in a small apartment.

"What's going on in Lstan now?" Xu Xiyan asked while Lan Ling'er devoured a bowl of instant noodles.

"My brother is furious because he lost the war..." Lan Ling'er said. "And he knows about Alice too. That's why he wanted to kill me."

"He knows? Did he hurt Alice?"

Xu Xiyan was worried about Alice. Even though Alice was a clone, she still had her own consciousness as a human.

"He was good to her when he didn't know, and she's pregnant now. But once he learned, he locked her up in the dungeon, and she's dying."

"How could he? She has his child inside her!"

"You're the one to blame. The only one he loves is you. Even if he had a thousand clones, it would always be you." Lan Ling'er sighed as she put down her bowl. "That's how my brother is, stubborn. But he wouldn't be like this if he hadn't met you..."

"Is he planning anything?" Xu Xiyan asked, not wanting to argue about Mo Yutian's stubbornness.

"Of course! He's planning to take over Estan just to get you back."

Is he for real? The nerve he has! Xu Xiyan scolded in her head and laughed wryly.

"Then do you know about his plan? Like when he's going to attack?"

Chapter 1313: Going Out To Battle Tomorrow

"That I have no idea."

Lan Linger did have no idea. But thinking of her own situation she tried to ask, "Jing Xi, could you arrange for me to meet Helian Qingyu?"

Xu Xiyan surely did not want her to meet Helian Qingyu, or bother him at all.

But she seized the opportunity to ask, "You know he is the president now. It won't be easy to set up an appointment with him. Furthermore, your country just invaded Estan. Being a national enemy, you have to show your sincerity in order to see him."

"But how?"

"Of course by presenting something he needs. What he wants the most, at this point, would be a map of Lstan with a detailed description of your military forces. If you could draw a very detailed military map, he would definitely get your good intention."

Xu Xiyan finished her proposal and waited for the response.

Silly as Lan Ling-Er was, she could still see the risk. "Jing Xi, you are asking me to betray my own country!"

Xu Xiyan sneered with her arms folded. "Have you not? Lan Ling-Er, you have no way of turning back now. You are doomed if you dare to go back. The only chance for you lies in coming over to Estan and helping Helian Qingyu."

Lan Ling-Er gave it a good thought and decided, "Fine. I'll do as you said."

Coming out of the apartment, Xu Xiyan was satisfied with the detailed military map of Lstan. It clearly showed the bases and ports as well as the army stations.

She asked Ye Xun to hand it to Huo Yunshen immediately after she got back.

Huo Yunshen was excited upon receiving the map. He had been longing for such a description of Lstan's military forces.

Huo Yunshen headed for the presidential palace right away to discuss it with Helian Qingyu.

They had decided to launch the attack tomorrow, at the ebb tide.

On the night prior to the battle, Huo Yunshen took his wife and daughter to the Moon Castle and had dinner with his parents-in-law.

They were going out to battle tomorrow. He hoped it would not be the last family dinner.

However, Huo Yunshen was not sure whether they could triumph this time.

After dinner, he played some games with his daughter and told several stories until she fell asleep in his arms.

He kissed her little face and found himself very reluctant to leave.

Xu Xiyan entered the room to see this, and could not help feeling worried too.

She knew that they were going to Lstan tomorrow. Despite her worries, she had no reason to stop them.

“Honey...”

Hearing his wife calling, Huo Yunshen turned to her and covered up Ying Bao with the quilt.

“Come here, sweetheart.”

He waved to her and Xu Xiyan came to sit down on his lap.

“Let me take a closer look.”

Huo Yunshen held her gently and stared at her sentimentally.

Xu Xiyan lowered his head and held his face gently in her hands. She stated clearly, “Huo Yunshen, you have to come back alive! I and our children will be waiting for you. If you dare to not come back safe and sound, I swear I'll marry someone else, with your children!”

Her eyes were filled with tears, some of which had fallen onto his face.

“Don't worry. It is just a minor battle. But we have to fulfill it in order to gain lasting peace.”

Huo Yunshen pressed his face onto hers and swore, “I will be fine! And I'll never let you marry anyone else. You are all mine, throughout this life and those to come!”

Chapter 1314: The Final Fight (1)

Xu Xiyan hung a charm around Huo Yunshen's neck and said, “This is a protection charm I got for you. I hope it can protect you.”

“Thank you. You really are my guardian angel,” Huo Yunshen said.

The couple kissed each other, leaving a very heartwarming night.

When the sun rose the next day, Huo Yunshen had already left.

“She's dying. She said that she wants to see you one last time...”

When Mo Yutian heard about Alice's condition, his fingers trembled, and he stopped what he was working on.

He could clearly remember Jing Xi's face, but he wasn't sure if it was Jing Xi's or Alice's.

Mo Yutian was lost in thought until he signaled for the servant to leave. He got up and left his quarters.

He walked down into the dungeon and could see a woman lying in a cell.

Alice struggled to get up when she heard footsteps and saw the man she was dying to see standing not far from her.

“Yutian... I knew you would come...”

Tears rolled down Alice's face. She wanted to stand up, but her weak body could not support her anymore.

Mo Yutian could not help but gasp when he finally saw Alice. He had not seen her for just a few days, but Alice had become an old lady.

He understood that clones had a shorter lifespan than normal humans and would age faster.

He had no idea what he was feeling when he saw Alice in this state.

She was the first woman that Mo Yutian had ever touched.

Alice fell down again, but her tears never stopped.

“You're not the vicious person everyone said you were...” Alice mumbled. “Yutian, I'm really dying... The only regret I have is not being able to give you a child... I really... I really wish that I was not a clone... Then I could love you forever... I have lied to you and betrayed you, and I'm sorry... You coming to visit me during my last breathe... was more than enough...”

Alice's voice got quieter and quieter. It was as if she had mustered all of her remaining strength to say those words.

In the end, Alice's hand fell to the ground, and her eyes closed slowly as she left the world forever.

After the guards checked on her, they reported to Mo Yutian.

Mo Yutian could feel pain in his heart. He turned around, unable to bear the sadness of looking at Alice.

“Bury her as your queen!” Mo Yutian ordered.

“Yes, sire!”

The country held a massive funeral for their queen. Mo Yutian planned to attack Estan once again after the funeral.

But beyond his expectations, Estan, with JS's and other countries' help, launched an attack on the Dark Zone during the low tide.

All of the attacking ships were equipped with the special device to bypass the barrier around Lstan. And with the map they had, Huo Yunshen and Helian Qingyu led the army into Dark Zone's territory.

Since all of Lstan's forces were holding the funeral for their queen, the attacking troops penetrated Lstan's border with ease.

Chapter 1315: The Final Fight (2)

All of a sudden, bombs and gunfire started roaring and struck the Central Island. Even the palace was shaking.

Mo Yutian heard it and came out of the palace. He asked, "What's going on?"

A guard rushed in to report, "Your Majesty, we're under attack!"

Mo Yutian found it unbelievable. It was during the ebb tide when the magnet shield functioned at its full capacity. How could someone attack at this point?

He ascended to the top of the castle and saw through the telescope a black mass of warships coming from all directions. They were from Estan as well as other countries.

Shit!

Mo Yutian commanded at once to send out a military alert nationwide and get all his armies ready for a hard fight.

He took charge himself and sent someone to inform his father, Mo Xie.

Mo Xie also sent out his ghost warships to fight back.

Bombs and gunfire rumbled over the Black Sea. Intensive fire lasted for almost two hours until Huo Yunshen and his allies defeated most of the elite forces of Lstan.

Mo Xie and his men retreated to the Central Island, where a powerful troop was stationed to keep them safe.

Now, Huo Yunshen and his allied troops surrounded the scattering island and started landing.

Huo Yunshen and Helian Qingyu also led their men ashore onto the Central Island and headed for the main city.

When combined the two teams easily broke through the main city and entered the palace.

It took them another hour or so to defeat all the royal guards.

Upon a charging signal, all the soldiers poured into the Palace Fillieres together with Huo Yunshen and Helian Qingyu.

Inside the palace, they fought for a life and death contest until most people died and both sides ran out of bullets.

Mo Xie and Mo Yutian were about to abandon the city and flee. But Helian Qingyu caught Mo Xie.

And Huo Yunshen stopped Mo Yutian. "Mo Yutian! You're going nowhere! We have occupied the entire Black Sea. You've got no choice but to surrender!"

Seeing Huo Yunshen again, Mo Yutian felt enraged with hatred. He pointed at him and cursed, "Huo Yunshen, you called me a rat. But what have you done? You replaced my Jing Xi. You are a rat yourself!"

"Jing Xi is my wife and you kidnapped her. How could you justify yourself? You're doomed today!"

Huo Yunshen frowned and stared fiercely into his eyes. He was determined to defeat Mo Yutian today.

For the sake of his country and his family, he had to defeat him.

“Bring it on. Let's see who will have the last laugh.”

Mo Yutian threw away his empty gun and pulled out his sword. Huo Yunshen also got hold of a sword from a dead guard.

It would be their duel.

They tried the best to kill each other but neither of them seemed to prevail.

After half an hour Mo Yutian started to get worn out. His stump was hurting and it distracted him.

Huo Yunshen finally got the better of him and kicked him away. Mo Yutian bumped into a pillar.

“Mo Yutian, you are finished!”

Right before Huo Yunshen could make his final attack, Mo Xie spoke from on top of the altar.

“Huo Yunshen! You cannot kill him! Otherwise, you will regret it for the rest of your life!”

Chapter 1316: The Final Fight (3)

Mo Xie successfully evaded Helian Qingyu with his understanding of his surroundings and retreated back to the palace.

But what Mo Xie saw when he arrived almost made him shiver.

“Huo Yunshen! Stop! You'll regret it your whole life if you kill him!” Mo Xie yelled.

“All I know is that I will regret it if I don't kill him!”

All Huo Yunshen could see was someone responsible for killing his grandfather and his parents.

He was not going to let Mo Yutian go. He raised his sword and pushed it into Mo Yutian's chest.

And it was at that time that Mo Xie laughed like a maniac.

When Helian Qingyu finally arrived, Mo Xie had already walked up a flight of stairs and looked at all other people from above.

Huo Yunshen pulled the sword out and was ready to stab Mo Yutian one more time. But the words that came from Mo Xie's mouth after that made him miss his mark.

“Interesting! Wonderful! It really is something to see two siblings killing each other! I've waited for this day for more than 20 years! Finally!”

Huo Yunshen quickly shifted the blade, and it struck the pillar next to Mo Yutian.

Mo Yutian looked at his father, completely stunned.

Even Helian Qingyu and his companion were astounded by Mo Xie's words.

“What are you talking about? What sibling?” Huo Yunshen asked.

“Huo Yunshen, do you not know of your real identity?”

“I do. I also know how the Dragon Kingdom fell. You're the culprit! Do you really think I'd listen to anything you say?”

“I don't care if you believe me or not, but you and Long Xiao are from the same mother,” Mo Xie laughed. “You were taken to another country the moment you were born, but they didn't know that your mother had another son too. And that son is you, Xiao'er.”

“...” Mo Yutian was already in shock, his head in a huge mess.

It was hard for him to accept that what Mo Xie had said was true.

Mo Yutian was already the king of Lstan, and the hatred he had for Huo Yunshen was real, so much so that he wanted to kill him no matter what happened.

But then, his father told him that they were actually siblings.

“You're just saying that to save your son!” Huo Yunshen scolded, not believing a word Mo Xie said. “You and I still have unfinished business too! You killed your brother and caused the downfall of the Dragon Kingdom! Both of my parents died by your hands!”

Since Mo Yutian was already heavily wounded, Huo Yunshen thought that he wouldn't be able to escape. As such, Huo Yunshen climbed up the stairs, inching towards Mo Xie.

Soon, both of them began to fight each other.

While they were parrying each other's attacks, they tripped and fell to the ground.

Mo Xie took the chance to strike Huo Yunshen with his sword.

“Watch out!” someone shouted before the sword found itself piercing someone's belly.

Chapter 1317: Revenge Made

It was not as painful as he thought. Then Huo Yunshen realized that Mo Yutian had gotten stabbed for him.

Seeing that he stabbed Mo Yutian instead of Huo Yunshen, Mo Xie sneered, “You are indeed brothers. Although you risked your life to save him, you are both dying here today!”

The sword was stabbed into Mo Yutian's belly. When Mo Xie pulled it out, blood splashed.

Huo Yunshen never would have expected that Mo Yutian would come to save him at last.

It was hard to describe his feelings. He could not believe that Mo Yutian was really his brother, nor could he risk disregarding it.

He got hold of the falling Mo Yutian, placed him on the ground and lifted his sword to fight with Mo Xie again.

Mo Xie was, after all, no match for Huo Yunshen. Being kicked onto the wall, he could no longer fight back while Huo Yunshen pointed the tip of his sword at his throat.

“Long Xie! I'll be taking your life today!”

In order to save himself, Mo Xie yelled, “You will never see your mother again if you kill me!”

Not again!

How many secrets does he hold?

“Do you know where she is?”

Huo Yunshen recalled that, when his master had taken him to the imperial tomb, he told him that the bodies of his parents were missing. Could Mo Xie have stolen them?

“Ha ha ha...”

Instead of providing an answer, Mo Xie burst into wild laughter while he reached silently for a button.

Mo Yutian was seriously wounded. But he noticed Mo Xie's movement and realized that he wanted them all to be buried in the palace.

Yet, it was too late.

Mo Xie pushed the button and the palace started shaking.

Mo Yutian exhausted his last bit of strength and yelled, “Huo Yunshen, go now...”

Mo Xie kept laughing insanely. “With you all being buried with me, I'll die a worthy death. Ha ha ha...”

The entire structure was shaking. Helian Qingyu ran to Huo Yunshen with his men and hurried him, saying, “Bro, it's falling down. We have to leave now!”

Despite the fact that the palace was collapsing, Huo Yunshen could never leave without having Mo Xie killed. Otherwise, who knew what evil he would do again in the future.

Huo Yunshen could not wait for an answer and pierced through Mo Xie's throat while he was still laughing.

Ugly blood gushed out of Mo Xie's throat and dripped along the sword, while he made his last gurgling.

He was indeed a devil. Even his blood was dark.

When Huo Yunshen pulled out the sword, Mo Xie collapsed and his dark blood stained the ground.

Mo Xie was dead!

The debts were paid.

And he had finally taken his revenge!

The palace was shaking more violently and things started falling off.

When Huo Yunshen was about to leave with them, he saw a huge pillar falling onto the bleeding Mo Yutian.

For no apparent reason, Huo Yunshen ran toward him.

“Bro!”

Helian Qingyu tried but failed to stop him.

Bang...

The pillar collapsed into dust and debris.

Huo Yunshen and Mo Yutian were both hit by the pillar. Mo Yutian was already seriously wounded and passed out upon being hit.

“Bro!!!”

Chapter 1318: Heavily Wounded

Helian Qingyu and his men hurried and removed the debris over Huo Yunshen and Mo Yutian before carrying them out.

As soon as they were clear of the palace, the palace began to fall. An explosion burned the whole place into ruins.

If any of the survivors were a minute late, they would've fallen with the palace.

“What should we do now?” one of Helian Qingyu's soldiers asked.

“They are both heavily wounded. Take them to the hospital now!”

With the fall of the palace, the barrier that was protecting stopped working.

The whole Dark Zone was now under the control of the United Forces. Most of the Dragonism followers were also captured.

The attack on Lstan was a huge success.

Helian Qingyu and his men brought the two unconscious men and boarded a ship, heading back to Estan.

Most of the leaders had already departed back to their own countries, leaving the rest up to their subordinates.

Xu Xiyan and Huo Sanyan were waiting impatiently at the port of Estan.

They'd waited from morning to evening and finally saw the fleet coming back.

“Look! It's them!” Huo Sanyan shouted and pointed at the fleet.

“I see them!”

Xu Xiyan prayed for her husband's safe return.

The ships finally stopped at the port. Xu Xiyan kept looking at them, wondering which ship Huo Yunshen was in.

Helian Qingyu was the first person that Xu Xiyan could recognize. He was commanding his soldiers to carry the victims down.

When Xu Xiyan saw all the victims that were covered in blood, she could feel her heart sinking.

The first victim that she could make out was Mo Yutian. He was on the verge of dying, but Xu Xiyan did not give a damn about it.

But upon seeing the next person she recognized, she almost fainted. It was her husband, who was also covered in blood.

“Hubby! Hubby! Wake up...” Xu Xiyan cried as tears began to fall.

Huo Sanyan also cried when she saw her brother in a dire state.

When Helian Qingyu noticed them, he quickly rushed to their side to comfort them.

“For now, we have to get them to a hospital!”

With Helian Qingyu's help, Huo Yunshen was rushed to the hospital immediately.

They waited outside the operating theater. Xu Xiyan's tears never stopped falling down. As soon as she thought of the blood that Huo Yunshen was lying in, she could feel herself in pain too.

Both Huo Yunshen and Mo Yutian had lost too much blood and needed a transfusion. Luckily, both of them had the same blood type.

Helian Qingyu ordered the doctors to save them, no matter what it took.

After hours of operation, they were both saved and were pushed into the ICU.

Xu Xiyan stood outside the unit, looking at Huo Yunshen through the window.

She had already heard from Helian Qingyu about the fight her husband had with Mo Xie.

Chapter 1319: The Result of Their DNA Testing

Xu Xiyan was told about how Mo Yutian was stabbed in order to save Huo Yunshen, and how Huo Yunshen was hit by the pillar when saving Mo Yutian.

She would have never believed that Huo Yunshen and Mo Yutian might be biological brothers.

How could they be?

On the third day after Huo Yunshen went into a coma, Helian Qingyu brought the result of their DNA testing to Xu Xiyan.

She read it through and was stunned.

How could this be true!?

It is unbelievable!

Huo Yunshen and Mo Yutian were indeed biological brothers. Moreover, they were twins.

She could not believe it!

Xu Xiyan kept asking Helian Qingyu, "How could this be possible? How?"

"Even if you find it hard to believe, the fact is the fact. We heard it from Mo Xie. No one would have found it out if he did not tell the truth. Bro and Mo Yutian are both descendants of the Dragon Kingdom. But they were taken on different paths after they were born."

With Helian Qingyu's explanation, Xu Xiyan felt that her world seemed to be fictional. Her husband was an orphaned prince of the Dragon Kingdom!

So he had already known when he took her to the border last time. But he did not tell.

What had he been through?

The Huo family that had brought him up were all killed. Then he was told the truth of his identity, and had to take the responsibility to seek revenge and rebuild the kingdom.

Now the revenge was made. Yet he was told right before he tried to kill Mo Yutian that he was his own brother.

She could barely imagine how biting and painful it was when he heard this.

Xu Xiyan felt so sad for her husband. Helian Qingyu tried to comfort her. "Jing Xi, you have to stay strong. He needs you. And your children need you."

"I know... I'll wait for him to come back."

There was nothing she could do now but to wait.

Once he was out of danger, Huo Yunshen was transferred to a special unit. Xu Xiyan's grandfather, her uncle and parents all came to visit.

It had been seven days but Huo Yunshen showed no signs of waking up. Xu Xiyan was desperate. She kept asking, but the doctor told her that, because Huo Yunshen was injured in the brain, he could only press on his luck for now.

Huo Sanyan and Ye Xun all came to comfort her. Xu Xiyan had not shed a single tear since she heard the doctor's words.

She had no doubt that Huo Yunshen would wake up. He definitely will!

“Jing Xi, go home and take some rest. Let me take care of him!”

Seeing that she had been staying in the hospital for three whole days, Huo Sanyan worried that she would exhaust herself.

“No worries. I have to stay here. I want to be the first one he sees once he is awake!”

Xu Xiyan was not exhausted at all. She could only feel at ease when staying by his side.

She had to be with him. Otherwise, he might feel lonely.

“They said that Mo Yutian is awake. Do you want to check on him?” Huo Sanyan asked.

“Definitely! Let's hear what he has to say!”

Xu Xiyan rushed out of the ward, enraged. Huo Sanyan stayed and asked Ye Xun to go with her.

Blowing open the door, she saw Mo Yutian sitting on the bed and staring blankly at a bird on the windowsill.

Xu Xiyan walked toward him and stared fiercely at the man. “Mo Yutian!”

She called his name but got barely any response.

Xu Xiyan was outraged. She drove the bird away and stood right in front of him, staring into his eyes.

Chapter 1320: His End

As soon as the bird flew away, Mo Yutian went after it.

“Little bird! Little Bird!” Mo Yutian kept on muttering.

Xu Xiyan felt as if something was off, thinking that Mo Yutian was just putting up an act.

“Stop it! I know you're faking it! You're the reason Huo Yunshen is still unconscious! Why don't you die...”

Xu Xiyan kept on scolding, but Mo Yutian did not even pay any attention to her.

Something's wrong here... Xu Xiyan thought.

A doctor came in at that moment, and Xu Xiyan asked him about Mo Yutian.

“Doctor, what's wrong with him?”

“His cranial nerves are injured, and he now has a cognitive disorder. His brain is also damaged. To put it plainly, he now has the brain of a two-year-old kid.”

“So, he's an idiot now?”

“You could put it that way.”

Xu Xiyang turned to look at Mo Yutian. The man had already lost all his maniacal look and now was just a plain idiot. He would sometimes bite his finger or the bedsheets.

Xu Xiyang sighed, as it was the ending that Mo Yutian would have to live with.

There was no point in arguing with him anymore, as he would not even respond to her rage.

Xu Xiyang left the room and went back to where Huo Yunshen was.

She looked at her sleeping husband and could not help but sigh at how fate had worked out.

Huo Yunshen and Mo Yutian were brothers, but they were both raised by different people. It caused them to have completely opposite personalities.

The two of them always stood on different sides, treating each other as enemies. But in the end, who could've thought they were actually related by blood.

The way that Mo Yutian took the sword for Huo Yunshen, and the way that Huo Yunshen rushed to save Mo Yutian proved that they were related. It made them forget about their past and try to save each other instead.

At the end of the day, Mo Yutian was the only living relative Huo Yunshen still had.

Xu Xiyang knew the one that was to blame was Mo Xie.

He was the source of all tragedies. He had killed his brother to obtain power and even raised his nephew to become a killing machine.

He separated Xu Xiyang from his mother, keeping her captive in his dungeon for years.

Xu Xiyang could not help but think that a sword to his heart was the easy way out for him.

The news of Lstan's fall spread throughout the whole world. Most people only knew of the Dark Zone but were never told that there was a country within it.

But no matter what the country was, the news of the Dark Zone's downfall was one worth celebrating.

Since JS and its leader, Huo Yunshen, had made a contribution that could not go unnoticed, the United Nations decided to award Huo Yunshen with the highest peace award.

But since Huo Yunshen was still in an unconscious state, he could not receive the award personally.

While Huo Yunshen was still lying in the hospital, the ice that had once covered the Dragon Kingdom completely melted and the ruins were exposed to the world once again.

Helian Qingyu diverted a lot of power and money to help rebuild the kingdom. He even requested the help of other nations.

Mo Yutian was supposed to receive a judgment in the International Court once he was out of the hospital. But since he had suffered damage to his brain, they could only put him under house arrest with guards watching him 24/7.
