

Priceless Baby 1501

Chapter 1501: What Could He Tell Them?

The two were planning to hide in the mountain for a while and go to their master later on.

But they were already cornered by Ye Xun and Mo Yutian. If they were to go one step further they would definitely fall over the cliff and die.

Yet they still wanted to try their luck. So upon taking a brief look at each other one of them suddenly threw a bag toward Ye Xun and Mo Yutian.

Ye Xun leaped over to get the bag regardless of the danger. Upon getting hold of the bag he felt the tender baby inside, who was crying violently.

When opening the bag, he confirmed from the name tag that it was Jing Xi's second boy, Little Grape.

The two were about to flee when Mo Yutian blocked their way and claimed, "Surrender the other child. Otherwise, you are dead!"

They were desperate to survive. So the disguised nurse decided to give up on the child and replied, "Here you go, catch it!"

However, he faked a throw to Mo Yutian but actually swung the bag toward the cliff.

"No..."

Seeing him throwing the baby over the cliff, Mo Yutian was tingled and leaped immediately toward the cliff despite the danger.

Luckily he was quick enough to catch the baby.

However...

When he got hold of the baby he realized that he was already off the cliff and could not help from falling.

"Ah..."

Mo Yutian's voice resounded among the cliffs.

"Mo Yutian!!!"

Ye Xun witnessed what had happened. Mo Yutian did catch the baby but they fell over the cliff together.

The two wreckers were about to flee when Ye Xun saw them.

Bang, bang, bang...

"You go to hell!"

Ye Xun shot them dead at once.

Then he ran to the cliff and looked downward. But he saw nothing except for a foggy abyss.

The canyon in the Mang Mountain was called the Death Canyon by the people in Estan.

It was said to be connected with an undercurrent that led to the Black Sea and the Sea of Soul. Due to its violent turbulence no one had survived falling into it.

Ye Xun felt like he was burning inside. What should he do now?

He only got Little Grape back. But Little Apple had fallen over the cliff together with Mo Yutian. What could he tell Jing Xi and his boss?

Inside the hospital.

Su Wanqin and Ying Bao did not find the babies so they rushed back to the ward.

“Mommy! Mommy! Oh no!”

Ying Bao ran as fast as she could back to the ward and cried.

“What happened?”

Jing Xi sat up upon hearing her daughter calling.

Jing Ruyue also came out of the kitchen and asked, “What's wrong, Cherry?”

“My brothers are gone! They are gone!”

Ying Bao seemed extremely anxious. Su Wanqin also returned to the ward and said, “Jing Xi, Ruyue, this is terrible. The babies are gone.”

Jing Xi thought they were making a fuss and tried to calm them down. “Mother, don't worry. Perhaps the nurse took them for a bath.”

“No! The nurses are all dead. Someone must have taken the babies!”

“What?”

Su Wanqin's words seemed like a bolt in the blue for Jing Xi. She burst into tears and cried, “What happened? How could my babies have been taken away? I have to go find them!”

Chapter 1502: Can't Handle The Shock

No one could believe what they heard. With Jing Ruyue accompanying her, Jing Xi went to the nursery.

Police had already arrived, and the nursery's door was crowded with people.

Three nurses had died from being attacked.

“Where are my babies?” Jing Xi shouted as she pushed her way into the nursery. It was all real, as she could not find Little Apple and Little Grape.

“My sons!”

Jing Xi collapsed to the floor and cried.

Jing Ruyue also could not hold it in any longer as tears rolled down her face.

“No... This isn't happening... I have to go look for them...”

Jing Xi climbed up, realizing that crying wouldn't solve the problem, and was about to go find her children. Jing Ruyue stopped her just in time.

“Yanyan, stop. Ye Xun and Long Xiao are going after them. We have to put our belief in them. Don't hurt yourself.”

“But my sons...”

Jing Xi finally fainted from all the shock.

Jing Ruyue quickly got someone to help Jing Xi back to her room.

When Jing Zhannan learned from his sister that his nephews were taken, he rushed to the hospital to help

The police had locked the whole hospital down and begun their investigation.

Jing Ruyue only told the news of the incident to Helian Wei and Helian Qingyu. She chose not to tell Huo Yunshen as they were worried that he could not handle the shock since he was still recovering from brain surgery.

They waited impatiently for Ye Xun to return with good news.

He brought one of the babies back to Jing Xi.

“Where's the other one?” both Jing Ruyue and Su Wanqin asked.

“I could only get one back...”

Ye Xun did not tell them the whole story yet.

“What should we do?”

Jing Ruyue took the child from Ye Xun and realized the baby was shivering from the cold.

“Oh, my poor thing...”

Since the incident took place in the nursery, they chose to keep the baby by their side. Jing Ruyue found a clean towel to wrap around the baby.

She hugged the baby until the shivering stopped.

“Where's Xiao'er?” Su Wanqin asked as she noticed Mo Yutian was not with Ye Xun. “Why isn't he back yet?”

“He...” Ye Xun tried to explain.

But before he could, Jing Xi was woken up by the cries of her son.

“I have to look for them...” Jing Xi said in pain.

“Look, he's here!” Jing Ruyue quickly showed Jing Xi Little Grape.

“My son...”

Jing Xi hugged her son and kissed him.

It was her first time hugging him.

Chapter 1503: She Will Be Freaked Out!

Jing Xi sensed something wrong after holding her baby for a while. “Second Brother, where is my other baby?”

Ye Xun's eyes were blood red. He felt like something was sticking in his throat and keeping him from uttering a word.

“Say something please! You are driving me crazy!”

Jing Xi kept asking and Ye Xun had to tell the truth. “Xixi, you have to prepare yourself for this... Mo Yutian and I followed the two guys to the canyon in Mang Mountain. We managed to save this baby. But the other one...”

Ye Xun tried hard to control himself so that he could finish the sentence. “The other one was thrown off the cliff. Mo Yutian did catch your baby. But they fell off together...”

Upon saying so, Ye Xun covered his eyes with hands. It was overwhelming for him even to mention it.

Everyone was shocked. Hearing that her son and grandson had fallen over the cliff, Su Wanqin could not help wailing.

“...” Jing Xi was petrified.

When she came back to herself, her tears fell like rain.

“How could this have happened... why...”

She could not believe a word. Could her baby have fallen over the cliff together with Mo Yutian?

“No...”

Jing Xi screamed and put Little Grape down. She grabbed Ye Xun by the collar and asked, “You are kidding. He must be fine! Second Brother, you are kidding, aren't you?”

No matter how hard she shook Ye Xun, he did not say anything further.

“We have to get Little Apple back! He will be fine... They must be hiding somewhere...”

Jing Xi let go of Ye Xun and headed to search for the baby. But Ye Xun stopped her right away. “Xixi, you wake up! The baby is gone. You have to stay strong! Think about Little Grape. He's already lost his brother. He could not afford to lose his mother...”

“My boy...” Jing Xi cried and passed out in Ye Xun's arms.

The room was enveloped by grief.

Little Ying Bao also realized what had happened and began to sob.

She'd lost one brother. Her mother and two grandmothers were in grief.

She felt extremely sad too. Because she would never see her little brother again.

They had to keep it from Huo Yunshen for the time being. Jing Zhannan took his men from JS First Squadron to the canyon in search of the baby and Mo Yutian.

Helian Wei and Helian Qingyu also sent out their men immediately to join the search.

They took two different paths. One group went down from the cliff while the other searched upstream from the Black Sea, following the undercurrent.

They were hoping for the best. Or at least they had to find their bodies.

Christmas was over.

Huo Yunshen did not see his wife coming today. He felt worried and asked Huo Sanyan, “How is Jing Xi?”

Huo Sanyan was aware of the tragedy. But she had to pretend to be calm in front of Huo Yunshen.

In order for him to recover soon, they chose not to tell him now. “They are doing great.”

“I have to see her and the babies.”

For some reason, Huo Yunshen felt very restless today. He could not breathe properly and was worried that something bad was happening.

“You stay here! You cannot go anywhere now. If you hurt yourself again, Jing Xi will definitely be freaked out!” Huo Sanyan urged her brother to stay in bed.

Chapter 1504: Hide It As Long As Possible

Huo Yunshen wanted to recover as soon as possible, so he could only remain in his room.

But he was also worried about Jing Xi and his sons.

Jing Xi was feeding breast milk to Little Grape. As she looked at Little Grape, who was doing his best to drink the milk, she couldn't help but think of Little Apple.

Tears from Jing Xi began to drip onto Little Grape.

She couldn't even imagine herself living if Little Grape wasn't there with her.

"Yanyan... Don't put any more pressure on your body," Jing Ruyue said as she wiped the tears off her daughter's face.

Jing Xi had not visited Huo Yunshen for a few days since her eyes were still swelling from all the crying.

They had decided to hide the incident from Huo Yunshen for as long as they could.

Helian Wei and Helian Qingyu came to visit Jing Xi at the hospital. They knew that they had to take responsibility for what had happened.

"It's my fault..." Helian Qingyu said. "I should've put some protection on the babies..."

"No! I should've killed that wretched woman from the beginning!" Helian Wei scolded when he learned that Yun Xuerou was responsible for stealing the baby.

"Dad, big bro, it's not your fault. Even if we kill her right now, we still couldn't get Little Apple back..." Jing Xi sobbed.

"We've already dispatched a team to look for them. There's still hope that we actually find him."

But even if there was hope, it was slim.

If Little Apple had survived the fall, he would've still died from starvation or the cold.

The rescue team worked day and night despite the danger. Two days had passed since then, and there still wasn't any good news.

Huo Yunshen was waiting impatiently in his room, wanting to see his wife and sons.

Huo Sanyan tried to hold him back, and just as she was about to fail, Jing Xi came to visit him with Little Grape.

"Jing Xi!"

Huo Yunshen let out a sigh of relief after seeing his wife and son.

"Didn't I tell you to rest? Why are you up again?" Jing Xi scolded.

Huo Yunshen's head was still covered in bandages, and the wound on his head wasn't fully healed yet. He should've restricted his movement as much as possible.

"I was worried about you and the kids," Huo Yunshen smiled. "Is that him?"

Huo Yunshen took Little Grape over from Jing Xi and hugged him softly.

A surge of warmth rushed through Huo Yunshen's body the moment he saw Little Grape; it was a feeling that he could not even describe.

“Little Grape, do you know who I am? I'm your daddy.”

Huo Yunshen smiled as he talked to the baby.

“His eyebrows are just like yours,” Huo Yunshen said and raised his head, only to see Jing Xi crying.
“What's wrong? Why are you crying?”

Chapter 1505: Hard To Swallow

“I'm so happy because Little Grape is getting better.”

When Jing Xi said so she was actually crying her heart out silently. Huo Sanyan knew how hard it was and came to wrap her arms around her shoulders.

“I'm so happy too. Now we are relieved. When we can leave the hospital they will both be fine.”

Huo Yunshen reached to get ahold of Jing Xi and pulled her to his side.

They looked at the cute Little Grape with completely different moods.

When Huo Yunshen was able to leave the hospital, they would have to tell him the truth. How could he handle this by then?

It had been seven days since they were gone. The search was in vain.

It was impossible for them to survive beyond the seven days. They might have been eaten by the fish deep down in the Black Sea or the Sea of Soul.

They had to face the truth, no matter how tragic it was.

The person who was accountable for this was Lady White Tea, namely Yun Xuerou. Helian Qingyu had already offered a reward of eight million dollars in order to arrest his own mother, Yun Xuerou.

With what she had done, no one would accuse him of being ruthless in order to arrest his own mother.

Because Yun Xuerou had gone too far, almost everyone hated her now.

After a month, Jing Xi and Huo Yunshen were both ready to leave the hospital. He got prepared very early in the morning and came to pick up his wife and sons accompanied by Huo Sanyan and Ye Xun.

Jing Xi had packed up her things and was waiting for him with her mother.

She had already buried her grief deep down and forced herself to stand strong. She still had a baby to raise. There was no time for her to grieve.

Her husband was coming soon. They could no longer hide it from him.

Huo Yunshen came and greeted, “Mother, Jing Xi, are you ready?”

“Yes, we've packed.”

Jing Xi pointed at the luggage by her side. Ye Xun and Huo Sanyan helped her take those to the car.

Jing Ruyue followed them out and said, "Yanyan, I'll wait for you downstairs."

There were only the couple and a little baby left in the room.

"Let me hold him."

Huo Yunshen took the baby from his wife. Then he looked around and asked, "Where is his brother?"

Jing Xi blinked with tears in her eyes, and tried to speak as calmly as she could. "Yunshen, I have to tell you something. Our Little Apple...is gone."

"What?"

"Our boy is gone... He is dead..."

Despite her intention to stay strong, she could no longer hold back her sorrow and grief.

She covered her face and burst into tears again.

Huo Yunshen was startled. It was too hard for him to swallow.

Shouldn't the baby be fine?

They said that Little Apple was stronger than Little Grape. How could he have died?

"Tell me! What happened?"

Huo Yunshen placed the baby on the bed and cuddled his wife.

"It was Lady White Tea... She took away our babies..."

Jing Xi told him the truth while weeping. Huo Yunshen could not believe what had happened while he was hospitalized.

The baby was stolen by Lady White Tea and fell off the cliff together with Mo Yutian...

Oh my...

Upon hearing the truth Huo Yunshen was petrified for quite a while. When he finally came back to himself he could feel nothing but roaring rage and profound grief.

Chapter 1506: An Impossible Hope

The news was indeed a massive shock to Huo Yunshen as he could feel his head ripping apart. It hurt so much that he hugged his head tightly.

"Hubby! Are you okay?" Jing Xi asked, realizing Huo Yunshen was in pain. "You have to calm down! I held the incident back from you because I was worried that something like this would happen... Please, stay strong..."

“Jing Xi... I'm sorry...”

Huo Yunshen blamed himself. He blamed himself for having something wrong with his body when his family needed him the most.

He knew that he could've protected his family instead of lying on the bed.

Huo Yunshen was in pain, from the sadness, the anger, and the self-blame.

But he was also in pain when he thought of the hardship that his wife had to go through for the past few days.

The couple hugged each other for a long time.

“Did someone go look for him?” Huo Yunshen asked.

“Dad, big bro, and uncle are looking for him... But they still couldn't find him... Yunshen... We have to accept the truth... We only have one son left...”

They should've returned to Yunjing Manor happily, but now, the manor was shrouded in sadness.

The party for the babies was also canceled.

The room that had been prepared for the twins, where everything came in pairs, all became Little Grape's sole belongings.

“Why don't we remove the other half?” Huo Yunshen asked, worried that his wife might be in pain when she saw the things that were supposed to belong to Little Apple.

“No, keep them. What if Little Apple comes back one day?”

Jing Xi could even understand why she would hope for something nearly impossible.

She really hoped that Little Apple was still alive, that he would return someday in the future.

Huo Yunshen sighed and got prepared to leave for Mount Mang.

Both Jing Ruyue and Helian Wei were also living in the manor to take care of the newborn. The couple left Little Grape with Jing Xi's parents and went to Mount Mang.

Ye Xun was the only witness, having seen everything with his own eyes. Huo Yunshen asked Ye Xun to go with them, and Huo Sanyan also followed them to accompany Jing Xi.

They arrived at the windy and chilly canyon.

Huo Yunshen helped his wife put on a fleece jacket and a scarf to protect her.

They walked towards the edge of the canyon and looked below, but all they could see was fogs and infinite depths.

“Little Apple... Mommy's here!” Jing Xi shouted, hoping that she could get a reply.

Tears began to fall again as Huo Yunshen hugged his wife.

They should've been a family of five, and now, Little Apple was gone.

The chances of him being alive after falling into the canyon with Mo Yutian was very slim.

If they were, they should've been found by now.

"I really want to go down and look for him..."

Jing Xi hated herself for not having a pair of wings or the ability to walk on walls. If she had either one of them, she could've gone down to look for her son.

Chapter 1507: Recovering

"The current is too swift down there. It leads to the Black Sea and Sea of Soul. We cannot get down there from here."

Huo Yunshen tried hard to control himself while comforting his wife. "Qingyu already sent a submarine team to search from the mouth of the Black Sea to the upstream portion of the river. But they found nothing so far.

"Jing Xi, perhaps we should not cling to the fake hope any longer. It's time to face the truth.

"Little Apple will never come back. We can only wish him to be free from sorrow and pain in heaven.

"If there is a next life, hope he will be born into a normal family and lead a normal life."

Huo Yunshen covered his eyes upon finishing these words. It was indeed heartbreaking to lose their baby.

"Honey..." Jing Xi wailed in Huo Yunshen's arms.

Poor Little Apple, mommy and daddy will never see you again.

Seeing them crying in each other's arms by the cliff, Ye Xun and Huo Sanyan could not hold back their tears either.

The loss would probably be haunting them for a long while.

Some pains were inconsolable.

Coming out of the canyon, Jing Xi promised her husband that she would stay strong for him and their children.

What else could she do?

Life had to carry on.

When they came home, her mother had already prepared the dinner and invited Su Wanqin over.

Su Wanqin was also suffering from the loss of her younger son. She and Jing Xi were both in the most profound grief.

And they could understand each other the most.

Perhaps because Jing Xi had been so heartbroken, she could no longer breastfeed her baby since they'd left the hospital.

She tried various stimulators in vain.

Her grandfather Jing Huaduo checked on her and said it was due to the inconsolable pain of losing her baby.

Once the lactation was suppressed, it would be extremely hard for it to come back again.

The poor Little Grape was starving and crying without breastfeeding.

Huo Yunshen tried to feed him with baby formula. But the determined Little Grape would rather starve himself than take that bottled formula.

Out of desperation, the couple had to hire a wet nurse at a high salary to breastfeed Little Grape every day.

The wet nurse was called Yao Zheng, a 26-year-old. She was from Linshi and had just given birth to a baby not long ago. Her husband had been injured in construction work so she had to take on the burden of providing for the family.

Huo Yunshen and Jing Xi had an interview with her and found this young mother to be a reliable person. This fair woman was very healthy and well educated. So they decided to hire her.

They paid her thirty thousand per month so that she could balance between taking good care of her own family and feeding Little Grape.

Little Grape was back to breastfeeding and grew up healthier and stronger.

Jing Xi was taken good care of by her family and was also recovering quickly.

Although her physical health did recover, her broken heart was no longer reparable.

Time flew.

Little Grape was two months old now. The handsome little boy was a comfort to everyone.

Jing Xi spent all her time and energy on raising Little Grape.

She had already finished one sweater, but failed to continue halfway through the second one.

Chapter 1508: Divert Her Attention

When Jing Xi picked up the needle, she could feel herself suffocating.

Huo Yunshen was standing by the door and saw his wife shivering in front of the baby's bed.

He also realized that Jing Xi would cry when the kids had fallen asleep.

It was a sight that hurt Huo Yunshen a lot.

Jing Xi was in low spirits. Her smile was almost gone, and Huo Yunshen was worried that she might get depression from it.

He went into the room and sat next to his wife, pulling her close to him.

“What's wrong? Why are you crying again?”

“Nothing, it's just that I can't seem to finish this sweater...”

Jing Xi shook the half-done sweater and spoke with her trembling lips.

“Then, leave it there,” Huo Yunshen said and put the sweater away. “You should go out and breathe some fresh air. The weather is good today. Why don't we take Little Grape out for a walk?”

“Okay.”

Huo Yunshen got up and picked up the sleeping Little Grape. He set him down in the stroller and pushed him out.

Even though it was chilly outside, the sun was bright enough to warm them through.

Huo Yunshen looked for a spot with no wind and asked the servants to place a table and a couple of deckchairs there for them.

Jing Xi lay on the deckchair while Huo Yunshen sat next to her. The stroller was set right in front of them, and they could see the baby sleeping soundly in it.

Huo Yunshen then asked the servants to bring the fruits and drinks so that he could cheer his wife up.

Yet the new servant forgot what her master had ordered. In the basket of fruits were apples.

“Ma'am, do you want some apple?” the servant asked.

Jing Xi shook her head as she looked at the red apple. It instantly reminded her of Little Apple, and she began to cry.

“Go! Leave us!” Huo Yunshen scolded and chased the servant off.

Scared by her master's wrath, the servant ran back into the manor.

“Hey, everything is okay...” Huo Yunshen comforted as he hugged Jing Xi.

He was anxious and worried. He knew he had to find something to divert Jing Xi's attention.

And the only person he could think of was Fang Xiaocheng.

Fang Xiaocheng was Jing Xi's best friend, and Jing Xi had been there for her when she lost Wang Dazhi to an accident.

Now that Jing Xi was also in a depressed mood, Huo Yunshen thought of bringing Fang Xiaocheng over to help Jing Xi recover.

Guests arrived at Yunjing Manor three days later.

Yi Xiao came with Fang Xiaocheng and Yi Bei.

Their car stopped in front of the fountain in Yunjing Manor, and the three of them got out of the vehicle.

Huo Yunshen was already waiting for them at the front door.

“Young Master! It's been a long time!” Yi Xiao greeted and hugged Huo Yunshen.

“It has...” Huo Yunshen greeted back.

Chapter 1509: Loving Him Dearly

Yi Xiao had been acting as the deputy president of Juxing Entertainment on behalf of Huo Yunshen.

He'd been tremendously influenced by Huo Yunshen throughout his years as an assistant. So now he was more than capable of handling the business.

Yi Xiao greeted them and took the boy from Fang Xiaocheng. Then Fang Xiaocheng came to Huo Yunshen and said, “Mr. Huo, it's been a long time. How are you doing?”

“Good. Thank you for coming here.”

Seeing the chubby little boy in Yi Xiao's arms, Huo Yunshen asked, “Is this little Beibei? How adorable. How old is he now?”

“Almost one and a half. He can say mommy, daddy, uncle, and auntie now. Beibei, say hello to uncle!”

Yi Xiao encouraged little Yi Bei to greet him. It was obvious that he loved the boy dearly.

Little Yi Bei stared at Huo Yunshen curiously, hesitated for a second then called timidly while chewing on his finger, “Uncle.”

“He can't speak so clearly. It was ‘uncle,’” Yi Xiao explained.

“Good boy!”

Thinking of the reason why they were here, Fang Xiaocheng asked, “Mr. Huo, where is Yanyan now? Can I see her?”

She had heard from Yi Xiao what had happened to Huo Yunshen and Jing Xi, and felt truly sorry for her best friend. Now she could finally see her in person.

“Sure. Come on in. I'll take you to her.”

Huo Yunshen escorted them in and had someone attend to Yi Xiao and the boy. Then he took Fang Xiaocheng upstairs.

He had not told Jing Xi about their visit and wanted to give her a surprise.

When they came to the baby room, Jing Xi was putting Little Grape to bed and singing a cradlesong.

“Jing Xi!” Huo Yunshen called her gently and said, “You have a guest here.”

Jing Xi turned and was indeed surprised to see her best friend, Fang Xiaocheng. She stood up to welcome her. “Orange, what brings you here?”

“I missed you so much. So here I am.”

“Orange!”

“Yanyan...”

Jing Xi ran to Fang Xiaocheng and hugged her joyfully,

“I'm so happy to see you!”

Jing Xi laughed into tears. So did Fang Xiaocheng.

“I should have come sooner.”

Fang Xiaocheng was sorry that she could not be here for Jing Xi when she was in her deepest sorrow.

“Never mind. I'm so happy you are here now. Did Yi Xiao and Yi Bei come with you?”

Jing Xi wiped her tears.

“Yes. They are downstairs.”

“Great. Let's go and see them.”

Handing her baby to Huo Yunshen, Jing Xi and Fang Xiaocheng walked downstairs hand in hand.

They saw Yi Xiao and the little Yi Bei there. Jing Xi bent over and asked, “Beibei, do you still remember auntie?”

Little Yi Bei was tapping a remote controller on the side table and sofa when he heard Jing Xi's voice. Upon turning and seeing her, Yi Bei smiled timidly and headed into his mother's arms, cuddling her leg.

“Beibei is a shy boy!” Jing Xi laughed.

Fang Xiaocheng explained, “He is not shy with strangers, but with pretty aunties.”

“Can you even tell that at such a young age?” Jing Xi examined the cute little boy.

Fang Xiaocheng encouraged her son to greet her. “Beibei, say hello to auntie. You are good at this when we do video chatting, aren't you?”

Chapter 1510: Smart Mouth

“Annie!” Yi Bei finally greeted with his mother's encouragement.

"He's still learning to talk. He kept calling you annie instead of auntie," Fang Xiaocheng laughed.

"Annie sounds good too." Jing Xi smiled and hugged Yi Bei.

After Huo Yunshen got Little Grape to take his afternoon nap, the adults began to talk in the living room.

Ying Bao had been living at the Moon Castle with her grandparents since the day before and came back around noon.

She also brought back the three puppies that her father had bought.

The puppies had grown and become more active.

"Daddy! Mommy! I'm back!" Ying Bao greeted as she brought the puppies into the house.

She noticed that there were guests in the living room. When she realized they were Fang Xiaocheng and Yi Xiao, she quickly ran to them excitedly.

"Auntie Orange! Uncle Yi! Why are you here?" Ying Bao asked.

"We're here to see you, of course," Fang Xiaocheng replied as she opened her arms to hug Ying Bao.

Ying Bao ran into Fang Xiaocheng's arms and kissed her on her cheek.

"Looks like you've grown," Fang Xiaocheng said. "You've become prettier too."

"Auntie Orange too! You're blooming like roses. It looks like love is having a good effect on you!" Ying Bao complimented back.

"You and your smart mouth!" Fang Xiaocheng laughed and pinched Ying Bao's cheek.

Ying Bao realized a little boy was sitting on the couch too and asked, "Is that Brother Beibei?"

"Yup, he's here to see you too!"

"He's so small! Like a carrot!"

Ying Bao had already forgotten that she used to be that small too and was laughed at by Lu Qiancheng all the time.

"You were like him when you were younger, you know?" Jing Xi said.

Ying Bao ignored what her mother said. As long as there was another kid with her, she was happy.

"Come on! Let's go play! I've brought my cute puppies back!" Ying Bao said as she pulled Yi Bei to the side.

The puppies were running around in the living room, and Yi Bei became excited when he saw them. He reached his palms out and chased after them.

The two kids and the three puppies played around the vast living room happily.

After they had traveled all the way to Estan, Huo Yunshen asked both Fang Xiaocheng and Yi Xiao to stay at the manor with them during their trip.

And ever since Fang Xiaocheng and Yi Bei arrived, smiles had begun to return to Jing Xi's face.

But Fang Xiaocheng knew that no matter how happy Jing Xi looked from the outside, the pain in her heart would not leave quickly.

That pain was something that only time could heal.

Fang Xiaocheng decided to help Jing Xi the way she had been supported by her when Wang Dazhi passed away.

They two ladies stayed up all night and talked about everything.

“Who takes care of Little Grape at night?” Fang Xiaocheng asked.

“Yunshen. I don't even have to wake up.”

But since they had hired a wet nurse to take care of Little Grape during the day, all Huo Yunshen had to do during the night was to warm some milk for him.

“Then, what are you planning to do now?”
