

Priceless Baby 1521

Chapter 1521: That Was Close!

Helian Wei was rushing in to rescue his wife when Huo Yunshen stopped him. "Father, you are killing yourself if you get in from here. I've called the helicopter and we'll enter from the top when they come."

They could do nothing but wait for the helicopter.

Luckily they arrived soon enough. Huo Yunshen got on the helicopter and they took him to the terrace of the castle.

Jing Xi stayed with her father, holding the baby and, along with her daughter, waiting outside.

Huo Yunshen and four other rescue crews landed on the terrace and put on the masks before they headed in.

The door was locked. Huo Yunshen and his men kicked it open.

Upon opening the door, thick smoke came out. It was as dark inside as outside and the fire was roaring.

They turned on flashlights and entered. Before they went further down, one of them stumbled over something.

He flashed a light at what he'd stumbled over and called, "Someone passed out here."

Huo Yunshen ran to him and found it was his mother-in-law. They took her out immediately.

The fire was out of control and they could not get further down to check on the others. So they left from the terrace and took Jing Ruyue away.

Outside the castle, firemen had already started putting out the fire.

Huo Yunshen asked the helicopter to take them directly to the hospital, as his mother-in-law was in critical condition.

She was intoxicated by carbon monoxide and had to be treated immediately.

In the meantime, Huo Yunshen called Jing Xi to inform her that they already had her mother and asked her and her father to join them in the hospital.

That was close!

Jing Xi told her father right away, "Father, Yunshen and his men already found mother and are taking her to the hospital. Let's go there!"

"Sure!"

Helian Wei asked Jin Xiu to stay and take charge of the rescuing.

Their driver took him, his daughter and the grandchildren to the hospital.

When they arrived, they saw Huo Yunshen and asked about the Jing Ruyue. But she was still in the emergency room.

After about half an hour, Jing Ruyue was brought out. The doctor told them that she suffered from carbon monoxide intoxication but luckily they'd sent her to the hospital in time. She was out of danger now.

Everyone was relieved, especially Helian Wei. He had been under tremendous pressure.

What if she died?

He had not spoiled her enough.

Jing Ruyue was sent to the ward and put on oxygen. But she was still unconscious.

Huo Yunshen arranged for someone to take care of them and left Jing Xi there to stay with her parents.

And he headed back in the helicopter to help with rescuing and investigating.

Seeing her mother lying in bed Jing Xi sighed. "Luckily they found her in time."

"Indeed, I almost lost her again."

Helian Wei held her hands tightly and his eyes were filled with tears.

"Father, don't worry. She's fine now." Jing Xi consoled him.

Helian Wei did not dare to think how desperate she had been when she was in the fire alone.

"How could the castle be on fire?"

It was very weird.

Jing Xi wondered, "Could someone have deliberately set the fire?"

"..."

Helian Wei did not answer. But when they looked into each other's eyes, they were thinking of the same person.

Could it have been Lady White Tea?

Chapter 1522: Definitive Proof

They did not have the proof that Lady White Tea was responsible for the fire.

Jing Xi's phone suddenly rang, and it was Lan Ling'er.

"Jing Xi!" Lan Ling'er voice came from the other side of the phone. "She's ready to move! She told me she's going to burn the Moon Castle! Hurry up and get your mother out of there!"

"I know. Thank you for letting me know," Jing Xi said to Lan Ling'er.

She was glad that she had let Lan Ling'er live when she had the choice. It eventually benefited her in the end.

Lan Ling'er was able to provide her with definitive proof.

The call from Lan Ling'er proved that Lady White Tea was indeed responsible for the attacks.

"Dad. I got word that it's her! I'm sure of it," Jing Xi told her father.

"That wretched woman! I should've put a bullet through her skull when I had the chance!"

"Don't blame yourself. What's important is that you and mom are safe."

They continued to stay with Jing Ruyue until she woke up moments later.

"Yue'er! You're finally awake!"

Helian Wei cried as he held her hands.

Jing Ruyue looked around the room with her weak body and saw her daughter and husband next to her.

"I'm still alive?" Jing Ruyue asked in disbelief.

"Yes! You're fine!"

"Yue'er... Sorry for not being able to protect you..." Helian Wei blamed himself.

"No, it's not your fault. I'm happy to be alive." Jing Ruyue shook her head.

The old couple looked at each other affectionately until Little Grape cried. Jing Xi decided to take Little Grape back home so that he wouldn't disturb Jing Ruyue's rest.

"Mom, Dad, I'll take Little Grape home first. I'll come again later."

"Okay, be careful on your way back."

Jing Xi went back home, and Huo Yunshen came back two hours later.

"How's the castle?" Jing Xi asked.

"The fire has been put out, and the police are looking into it. They said they've found traces of gasoline, and it proves that someone started the fire deliberately. The CCTV shows that the butler started the fire and locked the door from outside, but when we went to the basement, we found all the other servants there, including the butler. It only means that someone has gone through the trouble of disguising as him."

"I already know who's behind it," Jing Xi said after listening to what her husband said. "It was Lady White Tea. She made sure that my Dad was out today and started the fire, planning to burn my mother with the castle."

Jing Xi then told Huo Yunshen the information she got from Lan Ling'er.

Huo Yunshen frowned after learning that.

Since Lady White was hiding in the shadows and they were living in the daylight, they were an easy target.

The only way to solve the problem was to lure Lady White Tea out.

"I think I have a plan to lure her out," Huo Yunshen said.

"What's your plan?"

"Let me ask you this: who does Lady White Tea hate the most?"

"My Mom."

"That's right. Your mother is the only one that can do that, but her body is weak. What if we find someone who can defend herself?"

Chapter 1523: Drawing The Snake Out Of Its Hole

With Huo Yunshen's hint, Jing Xi figured it out immediately. "I see. I can pretend to be my mother!"

It was indeed a nice plan.

If Jing Xi would show up in public pretending to be Jing Ruyue, it would definitely catch Lady White Tea's attention.

When the witch came to her, Jing Xi would definitely be able to catch her.

"Great! The film is done. I've got plenty of time now and we could plan it well!"

"Sure."

The couple decided to take the initiative and fight back to wipe out Lady White Tea and her evils.

After the fire, they could no longer live in the Moon Castle. It would take a while to have it restored.

Helian Qingyu heard about it and managed to make some time to visit Jing Ruyue in the hospital.

Helian Wei mentioned to his son that he wanted to take Jing Ruyue to the presidential palace to stay for a while. Helian Qingyu was unexpectedly cooperative.

Three days later a limo came to the hospital to pick up Jing Ruyue.

When she got into the car, Jing Ruyue was a bit worried. "Is that appropriate?"

Helian Wei held her close and said, "Absolutely. It is supposed to be your home."

The limo arrived at the presidential palace. Helian Wei opened the door and helped her get out.

Standing outside and looking at the magnificent presidential palace, Jing Ruyue could not help being sentimental.

It had been almost twenty years. And finally, she was back.

Yun Xuerou had spent her whole life plotting for something that was never meant to be hers.

That was probably fate!

“Let's go, Yue-Er.”

Helian Wei got hold of her hand and took her inside.

Jing Ruyue would be staying with Helian Wei in the Red Chamber which would be their home from now on.

Jing Xi and Huo Yunshen also brought their children to join them for lunch. Helian Qingyu happened to be not so busy and was staying at home today.

They had lunch together. Speaking of the fire, Helian Qingyu felt extremely ashamed. “I never thought she would have gone so far. She almost killed Auntie Jing.”

“Luckily she is fine. Otherwise I might have gone with her,” Helian Wei said.

“Don't say that ever again. I'm perfectly fine.”

Jing Ruyue just had a narrow escape and she did not want him to be so sad.

After having some wine, Helian Qingyu could not help speaking his mind. “How I envy Jing Xi! You have such a great mother.”

No one could share his shame and grievance for having an evil mother like Yun Xuerou.

If only he could choose his own life he would never be her son again.

Then he toasted Jing Ruyue. “Auntie Jing, this is for you. It is your home now. I'm Jing Xi's brother and I will treat you as my own mother.”

“Thank you, Qingyu.”

Jing Ruyue could not have alcohol. But she picked up some juice and cheered with Helian Qingyu.

Finishing the toast, Helian Qingyu continued, “Bro, Jing Xi, you go ahead and do whatever you need to catch her. There's no need to worry about me. I'm no longer her son. It's a shame.”

With Helian Qingyu's consent, Huo Yunshen and Jing Xi could carry it out as they had planned.

Her mother was settled and now they could plan well to draw the snake out of its hole.

Chapter 1524: Attract Her

Jing Xi went to look for Lan Ling'er first. She wanted Lan Ling'er to relay a message to Lady White Tea, saying that Jing Ruyue was still alive and was planning to host a violin performance.

She believed that when Lady White Tea learned that the person she hated the most was still alive and was planning to make a comeback to the music world, she would be furious.

Everything was going as planned.

Jing Ruyue went back to the President's mansion with Helian Wei. The protection detail around the mansion was three times larger than what it used to be. It was so well protected that even a fly could not get in undetected.

All the posters and advertisements about Jing Ruyue's comeback were shot by Jing Xi, who was disguised as her mother.

She went back to the disguise she used for Landscape, where normal people could not even differentiate between the real and the fake.

Jing Xi even went on a talk show in her mother's place.

She talked about Jing Ruyue's stories from the past 20 years, sharing her pain with the world.

The plan was taking effect.

When Yun Xuerou learned from Lan Ling'er that Jing Ruyue was still alive and was planning to perform again, she couldn't believe it.

But when she got her hands on a newspaper, on the front page, there was a massive story about Jing Ruyue.

[The Violin Diva, Artemis, making a comeback after 20 years] was the title.

Even though Yun Xuerou did not want to believe it, she had to accept the truth as the hatred in her grew even stronger.

She could not believe that Jing Ruyue was going to pick up her violin again after she had forced her to abandon it 20 years ago.

It was the same violin that had charmed Helian Wei.

There was no way Yun Xuerou was going to let it happen.

The TV was showing the talk show that Jing Xi, disguised as Jing Ruyue, had attended.

When Yun Xuerou saw her sitting next to the host, she felt like puking.

When the host asked Jing Ruyue about her husband, Feng, she replied by showing the ring on her ring finger.

"I'm really touched to have him in my life. He waited for me for all these years, and we finally got together in the end. I want to thank everyone for being there with us."

Yun Xuerou threw the remote towards the TV, smashing it with all her might. Even though the screen was not showing the show anymore, it still could not calm Yun Xuerou's anger.

“How dare she live happily ever after while I have to live my life alone?” Yun Xuerou scolded and turned to her subordinate. “Follow her! Let me know when the date of the performance has been decided.”

“Yes, ma'am.”

The reason they could not find Yun Xuerou was because she had undergone plastic surgery. She was now wearing an unfamiliar face that they couldn't even recognize if they saw her.

The bait was a success.

To lure Lady White Tea even more, they did not release the date for the performance right away.

It was only released half a year later through the press.

And it was decided that it would be on Christmas.

A year after the tragedy that had happened last year.

Chapter 1525: Her Glory

Jing Xi had suffered tremendously from delivering the twins, Little Apple and Little Grape.

But Yun Xuerou stole them from her. They were able to bring Little Grape back, but unfortunately, Little Apple fell off the cliff together with Mo Yutian.

This time, Jing Xi scheduled the concert for Christmas. The main purpose of the concert was to get Yun Xuerou and let her pay for what she'd done to the innocent baby.

They were waiting for Lady White Tea to show up on Christmas eve. Would she come?

Before the concert, Jing Xi had to play herself and attend the Cannes Film Festival.

After six months of production and a marketing campaign, the film Brilliant Stars was finally released in Europe and a few other countries. It was highly praised.

With the reputation of Hanson and the guest starring of the former president of Estan, Helian Wei, the film had caught a lot of attention.

Jing Xi also won the audience over with her excellent acting.

Whoever watched the movie was profoundly touched.

It was called the most touching film of the year and rated as high as 9.8 internationally. With the success of this film, Director Hanson had reached a new high in his career.

Because of its high popularity Jing Xi and the crew were invited to the Cannes Film Festival.

At the award ceremony, Jing Xi showed up in an elegant black dress together with Director Hanson.

The journalists poured in to interview this rising film star.

She was like an elegant black swan. And her beauty wasn't even harmed by the recent delivery of the babies.

She stood on the red carpet and her smile overwhelmed the crowd.

Jing Xi was beautiful in a thousand different ways, each of which was impressive enough for people to remember forever.

Brilliant Stars was highly praised by the judges.

And it won the Golden Palm Award, the Grand Jury Prize and the Best Script Award.

Hanson won the Best Director Award, and Jing Xi the Best Actress. It got the most awards that night

Jing Xi went international with this film.

People remembered her for her excellent performance and got to know this charming Chinese actress of mixed blood.

During the ceremony, Jing Xi went to the stage and claimed her glory.

The emcee asked, "Miss Jing Xi, how did you manage to make it feel so real in the film?"

Jing Xi's eyes were filled with tears but she managed to answer with a smile. "You have no idea that I did lose a baby five months before I started filming Brilliant Stars. Therefore I was not acting like a mother who had lost her boy, but rather, I was the mother herself. I was expressing my own rage, grief, desperation and perseverance when I played this role. I believe it was the most sincere and fundamental human emotions that you found so appealing."

Upon saying so her tears fell. The emcee was almost in tears too and came to give her a hug.

If Jing Xi had not told, no one would have known what she had gone through.

In the film the mother fought for ten years and eventually claimed justice. What about her?

When could she claim hers?

The festival was a success. Jing Xi returned to Linshi with her new trophy.

Huo Yunshen came to pick her up at the airport. Now she had fans in Linshi too.

Chapter 1526: Isn't That My Responsibility?

The fans were at the airport to welcome their queen back.

"Queen" was Jing Xi's new nickname, given by them.

Jing Xi signed some autographs and took photos with the fans until Huo Yunshen pulled her away from them.

“Congratulations on winning the International Best Actress Award. All hail the Queen!” Huo Yunshen congratulated Jing Xi while making a joke in the car.

“Thank you,” Jing Xi laughed. “I couldn't have done it without your support.”

If she thought about it, Huo Yunshen had played a huge role in the shadows towards the success of the film.

At least a third of the film's success was because of him.

If people were to say that there was always a woman behind the success of a man, then there would be a man behind the success of a woman too.

“Do you know what I want the most now?” Jing Xi asked.

“What's that?”

“I want you to stop the car, so I can hug you.”

Huo Yunshen quickly stopped the car on the side of the road and turned to face his wife.

Jing Xi leaned forward and hugged her husband.

“Can I have a kiss too?” Huo Yunshen asked.

Jing Xi looked at him and gave him an unforgettable kiss.

Their lips did not separate until someone knocked on their window.

It was a traffic cop, and he was warning them not to stop on the roadside.

Huo Yunshen quickly apologized and drove away.

The traffic cop remained where he was after the car drove away, wondering where he had seen the couple before.

Since the kids weren't home, Huo Yunshen pushed Jing Xi against the wall the moment they entered the manor and kissed her.

“Hey! Someone might see us!” Jing Xi scolded as she pushed Huo Yunshen away since there were still servants at the manor.

“There's no one here beside us. I've given all the servants a holiday today. It's just you and me.”

Without giving Jing Xi any time to breathe, Huo Yunshen started to kiss her again.

Jing Xi did not even put up any fight as she wanted it as well.

Huo Yunshen took Jing Xi's jacket off and ripped her dress into pieces.

All they wanted that night was to love each other to the fullest.

Jing Xi woke up the next day, and it was already noon.

She was wearing her pajamas, and her hair had already been washed.

She couldn't even remember what had happened after they'd had sex the night before.

The door was pushed open, and Huo Yunshen came in with a tray of breakfast.

"It's time for your breakfast, my queen."

On the tray were a couple of sunny side up eggs in the shape of hearts and a beautifully made sandwich.

Jing Xi was really touched; she felt like she was the happiest woman in the world.

"Yunshen, thank you... Thank you for everything."

"You don't have to thank me. It's my pleasure to do anything for you."

"I'll have to brush my teeth first," Jing Xi said and was about to get up.

"Don't move!" Huo Yunshen stopped her and went into the bathroom.

He came back with a toothbrush with toothpaste on it.

"Oh my god! If this keeps going on, I might not even be able to take care of myself!" Jing Xi exclaimed.

"Hey, it's my responsibility to love you in every way possible."

Chapter 1527: A Good Choice

Jing Xi enjoyed a laid back morning with Huo Yunshen serving her everything in bed.

When she got up Huo Yunshen proposed to take her to the Dragon Kingdom and see the development there.

They got into a car and headed to the border of Estan.

Arriving at the border, they showed a special permit from the president and crossed the border successfully.

In the Dragon Kingdom, Huo Yunshen's master, Qi Zhengming, had been waiting for them with a helicopter standing by. Once they arrived, they got on the helicopter and started the tour.

Looking down they could see various projects being intensively constructed throughout the Dragon Kingdom.

The helicopter flew low and Huo Yunshen introduced the projects one after another for his wife. "Look, that's the Century Tower. The one over there is a skyscraper. And do you see the complex there? It's our future home, the royal palace."

Following his direction, Jing Xi saw a complex of white Baroque-style architecture. It was magnificent.

She turned back to look at her husband affectionately and said, "I never thought my husband would be a king one day. Does that mean I have made a very good investment?"

“Yes, that was a good choice.”

Huo Yunshen cuddled her and pressed his forehead on hers while they looked at their future home.

The palace was huge. Jing Xi suddenly realized something. “Honey, I guess we'll need more children.”

“What? Why?”

“To live in such a huge home, we have to have a big family. I think we need at least six children, ideally three girls and three boys. So we won't be lonely when we grow old.”

Picturing their children running around joyfully in the huge palace, Jing Xi found it to be very interesting.

“You are ambitious! But I never thought of it. I already have you, our daughter and son. That's enough. Delivering babies is too painful. I don't want you to do that again.”

To Huo Yushen, home was wherever Jing Xi was. It had nothing to do with how many children they had.

How could it be a home without Jing Xi?

Coming back from the Dragon Kingdom they headed for the presidential palace.

It had only been a few days. But Jing Xi was surprised to see that Little Grape was already able to stand up by holding onto the couch.

When they got out of the hospital the doctor told Jing Xi that because Little Grape was a weak child he would grow more slowly than average children.

He was almost one year old and could barely stand up.

But it was already a huge step in Jing Xi's opinion.

“Mother, Little Grape can stand up now?”

Jing Xi came closer and looked at the little baby by the couch, who was pounding blindly on a small wooden piano with a gavel.

“Yeah. He's almost one year old, and finally he can stand up now.”

Jing Ruyue was happy for him too. Then she turned to the little one and said, “Little Grape, see who is here?”

Hearing his grandmother's words, Little Grape raised his head and stared at Jing Xi for a few seconds. Then he realized and threw himself onto her.

But he was not yet good at walking and almost fell. Jing Xi got hold of him and lifted him up.

“Baby, mommy missed you so much! Did you miss mommy?”

Jing Xi kissed him on his little cheek and pressed her head on his.

Chapter 1528: Hugs And Kisses

Little Grape looked at his mother and extended his hands to pull his mother's cheeks.

Jing Xi pretended to bite back, and it made Little Grape laugh.

She took out the toy she bought and shook it in front of her son.

“Do you want this?” Jing Xi teased. “Say “mommy” if you want it.”

Little Grape put his hands out, trying to grab it but kept his mouth shut. Little Grape grew slower than other kids because of his particular condition.

Most kids learned to call their parents around eight or nine months after they were born, but Little Grape still wasn't able to do so.

Even though Huo Yunshen and Jing Xi understood the situation they and their son were in, they were still anxious about it.

“Don't want it? Fine, I'll keep it then,” Jing Xi sighed as she was about to keep the toy away.

“Wommy!” Little Grape suddenly shouted.

Even though it sounded different from what Jing Xi was expecting, it was still Little Grape's first word.

“Did you just call me? Say that again!” Jing Xi exclaimed in excitement.

“Wommy!”

Jing Xi made sure that Little Grape was calling her and jumped in excitement.

“Mom! Did you hear that? He just called me mommy!” Jing Xi turned to Jing Ruyue and said.

“Yes, I heard that.” Jing Ruyue smiled.

“At least we now know he can speak!”

Jing Xi had been waiting for that moment for a long time.

Huo Yunshen came over and took Little Grape from Jing Xi, pulling him into his arms.

“Then, can you call me too? It's Daddy... Dad... dy,” Huo Yunshen said to Little Grape.

Little Grape only stared at him and didn't say anything.

“You little...” Huo Yunshen pretended to scold his son. “I'm going to punish you if you don't call me Daddy!”

“Can you even do that?” Jing Xi laughed. “Give him some time. He'll be able to do that someday.”

They put Little Grape down on the floor to let him play on his own.

“Mommy!” Ying Bao shouted happily as she came back with Helian Wei.

“My little girl!”

Jing Xi opened her arms to welcome her daughter and kissed her on her cheek.

When Little Grape, who was playing with his toys, saw his sister in their mother's arms, he quickly threw the toys to one side and pulled his sister's shirt with his little hands.

"Look," Helian Wei laughed. "This little one already knows how to snatch his mother away from his sister."

Jing Xi looked at Little Grape and picked him up with her other hand. Little Grape finally calmed down when he got the same treatment as his sister,

"All right, Cherry, you can come down now," Huo Yunshen said, not wanting to wear his wife out. "Give your mother a break."

Ying Bao climbed down from her mother's arm like a good kid. She turned and realized her brother was still in Jing Xi's arm.

"Little Grape, down, you come too. Mommy needs to rest," Ying Bao said as she hugged Little Grape down.

Ying Bao was taking responsibility for taking care of her little brother, and it helped their parents a lot.

After having lunch at the President Mansion, Huo Yunshen took his family back to Yunjing Manor.

Ni Xuelin came to visit them at the manor after that, bringing gifts for the children.

"Hey, you don't really have to buy us anything," Jing Xi said when she received the gifts. "How have you been lately?"

"I'm doing great," Ni Xuelin said with a smile. "I'm actually here to tell you guys something."

Chapter 1529: Keeping It A Secret

That being said, Ni Xuelin took out an invitation and smiled. "This is a wedding invitation. Jing Xi, I'm getting married and you are invited."

Jing Xi was surprised while taking over the invitation. "You are getting married? To whom?"

She had never heard that Ni Xuelin was in a relationship. But now she was already talking about getting married.

Opening up the invitation, she was further shocked. "Qi Fang?!"

She found it hard to believe. "You and Qi Fang? Lawyer Qi? When did this happen? How come we never heard anything until now? Is this for real?"

Jing Xi was never expecting these two to get together among all their friends.

"It can't be more real! We've been together for a while, but we haven't told you."

Ni Xuelin was a bit shy.

"Ha, you are good at keeping secrets. So does your brother know?"

Recalling their encounters lately, Jing Xi seemed to get some clues. These two had been seeing each other for a while. But they failed to discover it.

“Yes he does. And he almost killed him.”

“Haha, Second Brother is indeed bad at controlling himself. But Qi Fang is trustworthy. He should be happy for you to marry Qi Fang.”

“But he is so hard to convince. He blamed me for not telling him earlier and said I did not treat him as a brother. Oh, and he said he would not go to our wedding.”

Upon saying so, Ni Xuelin got hold of Jing Xi and asked, “Jing Xi, can you help me talk to my brother? He's my only family. I do want him to come to my wedding.”

“I see. He was merely saying that because he was mad at you. I'll talk to him. No worries.”

“Thank you.”

As they talked about Ye Xun, he was on his way to see Jing Xi.

And he was here to complain about his sister who happened to be here too.

“Second Brother, come on in.”

Ye Xun entered and sat down on the couch without saying a word to Ni Xuelin. Ni Xuelin looked at Jing Xi anxiously.

Jing Xi gave her a comforting look and turned to him. “Second Brother, congratulations! Your sister is getting married. You should be happy!”

“There's nothing to be celebrated. I am literally a fake brother.”

Ye Xun was deliberately being harsh.

“How could you be a fake brother? Without you being there how could she get married?” Jing Xi continued, “Tell me, what are you actually mad about? We all want sister Xuelin to find her happiness. Don't we? After what she has gone through, doesn't she deserve our best wishes now?”

“I know. But it's a big deal to get married. And she did not say a word beforehand.”

Ye Xun understood it well. But he could not let it go that his sister did not tell him anything until she had already decided.

“If she had discussed it with you earlier on, would you have agreed? No way! That was why she could not tell you beforehand. And she wanted it to be a nice surprise. Isn't that sweet?”

“No at all! Who knows if that Qi something is reliable or not?” Ye Xun sounded annoyed.

“I know Qi Fang better than you do. He is a very good man, very reliable.”

Jing Xi was being objective and tried further to convince him. "Qi Fang works in the biggest law firm in Estan, and he also has his own firm. Furthermore, he is my father's personal attorney. What a wonderful future husband. If sister Xuelin marries him she will have nothing to worry about for the rest of her life. You definitely don't want her to be alone and live with you forever. Do you?"

Chapter 1530: It's Too Late To Regret Now

"Not really," Ye Xun said as he looked at his sister and sighed. "When's the wedding?"

Since Ye Xun started to care about the details of the wedding, it showed that he had finally given up on opposing it.

"It's on the 20th of December. You better prepare a huge red packet for them!" Jing Xi said.

Seeing that Ye Xun was not opposing her marriage anymore, Ni Xuelin let out a sigh of relief and thanked Jing Xi from the bottom of her heart.

It was finally the wedding day.

The wedding dinner was set at Estan's most decorated hotel, the Huangtian Resort.

The whole wedding was organized by Qi Fang. He even hired the best wedding planner in all of Estan to give Ni Xuelin the best wedding he could ever give her.

They did not tell anyone about their wedding until it was near.

And because of that, the Qi family wasn't happy with the bride as they thought she was a nobody that was raised in Zstan.

Qi Fang's parents opposed the wedding, as expected. That was why Qi Fang decided to arrange the wedding before telling anyone.

He decided to tell his parents after the invitations were sent out.

And since it was the Qi family's only son getting married, there was no way they would miss it.

When the Qi family arrived at the venue early, they realized that the bride was alone.

Chatter began to surround the bride.

"Does anyone know which family the bride belongs to? Where are they?"

"I heard she was adopted by someone in Zstan. I wonder if she even told them about this marriage?"

"She must be going after the family's business. We have to be careful of her."

"Could it be that she couldn't even get the money to get her family here?"

"What's wrong with Qi Fang's parents? Having a daughter-in-law like this..."

Hearing what their relatives were saying, Qi Fang's parents were embarrassed by it. It was supposed to be a happy wedding but now they'd become the laughing stock of others.

“See? What did I tell you? We should've prevented this from happening!” Qi Fang's mother scolded at her husband.

“We don't have many choices now, do we?” Qi Fang's father sighed.

“I must've been cursed to have such a disappointing daughter-in-law....”

Just as the old couple was bickering with one another, someone announced that the bride's father had arrived.

Everyone turned and saw a man who was over his fifties come in. He sat down next to Ni Xuelin at the table. Ni Jianghe had booked the first flight he could after he learned about his daughter's wedding.

Ni Jianghe nodded at Qi Fang's parents with an awkward smile.

But Qi Fang's parents ignored him and turned their heads away.

The atmosphere was very awkward until someone suddenly shouted.

“Hey! Isn't the bride's father the Academician at Zstan's Academy of Science? I've seen interviews with him, and he's a famous scientist!”

“Are you sure?”

“Look! His information is all over the internet!”
