

Priceless Baby 1671

Chapter 1671: Turning Stone Into Gold

Inside the congress hall in the national convention center of the Dragon Kingdom.

The meeting was over and the counselors were leaving. Huo Yunshen assigned a few things to his assistant.

People were mostly gone. He was about to leave too.

Right then he received a message from Huo Sanyan.

There were five recordings and a line: "Brother, help me choose from these voices."

Huo Yunshen did not think much and started playing the recordings one by one through the speaker.

They came one after another, until it came to the fifth one, a familiar song.

His heart skipped a beat when he heard the music.

It was Starry Night, the theme he had composed for Deep in the Shadows of the Stars.

Who would sing the song he and Jing Xi used to sing together?

After the prelude a deep and husky voice appeared.

Upon hearing the first line, Huo Yunshen already felt completely thrilled.

It was... very special...

Probably because Jin Xiaoxi sounded different from how she sounded talking when she sang, Huo Yunshen did not recognize her voice. From a professional music producer's point of view, he would have to say that the singer had a very unique voice. It was deep, husky and sexy.

It was a song for two. But she sang it by herself and still made it appealing.

Huo Yunshen did not stop it. So the phone went on playing it once again.

Hearing the familiar song, Huo Yunshen could not help recalling the past, and he fell into sorrow again.

The song resounded in the national convention center.

Huo Yunshen was indulging in the music and traveled through his memories with Jing Xi remembering everything that had happened since they met.

It was like yesterday.

He remembered their first encounter after five years, when she ran into his car and was taken by his guard as a robber. How excited he was to see her again!

He recalled when she disguised herself as Ye Xun and went home with him to celebrate his grandfather's birthday. They played piano and violin together.

When he was forced into a corner by his own cousin, it was she who gave him consolation and encouragement like an angel.

He felt his heart stop beating when she kissed him for the first time...

He remembered every single detail of their time together.

When Yinfeng came back for him, he saw the king sitting there, lonely inside the conference hall.

He supported his head with his hands and seemed to be enveloped by sorrow with the song being played again and again.

It was obvious that the king was missing his queen again.

When Huo Yunshen managed to pull himself back from the sorrow, he wiped his tears and replied to Huo Sanyan with two words:

“No. 5.”

They did not know that these two words were about to change someone's life.

When Huo Sanyan got his reply of “No. 5.,” she felt even more certain that Jin Xiaoxi was the talented singer she had been looking for.

She trusted her brother. He had the vision and capability to turn stone into gold.

The one he picked must be the best.

The competition officially started. But instead of having her go through the competition process, Huo Sanyan asked Jin Xiaoxi to join Kaidi directly.

Chapter 1672: Making Sure

Jing Xi did not expect the lucky Goddess to look over her.

When she had just finished recording her fourth song, she got an email from Kaidi telling her that they wanted to talk to her about a contract.

Jing Xi even called and made sure since they had mentioned a contract and not the competition.

And their answer was precise. They wanted to sign a contract with her.

It was something that Jing Xi thought she could only ever hope for. Even though she was happy, she was also worried about her contract with Longwei.

Since Jing Xi was worried that something similar to the issue with Longwei would happen, she decided to go to Kaidi and learn more about the contract.

She could give up on the contract if it was another fluke again.

She arrived at Kaidi the next day.

After telling the receptionist who she was, she was immediately brought to the president's office.

“Nice to meet you. I'm Jin Xiaoxi...”

Before Jing Xi could finish her self introduction, the chair turned around, and a woman that looked like a queen sat there.

Jing Xi immediately realized that the woman was Ye Xun's girlfriend, the king's sister.

“Miss... President Huo?”

“Then, today...”

Jing Xi suddenly thought that they might not have asked her there for a contract.

“We are going to talk about the contract today,” Huo Sanyan said. “I really like your voice and want you to become our singer. What do you think?”

“I'm delighted, but... my face...”

Jing Xi took off her veil.

She could still remember that David had told her that he liked her voice before seeing her face.

Jing Xi wanted to make sure that Huo Sanyan knew what she was buying.

“I already know about your face. You got hurt in a fire, right? Don't worry about it. What I'm looking for is your voice, I'm not asking you to be some idol.”

“But... will you use someone else's face to promote my song?” Jing Xi asked.

“Miss Jing, is that what you think of us?” Huo Sanyan asked, handing Jing Xi a file. “Take a look. These are all the famous celebrities that I've personally promoted. A lot of them don't have good looks either, but they are proving their worth with their talent.”

Jing Xi opened the file, and as Huo Sanyan had said, most of them were really famous but weren't good looking. Some could even be called ugly. Yet, all of them were flourishing on their own paths.

Chapter 1673: Gone Too Far!

Seeing that Huo Sanyan was a decent producer, Jing Xi felt very relieved. But she had to be frank with her now.

“Thank you so much, Ms. Huo, for giving me this great opportunity. I'm impressed by you and your corporate culture. But I do apologize as I cannot sign any contract with you right now.”

Huo Sanyan thought she was not making herself clear enough, so she added, "We haven't even talked about your pay and benefits...are you sure you don't want to hear anything further?"

"No, don't take this the wrong way. It's because I'm currently in a two-year contract."

Jing Xi lowered her head and became silent for a while. Then she looked up and spoke again. "I'm not telling you a lie. I'm currently in a contract with Longwei. I was cheated. But I have to work for them for another two years. Otherwise, they won't let me get away with it."

"What? You've got a contract with Longwei?" Huo Sanyan was shocked. "What did you sing for them?"

She did have a crazy doubt. But she did not say it.

"The Forgotten Sea, Lover Throughout Time, Barely Love, Twin Flowers, and a few more under production."

"Oh my!"

Huo Sanyan was right. That was why she found Jin Xiaoxi's voice similar to Evening Star's. They belonged to the same person.

She could not believe that Longwei was wasting her talent and using her as a ghost singer. It was absolutely unfair to her.

"Very good. So you are the actual Evening Star, aren't you? They replaced you with another singer because of how you look?"

Huo Sanyan got a bit annoyed and wanted to stand up for her.

"Yes." Jing Xi nodded.

So it was clear now. Jin Xiaoxi already had a few songs released under the name Evening Star. They were extremely popular, which proved that the public did like her voice.

Now Huo Sanyan would like to offer her a way better salary and re-market her as herself.

She would be promoted for who she was. Because she was so unique.

"No worries. As long as you are willing to leave Longwei and join Kaidi, just tell me what you want. I'll have our professional marketing team work it out for you and help you make your own music."

Huo Sanyan gave her promise.

Jing Xi still felt uncertain. "I get your point. But Longwei is not letting me go. Otherwise, I'll either be sued or have to pay an eight million dollar penalty for breaking the contract."

"They've gone too far!" Huo Sanyan could not help cursing and pounding on the desk.

Longwei was trying to control Jin Xiaoxi and squeeze her. It was outrageous!

Since Jin Xiaoxi used to be her nephew's nanny, she had to help this woman out.

“Miss Jin, no worries. I will arrange for a lawyer to go with you to Longwei tomorrow and help you settle the contract. In terms of the eight million dollars, Kaidi will pay it for you. Rest assured!” Huo Sanyan claimed resolutely.

“Thank you! Thank you, Ms. Huo!”

Jing Xi almost burst into tears. She was most fortunate to meet someone like Huo Sanyan who valued and respected her.

Huo Sanyan never failed to keep her promise. On the following day she got a lawyer from Estan and had him accompany Jing Xi to Longwei.

Chapter 1674: Professional

David was still living his dream. He was discussing a live concert for Angela in the meeting room.

He planned to have Jin Xiaoxi sing backstage while Angela only had to lipsync.

The plan was a go, and while the team was ready to think about ways to promote the concert, Jing Xi pushed the door open.

“I'm not going to sing for Angela!” Jing Xi shouted.

David did not expect for Jing Xi to show up and frowned.

He dismissed the meeting and brought Jing Xi to his office.

“What the hell are you doing?” David scolded. “Who do you think you are?”

“Me? I'm here to tell you I'm forfeiting the contract!” Jing Xi bit back.

“What? Forfeit? Are you crazy? Did I not pay you for your work? Didn't we agree on you working for us for two years?”

“That's right. I'm quitting. Here's the contract!”

Jing Xi slapped the contract onto the table.

“Are you sure? You have to pay eight million! Do you even have the money?”

“Yes.”

Jing Xi turned around and opened the door for her lawyer to come in.

“What's the meaning of this? Is he going to pay?” David asked while staring at the man with a briefcase.

Jing Xi did not reply and left the rest to the lawyer.

“You must be Mr. David, am I right?” the lawyer asked. “I represent Jin Xiaoxi here and am here to talk about voiding the contract. According to the contract, Jin Xiaoxi is to sing for your company, but your company has not complied with the details of the contract. Your company was the one who broke the contract first. If anyone is paying, it's your company, sir.”

“What the hell is this?” David scolded. “Does she think she can scare me with a lawyer?”

“If you refuse to pay, we'll bring this to the court. Your act of using my client's voice to promote another singer is a breach of the contract and fraud. You could be sentenced to three to seven years of jail time, and Longwei could be shut down.”

The lawyer's warning finally scared David. He had no idea that Jin Xiaoxi had actually hired a professional lawyer.

If they were to sue him with the contract, the outcome would definitely favor Jin Xiaoxi.

All they needed to do was ask Angela to sing.

Without giving it any further thought, David took the contract from the table and tore it into pieces.

He thought that as long as the contract was gone, Jin Xiaoxi had no way to sue him.

“What are you going to do now?” David mocked.

Chapter 1675: Good Luck Was Coming

Mister David, I can tell you very responsibly, what you tore up just now was just a photocopy of the contract. The original document is still with us. That is to say, I am giving you two choices right now. The first is to agree to terminate the contract and pay the litigant eight million in penalties. The second option is to wait for a summons from the courts!”

The lawyer finished speaking meticulously, turned around and led Jin Xiaoxi away. “Let's go!”

David was really dumbfounded this time. His heart was in a mess and he felt speechless as he watched them leave. He had no choice but to promptly shout to stop them, “Wait!”

David had been forced into a corner so he agreed to terminate the contract with Jin Xiaoxi.

In the end, the plans he made for the concert during the meeting all turned into nothing.

He had no choice but to obediently sign the agreement to cancel the contract and pay the eight million in penalties. He looked on helplessly as he watched Jin Xiaoxi and the lawyer leave.

Jing Xi felt that it was a sunny day outside when she came out of Longwei Music Studio.

She did a ninety-degree bow towards lawyer Lin Yang to thank him. “Thank you, Lawyer Lin. It wouldn't have been so easy to terminate the contract today if it weren't for you.”

“You are welcome. I am just carrying out my responsibility.”

Lin Yang got in the car after he finished speaking and asked, “Do you want me to send you back?”

“Thank you, but it's fine. I will be taking a trip to Kaidi Music Studio to sign the contract and to show my gratitude to President Huo.” Jing Xi waved her hands at him and Lin Yan drove away.

Now that Jing Xi's card had eight million from the bank transfer and that the illegal contract had been terminated, her entire body felt relaxed.

She felt that, now that she had this money, she could contact the hospital to prepare for Tieniu's surgery. At the same time, she could also buy the newest and most advanced prosthesis for him.

Just as she was about to go to the hospital, she received a call from a stranger.

It was actually a call from the specialist hospital. They asked if she was Tieniu's parent.

They told Jing Xi their hospital was offering to restore his cochlea as the country currently had a project that required them to search for children from all over the country who needed surgery.

The immigration office had discovered Tieniu's condition corresponded with their requirements so they wanted to ask if they were willing to accept the aid and have the surgery.

Oh my god, this was practically a blessing from the heavens!

Jing Xi was very happy and agreed immediately. They requested that she bring the child over to the hospital to get examined.

After she received this call, Jing Xi felt that all of her misfortunes were behind her and good luck was coming towards them.

It seemed like their lives was getting better and better!

At the Triumph Palace.

While Huo Yunshen was working in the study, Yin Feng came in to give his report.

“Your majesty!”

“What is it?”

“The cochlea surgery you spoke about has already been passed by the government and hospital welfare project and they will be providing it for free for Miss Jin's child. The surgery will be happening soon.”

“Understood.”

Yin Feng left after he finished his report. Huo Yunshen was in deep thought as he wrote, and then he suddenly stopped writing.

He pulled out Jin Xiaoxi's CV again and looked at her family's condition.

Husband: Mo Xiao. Severely disabled.

Son: Tieniu. Deaf in the left ear.

She was a woman supporting a severely disabled husband and a son who was deaf in the left ear. He didn't even need to ask to know that their life was definitely very hard.

Sigh...

Huo Yunshen's heart became even more irritated after he read Jin Xiaoxi's CV.

He would feel this whenever he thought about having relations with other people's wives and betraying his own wife. This feeling was really too terrible.

How could he do such a thing?

Chapter 1676: Crippling Impact

Jing Xi signed on with Kaidi officially.

The company held a small welcoming party for her, and she was welcomed warmly by her colleagues.

Even though Jing Xi did not have a good look, she was one of the luckiest in the world.

The company prepared a lot of training for her as they planned to turn her into a new star.

All of these were Huo Sanyan's plans.

Jing Xi started to take part in her training, which consisted of form and vocal training every day.

Kaidi even got her a professional photographer to promote her.

Jing Xi also started to record her first single for Kaidi, Scar.

Jing Xi was finally living her dream, and her life was becoming fulfilling.

She thanked Huo Sanyan from the bottom of her heart.

But she did not know that she could not be where she was if not for Huo Yunshen's approval.

After signing Jin Xiaoxi onto her company, Huo Sanyan did not forget to give Longwei a present.

She exposed Longwei's wrongdoing online, and the scandal spread almost instantly.

Everyone knew about Longwei's new star, Ye Fanxing, who had risen to fame recently. But the people had never expected that the Ye Fanxing they always saw was fake.

Even though the people were boycotting Longwei because of the scandal, a lot of them were also curious as to where the owner of the beautiful voice was.

They were curious as to who the sound behind Ye Fanxing was.

All of the fans started to flood Longwei's social media accounts, asking them to give an explanation.

But Longwei did not reply, as they'd been met with an impact so huge that it almost crippled their company.

The department that had handled Ye Fanxing before was shut down, and David was brought in by the police.

And it was at that time that Kaidi promoted Jin Xiaoxi onto the stage.

They put out posters of Jin Xiaoxi with her handle, Ye Fanxing. Jin Xiaoxi's first MV for Scar was also uploaded onto the internet.

The marketing department did not avoid Jing Xi's scar and instead showed it to the world. They wanted to show the people why Jing Xi was met with the inhumane treatment at Longwei.

The poster and MV attracted a lot of attention almost instantly.

At the beginning of the MV, Jing Xi wore a veil that covered half of her face.

“Nice to meet you,” Jing Xi greeted in the MV with her coarse voice. “My name is Jin Xiaoxi, I'm also known as Ye Fanxing to everyone else. All I've ever wanted was to let the world enjoy my songs.”

Her new single, Scar, expressed her pain and sadness perfectly.

Her unique voice spread her emotions throughout her listeners.

Chapter 1677: She Simply Couldn't Believe Her Eyes

And just like this, Jing Xi presented herself to everyone with her own unique style. This also made a lasting impression on people.

She was a singer who didn't have pretty looks but had a voice that was kissed by angels. Her sincerity touched people's hearts.

It could be said that Kaidi Music Studio's marketing was even more successful than Longwei Music Studio's. They successfully debuted a new singer and a new song.

And the song Scar very quickly climbed up on the billboard for new songs. Its click-rate even surpassed Forgotten Sea, reaching the top of the charts.

Jing Xi became famous. Her stage name, Evening Star, became famous as well. The name Jin Xiaoxi also became famous.

When her face and name were plastered all over the city, the Jin family would naturally see it.

The first to see this news was Jin Hua. She spent all her time on the internet every day so she would be the first to come into contact with this news.

Jin Xiaoxi's name was shown by the music segment of the entertainment news when they introduced new songs by new singers. When she saw this, she simply couldn't believe her eyes.

Wasn't Jin Xiaoxi that uggo?

She opened up the poster and saw it really was her. How did she become famous with that ugly face of hers?

She also sang many songs under the name Evening Star?

Jin Hua couldn't help but think of when she was doing live streams before she immigrated, when that uggos also said she wanted to live-stream her singing.

She never would've thought she really dared to sing, and certainly never thought there would be a company blind enough to let her sing.

Feeling reluctant, Jin Hua listened to Evening Star's songs. After that, emmm... She stayed silent for a long time. She had to admit, her singing was quite good. It was just a bit better than her singing.

However, it wasn't so good that she could become so famous, right?

She even ranked first on the new singers chart.

No, no, no. She needed to tell her mom and dad about this!

Jin Hua ran to look for her mom and dad while carrying the laptop. "Mom, mom, mom, mom..."

"What is it!? Even my soul is gone!" Ge Juhua said, sounding upset.

"Mom, it's terrible. Look at this news. Jin Xiaoxi became famous for her singing! Look!"

Jin Hua pointed at the screen to let Ge Juhua look. Ge Juhua squinted her eyes to look and muttered, "Who is this?"

She couldn't recognize the woman on the poster at all. Although the woman on the poster was ugly, she had been polished up close to perfection. The picture on the poster was completely different from the picture of Jin Xiaoxi in her head.

"It's Jin Xiaoxi! She became a singer. She became famous for singing and became a big star," Jin Hua explained anxiously.

"Huh? Is this brat really so good?"

"Mom, let me tell you, not only is she good, she even earned a lot of money. Famous singers are really really rich. She is definitely living in a villa, driving a luxury car, and surrounded by bodyguards right now." Jin Hua let her imagination run wild.

"Oh my god!" Ge Juhua's chin was almost about to drop to the floor. From the look of things, she shouldn't have fought with Jin Xiaoxi back then, and she shouldn't have agreed to let them move away.

If that was so, their family would also be living well when she made money from singing!

The four of them wouldn't have to live how they did now. Their daughter stayed at home every day and didn't have an income. They depended entirely on the two old people to work to support their horrid lives!

Ge Juhua's mind went to money immediately. She thought Jin Xiaoxi had become rich so she decided, "Jin Hua! Bring your mother to find Xiaoxi tomorrow! Speak to her properly and ask her to come back home!"

"Okay, understood. We will go see her tomorrow."

Ever since Jing Xi joined Kaidi Music Studio, she had a substantial schedule every day. The company was also considerate towards her family's condition so they would always give her enough time every day to go back home to take care of her family.

After she had her lessons and finished recording in the morning, she would be able to go home in the afternoon.

Just as Jing Xi finished recording today and was walking out of Kaidi Music Studio, she heard someone calling her name.

Chapter 1678: Empty-Handed

Jing Xi turned and saw her foster mother and sister standing there. It seemed like they'd been waiting there for quite some time.

The way Jin Hua was dressed almost shocked Jing Xi. She had a scarf covering her head and a pair of sunglasses to cover her eyes as if she was famous.

Jing Xi already guessed from the beginning that they would come for her when she became successful. She was prepared for this moment.

"Mom, sis, why are you here?"

"Wow! Look at you! I can't even recognize you anymore!" Ge Juhua exclaimed as if Jing Xi was another person. Even though Jing Xi still had the scar on her face, the way she dressed elevated her look to another level.

Jing Xi only wore those clothes because the company requested that she did. They were free, and if she were to get famous, she could run into fans in public. The company did it so that she could maintain her public image.

"I'm still me, aren't I? Sis is the different one," Jing Xi said as she turned to Jin Hua. "Why are you covering your face like that even though you've spent so much on plastic surgery?"

"What do you know? This is how celebrities dress!" Jin Hua scolded.

"Hey! Don't talk to your little sister like that!" Ge Juhua scolded. "And don't get me started on how you dress!"

Ge Juhua never scolded Jin Hua before, but she did it this time so that she could impress Jing Xi.

Ge Juhua then turned to Jing Xi and said, "Xiaoxi, how's life outside? Why don't you come back and live with us? It feels so different and lonely without you at home. Your dad misses you too."

With Jing Xi's understanding of Ge Juhua, the only truth that Ge Juhua had spoken was that Jin Hongshen missed her. Jing Xi knew Ge Juhua just wanted her to go back so that they got her money.

"Mom, I can't. I still have classes and recording sessions every day. There's no way I can go back there. I'll visit you once I have the time," Jing Xi said, not exposing Ge Juhua because Jing Xi was still grateful for the Jin family for taking her in.

“Are you still angry with me? I was just trying to teach the little boy what is right and what is wrong,” Ge Juhua explained. “Come home with me.”

“That's not the reason,” Jing Xi said. “I told you, I still have work to do. There's no way I can come back and forth from the city to the outskirts.”

“Then... Aren't you living in a huge place now?” Ge Juhua asked. “How about we move in with you? Then we can all be together again.”

Ge Juhua was planning to not let a good source of money go.

“No, I'm still staying in the same one-room apartment.” Jing Xi shook her head. “There's no space for any of you to stay.”

Jing Xi explained the situation quite clearly, but Ge Juhua was not going to leave empty-handed.

Jing Xi knew that the only way to make Ge Juhua leave was to give her money. Jing Xi sighed and took her purse out.

Chapter 1679: Will Have Hope In The Future!

Ge Juhua saw that she finally took out money. She stretched out her neck immediately and it was even longer than a giraffe's. She looked at her as she opened her purse and saw dozens of bills.

Green light almost shot out of both her eyes!

“Mom, I only have this much. Take it home and use it! For the time being, don't come to find me. I am very busy and don't have the time to entertain you guys.”

Just as Jing Xi reached out with her hand, Gu Juhua immediately grabbed the money and pulled it over towards her.

All her morality went out the window when she saw money!

Jing Xi let go and just as Gu Juhua got the money, a company car came to pick Jing Xi up. “Mom, you guys go back home. I will get going!”

Jing Xi got in the car and left. Gu Huhua counted the money and looked in the direction the car went. She then lifted her eyebrows at Jin Hua as if saying, That brat really became rich. The Jin family will have hope in the future now that we have money!

The day of Tieniu's operation arrived. Jing Xi and Mo Yutian accompanied him to the hospital.

The cochlea reconstruction was a success. Tieniu would be able to listen to all of the beautiful sounds of this world without needing to use a hearing aid in the future.

After Tieniu's operation was finished, he stayed in the hospital for a few days. Jing Xi took a few days off and spent every day at the hospital, taking care of her child.

After a few days, once the doctors observed that his condition was stable, Tieniu was able to leave the hospital and go home.

Mo Yutian prepared a sumptuous lunch to celebrate Tieniu's discharge from the hospital. Moreover, he even bought a large cake.

Tieniu saw the cake and asked, "Dad, whose birthday is it today?"

"It isn't anyone's birthday."

"Then why is there a cake?"

"There isn't any rule that says you can only have cake on a birthday! Tieniu's operation was a success and you can now hear with your ear, so of course, we must eat cake to celebrate."

Mo Yutian asked Tieniu to sit at the table and then called Jin Xiaoxi to sit.

A phone rang right at this moment. Jing Xi saw that it was Auntie Lan who was calling. She guessed it might have been because the little prince was here. She said, "I am taking a call. Wait a while, a guest might be coming."

Jing Xi accepted the call and the little prince did indeed come to visit. At this time, the royal family's car was parked outside their neighborhood. Jing Xi went to bring the little prince over. Auntie Lan did the usual thing and waited in the car.

Once Little Grape entered the house and saw the big cake on the table, he asked, "Auntie Xiaoxi, whose birthday is it?"

"No one's. It is to celebrate Tieniu getting discharged from the hospital!"

Little Grape walked over and looked at Tieniu's ear. He realized that the strange device on his ear had disappeared.

He said softly towards his ear, "Tieniu, can you hear what I am saying?"

Tieniu turned his face sideways and laughed. "I can hear you!"

Now that the two little friends saw each other, they stuck close together happily. Tieniu invited the little prince to sit beside him so that they could eat cake together.

While they were eating, Jing Xi told Tieniu's dad about installing the prosthesis. She had already finished contacting the hospital and he only needed to go back and try it himself.

"Thank you for being so considerate and attentive towards me!"

Mo Yutian really didn't know how he should thank Jin Xiaoxi.

"You don't need to say such courteous words! Quickly eat!"

Recently, Jing Xi's song had become really popular in the Dragon Kingdom. It was so popular that whenever one stepped out of their house, they would be able to hear her song being played in all the streets, alleys, malls, and every other public space.

This was also one of Kaidi Music Studio's marketing methods. Using such a way to fill up the airways allowed them to create a new star within a short period of time.

While Huo Yunshen was at the airport VIP lounge, a song drifted into the room.

It was a hoarse voice and sounded really unique. When he heard the prelude, the melody sounded very familiar. He already guessed it was the song Scar that he had written in the past. It was just that it was never released.

Chapter 1680: The Story

The moment Huo Yunshen heard the lyrics, he immediately thought of the number five singer that Huo Sanyan had sent him for the competition.

Huo Yunshen guessed that the voice belonged to her.

The song was perfect as it reached his soul. He got so immersed in the song that he began to wonder who the singer was.

Huo Yunshen took out his phone and looked online.

The search came back with a lot of results on the song and Ye Fanxing.

But when Huo Yunshen opened the page that led to Ye Fanxing's information, he was shocked to see Jin Xiaoxi's face on it.

He could not believe that his sister would actually find someone who was really hurt and invest a lot of money in her.

Huo Yunshen then took a good look at the picture and agreed that the scar on Jin Xiaoxi's face fit the song perfectly.

Her scar only deepened the meaning of the song as it would make her listener wonder the story behind her scar.

Huo Yunshen turned his phone off. As he closed his eyes, he remembered how he had chased Jin Xiaoxi away mercilessly.

Even though they might not meet ever again, Jin Xiaoxi had already left something with him that would never go away.

Huo Yunshen visited Nstan and returned a day earlier than expected.

He planned to spend the day with his children but could only find Ying Bao and not Little Grape.

He sat down beside his daughter and asked, "Cherry, what are you doing?"

"Daddy! I'm drawing!"

"Do you want to do anything other than drawing? Like dancing or music?"

"Not interested," Ying Bao immediately replied.

“...” Huo Yunshen already had no idea how to communicate with his daughter. “How about we go out?”

“No.”

Huo Yunshen began to panic as nothing seemed to intrigue his daughter.

“Hey.” Huo Yunshen then opened his mouth a few minutes later. “How about we do a live-stream together?”

Ying Bao immediately stopped drawing and turned to look at her father in disbelief. The way Ying Bao looked at Huo Yunshen hurt him.

“I thought you told me to not talk about anything related to mommy? Why are you talking about live-streaming now? I don't wanna!”

The little girl then lowered her head and began to cry.

“Hey... I'm so sorry...” Huo Yunshen hugged his daughter. “I'm so sorry... Come on, let's go find your little brother.”

“He's not home,” Ying Bao said as she raised her head.

“What? Where is he?”

“Grandma Lan took him to Auntie Xiaoxi. They promised him that they'd bring him to the museum.”

Since Huo Yunshen was scheduled to be at Nstan, Lan Yi took the chance to bring the kids outside for a change. But since Ying Bao did not want to go, she only brought Little Grape along with her.
