

Priceless Baby 1731

Chapter 1731: Looking Extremely Flustered

Lin Xianjing wanted the bodyguards and assistant to help deliver all the clothes to her makeup room in Kaidi first.

However, the king's assistant said, "Wait! Miss Lin! What our master means is that you need to put on all these clothes today. Otherwise, you can't even take half a step outside Kaidi."

"What? Put on all of it?"

Lin Xianjing felt like something was wrong when she heard this. Did he ask her to put on all of these clothes? How was that possible?

"You didn't hear it wrong. That is the case!" The assistant politely said it as it was.

"Your master really knows how to joke around. How can I possibly put on a hundred clothes?" Lin Xianjing wanted to smile but the smile that appeared looked very rigid.

"Our master never jokes." At this time, the assistant called over the people around him. "Miss Lin does not wish to put them on so you guys should serve her well and help her put them on one by one."

When Lin Xianjing saw that the people opposite her all came over, she was so shocked that she moved back. She looked for her own bodyguards to protect her but the bodyguards had already been pushed down by two palace guards.

They grabbed Lin Xianjing and then started to put the clothes on her body.

They put on the skintight clothes first and then put on the ones that were a bit looser.

She could endure the first five or six. However, after seven, eight, and ten more were put on, Lin Xianjing felt like she was being squeezed so much that she couldn't breathe.

She turned into a big meat dumpling, looking extremely flustered.

They didn't care about how famous she was at all. They even took out their phones and took pictures of what she looked like. By the time twenty were put on her body, she had already turned as fat as a ball.

However, this was still not over. For the leftover clothes, as long as there were places to stuff them, they would hang them on her head and her shoulders.

In the end, Lin Xianjin looked like a big shining furball.

"Help..."

She wanted to escape. However, whenever she moved, she would fall down and roll around on the ground like a human ball.

She shouted for help but no one came to save her.

Her assistant initially wanted to run away but was caught. The royal guards also put the leftover clothes one by one on her body.

Right now, both of them were like two balls, rolling on the ground, not being able to get up.

It was only now that Lin Xianjin knew that she couldn't have been more unlucky for meeting this man today.

Not only did that man not fancy her, but he was secretly teaching her a lesson on Evening Star's behalf.

Ahahahahaha... that damn Evening Star! This was all her fault!

When the elevator arrived at the floor where the president's office was, Huo Yunshen led her out.

It was only after he got off the elevator that he realized Jin Xing stood inside and didn't follow him out.

It was only after the man looked back, took off his shades, and shot a cold glance towards her that Jing Xi regained her senses and quickly ran out.

"You go and work now. I will find you once it is finished."

"Oh." Jing Xi breathed a sigh of relief in her heart. She could finally break away from him.

"Don't move!"

Before she even took a few steps, she was stopped by Huo Yunshen again. "Take down my number."

"Oh."

Jing Xi was able to respond and quickly took out her cellphone. Right after she finished unlocking it, a man's big hand came reaching over and took her cellphone away.

Jing Xi held up her head and looked at him with a face of shock. Why did he take her phone as if it was his?

Huo Yunshen swiped to the phone's home screen and the first thing he saw was the background. It was a photo taken in the past. Mo Yutian, Little Apple, and Jing Xi were in the photo. A photo of the family of three.

Huo Yunshen felt an aching in his heart when he saw this picture. The picture she used should've been their family of five.

Sigh...

Chapter 1732: Enthusiasm Suddenly

Huo Yunshen sighed and called his phone with Jing Xi's.

He let his phone ring for a few seconds before hanging up and returning it to Jing Xi.

"You can leave now," Huo Yunshen said.

"Oh..." Jing Xi took her phone and left.

Huo Sanyan was waiting in her office with tea on the table.

“Oh, my dear little brother, what brings you here?” Huo Sanyan asked when Huo Yunshen came in.

When Huo Sanyan got the call saying that her little brother was visiting, she almost thought that someone was trying to prank her.

Her office was too small for someone with Huo Yunshen's status to enter.

“I have something to talk to you about,” Huo Yunshen said and sat down on the couch.

“What's that?”

Huo Yunshen had his fingers crossed, and his head resting on his hands. He had his head down for a while before raising it up to reveal a face that was full of tears.

“What's wrong? What happened?” Huo Sanyan asked, shocked by what she was seeing.

“I'm the most stupid person in this world... I don't have the right to love Jing Xi anymore...,” Huo Yunshen sobbed.

Huo Yunshen looked at his sister with a pained expression.

Stunned by Huo Yunshen's sudden revelation, Huo Sanyan was starting to pity him and was pondering whether to tell Huo Yunshen the truth or not.

“Why? What makes you think that? If you don't have the right, then who does?” Huo Sanyan tried to comfort her little brother.

“But... But I can't even recognize her...”

Huo Sanyan thought that Huo Yunshen was talking about the imposter and said, “What do you mean? Didn't you find out that she was fake and chase her out of the country in the end?”

“No! I'm not talking about the fake one.” Huo Yunshen shook his head. “I've found her, the real one. I never thought that Jin Xiaoxi is Jing Xi... She was by my side all this time and I couldn't recognize her... I even mistreated her...”

Huo Sanyan could understand what Huo Yunshen was feeling at that moment. Initially, Ye Xun and she had planned to tell Huo Yunshen after they made Jin Xiaoxi go through plastic surgery to regain her original face.

But there was no need for that now since Huo Yunshen had already learned the truth.

“Wait... Why aren't you surprised?” Huo Yunshen asked when he noticed no changes in Huo Sanyan after hearing the news.

“To tell you the truth...” Huo Sanyan sighed. “I learned about this just a few days before you...”

“And you kept quiet about it?” Huo Yunshen scolded.

“Hey! Calm down! We were just suspecting it at first, and that's why I got that hair from you, remember? We wanted to do a paternal test just to make sure.”

Huo Sanyan then got up and took the report out from the drawer.

“This is proof that Jin Xiaoxi is indeed Jing Xi. Both Ye Xun and I were delighted but saddened at the same time. We were scared that if we told you the truth, you wouldn't be able to accept it. That was why we kept it from you. We planned to do plastic surgery on her first and tell you after that.”

Chapter 1733: Caused Great Hurt To Her

Huo Yunshen looked at the results from the test and he felt so much pain in his heart that he couldn't breathe. Even his friends and family around him recognized Jing Xi but he, her husband, the person who loved her the most, didn't recognize her.

He really deserved to die!

“Yuoshen, we can understand what you are feeling so you shouldn't be too upset. Learning about it now isn't too late. The good thing is that Jing Xi is still by your side. She and the child have come back safely. What you should do now isn't to feel sad and blame yourself, but to figure out a way to make it up to her.”

“I know... but it seems like she has forgotten me... I don't know what I should do to make her remember me... she is really scared of me right now... I caused her great pain... I don't know what I need to do to make up for it...”

Being forgotten by the person you loved most was truly the most unbearable feeling; it would be such a painful situation. Right now, he could fully empathize with what Ye Xun was feeling.

Being with the person you loved the most every day, but them having no memory of you at all... What a sorrowful situation that was!

Huo Sanyan also started to think deeply. It was only when she saw how sad her brother looked that she realized perhaps Ye Xun felt the same as Huo Yunshen.

Did he also secretly feel sad often when he was not around her? And that he didn't have anyone to speak to about it?

The brother and sister hugged for a while and then Huo Sanyan said the thoughts in her heart. “Ye Xun and I originally planned to ask Jing Xi to restore her appearance first before telling you.”

“That depends on if Jing Xi is willing! If she is willing, then I will definitely do all I can to hire the best plastic surgeon in the world.”

Huo Yunshen also really felt anticipation for Jing Xi's appearance to be restored. However, he would not decide Jing Xi's life for her and would respect her wishes. “Actually, no matter what Jing Xi looks like, I won't mind. It is fine as long as she is Jing Xi. Her being alive is already my biggest comfort. It feels like my listless and stagnant life has hope once again. I will stay by Jing Xi's side and love her well no matter whether she can remember me in this lifetime or not. I also want to welcome our fourth child with her.”

“Oh, I might've forgotten that if you didn't say it. The way that child came is also quite funny! What does this mean? It means this is all heaven's will! If it is yours, you won't be able to run away from it, if it isn't, you won't have it even if you forcefully try to take it.”

Huo Sanyan let out a long breath and suddenly felt that her little brother could finally enjoy the good times now that the bad times were over. Their entire family was together right now. The only regrettable thing was that Jing Xi's appearance hadn't been restored.

After Huo Yunshen left Kaidi, he made a call to Jing Xi. He then got in the car first to wait for her.

Jing Xi was inside the recording studio and finished recording the chorus of a song. The producer alerted her, “Evening Star, someone's calling you.”

“Oh, understood. Thank you.”

Jing Xi picked up the phone and looked at the number on the screen. She was extremely shocked. What kind of number was this?

Did the phone number have to be so impressive?

The numbers were all ones. Did it mean the person wanted to be forever alone until the end of time?

Jing Xi suddenly thought of something and couldn't help but gulp. It couldn't be that this number belonged to his majesty the king, right?

Ah?

When she picked it up, that turned out to be the case.

There was truly no one else who would use such a number.

He asked her to go down immediately so Jing Xi had no choice but to say goodbye to the producer and leave early.

The king's car was still where it had been before. There was a group of royal guards standing nearby, preventing people from coming within a few hundred meters.

Chapter 1734: Don't Torture Her

The guards saw Jing Xi coming and opened the door to the car for her.

Jing Xi got into the car, and the guards got into their own vehicles before leaving.

Jing Xi felt a lot of pressure sitting alone in the same space as the king. She still had to go shopping with the king later.

What happened after that just proved that going shopping with the king was a tragedy. One of the biggest malls in the city was forced to chase their customers out for the king to come.

Then, as guards watched at every entrance, the manager of the mall came out to greet the king.

Jing Xi followed Huo Yunshen into the mall as everyone next to them had their heads down.

Huo Yunshen only learned that all of the customers were chased out after he saw the almost empty mall. Huo Yunshen did not want to do that, but the guards did it out of concern for the safety issues.

The good side of clearing the mall was that he could shop with Jing Xi without giving a care about other people seeing them together.

The bad thing about being a king was that Huo Yunshen had lost almost all of his freedom.

It was even his first time visiting a mall since becoming the ruler.

Huo Yunshen then chose a high-end shop and started to try on the clothes there.

Huo Yunshen used to hate shopping, but he was enjoying it a lot that day.

He changed from clothes to clothes and had Jing Xi help him with everything,

He got to spend most of his time close to Jing Xi.

Jing Xi could not even remember the last time she was this exhausted. Her hands were starting to hurt as she kept helping Huo Yunshen button and unbutton his shirts.

She also realized that Huo Yunshen was a really picky person. He tried a lot of combinations, and there wasn't one that he actually liked.

Huo Yunshen then stood in front of the mirror, checking himself out in his 36th combination.

"How about this?" Huo Yunshen asked.

"It's perfect! It's as if the clothes were made just for you!" Jing Xi quickly answered, begging that Huo Yunshen actually liked it.

"I see..." Huo Yunshen pondered then said, "Let's try the neckties next."

"..."

Jing Xi almost fainted.

They then proceeded to try almost all of the neckties the shop had to offer.

Huo Yunshen was staring into the mirror at the woman who was helping him put on his neckties one after another.

"Isn't there anything you like?" Jing Xi finally asked.

"There is." Huo Yunshen nodded.

Jing Xi let out a sigh of relief as she was worried that if Huo Yunshen did not like anything, they would have to visit the next shop.

"Hey." Huo Yunshen turned to one of his assistants and ordered, "Buy everything that I tried just now."

"..."

Jing Xi was shocked by Huo Yunshen's decision again.

She could not believe that someone would just buy everything in the shop. He was probably the most jaw-dropping person she'd ever met.

Jing Xi then followed Huo Yunshen back to the palace in his car.

Perhaps because she was too exhausted from shopping, she fell asleep.

Huo Yunshen noticed that her head was tilting to one side, he quickly moved over and sat next to her so that she could rest her head on his shoulder.

Chapter 1735: Personality Suddenly Changed

Jing Xi woke up once the car arrived and stopped at the palace. When she opened her eyes, she realized she was leaning on the king's shoulder and it was wet with her saliva. She was scared stiff. "I'm sorry, your majesty... I didn't know... I'm sorry..."

"It is fine. Did you sleep well?" Huo Yunshen asked gently.

"..." Jing Xi froze into stone again.

She wondered if she was dreaming.

Otherwise, why would the king have such a gentle expression in his eyes? Why did the king's tone sound so soft?"

Huo Yunshen saw that she looked stunned. He couldn't help but take out a handkerchief and help her wipe away the saliva at the corners of her mouth. "We are here. It is time to get out."

The king had already gotten out of the car but Jing Xi was still in a daze. Recently, she kept feeling that the king was behaving strangely. What exactly was going on? Why did his personality suddenly change?

Where did the man who was irritable, fickle and short-tempered go?

After they arrived back at the palace, Jing Xi discovered something even more unimaginable, and that was, her bedroom had changed.

The servant told her that she was already not allowed to stay in her previous room. The king asked her to change to a new room.

She followed the room number the servant told her and found the new room. Jing Xi realized the room was actually directly opposite the king's room.

Ahhh!

What was going on?

Jing Xi really wanted to pull her own hair and ask what exactly was going on.

Why did he suddenly treat her so well?

Could it be the king took the wrong medicine?

Wanting to get to the bottom of it, Jing Xi summoned her courage and went towards the opposite room. When she saw Yin Feng outside the door, she could already figure out the king was definitely inside. Jing Xi asked, "Mr. Yin Feng, is his majesty present?"

"Yes."

"I want..."

Before she could even finish her sentence, Yin Feng had already opened the door and said, "Miss Jin, if you have anything you want to say, why not say it to his majesty directly?"

Jing Xi turned her head sideways and looked at Yin Feng, flabbergasted. Even Yin Feng looked like he had changed somewhat.

She carefully walked into the king's room and Yin Feng closed the door just as she walked in. She turned back to look and then turned her head back again to look around the room. She didn't see anyone.

However, she heard the sound of water coming from the bathroom.

She unconsciously leaned forward to take a glance at the bathroom. She then saw a man's perfect body appear in the glass.

It was covered by a layer of mist and she could vaguely make out his inverted triangle body shape, his meticulous and robust waist, and his long legs... his physique was so good...

Jing Xi accidentally looked for a moment longer until the man came out. His waist was only covered by a white towel.

Oh my god!

Her peeping had been discovered!

Jing Xi felt so awkward that she quickly got out and wanted to find a place to hide. However, she tripped on the carpet and, not being able to control her body, she fell backward.

"Ahhh!"

She initially thought she would fall down, but unexpectedly, she didn't fall down. A pair of gentle and strong arms promptly held her up.

Huo Yunshen caught Jing Xi in time and she fell into his embrace. The two of them just stayed in this vague position for a while, one on top and one at the bottom.

They looked into each other's eyes, one unfamiliar, one familiar.

Jing Xi held her chest and it felt like her heart was about to jump out of it. It went thump, thump, thump, not being able to calm down for a long time.

While looking at this man's piercing peach blossom eyes, filled with deep emotion, the only thing Jing Xi felt was as if she had seen them before. Something flashed in her mind.

Why did this pair of eyes give her such a familiar feeling?

“Are you alright?” Huo Yunshen asked out of concern.

Chapter 1736: Waiting For Her

Jing Xi blanked out for a few seconds before she realized what was happening. She quickly jumped away from Huo Yunshen and stood still like a maid.

“I... I'm here... to... to... to ask why am I living there...”

Jing Xi asked this as she pointed at the room opposite with her reddened face facing the floor. She was too embarrassed to look at Huo Yunshen's well-built body.

“You will be my full-time assistant from now on.” Huo Yunshen smiled as he explained. “You will have to be on standby for 24 hours a day. That's why having you living opposite me is the best option. Do you have any problems with that?”

“What?”

Jing Xi hadn't had the slightest clue that she'd become Huo Yunshen's personal assistant.

And she felt that she wasn't up for the job either.

“But I'm already the prince's nanny. Why don't you hire someone else to do the job? What if I scare you with my ugly face? Please find someone else with a better face than mine who is more suitable for this job!”

“You're the best for the job!” Huo Yunshen said as he forced Jing Xi back to the wall and slammed his hand on the wall. He then raised Jing Xi's head with a finger to her chin and stared into her eyes.

“Jing... Xiaoxi, you will obey the order! I believe in your abilities, and I don't care how you look! I want you to stay in the palace forever!”

Stunned by Huo Yunshen's words, Jing Xi looked at Huo Yunshen like he was going crazy.

She thought that Huo Yunshen had only loved the late queen, and yet he was saying all those cheesy words to her.

“But I still have to work at Kaidi. There's no way I have the time to do three jobs at once!” Jing Xi argued.

“I don't see a problem there.”

The time! Jing Xi shouted in her head.

She then realized that Huo Yunshen's eyes were turning red, and asked worriedly, “Are you feeling okay? Should I take you to the hospital?”

Jing Xi really hoped that Huo Yunshen would go to the hospital and check on his brain too.

1

“I'm feeling a little sick. Come and take a look at what's wrong with me,” Huo Yunshen said.

“But I'm not a doctor.”

“You can at least check my blood pressure and body temperature, right?”

Huo Yunshen pulled his arm back before proceeding to sit down on his bed.

Jing Xi really wanted to run for the door, but her body moved on its own. She went and fetched the thermometer and sphygmomanometer.

“You're heating up a little,” Jing Xi said after taking Huo Yunshen's body temperature, then proceeded to test his blood pressure.

“What!” Jing Xi exclaimed when she saw the numbers on the sphygmomanometer. “Your heart is beating way to fast!”

“Then that would be your fault.”

Ever since Huo Yunshen had realized that Jin Xiaoxi was Jing Xi, he had been in an excited state whenever he was awake. His dying vitality had finally regained its former glory.

1

Jing Xi was his miracle.

She gave him the courage to live again.

Huo Yunshen was not eager to tell Jing Xi who she really was. He wanted to win her over all over again with his patience and love.

Even if she would never regain her memory, he would just make her fall in love with him once again.

He vowed to take care of her and love her for the rest of his life.

Ever since Jing Xi moved into the room opposite to Huo Yunshen's, her life had become a mess.

The only thing she tried her best to do every day was to avoid coming in contact with the king. But the king would “coincidentally” run into her whenever she left her room.

Chapter 1737: Touching Him So Closely

Night came and she was taking care of the two children by telling them a story. The king would also come over to the children's room. To put it nicely, he was here to spend time with his children as father and sons.

It might have been because of the king's presence, but Jing Xi felt like she didn't know how to tell the story anymore. So as to not cause them to become bored, Jing Xi intentionally said, “Little princes, do you guys want to listen to an even better story?”

“Yes! We want to listen to it!” the two children shouted energetically.

“His majesty the king knows how to tell very good stories. You guys should ask your father to tell them!”

When the two fellas heard her, they started to ask Huo Yunshen to come over and tell a story. The man who was invited came over to sit by the bed and started to tell the children a story.

The stories he told were stories he had told Little Cherry in the past. Those stories were deeply embedded in his mind so he had no difficulty in telling them now.

The children started to listen earnestly. Jing Xi was also listening. She realized the story the king told was very enjoyable. The reason it sounded so good might be because of his attractive voice.

As Little Grape listened to it, he thought of an idea. "Dad, can you lie down to tell your story?"

He hoped his dad could also lie beside them to tell them stories.

"Okay then!" This was exactly what Huo Yunshen wanted so he took advantage of the moment and came to lie down.

He leaned against the front of the bed and pressed against Little Grape and Little Apple. Coincidentally, Jing Xi, who was at the side, was also within his vision.

There were two children between them but the distance couldn't be considered far.

Jing Xi realized his majesty the king had lain down and she panicked so much that she quickly got up. There was no way she could lie down in the same bed as the king. That would be too outrageous.

The children pulled her just as Jing Xi got up. Little Apple asked, "Mom, where are you going?"

Jing Xi turned her head to look at the children. She laughed, "Auntie Xiaoxi can go out now since your dad is here to tell you guys stories."

"No! Mom, don't go!"

"Auntie Xiaoxi, don't go!"

Together, the two children made her stay. Huo Yunshen also said, "Since the children don't want you to leave, then just stay and lie down!"

"This..." Jing Xi looked at the big bed and hesitated, thinking about what she should do.

"I am the king and even I don't mind, so what is there for you to feel concerned about? I asked you to lie down, so just lie down!" Huo Yunshen intentionally spoke more forcefully so that it sounded like an order.

Jing Xi had no choice but to obediently go lie back down. And so, two adults lay down side by side with two children.

While Huo Yunshen slowly told the story, he would occasionally glance at the children and the woman who was directly in front of him.

Such a night with such an atmosphere really made him feel at ease.

It wasn't clear how many stories he told but after a while, the two fellas fell asleep. Jing Xi also fell asleep.

Huo Yunshen realized they fell asleep so he gently helped to cover them with blankets. He also chased after them to go to dreamland together.

When Jing Xi was about to wake up the next day, she felt an arm on her body. She thought it was one of the children who grabbed her so she also grabbed him without concern.

However, it felt unusual. She woke up immediately to look. Oh my god!

Why was she sleeping with the king?

Moreover, the arm on her body didn't belong to a child, it was the king's. The most shocking thing was that she was also holding him.

She forcefully suppressed her frantic heart. Jing Xi decided to take advantage of the fact that the king hadn't woke up yet to pull her hand back. However, the man seemed to have felt it. Not only did he not let go of her, but he pulled her into his embrace.

This time, it was a seamless fit.

Suddenly touching him so closely frightened Jing Xi. She didn't even dare to breathe. She wanted to escape but, at this moment, the king opened his eyes.

Chapter 1738: A Messed Up Life

Huo Yunshen stared at Jing Xi quietly with his attractive eyes and greeted, "Good morning, Jin Xiaoxi."

"... Morning..." Jing Xi greeted back awkwardly. "Can you... let me go... We're kind of..."

"Why are you in my arms?" Huo Yunshen asked instead.

"I'm so sorry... The kids..."

The moment Jing Xi mentioned the kids, she jumped up and looked for them.

"Where are the princes?"

"They're back in their room."

"..."

Jing Xi was utterly speechless.

Did he actually take the kids back to their room after they fell asleep?

But then Jing Xi realized that the one that had been taken away was her, and not the kids. She was in the king's room.

Jing Xi could not even cope with what was happening anymore. She started to wonder if the king was actually treating her as if she was his former queen.

Not wanting to think any further, Jing Xi thought of an excuse and ran away.

While Jing Xi was too busy running away, she did not notice the man was staring at her with a smile across his face.

Jing Xi was glad that she did not run into anyone after leaving the king's room. She quickly went back to her room and cleaned herself up before checking up on the kids.

She then went to the kitchen to prepare breakfast but was shocked to see that breakfast had already been made by the chefs.

Jing Xi could feel that her life had taken a huge turn recently. Since she did not have to prepare breakfast, she went back to help the kids get ready.

The kids were already up and were wearing their uniforms.

"Auntie Xiaoxi, where were you?" Little Grape asked.

"I... I wasn't anywhere."

Since Little Grape woke up once during the middle of the night, he noticed that the adults were gone.

"But why weren't you and daddy in my room in the morning?" Little Grape continued to ask.

"Oh! Because your daddy has to work, and I had to prepare breakfast." Jing Xi quickly made up an excuse. "Hurry up. Breakfast's ready."

Jing Xi helped the kids get ready and took them to the dining room.

After the kids had taken their seats, Jing Xi was about to go and check on Ying Bao when Huo Yunshen came in with Ying Bao.

The moment Ying Bao saw Jing Xi, she struggled loose from her father's hand and ran into Jing Xi's arms.

"Auntie Xiaoxi..."

Ying Bao had already heard from Huo Yunshen that Jin Xiaoxi was actually her mother.

He had also told her that Jing Xi has lost her memory and could only be Jin Xiaoxi until her memory returned.

Tears rolled down the girl's cheeks as she finally got to hug her mother again.

Jing Xi was shocked to see Ying Bao's action. She was confused as to why the princess was crying, wondering who had hurt her.

She raised her head to look at the king, but he remained quiet.

"What's wrong?" Jing Xi asked as she stroked Ying Bao's head gently.

Ying Bao only shook her head and did not say anything.

Chapter 1739: More And More Friendly

Mommy... Baobao missed you so much... [1]

Mommy... you are finally back... I knew you would definitely come back...

Although she didn't know why the child was upset, she still tried her best to make her happy until she stopped crying.

She brought Ying Bao over to the table and sat her down and then went to take some paper towels to wipe her face.

Ying Bao stared at her and said, "Auntie Xiaoxi, can you sit down and eat with us?"

Jing Xi didn't know how she should answer so she glanced at the king. Huo Yunshen pointed at where she had sat yesterday. "This will be your seat from now on. Sit!"

"Auntie Xiaoxi, sit!" Little Grape shouted.

"Mommy, quickly sit down!" Little Apple pulled on his mother's hand and said.

She originally thought she only sat with the members of the royal family during meals before by chance. However, she never would've thought the king would appoint a seat specifically for her right now.

Jing Xi was startled by the favor she was shown and the children all put breakfast on her plate.

"Mommy, eat!"

"Auntie Xiaoxi, you should eat!"

Jing Xi looked at the children's enthusiasm and she felt an emotion that was hard to describe with words. Being with the children would always give her a feeling that she was back at her own home.

She suddenly felt that the initially oppressive and cold palace had now become more and more friendly.

After breakfast, the king said goodbye to the children as he had work to do.

Jing Xi sent the children to school first before going to report in at Kaidi.

She had lessons, physical training, and also recording sessions. The busy day ended and Jing Xi wanted to leave early so that she could go fetch the children after school.

President Huo Sanyan was very understanding of her situation so she made a new adjustment to her schedule. "If you have to send and fetch the children in the future, you don't need to come so early and you can also leave early in the afternoon."

"Thank you. Thank you, President Huo."

"Oh, and also, don't forget to attend tomorrow's dance."

"Understood, President Huo."

The company provided her with a nanny van. However, the royal family car was waiting outside. She got in the royal family car and set out for the royal academy to wait for children's classes to end.

The royal academy was different from normal schools as there weren't many parents and illegally parked cars outside the school gate.

When they arrived, many of the students had already been picked up. Jing Xi waited at the entrance for a while before seeing Ying Bao come out while pulling her two little brothers.

When the three children saw her, they all ran towards her. In the end, they all threw themselves into her embrace, holding onto her.

Each of them kept calling mommy, mommy, Auntie Xiaoxi nonstop.

“Okay, okay. Princes and princess, it is time to go home.”

Jing Xi headed back to the palace with the children.

“Mom, tomorrow is Saturday. We don't need to go to school,” Little Apple said happily.

“Yes, that is correct.” Jing Xi touched the child's little face.

“Auntie Xiaoxi, where should we go to play?” Little Grape asked as he pondered.

“Where do you guys want to go? You guys can think about it and if there is somewhere you want to go, Auntie Xiaoxi can bring you guys there tomorrow.” After Jing Xi said this, the three children started to think seriously.

The end result was that the places the children thought of were all different and they couldn't reach a consensus. In the end, Jing Xi said, “We might as well just play in the palace playground.”

“Okay! Play with us, Auntie Xiaoxi!”

The children finally agreed and made a decision. They would stay at home and play together with mommy tomorrow.

“Auntie Xiaoxi...” Ying Bao shouted and then held her hand. She said with a smile, “I'm so glad you are here.”

Jing Xi noticed that the little cherry princess started to smile more. When she looked at her, she no longer saw the cold sadness on her little face anymore. Right now, she looked very cute when she smiled.

Chapter 1740: Hug Her Tightly

Jing Xi brought the three little kids back home and was surprised to see Huo Yunshen waiting for them by the palace door.

Huo Yunshen finished whatever he had to do that day early and had the time to welcome his family back.

The moment Ying Bao and Little Grape saw their father, they ran towards him and into his arms.

“Niuniu, you should go too,” Jing Xi encouraged Little Apple, who was still holding her hand.

Little Apple was hesitating a little since his relationship with Huo Yunshen was still at an awkward stage.

But with Jing Xi's encouragement, he slowly walked towards the king. Huo Yunshen saw Little Apple approaching him, and he opened his arms to welcome the little boy too.

After hugging all the kids, Huo Yunshen stood back up and waited for Jing Xi to join them before going back into the palace as a family.

It was Saturday the next day, and Jing Xi promised to play with the kids.

The playground was filled with laughter when Huo Yunshen got there. The sight of Jing Xi playing with the kids made a warm smile appear on his face.

He then took off his shoes and walked into the playground.

It was then that Huo Yunshen realized that Little Grape was trying to tackle Jing Xi. He quickly ran towards the little boy and snatched him up before he could hit Jing Xi.

Huo Yunshen crashed down onto the floor while he held Little Grape up in the air.

Little Grape was looking at his father in shock because he had just ruined his plan for trying to hug his Auntie Xiaoxi.

“Daddy, what's wrong?” Little Grape asked.

Huo Yunshen put his son down and looked at the woman next to him.

“You kids have to be careful when playing with Auntie Xiaoxi, okay?” Huo Yunshen warned. “Don't run into her belly.”

“Why?” Little Grape asked, as he did that every day.

“Because Auntie Xiaoxi has a baby in her belly now. You might hurt the baby.”

Hearing the king splurting everything out, Jing Xi looked at him like he was some madman.

“There's a baby in Auntie Xiaoxi?” Little Grape gasped as he turned to look at Jing Xi.

Jing Xi nodded in reply.

Little Grape then touched Jing Xi's belly and asked, “Is it Uncle Heiniu's?”

“...” Surprised by the question, Jing Xi had no idea how to reply to it.

“No, it's daddy's,” Huo Yunshen suddenly said. “You will be a big brother soon.”

“Then... If Auntie Xiaoxi has my little brother in her, does it make her part of our family now?”

“Yes,” Huo Yunshen nodded.

Little Grape got way too excited when he heard the answer and hugged Jing Xi tightly.

“Then, can I call Auntie Xiaoxi mommy?”

“Of course,” Huo Yunshen smiled.

“Yay! Sis, did you hear that? I have a mommy now!” Little Grape shouted excitedly.

Ignoring the little kids, Jing Xi looked at Huo Yunshen and asked, “My king, why are you telling these things to them?”

“What's wrong with telling them the truth?”
