

Priceless Baby 871

Chapter 871: Not a Soft Person

"Wait, don't panic." Xu Xiyao stopped Wan Dou. "Get back, both of you. Let me take care of the snake."

Xu Xiyao noticed the hiking cane beside her and used it as a weapon.

She poked the snake with the cane, and the snake noticed Xu Xiyao's presence. It got up and lunged at Xu Xiyao.

With a swift motion, Xu Xiyao avoided the snake and hit it on its head with the cane.

The snake fell onto the ground, and Xu Xiyao took the chance to pin it down with the cane. She grabbed the end of the snake and lifted it up.

"Looks like we can make a good soup with it," Xu Xiyao joked.

"Please don't," Ni Xuelin said. "But you really are something."

Wan Dou and Ni Xuelin were scared to death but lucky for them, Xu Xiyao was able to catch the snake.

Xu Xiyao threw the snake into a bucket and covered it up.

"But why is there a snake in our room?" Wan Dou sighed. "How am I supposed to sleep now knowing that snakes might attack us?"

"Isn't it normal for snakes to crawl into someone's house in a remote village?" Xu Xiyao asked without giving it too much thought.

One of the women from the village walked past their room when they gathered together and asked them if they weren't used to sleeping on hard surfaces.

"No, we found a snake in our room," Wan Dou said.

"What snake? Where is it?" the woman asked.

Wan Dou pointed at the bucket, and the woman opened it. She looked at it and put the lid back on.

"This snake is definitely not from around here," the woman explained. "The snakes around here aren't poisonous. It's my first time seeing that kind of snake as well."

The three girls looked at each other and realized something was off.

After the woman had left, Ni Xuelin thought of something and said, "So that's what happened. Do you still remember that I went to the bathroom during dinner? I noticed someone coming out of our room when I was on my way back. I followed the person out of curiosity, and that person went to meet up with Lan Ling'er and her assistant. I did not think much about it back then, but I think they were the ones who set the snake up in our room."

"So you mean that someone who was working for Lan Ling'er brought the snake with them and left it in our room so that it could attack us?" Wan Dou asked. "Could it be that they are targeting..."

Wan Dou and Ni Xuelin both looked at Xu Xiyan.

Xu Xiyan had also come to the same conclusion. Lan Ling'er was definitely responsible for the incident.

"What should we do now?" Wan Dou asked.

Xu Xiyan was not a person that was soft, and she would fight back. Since they gave her such a huge surprise, she thought that it would be too bad if she did not repay them.

She pulled Wan Dou and Ni Xuelin closer and whispered something to them.

Lan Ling'er was sitting in the next room, removing her makeup, when she heard a scream coming from her neighbors.

"Did you hear that?" Lan Ling'er asked Sha Labi excitedly.

"Yup, what a terrifying scream."

"Of course they will be terrified. That's one of the top ten most poisonous snakes! They will be dead in 10 minutes if they were bitten."

Chapter 872: Greatly Traumatized

Lan Ling-Er analyzed smugly.

Sha Labi was worried. "Miss, what if someone dies? Will the young master come after us?"

"What are you afraid of? Even if that woman is bitten to death, can my brother still bear to kill me? Don't worry, he would not trace it back to us! We only have to take care of their corpses tomorrow morning."

Feeling pleased, Lan Ling-Er turned off the lights for Sha Labi and went to sleep.

As they slept till after midnight, a hissing noise came within the room. When Sha Labi turned over in her bed, she felt something cool and slippery with her hand.

Instinctively, she flung that thing away, but her hand was bitten by it. "Aaaaaaaah!"

Hearing the screams, Lan Ling-Er turned on the light and saw Sha Labi grabbing onto her arm, shaking her hand in pain.

The two women looked down under the bed. Oh my god! There were a bunch of snakes under the bed! They were slithering all over the place, some trying to climb onto the bed.

"Aaaaaaaaaaaaaahh!"

How come there are so many snakes?

Lan Ling-Er screamed in terror and picked up a pillow to whack at the snakes that tried to climb up.

And then, the two women hugged each other in fear, standing on the bed and shouting loudly for help.

It was a pity that Lan Ling-Er's bodyguards were also outside the village stockade and were too far to come to their immediate aid. In the end, their shouts had woken Shen Mengyuan up. She came over to check on them and, after seeing their room was full of snakes, she contacted staff from the hope and charity team.

After the snakes in their room were all caught, Lan Ling-Er and Sha Labi had been so terrified that they had already fainted on the ground.

Lan Ling-Er had been so scared that she had peed in her pants. This was the first time such a shameful thing had happened to her.

In the next room, Xu Xiyan and the two girls did not get up to watch the fun at all. The three of them were sleeping very well.

The next day, they got up at dawn and met Lan Ling-Er and Sha Labi at breakfast. The two of them looked even more wretched than before.

Sha Labi had been bitten by a snake. Although it was not a poisonous snake, it still greatly traumatized her.

Xu Xiyan heard that the two had slept in the car of the hope and charity team last night and they had not dared to go back to the house.

Xu Xiyan exchanged glances with Wandou and Ni Xuelin. They were all thinking the same three words: Serves them right!

Last night, they had decided to return the favor. When the two had fallen asleep, Xu Xiyan, Wandou and Ni Xuelin took flashlights and went to a nearby forest stream to catch a lot of native snakes.

Then, they secretly released them all into Lan Ling-Er's room, letting them experience the thrill of being attacked by poisonous snakes too.

Now, Lan Ling-Er dared not use snakes again. As long as snakes were mentioned or brought to mind, she would shudder at the thought.

After breakfast, the hope and charity team moved on to the next place to visit children in the mountains.

More than ten kilometers away, in the village of Wagouzi, there was only one dilapidated primary school in the area.

It could no longer be called a primary school; there were just a few mud buildings.

The facilities were very simple. The school didn't even have desks and chairs and all the children had to sit on the ground.

The hope and charity team came here and delivered the materials prepared for the children to the school.

Xu Xiyan and the others accompanied the children, experiencing the life of a volunteer teacher for a day.

At night, they were assigned to live with different households and Xu Xiyan was separated from her assistants. She was to live in the home of a child named Xiaoyu.

Xiaoyu was a particularly precocious girl and she was only 7 years old. Her father was working away from home and she had to stay at home to take care of her mother who had an eye disease, her mother relying on her for everything. She was a highly motivated learner in school.

Xiaoyu was fine when she was playing with Xu Xiyan and the others during the day, but unexpectedly in the middle of the night, she was crying of a stomach ache and was tumbling around in pain.

Xu Xiyan, who knew medicine, checked the child's symptoms and concluded that she was suffering from acute appendicitis.

If it was nothing serious, she could cure the child herself. But acute appendicitis requires surgery, and it was imperative that the child be sent to a hospital in a nearby village.

Chapter 873: Danger At Midnight

Since Xiao Yu's mother had bad eyesight, Xu Xiyan had to take care of her.

After promising Xiao Yu's mother that she would take care of the little girl, Xu Xiyan rushed out the door with Xiao Yu in her arms.

Xu Xiyan ran to the parking spot, straight towards the car that Lan Ling'er was sleeping in and woke her up.

Xu Xiyan told Lan Ling'er that there was an emergency and she wanted to borrow their car.

Yet Lan Ling'er wouldn't lend her the car, and Xu Xiyan could only put Xiao Yu in the back seat before pulling Sha Labi out of the car, pushing her into the back and driving away.

"Jing Xi! Do you even know what you're doing?" Lan Ling'er scolded from the backseat.

"I'm trying to save a life! If you still want to be a nuisance, I'll kick you out of the car!" Xu Xiyan threatened.

Lan Ling'er immediately shut her mouth after being intimidated by Xu Xiyan.

She looked outside and noticed it was still dark. The only light they had was from the headlights, shining on the path that was narrow, with steep cliffs on the side.

“Do you even know where the hospital is?” Lan Ling'er asked, afraid that Xu Xiyan would accidentally plunge the car down the cliff.

“We have to find it!”

Xu Xiyan followed her memory and drove the car towards the town.

They drove past a forest where it was raining, and it looked like the rain was about to get worse.

As the rain hit the car, the path in front of Xu Xiyan became blurry. Xu Xiyan grabbed onto the wheel tightly to prevent the car from sliding.

“Hey, did you even notice the rain? Are you still trying to get out in this bad weather?”

“Shut the hell up! One more word from you and I'll drive the car down the cliff!”

And that shut Lan Ling'er up.

She suddenly heard a loud rumble from behind and turned to look, only to see trees being pushed down the hill.

“Hey! There's a landslide behind us!” Lan Ling'er shouted.

Lan Ling'er was furious. She'd thought of killing Xu Xiyan more than once, but she never expected that she would go down with Xu Xiyan too.

The most tragic part was that a huge fallen tree branch was blocking their path.

“Hey, go and move the branch!” Xu Xiyan shouted.

“Why me?”

“There's a problem with the car, and I can't let my foot off the brake! If you hesitate any longer, the landslide will swallow us!”

Xu Xiyan had already noticed that the landslide was getting worse and was closing in on their car.

Without any choice, Lan Ling'er left the car and ran towards the branch.

Just as she was trying to pull the branch to the side, the landslide swallowed the car.

Xu Xiyan tried to push the door open, but it wouldn't budge.

Only a small part of the windshield wasn't blocked by dirt, and Xu Xiyan knocked on the windshield asking Lan Ling'er to help them. But before Lan Ling'er could even react, the whole car was swallowed up.

She knew that if she ran over and dug part of the dirt away, she could save the two people in the car, but as soon as she thought of the fact that the person in the car was the one she hated the most, she abandoned the thought of saving them.

She never expected that God would help her in her plan.

Lan Ling'er quickly left the branch on the side of the road and ran.

Xu Xiyan had no way to get out of the car and could only press button on the SOS device.

Even though she wasn't sure if the signal went out, it was the only hope she had left.

Chapter 874: He Was One Step Too Late Again

The SOS alert of the highest priority sounded .

All JS regiments around the world received the rescue signal .

The heads of the various regiments immediately determined the coordinates: Lingnan, Zstan .

Zeus is in trouble?

This is the second time Zeus has been in danger this year!

All JS members who were in the vicinity of Lingnan in Zstan received the new SOS signal and quickly made their way there for the rescue operation .

At this time, Huo Yunshen had also received the signal, and he was the closest to the coordinates .

He had already settled Tang Yichen's trouble at Wstan and he was now returning to Zstan in advance .

He was worried about Jing Xi so he had taken a helicopter and directly come to Lingnan without telling her .

Right now, he was flying above the Lingnan mountain areas .

After receiving the signal, his heart clenched up . Jing Xi is in trouble?

If it is not an emergency, she would not simply activate the SOS device, right?

As he thought of this, Huo Yunshen ordered the helicopter pilot to fly to the coordinates as fast as possible and force a landing there .

Meanwhile, Lan Ling-Er ran to the village town to seek shelter from the rain and called her brother Mo Yutian for help so he would bring some men to save her .

Mo Yutian knew clearly about their operations this time, so he had been following them secretly . He was now in the village town located ten kilometers away from the village of Wagouzi .

Since he heard that his sister was in distress, he thought Jing Xi was in the same danger too . He immediately took his men to Wagouzi Village .

Rain fell from the sky . From high above, the helicopter had spotted several mudslides on the mountain road below .

As the helicopter closed in, the SOS device around Huo Yunshen's wrist flashed more rapidly .

Found it!

It's just in front, at that place clogged by mudslide debris!

Huo Yunshen ordered the helicopter pilot to fly as close as possible, but the rain was too heavy and it was too dangerous for the helicopter to land in the mountain forest . After determining the specific coordinates, Huo Yunshen descended to the ground via a rope from the helicopter with his men .

As he landed on the ground successfully, Huo Yunshen's SOS device flashed more and more rapidly .

However, as he looked at the severity of the mudslide in front of him, his heart felt colder and colder . Jing Xi is in danger . Is she buried under the mudslide?

No!

Jing Xi will be fine!

Huo Yunshen took his men and ran towards the mudslide . His men surveyed the scene and found that a car was buried under the mudslide .

“Clear the debris!” Huo Yunshen ordered and started to work at the same time, digging at the mud and debris with his bare hands .

On the other side of the road, Mo Yutian brought his men in an off-road vehicle .

When he had come to pick up Lan Ling-Er at a farmhouse, he asked her what had happened . At that time, Lan Ling-Er spoke ambiguously and refused to reveal anything .

After being intimidated by her brother, only then did Lan Ling-Er tell him the truth, saying that Jing Xi was being buried under the mudslide whereas she had managed to escape by chance .

After learning of the situation, Mo Yutian rushed to the scene promptly with his men .

The lights of his car lit the way forward . In front at the mudslide, Mo Yutian saw many people digging at the debris with bare hands .

One man, completely soaked by the rain, was exerting himself the most as he dug at the debris . Isn't that Huo Yunshen?

Originally, Mo Yutian had listened to Lan Ling-Er's suggestion to hold a charity awards ceremony in LK's name . He had also put in a lot of effort to make Jing Xi a charity ambassador and organized this charity mission to send help to the countryside .

He had intended to create a little situation during the mission so he could appear in a timely manner . At the same time, he had also devised a kidnapping case for the purpose of distracting Huo Yunshen so that he could become the hero and come to Jing Xi's rescue himself .

But now, he did not expect that Jing Xi would become a victim of a natural disaster for real and be buried under a mudslide .

He also didn't expect Huo Yunshen's appearance . He should still be in Wstan...how could he be here now?

Once again, he was outstripped by Huo Yunshen—he was one step too late again!

Chapter 875: Near-Death Experience

Lei De noticed Huo Yunshen was digging through the mud with his men and suggested, “Sir, this is the best time to take care of him. Should I get some of our men and...”

Lei De's intention was clear, he planned to take care of Huo Yunshen.

But Mo Yutian hesitated because Jing Xi was still buried and ordered, “Don't do anything without my orders!”

“But sir!” Lei De retorted.

Mo Yutian looked at Huo Yunshen digging through the mud until all of his fingers were bleeding. Even he would be touched by Huo Yunshen's action.

“Everyone get out and help Huo Yunshen!” Mo Yutian ordered.

Even though Lei De thought that it was the only chance to get rid of Huo Yunshen, he could not refuse an order from his master. He got his underlings and went to help Huo Yunshen.

Lan Ling'er heard that Mo Yutian intended to help Jing Xi, to the point where he even took off his suit and was about to leave the car.

“Brother!” Lan Ling'er stopped Mo Yutian. “It's dangerous outside! You can't go! Another landslide could come down at any moment!”

“Keep your mouth shut and stay in the car!”

Mo Yutian jumped out of the car and ran to help.

Huo Yunshen had already noticed the man that suddenly appeared beside him, but he could not care less about his intentions.

All he could think of was the safety of his wife.

As he dug faster, his heart kept praying for Xu Xiyan's safety.

With the increase of hands, the car finally surfaced. Huo Yunshen ordered his man to pry the door open, and the unconscious girl was sitting in the car.

"Jing Xi..." Huo Yunshen called out and pulled her out from the car.

Mo Yutian was also worried when he saw Jing Xi was unconscious.

"Do you need my help?" Mo Yutian asked as he saw that Huo Yunshen's hands were covered in blood.

"There's another person in the back seat," Huo Yunshen said.

Mo Yutian pulled the back door open and saved the kid in the back seat.

"Get in my car!" Mo Yutian said since his car was near.

Time was of the essence, and Huo Yunshen went with Mo Yutian.

Lei De followed behind Mo Yutian and could feel that his master had changed.

They had the chance to get rid of Huo Yunshen, and another chance would be hard to come by.

Mo Yutian's car sped through the mountains and to the nearest hospital.

Xu Xiyan and Xiao Yu were both sent into E.R. and were saved.

Xu Xiyan woke up the next afternoon and saw Huo Yunshen sitting in front of her.

"Hubby..." Xu Xiyan called out, unable to believe her own eyes.

"You're up..." Huo Yunshen touched her head and held her hand.

He sighed with emotion because he had almost lost his wife forever.

"I thought I would never see you again..." Xu Xiyan sobbed, recalling that she had almost suffocated in the landslide.

As she was losing her consciousness in the car, she thought of many things.

The biggest regret that she would have if she died was that she never gave Huo Yunshen another child.

"I was afraid too. Do you know how worried I was when I got the distress call?"

Chapter 876: Then Spend Your Life with Me

"Dear..." Tears of joy welled in Xu Xiyan's eyes and fell in large beads from the corners of her eyes. "I didn't expect you to come and save me! I thought I was dead for sure!"

"No, that never would have happened. Even if you've gone to the netherworld or the afterlife, I would always come to save you!"

As long as he was there, he would not easily allow her to leave him.

The couple spoke a lot of intimate words, gazing at each other for a moment. Xu Xiyan noticed blood under the nails of all his fingers and grabbed his hand anxiously. She asked as she inspected it, "What happened to your hands?"

"Nothing," he said as he grabbed her hand in return to stop her from looking at it.

Xu Xiyan had already guessed it. "You were digging in the mudslide with your bare hands and injured them in order to rescue me, didn't you?"

Huo Yunshen did not speak, his silence admitting it.

Xu Xiyan's heart felt numb as though it was stuffed with cotton. She could imagine him at the scene at that time, digging at the mudslide with his bare hands under heavy rain. She felt incredibly touched.

Tears slipped down her cheeks silently.

Huo Yunshen noticed that she was crying and quickly wiped her tears, and said gently to her, "Why are you crying now? Saving my wife is my obligatory duty. If you're so moved that you're unable to repay my kindness, then spend your life with me. If you can't now, you can do it a few more times after you've recovered."

Xu Xiyan was so amused by the man's words that her tears became tears of laughter. She remembered Xiaoyu and became anxious again. "Oh, right, when you were rescuing me, did you see a little girl in the back seat?"

"Don't worry, she has been sent to the hospital. The doctor has done surgery on her for her appendicitis. She is fine now," Huo Yunshen said.

"I'm glad to hear that."

Xu Xiyan was really afraid she had caused Xiaoyu to lose her life because of her decision.

After a while, she thought of getting up. "I'm going to see Xiaoyu."

"Don't worry about her now, you can go after you've recovered." Huo Yunshen held her down to stop her from moving, then leaned over and kissed her.

If she hadn't just escaped from death, making her weak, he really felt like embracing her into his very bones.

While Xu Xiyan was resting peacefully in hospital, the hope and charity team ended the trip in advance due to the natural disaster.

Later, Ye Xun came to the hospital with his men to see Xu Xiyan. When he saw Huo Yunshen, he took the initiative to ask him to punish him.

Huo Yunshen had tasked him to protect Xu Xiyan, but when something had happened to her, they did not even realize it. He was really unworthy of Huo Yunshen's trust.

However, in this regard, Huo Yunshen did not press him. The incident had suddenly happened and he could not blame him.

Wandou and Ni Xuelin also came over to the hospital. In the ward, three girls talked about the incident at the time. Both Wandou and Ni Xuelin expressed their guilt.

"Everything is okay now. Please don't blame yourselves anymore," Xu Xiyan comforted the two girls.

"Sister Jing Xi, that Lan Ling-Er is really too much! How could she just abandon you and run off?" Wandou said indignantly.

"Do you girls think she would be willing to save me?" Xu Xiyan asked.

True, she had a point!

If Lan Ling-Er was the kind of person who would save someone, she would not release snakes in their room.

You really can't count on such a vicious person like her.

As they chatted, Wandou remembered something. "Oh, right, Sister Jing Xi. President Xiao had called to ask about your situation and she also wanted me to inform you by the way: Your LK product endorsement contract has been canceled by the company."

"Why? The contract period has not yet been fulfilled. If we cancel the contract now, we will have to pay the penalty."

Xu Xiyan had just participated in the LK charity awards ceremony recently. What was the reason for the termination of contract now?

Xiao Yuqian must be out of her mind, right?

"I don't know the specific reasons. President Xiao said that the penalty has been paid and the contract is officially lifted. The company's decisions are all for your own good," Wandou added.

Chapter 877: The Rival Came

Xu Xiyan believed that the choices her company made were for her benefit. There was no way that Huo Yunshen would do something that could harm her.

Just as the three of them were talking, there was a soft knock on the door, and they turned to see Mo Yutian standing at the door with a bouquet of flowers in his hand.

"Sorry for interrupting," Mo Yutian apologized.

He went into the room, his eyes locked onto the girl in the bed. He gave her the flowers as the other two girls looked at him in awe.

"Jing Xi, how are you feeling?" Mo Yutian asked.

"I'm better now, thank you."

Xu Xiyan had heard that Mo Yutian took part in saving her too.

She couldn't help but feel how intriguing it was for the two siblings. One tried to kill her, yet the other came to save her.

"About the other night..." Mo Yutian said and stopped himself as he looked at the other girls. He wanted to ask for some privacy so he could talk to Jing Xi.

Yet none of the girls left.

It wasn't Wan Dou's intention to stay and stop him, but it was her job, as her boss had asked her to be wary of Mo Yutian.

Xu Xiyan asked both of them if they could give her some privacy as she also had something that she needed to talk to Mo Yutian about.

As soon as Wan Dou left the room, she left a message for Huo Yunshen saying that Mo Yutian went to visit Xu Xiyan.

"It was just an accident that night, luckily no one got hurt," Xu Xiyan said.

Mo Yutian nodded.

"Mr. Mo, could you please not give me flowers anymore? My husband will misunderstand it. It's better if you give them to Miss Lan."

"But we're just normal friends, aren't we? How stingy can your husband be?"

Xu Xiyan remained quiet, and Mo Yutian continued, "I'm really sorry for what my sister did. She was too scared to do anything and ran. It was she who called me after that."

He was trying to justify Lan Ling'er's actions.

Xu Xiyan couldn't help but laugh sarcastically in her head since the source of Lan Ling'er's arrogance was Mo Yutian.

"I really hope you tell her to mind her own business next time."

"I will."

"Mr. Mo, when are you going to let my grandfather go?" Xu Xiyan asked, more concerned about her grandfather's safety than Lan Ling'er's education. "I can promise you that Huo Yunshen and I won't seek revenge as long as you let him go."

Even though Mo Yutian had sent her a video proving that her grandfather was given the best guest treatment possible, she still hoped that she could reunite with him as soon as possible.

Chapter 878: A Murderous Aura

Wasn't the purpose for Mo Yutian taking her grandfather as a hostage to protect Lan Ling-Er?

Wouldn't everything be fine as long as they did not touch Lan Ling-Er?

"I will consider your suggestion."

Though Mo Yutian did not immediately agree to release her grandfather, he did not say anything to draw the line.

After that, Xu Xiyao did not speak and Mo Yutian was quiet too. An awkward silence fell between them.

Just then, the door of the ward was opened again, and a tall man appeared at the door.

When the man saw that Mo Yutian was there, a murderous aura rose from his eyes. He walked straight into the room and stepped between the two, cutting off their communication. "What is your business here, Mr. Mo?"

"I've come to see Jing Xi," Mo Yutian replied.

Huo Yunshen noticed the flowers on the bed, and raised the corner of his mouth into a sneer. "And with flowers?"

"They're for Jing Xi."

Huo Yunshen picked up the flowers and threw them directly into the trash can, then narrowed his eyes as he warned Mo Yutian, "I'll be responsible for loving my woman. You don't have to bother with it, Mr. Mo."

Although Mo Yutian had appeared at the last moment and drove them to the hospital, Huo Yunshen would not simply thank him because of that.

Because he had found out a terrible thing.

The company whose products Xu Xiyao was endorsing, LK, turned out to be an overseas company belonging to Mo Yutian.

At the beginning when LK had selected her as their product endorser, it had been Mo Yutian's plan. His purpose was obvious.

That was so he could get close to Jing Xi, and so he could have her; that was why he had resorted to many underhanded means in secret.

Also, there was another outrageous thing.

In fact, when Tang Yichen was kidnapped in Wstan and Huo Yunshen had to come personally pay the ransom, it was all an act to lure Huo Yunshen out of Zstan.

Huo Yunshen had been misdirected into Wstan and the other party had played a game of hide and seek with him, delaying him with various tactics. In the end, Huo Yunshen had to request Nightfall's apprentice, Jun Yan, to crack the coordinates of the location of the other party.

And thus, he was able to counter the kidnapers in advance and rescue Tang Yichen.

In fact, those kidnapers had already confessed: they had been arranged and instructed by their master, Mo Yutian.

Now, let's talk about how Mo Yutian had appeared at the scene of the incident in time.

Wasn't it too much of a coincidence?

It could only be explained that everything that had happened was all planned by Mo Yutian behind the scenes.

Starting from the time Jing Xi was awarded the title of charity ambassador at the charity awards ceremony, the charity mission at the countryside, till Tang Yichen's kidnapping case; all of this was his meticulous plan, linking closely to each other.

Would Mo Yutian still dare to say that he was not behind everything?

“You really impress me, Mr. Mo. For my wife, you're willing to put in a lot of effort for her and do whatever you can to achieve your goals. You've spent a lot of energy just to move LK to Peijing, just because you wanted to bind her to you by making her endorse LK, right?” Huo Yunshen said mockingly.

Xu Xiyan did not interrupt. She was listening to the two men quietly.

What is the meaning of Huo Yunshen's last sentence?

Could it be that... LK is Mo Yutian's company?

And the product endorsement was also one of Mo Yutian's schemes?

Mo Yutian clenched his fists tight secretly, suppressing the anger in his heart. “What's wrong with showing concern to a product endorser under my company?”

His words were equivalent to directly admitting that LK was his company.

Very well!

Huo Yunshen ink-dark pupils constricted. “Her LK endorsement contract has been canceled and the penalty was paid. She is no longer a product endorser for your company. What else do you want to do?”

Mo Yutian was probably not afraid of death. He came back with an infuriating answer. “But as the new president of ROSUE, I think I still have this right.”

Speechless!

Huo Yunshen was not aware of Mo Yutian's other move. He had secretly acquired ROSUE?

He really didn't expect that he would stop at nothing just for Jing Xi!

Damn it!

Xu Xiyan had finally figured out why the company had suddenly terminated her product endorsement for LK...

Chapter 879: Huo Yunshen's Dominance

Xu Xiyan finally understood the reason that her company had to forfeit her contract with LK. It was to cut ties with Mo Yutian.

Huo Yunshen grabbed Mo Yutian by his collar and scolded, “Mo Yutian! She's already my wife now, why can't you let her go?”

“I don't care if she's married or not! What's important is that I want her!”

Without giving Mo Yutian time to react, Huo Yunshen landed a punch on him.

Huo Yunshen did not stop, and they exchanged blows until they were outside the room where Mo Yutian was pressured onto the wall.

It was a fight that was long overdue.

Mo Yutian began to counter Huo Yunshen's attack.

As Wan Dou looked at her boss landing punches and punches onto Mo Yutian, she shrieked in excitement.

Even Ni Xuelin couldn't help but gasp. “This is my first time seeing such a handsome man fight. He's so cool!”

Huo Yunshen pushed Mo Yutian onto a nurse cart and grabbed him by his collar.

“Do I have to kill you so that you will stop?” Huo Yunshen asked.

The situation they were in was dangerous. If they were caught by any reporters, it would cause an uproar.

But since they were in a small town, they didn't have to worry about it.

Mo Yutian grabbed Huo Yunshen's arm and fought back, “I wanted to have a fair fight, but you never gave me a chance! I have no choice but to do it my own way! I'll get everything I want even if I have to break the law!”

Huo Yunshen landed another punch on Mo Yutian's face, almost breaking his nose.

It was at that moment when Mo Yutian's men came rushing in and pointed guns at Huo Yunshen.

Huo Yunshen's bodyguards also came rushing from the emergency exit with their guns out.

It became a stalemate.

Seconds before the guns were drawn, Ni Xuelin and Wan Dou were looking at the two men fight like it was a movie, but now they were hugging each other, afraid for their lives.

The scene was like two mafia groups ready to go to war.

If they were really to use their guns, many would be sacrificed in the hospital.

Huo Yunshen did not want that to happen, and with his wife still lying in bed, avoiding gunfights was the best choice.

He let Mo Yutian go and arranged his suit as he stared at his opponent.

Mo Yutian stared back, not hiding the hatred in his eyes.

They were both meant to be rivals forever.

Mo Yutian let his men put down their guns.

“Just you wait!” Mo Yutian said before he left.

Huo Yunshen snorted back.

After Mo Yutian had left, Huo Yunshen went back to the room and saw that Xu Xiyan was trying to get out of her bed.

Chapter 880: Such A Close Brush With Death

“Lie down, Dear!”

He hurried over and made her lie back down on the bed.

Xu Xiyan grabbed his hand and asked worriedly, “Are you hurt? I'm so worried about you.”

“No.”

Huo Yunshen shook his head, his eyes emotionless as he said, “It's not safe here anymore. I'll transfer you to a hospital back in Peijing this afternoon.”

Thinking of Mo Yutian's challenge to him, he really felt like turning her into a small bead and hiding her.

“Okay, but before we leave, I want to see Xiaoyu first.”

“Alright.”

Before transferring Xu Xiyan to another hospital in the afternoon, Huo Yunshen accompanied her to see Xiaoyu.

The little girl had had a surgery and she was fine now. The couple decided to sponsor the talented and intelligent Xiaoyu until college.

Huo Yunshen arranged a special caretaker to stay and look after Xiaoyu. After Xiaoyu had recovered, the caretaker would take her home.

After settling the child's matters, they took a helicopter back to Peijing in the afternoon, whereas the rest went back to the city by land.

Due to Xu Xiyan's body still needing to recuperate, Huo Yunshen directly sent her to Peijing First People's Hospital and admitted her in the VIP ward.

Fang Xiaocheng learned of Xu Xiyan's return and came to see her with Ying Bao.

When they were about to enter the ward, Fang Xiaocheng saw Mr. Huo kissing Mrs. Huo through the glass window on the door.

“Dad—”

Ying Bao arrived at the door and instinctively wanted to call out her Mommy and Daddy, but Fang Xiaocheng had stopped her. “Shh! Cherry, Auntie will take you to the garden outside to play for a while first!”

Fang Xiaocheng decided not to disturb the couple and come back later.

“Why? Baby misses Mommy!”

As Ying Bao said this, her little hand was already pushing the door of the ward open.

“Daddy...Mommy...”

After the couple inside heard the voice of their daughter, they immediately separated and wiped their lips. “Baby, you're here!” they greeted.

This was not the first time Ying Bao had seen her parents kissing and she was already completely used to it. She ran straight into the room and clung onto the hospital bed, asking her mother, “Mommy, why are you in the hospital? Are you sick? Or are you going to give birth to Little Brother?”

“Mommy doesn't have your little brother yet. If Mommy has him, Mommy will be sure to tell you first, okay?”

Xu Xiyao stroked her daughter's little head. She always felt that God had been protecting her; she had been so close to not seeing her daughter again.

“Okay!” Ying Bao answered happily.

“Who did you come with?” Xu Xiyao asked.

“Auntie Orange!”

As she said that, Fang Xiaocheng came in from outside, walking over to Xu Xiyao to see her. “How do you feel, Yanyan? Are you feeling better?”

“Yup, I'm fine.”

In fact, Xu Xiyao had wanted to go directly home to rest, but Huo Yunshen had refused. He had insisted that she continue to be hospitalized and also undergo a comprehensive examination in the hospital.

Seeing that Fang Xiaocheng had come, Huo Yunshen took Ying Bao and left the ward so the two BFFs could have a chat.

Xu Xiyao told Fang Xiaocheng everything that had happened in the countryside. Fang Xiaocheng was very astonished after hearing her story. “That was such a close brush with death! Luckily you're married to Mr. Huo!”

Fang Xiaocheng felt that if it wasn't for Mr. Huo's power and his dedication towards his wife, Xu Xiyao might not even live right now.

Xu Xiyao also felt that she was very lucky. Huo Yunshen was just like a protective charm to her, fully protecting her and giving her a peaceful life.

Fang Xiaocheng had been worried that Xu Xiyao was feeling anxious in hospital, so she had brought the screenplay she had adapted from Xu Xiyao's novel, Deep in the Shadow of the Stars, for her. “I've already adapted Deep in the Shadows of the Stars into a screenplay and you can look at it first. If you wish for something to be adjusted, feel free to tell me anytime.”

“Wow, you're so fast! Okay, let me take a look.”
