

Priceless Baby 941

Chapter 941: Miss Her With All of His Heart

If you're willing to wait for me, then please, just wait a little longer. I'll go find you. Let's forget all of our past and begin a new life together.

Yun Xuerou listened to every word that Helian Wei had said and anger filled up her eyes.

Even though Helian Wei was legally married to Yun Xuerou for more than 20 years, he still always missed the foreign woman with all of his heart.

And he even dares to give the Moon Castle and Rose Garden to that bitch's daughter? Yun Xuerou scolded in her head. Is he going senile?

Yun Xuerou knew that the Moon Castle and Rose Garden were built for Jing Ruyue. They were architectures that cost a lot of money and manpower.

It was supposed to be a wedding gift from Helian Wei to Jing Ruyue, but she passed away before they were completed.

Even after more time passing since then, they were still perfectly kept, and no outsiders could enter them. Helian Wei would even go to stay at the castle for a few days around Jing Ruyue's birthday.

Even Yun Xuerou had never gotten the chance to enter the Moon Castle, but she had seen aerial footage of it.

The castle was built in the center of Tongxin Lake, and around the castle was the huge Rose Garden.

It looked like a huge rose from above during the flower season.

Just the castle and the garden were enough to show how much Jing Ruyue meant to Helian Wei.

It was a position that Yun Xuerou could not replace even after trying for years.

Even if she did everything she could to marry Helian Wei, he had never touched her.

How much she wished she could destroy the castle and the garden.

Violin music could be heard from the listening device, and Yun Xuerou knew that Helian Wei was thinking about Jing Ruyue again.

Angered by it, Yun Xuerou threw the listening device on the floor and broke it.

The thought of Jing Ruyue being still alive and waking up at any moment to take everything away from her made Yun Xuerou's heart filled with hatred and anger.

With the thought of it, she decided she had to find a chance to go to the Darkzone Castle.

Time flew.

It was a day before Ying Bao's birthday.

After Xu Xiyan finished her filming for that day, she went back to the Yunjing Manor and called her daughter.

“Mummy!” Ying Bao shouted from the other side of the phone. “When are you coming back? Is daddy with you? Are you two abandoning me?”

I'm sorry, my child. But I can't go back anytime soon,” Xu Xiyan apologized. “But I've already bought a gift for you and sent it back to you beforehand. We'll celebrate your birthday once I get back, okay?”

“Well, it can't be helped. But what is my present?”

“It won't be a surprise if I tell you.”

“Okay! Then I'll wait for the surprise!”

Xu Xiyan sighed after she ended the call. Whenever she thought of Ying Bao's face, her heart would soften.

As she was thinking about going home as soon as she could, Huo Yunshen approached her from behind and hugged her around her waist.

Chapter 942: His Possessiveness Was Particularly Strong

It was unknown when Huo Yunshen had approached her from behind. He embraced her around her waist and rested his chin on her shoulder. He asked, “Missed your daughter again?”

“Yeah. I just gave her a call.”

Huo Yunshen spun her around, pulled her into his arms and said, “You're with me now. You should only think about me.”

The man had just taken a shower and the light and refreshing fragrance of his body wafted into her nose. It was a comforting smell. Xu Xiyan chuckled, nestling into his arms, “No way. Don't tell me you're even jealous of your own daughter?”

Right now, she seriously realized that the man's possessiveness was particularly strong. Basically, whenever she was together with him, he didn't have the time at all to think about anything else.

“Yeah, I'm jealous. So what?”

Huo Yunshen was confident. He wanted to prove by his practical actions that if he wanted her to think only of him, then she could only think of him.

“Hey, hey, hey... we're at the stairs, don't tell me you want to do...”

“As long it's a place we haven't tried before, I'm going to try it!”

Indeed, the man began to do as he pleased right there.

Anyway, they had just recently moved into Yunjing Villa and he had yet to employ any servants in the villa. There were only two of them at home and there was no need to be worried about being seen doing whatever they wanted.

It would be a disservice to a beautiful night and environment such as this for not doing “whatever they pleased.”

They had a wonderful night. The next day, Xu Xiyan went for her shoot as usual. At noon, Huo Yunshen drove to the set to pick her up.

Looking at the driving route and direction, Xu Xiyan asked uncertainly, “Where are we planning to go?”

“You will know when you arrive.”

When their car arrived at the destination, only Xu Xiyan realized that they had arrived at the JS First Squadron garrison base.

Surprised, Xu Xiyan asked, “Dear, is it right for us to come here directly? You should at least tell me, and I'll inform my uncle in advance!”

“Don't worry, I've already informed him.”

If Huo Yunshen had not made sufficient arrangements, he would not simply show himself at the base.

The main gate of the base was heavily guarded by soldiers. When Huo Yunshen's car was in sight, they saluted him deferentially, lined up on the sides and opened the gates for their car.

Xu Xiyan felt relieved. Usually, if anyone drove a private car like theirs, they could forget about going near to the base.

If they ignored the guard's warnings and force themselves in, the guards would directly feed them with bullets.

Huo Yunshen had openly brought his wife to visit his uncle-in-law. Of course, he would contact him in advance.

Today, the entire JS First Squadron had received orders from the higher-ups. They heard that their great leader Zeus would come to visit in person. Everyone was very excited and anxious.

No one had ever seen Zeus' face before and they were curious. What does he look like? Does he have superpowers?

Nightfall had already shared the license plate number of Zeus' car with the guards; that was why when the guards saw the license plate, they knew it was Zeus and welcomed him deferentially.

In the base, Jing Zhannan and his apprentice, Jun Yan, heard their car coming and came up to greet their superior.

When the door of the car opened, Jing Zhannan immediately stepped forward and saluted. “Nightfall of Squadron No. 1. Welcome, Boss.”

“Jun Yan of Squadron No 1. Welcome, Boss.”

Jun Yan also saluted, glancing into the car curiously.

He thought: Isn't all this too low-key for Zeus' arrival?

They all thought that there would definitely be a grand procession accompanying Zeus' visit.

But there was only one car in front of him, which could only be considered as an ordinary private car. It was uncertain whether it was even bulletproofed or not. Furthermore, he had only brought one assistant. This was really too low-key!

Soon, a man came out of the car and stood up straight, appearing imposingly before everyone's eyes.

The man wore an ink-black suit, exuding an air of unparalleled nobility.

Chapter 943: The Best She Could Find

The man had a brooch that resembled JS in front of his left chest, and it shone brightly under the sun.

He was tall, at least 1.9 meters.

He turned around and showed his perfect face, shocking everyone who saw it.

It was the face of the Movie King, Elvis.

He was their leader, Zeus.

No one at the scene could've imagined that they were the same person, even Jun Yan's mouth was wide open. He still remembered he had a brief talk with Zeus when he was on a mission in Wstan.

That time Zeus gave out a feeling that he was a middle-aged man, but in truth, he was way younger.

Yet, even though he looked young, the aura that he gave off was enough to suffocate a person.

Just as everyone was stunned by Zeus' appearance, a girl jumped out from behind him and greeted, “Uncle! Big Bro! Long time no see!”

Jing Zhannan could feel a chill running down his spine as soon as he heard the familiar voice.

He thought of how he hid Xu Xiyan from Zeus and even tried to persuade her to break up with him.

Even though he was against it, Xu Xiyan still ended up with Zeus.

If Zeus knew that he was against it, he wouldn't even want to imagine the punishment that awaited him.

“Boss, after you.” Jing Zhannan invited Huo Yunshen into the base as he made eye contact with his niece.

Huo Yunshen nodded and went in.

It was as if the air became better as soon as Huo Yunshen left and Jun Yan was able to breathe normally again.

He tapped Xu Xiyan on her shoulder and scolded, "You little... How did you even get together with Zeus?"

"Hey, weren't you the one who told me to find the best I could? I didn't disappoint you, right?"

Xu Xiyan was very close with Jun Yan and Ye Xun as if they were her own brothers.

Jun Yan gave her a thumbs up and dismissed everyone.

Jing Zhannan guided Huo Yunshen into the base and offered him a seat.

"Boss, please have a seat."

"Have a seat too, Uncle-In-Law."

"Boss, I think it's better if you call me by my designation," Jing Zhannan quickly requested after being called Uncle-In-Law by his direct superior.

"Could it be...that you're still against me and Jing Xi?" Huo Yunshen frowned.

Shit... He knows...

"My apologies, I was just worried that my niece could cause you a lot of trouble since she's still young..."
Jing Zhannan explained

Huo Yunshen slapped the file in his hand onto the table and scolded, "Qin Ye! As my subordinate, you have gone against my order! I could have you subjected to military law!"

"My sincere apologies!" Jing Zhannan said as he knelt on the floor.

"But..." Huo Yunshen continued with a shift in his tone. "As an adult, you cared deeply about your niece, and that is forgivable. You're a great uncle to her."

"Boss?" Could it be...that he forgives me?

Chapter 944: Throw Herself Onto Him

"Please get up, Uncle."

Huo Yunshen personally helped Jing Zhannan up, then solemnly said, "From now on, you and I are a family and we shall go through thick and thin together."

Jing Zhannan was honored and his heart was full of gratitude. "My niece is blessed that you're able to love her."

"Wrong!"

"?"

Huo Yunshen denied it in time, stunning Jing Zhannan again. He didn't know what he had said wrong, but then he heard Huo Yunshen add again, "It is I who am blessed that she is able to love me. You don't have to be ill at ease, Uncle. We're all family."

"Okay, Boss."

Since that was said, if Jing Zhannan were to still insist on formalities, that would be too graceless of him.

However, he felt incredible that his supreme leader had suddenly become his nephew-in-law. He felt as though he had become the uncle of a king. How exciting!

The two finally dissolved their unpleasantries. Huo Yunshen asked again, "About the matter I've asked you to settle, is everything ready?"

"It's ready now. I've sent someone to the airport to pick them up."

"Good."

"Then please inspect the parade now, Boss. Our brothers have long waited to see your glorious self."

"Alright."

Huo Yunshen agreed. But before that, he needed to change his clothes.

A loud assembly call sounded in the Squadron No.1 base. Jun Yan, who had been chatting with Xu Xiyan, heard the bugle. He said, "They are gathering us up. I have to go now, talk to you later, Little Xixi."

"Okay! Go settle your business, Big Senior."

Xu Xiyan waved at him, then walked toward the encampments.

From afar, Xu Xiyan could see two people walking out of a big tent. One was her uncle Jing Zhannan, and the other was a man in a military uniform.

The man had a tall and straight posture and his shoulders were wide, his dark blue military officer uniform tucked neatly under a rhinoceros skin military belt. His waist was straight and his legs were long and slender.

He wore sunglasses, ribbons hanging down from his chest. With a white-gloved hand, he pressed and adjusted the collar hook on his collar. The golden leaf and the hexagonal starburst embellishments on his epaulets glinted brightly under the sun.

The man strode with his chin high, exuding a proud and domineering air.

When Xu Xiyan recognized that proud and devilishly handsome face was her own husband, her heart skipped a beat.

He's so handsome!

Oh my god, he's really too handsome!

This was the first time Xu Xiyan saw Huo Yunshen in a military uniform. He was simply too handsome. So handsome that when she looked at him, her face would go red, her heart would beat rapidly, and her legs would go weak.

This was the true identity of the king of the world's top mercenary group, Zeus!

Aaaaaaaahh...

Xu Xiyan could not stay calm seeing how handsome her own husband was now.

It seemed if she were to run straight to him now, she would throw herself onto him and pin him to the ground...

Xu Xiyan was just like a seventeen-year-old girl who had just fallen in love. Her eyes could not stop sparkling as she ran toward the man excitedly.

On the highest parade inspection platform of the base, Huo Yunshen and Jing Zhannan ascended to the top together and looked at the vast drilling field in front of them.

On the drilling field, all the members of the JS First Squadron lined up neatly and marched, shouting slogans in unison, their voices resounding through the clouds.

Xu Xiyan stood in the distance not far from the platform. Looking up, she could see the man's cold and arrogant profile. She could see him saluting to all the members of the parade and directing the parade with hand gestures. It gave her a feeling that he was like a king commanding his subjects.

Xu Xiyan's heart was surging with excitement. She loved Huo Yunshen to the extreme, and she loved his imposing air of regality even more.

When the military parade ended, Huo Yunshen went down from the parade inspection platform. Xu Xiyan immediately went up to him like a mad fangirl and said to him, infatuated, "Dear... you were really so dashing just now that I had trouble recognizing you."

Chapter 945: An Incredible Surprise

"Really?" Huo Yunshen smiled and showed his arm to her. Xu Xiyan understood his intention and held his arm as they walked back to the base.

Xu Xiyan was really proud of herself for being able to find such a cool and handsome husband.

As soon as they entered the base, a little kid rushed over to them.

"Mummy!" Ying Bao shouted as she hugged her mother's leg and rubbed her face on it like a puppy.

"Ying Bao?"

Xu Xiyan was too surprised. She never thought that she would meet her daughter there and lifted her up, kissing her on both of her cheeks.

"Oh, I've missed you so much!"

"Mummy, did you not eat anything here?" Ying Bao asked as she held her mother's face. "Your face looks thinner."

"That's because all I could do lately was think about you."

"That's why I'm here!" Ying Bao said and checked around her. "Where's daddy?"

Ying Bao could not recognize Huo Yunshen in his uniform and sunglasses.

"He's right here! How could you not recognize him?" Xu Xiyan laughed.

Huo Yunshen took off his sunglasses and pinched Ying Bao's cheek.

“Oh! Daddy! I thought you were some charming looking uncle!” Ying Bao said as she stared at Huo Yunshen. “I never thought that my dad could be this good looking!”

“What about me? I'm good looking too!” Ye Xun shouted as he walked towards them.

“Uncle Treeleaf is good looking, but my daddy is the best!”

There was no way that the adults wouldn't like such a cute little kid as they laughed.

After their reunion, Ying Bao celebrated her birthday with her parents, Jing Zhannan, Ye Xun, and Jun Yan.

Xu Xiyan was just too happy. She really felt bad for not being able to celebrate her daughter's birthday, but Huo Yunshen had given her a huge surprise.

The family went back to Yunjing Manor, and the little kid was a little confused at how similar it was to her place back in Peijing.

“Daddy, mummy, are we home?”

“Yes, we are.”

“But where is our pretty door?”

Ying Bao really thought that she was back at Shengshi Yujing and was surprised when the crystal door was gone.

After they had their shower, they lay on the bed as Huo Yunshen told Ying Bao her bedtime story.

The story ended with the prince and princess living happily in a castle.

“Daddy, are castles real?” Ying Bao asked curiously.

“Of course.”

“Oh! I wish I could live in one.”

Chapter 946: How Much I Wanted To Destroy You With My Own Hands

Children are fantasizers. Ying Bao fantasized that she was living in a big castle; when she became a princess, Brother Feimo would be a prince.

Huo Yunshen listened to the child and began to ponder. Maybe he should buy a private castle.

Tomorrow, he shall get his staff to inquire which country has a castle available for private purchase.

In the Black Sea adjacent to the border of Estan hid a mysterious island country.

It was a collection of thousands of large and small islands, forming a huge kingdom in the sea.

Among them was an island called Ghost Island, which a tall and ancient castle rose upon. The castle had a history of thousands of years.

The ancient castle rarely connected to the outside world as it stood forbiddingly on the Black Sea like a hibernating monster in a dungeon, radiating a dark and terrifying atmosphere around it.

A ship docked on the shore. A noble lady in white with a white veil over her face got down from it and walked towards the gate of the ancient castle.

After notifying, and after permission was obtained, the castle dropped the suspension bridge and the lady entered the castle.

She was familiar with the environment of the castle. Knowing her way well, she walked into the castle and directly down a spiral staircase to the basement of the castle.

A tall, carved door soon appeared in her sight. The lady pushed the door open unbidden and walked into the room.

It was bright as day in the huge basement. Priceless crystal prisms were placed all around the room, glittering and shining radiantly under the refraction of light.

In the middle of the basement made up of these crystals, there was a beautiful crystal ice coffin.

It was a coffin and also not really a coffin. It was a crystal bed made of all-natural crystals.

As long one approached the crystal bed, they would see a woman lying on it—a beautiful and serene sleeping woman.

When the noble lady saw the woman, her eyes seethed with strong hatred. She could not help but grasp the edge of the crystal bed hard with her hands, her nails almost making scratch marks on the crystal surface.

“Jing Ruyue! Are you happy lying here for more than 20 years? Why does a woman deserving of death like you still linger on? Don't you know how much I wanted to destroy you with my own hands!”

After the lady finished her words, she reached out to the sleeping woman with her hands, wanting to strangle her throat.

Just then, an icy voice came from the door, “Stop! What are you doing?”

The lady's hands jerked in shock and she automatically withdrew her hands. She turned around and saw a ghastly looking man in black clothes.

“Brother Xie, I wasn't doing anything. I've just come to see her.”

Removing the veil on her face, Yun Xuerou's face was revealed, smiling at the man.

The man was tall and thin. His skin was extraordinarily pale due to the lack of sunlight all year round. His eyes were slightly sunken above his protruding cheekbones, his thin lips were a tightly pressed line.

Although he was very thin, what could not be concealed was his handsome but evil face. He was shrouded by a gloomy and ghastly aura. He was just like a vampire living in the dungeons.

His eyes were dark and dangerous. It was chilling to look at them.

The man's real name was Long Xie. In the outside world, he was known as Mo Xie. He was Yun Xuerou's elder cousin brother on her mother's side. Not only was he the master of this ancient castle, but he was also the former ruler and king of the Dark Zone.

However, after handing over the Dark Zone and his kingdom to his eldest son, Long Xiao, he lived in solitude in this castle, spending a life separated from the world.

Mo Xie did not like being disturbed the most, and even more so when someone had intruded into his basement.

He clasped his hands behind him as he walked over, glaring at Yun Xuerou with his dark and chilling eyes.

Chapter 947: Realized What She's Talking About

Without saying anything, Mo Xie walked past Yun Xuerou to check the woman lying on the crystal bed.

"Why are you here?" Mo Xie asked after confirming that nothing was wrong with Jing Ruyue.

"Brother Xie, I'm curious, are you going to wait for the dead forever?" Yun Xuerou asked as she took a peek at Jing Ruyue.

"She's still alive!" Mo Xie scolded as he looked at Yun Xuerou with anger in his eyes. "She'll wake up one day! I'm sure of it!"

He turned to look at Jing Ruyue as the anger in his eyes instantly changed to a warm look.

His sick love for Jing Ruyue was so strong that he had done a lot of things to get his hands on her.

Ever since he used a drug to fake her death 17 years ago and succeeded in moving her to Zstan, Jing Ruyue had been unconscious ever since.

There was no reason for her symptoms. Some said that the drugs damaged her brain, others said that she went into a coma during transportation.

Mo Xie made the crystal chamber specifically to prolong her life.

He had been staying by her side ever since, longing for the day when she would wake up.

"I'm here to tell you that Helian Wei has started to make his move," Yun Xuerou said, with a faint smile on her face.

"What?" Mo Xie instantly went into panic mode when he heard Helian Wei's name.

They had been rivals for years. Even though he never succeeded in killing Helian Wei, he managed to destroy his love life.

There was no way that Helian could've imagined that the woman he loved was that close to him.

“He's beginning to suspect this woman's daughter. If he continues to investigate, he'll definitely find out about her death. You know the consequences if he does that, right?”

Yun Xuerou's purpose was to use Mo Xie to take care of Xu Xiyan.

If Helian Wei really did investigate all the way, he would find the link between Jing Ruyue's death and Mo Xie's intervention.

But all Mo Xie could care about was Xu Xiyan.

“Her daughter?” Mo Xue asked.

“Yes, she's a grown person now, and she's as beautiful as her mother is. You would mistake her for Jing Ruyue if you met her,” Yun Xuerou said as she showed him a picture. “Take a look for yourself.”

Mo Xie took the picture, half believing Yun Xuerou's words until he saw the person in the picture.

The girl in the picture looked exactly like Jing Ruyue, only younger.

“She's Helian Wei's daughter?” Mo Xie asked, realizing what Yun Xuerou was trying to tell him.

“Yes.”

“This means that Helian Wei has a twin?”

“Yup.”

“This is...” Mo Xie sighed as he looked at the woman lying on the bed.

Chapter 948: Until There Was Free Time To Settle This Matter Again

Yun Xuerou continued to urge him, “Brother Xie, it must be really hard on you, guarding her for so many years. Now that her daughter had already grown up, why don't you make their daughter pay their debts?”

Mo Xie was not a fool. He snorted, “You just want to borrow my own hands to get rid of that girl. Do I speak the truth?”

“No. What I meant was, her daughter is younger and more beautiful. With such a young and beautiful girl, you don't have to continue looking at this cold and lifeless woman.”

She planned to let Mo Xie capture Jing Xi and replace Jing Ruyue with her. By doing so, Mo Xie would have a new love and he could forget his old love.

If she could torment Jing Xi and get rid of Jing Ruyue at the same time, she would be killing two birds with one stone.

But it was a pity that if Mo Xie was the kind of person who would discard the old for the new, he wouldn't have stubbornly guarded the woman for decades.

He knew what Yun Xuerou was planning, but he had to warn her, “I don't care what you're planning to do, but there's only one thing: you're not allowed to hurt her.”

Mo Xie's attitude showed that he would not leave this place for someone insignificant to him.

Yun Xuerou understood that the “her” he had just mentioned referred to Jing Ruyue.

Surely enough, that madman Mo Xie would not care about anything else other than Jing Ruyue.

Forget it, she might as well think of something herself!

Yun Xuerou took her leave. Before leaving, she added, “Brother Xie, if I were to match Ling-Er and Qingyu as a couple, would you object?”

Mo Xie did not answer and only faced away from her.

Yun Xuerou knew that Mo Xie was a coldhearted person. If they were not the children of his beloved woman, he would not care.

It seemed she could not touch Jing Ruyue for the time being. If that was the case, she could only think of a way to deal with her daughter.

At Yunjing Villa.

During breakfast, one of Huo Yunshen's staff came to deliver information relating to Lady Camellia. He handed the files to Xu Xiyan.

“Dear, this is the information you wanted relating to Lady Camellia.”

Xu Xiyan took the files from him and looked through them. She found that the introduction of Lady Camellia was very official.

Lady Camellia had a certain reputation in Estan, and the Lancha Society was also a very influential women's organization. This organization had always been engaged in caring for women and children and it was supported by the government.

“On the surface, it is impossible to tell what kind of person Lady Camellia is.”

“Yeah, many people would put on a façade.”

Huo Yunshen also felt that it might take a lot of effort to find out information about Lady White Tea.

“Let's talk about it later. I have to go for my shoot soon.”

Xu Xiyan felt that based on the information, it was impossible to tell whether Lady Camellia and Lady White Tea were the same person.

If she wanted to find out their relationship, she had to start with the Lancha Society. She at least had to think of some way to get close to Lady Camellia.

But at the moment she was so busy with her shoot that she could not find the time. She could only wait until she had free time to settle this matter again.

“I'll send you there after breakfast.”

Today the film crew was going to shoot an outdoor scene by the riverside.

Huo Yunshen sent his wife there and kissed her before leaving.

Xu Xiyan ran to the set cheerfully and greeted everyone. They began to put makeup on her, preparing for the shoot.

Her assistant Ni Xuelin had also come to Estan with Ye Xun yesterday, but they did not go to the base. Instead, she came to the set today to accompany Xu Xiyan and help her manage her affairs.

“Sister Xuelin, is everything settled with your family?” Xu Xiyan asked, concerned.

“Yeah, it's been settled. My father has already recovered and has been discharged from the hospital. I've hired a caretaker to look after him so I'm not worried about him. From now on I will be able to focus on accompanying you in the future.”

Chapter 949: A Token of Gratitude

“Why not, you can continue to work for me until you have a change of heart, or when you want to marry someone,” Xu Xiyan said.

“I have no plans of marrying someone,” Ni Xuelin scolded.

After being hurt by Chu Tian, Ni Xuelin had no plans of getting into a relationship for a short while. All she could think of then was getting a good job and earning enough money to live pleasantly with her father and brother.

“There's no need to hurry. You can talk about it when you meet your Mr. Right.”

Because the crew picked up the pace of the filming process, the shooting for that day ended around 4 p.m.

Xu Xiyan was just about to leave with Ni Xuelin when a car stopped in front of them.

A gentleman in gold-framed glasses walked down from the car with a black briefcase in his hand.

Even though the man looked to be in his 30's to 40's, he took really good care of his body and no excess fat could be found on him.

As the man walked towards them, Ni Xuelin could feel her heart skip a beat.

Her mind went blank and she could only stare at him.

“Nice to meet you, Miss Jing,” the man greeted as he handed Xu Xiyan his name card. “My name is Qi Fang, I'm a lawyer from the Tianqi Law Firm.”

“Do I know you?” Xu Xiyan asked as she looked at the name card.

She knew about Tianqi, it was the biggest law firm in Estan. But she was curious as to why a lawyer from the biggest law firm would approach her.

She had no memories of performing any legal misconduct in Estan.

“The President has personally asked me to have a chat with you. May I?”

“Sure thing. How about we continue our talk at the café over there?” Xu Xiyan said after realizing that Qi Fang was acting under the President's orders.

They walked towards the café together, and Xu Xiyan noticed Ni Xuelin remain where she was standing.

“Xuelin, what are you spacing out for? Hurry up,” Xu Xiyan shouted.

Ni Xuelin hurried over to them, and they went into the café.

After they sat down, Qi Fang looked at Ni Xuelin and said apologetically, “My apologies, Miss Jing, but may I have a private conversation with you?”

Xu Xiyan understood that the content may be top secret and turned to look at Ni Xuelin.

Ni Xuelin was blushing from being stared at by Qi Fang and said, “I’ll wait outside.”

After Ni Xuelin had left, Qi Fang continued, “The President has requested I give you a token of appreciation. He also said that by all means, you have to accept it.”

“He doesn’t really have to go this far. The dinner party was more than enough.”

Yet Qi Fang had already set his briefcase down and he took out a black folder.

“I think you should look at the contents first,” Qi Fang persuaded.

Xu Xiyan opened the folder out of curiosity.

Contract of Gift was written on the first page of the document inside the folder.

Xu Xiyan finished the whole document with her eyes wide and her mouth wide open.

The contract mentioned that Helian Wei had offered Xu Xiyan the Moon Castle and Rose Garden that cost more than 20 billion as a token of appreciation.

Chapter 950: Taking It The Wrong Way

Oh my god!

Xu Xiyan swallowed hard. Was this true? Did her eyes deceive her?

The Moon Castle and Rose Garden. Everyone knew that they were some of the most beautiful places in Estan. They were said to be built according to a beautiful love story and the market price of both places was almost 20 billion, but the value far exceeded the price. It could be priceless even.

The President was now giving it all away to her without hesitation. Was he crazy?

Helian Wei was not crazy. Everything was clear in black and white. His own strong and powerful signature was even on it.

After seeing the agreement, Xu Xiyan had two reactions:

First: The President was really extravagant!

Second: What were the President's intentions?

He had suddenly gifted her such a large property. Could it be because...

Xu Xiyan's mind began to take it the wrong way, her face turning hard. She immediately pushed the documents back and said seriously, "Sorry, Mr. Qi. If the President wanted to become my sugar daddy by giving me such an expensive gift, I regret to tell him that I love my husband very much and I'll never do anything to betray him. As for the President's goodwill, you should just take it back!"

Qi Fang, who was currently drinking coffee, almost spat out his coffee when he heard this. Cough, cough... Did the girl misunderstand?

Qi Fang hastily explained, "Miss Jing Xi, you've misunderstood. The President didn't mean that. He only wanted to..."

"He wanted to make me divorce my husband and make me become his secret lover? If this is the case, let me be frank with you—No freaking way!"

"..." The girl's rich imagination almost made Qi Fang surrender.

He didn't know whether to laugh or cry, and he didn't know what to say.

At this time, Ni Xuelin, who was outside the café looking in through the glass window, saw the two having a conversation inside. Their conversation seemed to have gone sour.

Especially Jing Xi. She was crossing her arms, looking quite angry. Did the man mention something that was bad for her?

She remembered the time when Wandou was transferred to become Mu Chenguang's assistant, Wandou had especially told her to immediately contact Huo Yunshen if there was a situation.

Worried that the lawyer was giving Jing Xi trouble, Ni Xuelin quickly called Huo Yunshen and reported the situation to him, just to be safe.

At this time, Huo Yunshen was playing with his daughter nearby. When he received the call, he immediately came over posthaste.

The atmosphere in the café had become cold and awkward. At this moment, Qi Fang realized that his usually eloquent speaking skills were exterminated within seconds while meeting with Jing Xi.

He simply could not keep up with her quick and erratic thinking.

He had to say that this young lady's way of thinking was really strange!

"Cough, cough, cough... Sorry, sorry, Miss Jing Xi, I did not explain it clearly. It's like this, please listen to me. Our President has harbored no evil intentions at all on you. He only purely wanted to thank you for saving him on the plane last time and these properties are only his gifts of gratitude to you."

"Is that so?" Xu Xiyan asked suspiciously.

“A thousand times true. If you don't believe it, I can personally call up the President now and you can ask him directly.”

As Qi Fang said that, he already pulled out his phone and was about to make the call.

“It's alright. I believe you. I was just overthinking it just now,” Xu Xiyan said, preventing him from making the phone call. She continued, “But I still stand by my words. I don't need his gratitude and I don't even need any gifts of thanks. These properties are too expensive; I can't accept it. Please take the deeds back and return it to the President and express my thanks to him for me.”

Knowing that she would definitely not accept it, Qi Fang had another trick up his sleeve...
