

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1001: Suspicious

Xie Qiao read a few more pages and frowned. "Are there no one-eyed Taoist master?"

"One-eyed? No." Qin Zhi thought about it, he still could not think of such a person. "Master, if there is one, my brothers would definitely remember him very clearly. You knew that most of these Taoist masters are quite good-looking. Even though they are old, they are all good-looking people. Those who are ugly and scary are all staying in the Taoist temple. They won't come out to perform rituals for people."

Everyone in this world knew how to differentiate between beauty and ugliness.

Good-looking Taoist masters looked kind-hearted. People would feel at ease when they asked them to perform the ritual.

Those with vicious facial features would definitely make people want to avoid them.

For instance, the eldest son of the Xie family. If he became a monk or a Taoist master... Hah, he would definitely be the number one evil cultivator in the world. If he was within three steps from a person, that person would be so scared that his legs would go soft. Who would dare to ask him to tell their fortune and perform rituals?

"No..." Xie Qiao was silent for a moment.

"But..." Qin Zhi hesitated. "There's something I don't know if I should tell you." "You can tell me." Xie Qiao immediately nodded.

“Well, Taoist master Liuming actually... has something strange.” Qin Zhi scratched his head, “Master, I don’t know. I was once possessed. When I fainted and didn’t know anything, Half-immortal Xie was performing a ritual. Ever since then, my instincts have been sharper.

“Liuming lives in a house with two courtyards. In this house... how should I put it? The feng Shui seems to be different from other places. There are some strange things under the eaves. If I just look at the environment, I think this Liuming is quite capable.

“But when I was looking for him, I spoke to him a few times and felt that he was just an ordinary Taoist master. There was nothing special about him. However... When I was in that house, I would feel a little gloomy and uncomfortable,” Qin Zhi added.

“Uncomfortable?” Xie Qiao’s brows furrowed tighter and tighter.

“Yes, when I was there, my heart was flustered and my back was cold. It was the same feeling as when I followed His Highness to the ghoulish forest in the past. However, it wasn’t that serious this time and I didn’t lose my mind to hurt myself.

Therefore, I thought that it was because my body wasn’t in good condition and I was afraid of the cold.

“Thinking about it carefully, it was indeed windy in that residence. Perhaps I was overthinking.” Qin Zhi smiled embarrassedly.

He only had a little doubt.

The reason being other than him, the other brothers did not think there was anything wrong with Liuming.

“They are all fine. I’m the only one who was like that. I’m a joke to the master. My physique is too weak.” The more Qin Zhi thought about it, the more he felt that he was weak.

When Xie Qiao heard that, she took it seriously. ‘Xo, you’ve been haunted by vengeful spirits before, so your feelings for ghouls must be stronger than others. If everyone feels cold, maybe it’s because of the weather, but if it’s just you... It’s possible that something is wrong with the house.’”

Xie Qiao immediately turned back to that page and looked at the address.

‘Your body isn’t good, so don’t go anymore. If there really is a problem, I’m afraid that I can’t save you. The others can follow me,’ Xie Qiao immediately said.

Qin Zhi felt sour in his heart.

It was all his fault for being reckless back then... When he was playing in the river, he actually took the bone as a treasure...

If it was not for that matter, he would not have been afraid now!

Qin Zhi still nodded obediently and waved at his brothers, his eyes filled with longing.

Xie Qiao brought a lot of things that she had prepared recently.

The guards were used to dealing with living people, so they had to be brought along. In addition, she had been in low spirits recently, and there were many men around her, so the Yang energy was sufficient, which was also beneficial to her spirit.

The Crown Prince lived a good life. He was surrounded by such a group of...

eye-pleasing brothers all day long. It was really great..
