

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1018 Puppets

Taoist Master Guanglun and the others also took out their dharma instruments with solemn expressions.

Especially after listening to Xie Qiao's words, they immediately took out a bottle. Each of them put a drop of cow's tear on their eyelids. In the next moment, they saw a horrifying scene around them.

Black energy almost covered the entire house.

Hundreds of ghouls floated over, and a gust of strong wind swept over. That evil energy could wrap someone up in the blink of an eye.

Taoist Master Guanglun was very smart. He knew that Zhao Xuanjing's identity was not ordinary, so he also gave him a drop of tears and dragged them to the center.

"These ghouls are all puppets! They're being controlled!" Yuan Changzi frowned and was enraged. "That evil person is really detestable. He won't even let dead people go!"

Fortunately, he did not see much blood. It seemed that this evil person did not use the blood of children or women as sacrifices.

Otherwise, the power would be even greater.

It made sense. If there was a big case at the feet of the Emperor of the capital, the government would definitely investigate every household. It would be difficult for the evil person!

They were in the light, the Taoist master was in the dark. It was useless to say these things now.

They had to crack the Taoist master's spell.

The ghouls looked a little numb. Some of them extended their hands toward Xie Qiao and the others. Some of them were emitting cool air. One of them seemed to have been an entertainer when he was alive. His mouth was spewing fire, the fire instantly lit up the fallen leaves, mixing with the wind and burning. Xie Qiao had seen a lot of the world. At this moment, it was useless to kill the spirits. Moreover, these spirits were also very innocent. It was pitiful for them to disappear for nothing

Xie Qiao took out the soul-summoning banner.

That evil person could capture spirits, and so could she. It would depend on who had the stronger ability to control the spirits! The bell on the soul-summoning banner rang, causing the spirits to be in a daze for a moment. Xie Qiao lit another incense, and the fragrance went up, making it even more efficient. Xie Qiao then took out a stack of talismans.

When Yuan Changzi and the others saw this scene, they had already chosen to protect each other tacitly.

One talisman after another was casted.

Xie Qiao's talismans seemed to be free, causing Yuan Changzi's heart to ache.

All of this was painstaking effort!

The power of the soul-summoning banner grew stronger and stronger, and the spirits became more and more hesitant and absent-minded. In a short while, many of them flew toward Xie Qiao's soul-summoning banner.

Time passed slowly.

The spirits in the vicinity became fewer and fewer.

Finally, the last spirit was gone, and Xie Qiao also seemed to be exhausted.

However, this was not the end. Xie Qiao used all her strength to pull down the soul-summoning banner. She took out a small jar, and wiped away a smear of red cinnabar ink. With a hint of gold, she inscribed a talisman on the soul-summoning banner, it was done in one go. After making the gesture, everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

Yuan Changzi knew what she was doing.

Although those ghouls had been taken in, they would still be affected by the evil person. The last move of the master had completely cut off their connection with the evil person!

At this moment, in a dry well in the house, the child-like Taoist master fell down with a puff.

His eyes were wide open and he could not believe it.

His spell had been broken?!

His whole body was twitching, and he kept spitting blood. His whole body was blue and purple, and there was a black energy.

It was a backlash.

The sky was clear.

At this moment, only did the vengeful spirit of Ms. Zuo dared to come out. She looked at Xie Qiao with complicated eyes.

She still had many souls in her hands. They were the people she had killed all these years. At this moment, she obediently released those souls as well. "Master... You promised me to find the soul of my child..."

"Then, I'll let these people go..."
