

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1021 Affectionate

Many thoughts flashed through her mind. In the end, she shook her head firmly.

“My master... senior brothers won’t accept any more disciples. I don’t want a disciple as old as you either. Your Highness, your status is important. It’s best that you don’t learn such things. Otherwise, if you abandon your position as a supreme being and go to a Taoist temple to cultivate in the future, what would you become? Moreover, as the Crown Prince of the country, holding the compass to tell the direction and talking in a mysterious manner... It won’t be good for your reputation...” Xie Qiao immediately explained.

After thinking for a while, Xie Qiao added slowly, “As the Emperor, it’s taboo to learn from a Taoist master. You’re still young and don’t know how ruthless time is. When you’re old, you’ll start to fear death and learn the dao all day long. What if you’re thinking about refining pills? What should you do?” Xie Qiao did not dare to lead the Crown Prince down a path of no return.

Zhao Xuanjing was doing well. When he heard that, he said helplessly, “Thank you for thinking so far ahead.”

“It’s only a temporary measure to ask Your Highness to break the formation together. I will figure out your problem sooner or later. When the time comes, it will be completely cured. Your Highness will no longer need to lower your status in the future,” Xie Qiao added.

These were her heartfelt words. “Moreover, Your Highness should do more serious things. I see that you don’t look particularly good. I think you must be very busy every day. I also feel very bad that you have to squeeze out time to help me,” Xie Qiao added.

The Crown Prince must be busy.

Xie Qiao was not a fool. The emperor trusted the Crown Prince, so he would definitely let him participate in national affairs. Zhao Xuanjing was not a lazy person. He was probably working hard on things that she did not see!

When Zhao Xuanjing heard that, he was in a good mood.

Xie Qiao was concerned about him, right?

He thought that it was his own wishful thinking, but seeing her soft attitude, she must be “affectionate” toward him. Unfortunately, in order to take into account her two identities, it was not appropriate to tease her at this moment. It made his heart feel like it was being scratched by a cat, and it was very uncomfortable.

Xie Qiao saw the corner of his mouth rise, and he was a little high-spirited and proud...

She could not understand.

“It’s just a trivial matter, and it doesn’t require much of my energy. With my body, even if I don’t sleep for seven days and seven nights, I can still be energetic when I see Senior Sister. You don’t need to worry about me so much,” Zhao Xuanjing said with a smile.

Xie Qiao gently covered her chest.

She took a deep breath. “Yes, your body is good.”

Like an ox.

Unlike her, she had been busy for the whole day, and she was so tired that her head was spinning and her mind was not clear!

Her words were sarcastic, and Zhao Xuanjing knew what she was thinking. He did not know whether to laugh or cry. "The descendants of the Water Moon Temple bear the order of the Heaven, to capture souls and send ghouls away. They are different from ordinary people, so they are inevitably a little weak. In the future..."

He would definitely feed her until she was chubby.

It was not good for him to be too close to Mo Chusheng now. He was a man and Xie Qiao was a woman, so they could not communicate too much.

When Xie Qiao married him, the amount of food in his residence would increase a little.

No matter what, he could not let her be so weak.

Thinking of this, Zhao Xuanjing frowned again.

Xie Niushan, his useless father-in-law, did not know how to make more money. Xie Qiao had been in the capital for so long, but she was still skinny. He was really useless as a father. He could not even afford to raise his own daughter.

"Xie Pinggang has been working hard lately. When I return, he will be rewarded with a thousand taels of silver," Zhao Xuanjing said inexplicably.

Xie Qiao tilted her head.

Was he not talking about the future just now? He did not finish the second half of the sentence. Why did he suddenly mention her eldest brother?

“I suddenly remembered that when we went to Mengjiabao, Xie Pinggang had handled several big cases by himself. It was very impressive. He had to be rewarded for such a talent. So I thought about getting some money later. I will send some ginseng, deer antler, and blood swallow to nourish his body.”
