

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1025 Fake?

Xie Qiao was lying on the bed in the medicine hall. It was extremely quiet. Yu Xian muttered to herself and did not forget to take a few more glances at her.

When she took a look, she felt that something was strange. Master's ears were really round, fair and clean. She was really good-looking...

However, her face was also not bad. She was just a little older, but if she could be as good-looking as master when she reached his age, she would be very satisfied!

Yu Xian stared at her and saw that there seemed to be something dirty on her face.

She was not sure, but she felt that the part of her chin was a little darker than her neck, like the color of her skin, but it also seemed to be stained with something dirty. She did not want to offend her, so she hesitated for a while and still felt a little uncomfortable looking at her. Then, she took out a handkerchief from her embrace and wiped the spot where the master's chin was.

After wiping it a few times, the dark color was indeed gone. What replaced it was a small piece of fair skin, which was even smoother than the one on her neck?

Yu Xian took back her handkerchief and was a little dumbfounded. Master's face... What was going on?

Her chin was wiped clean, but why did it look... Rather, her entire face seemed... dirty?!

Yu Xian was not a fool. She recalled how she had come to the capital from Dong'an. Even though she practiced martial arts, she was still a woman. It was difficult for her to fight against four hands with two fists. For the sake of her safety, she had smeared her face dark and dirty along the way, and she had even disguised herself as a man...

ne

Could it be that the master was the same? Was her face fake to deceive others?!

Yu Xian was nervous. Subconsciously, she wanted to see the master's true appearance, but her hand dropped again.

This was master's secret.

If she exposed her, would she not be a villain? Yu Xian withdrew her curiosity and let the master rest here.

The doctor said that this person fainted from overwork, so it was not a good time to disturb her rest.

As for the master's face... Yu Xian was also worried that others would think too much of it. She pondered for a moment, then went to the back of the medicine hall to find some pot ash and smeared it there.

Her abilities were limited, so the appearance she smeared was not great. It was as if she had grown a stubble. Fortunately, the master's face was not ugly to begin with. Even after smearing the pot ash, she still looked alright.

In the blink of an eye, Zhou Sijin and the others had arrived.

They directly barged into the inner hall and said angrily, "Cousin, I think this Taoist master fainted strangely. I'm afraid she has no good intentions and wants to stay in our house, right?"

She did not say anything over the line just now, but this person actually fainted. Looking at the torn clothes she was wearing, it was most likely that she wanted money.

Yu Xian did not expect that her cousin from the Zhou family would actually come after her. She was extremely annoyed.

"Master is my friend. Cousin, you should be more respectful when you speak. I can apologize to master on your behalf for the matter of you insulting her just now. I won't hold it against you. However, if you are still insensible, I will have to ask Grandmother Zhou later where you learned the rules?" Yu Xian said unhappily. "You still think I'm insensible?" Zhou Sijin laughed in anger. The person who was insensible in this world was probably Yu Xian!

She clearly had relatives in the capital and did not know how to seek refuge with them, yet she went to the Xie family and worked as a slave. She even asked the Xie family to send gifts to their Zhou Residence. Was this not clearly telling others that the Xie family treated her better than the Zhou family?!

Although the Xie family did not come from a high status, they had a Princess Consort. They could only swallow their anger.

After Yu Xian returned to the Zhou Residence, her grandmother initially wanted to talk to her about her marriage in Dong'an.

However, before she could open her mouth, Yu Xian smashed the table.