

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1029 Are You a Fool

Zhao Xuanjing exuded an intimidating aura. The moment his temper flared up, Xie Pinggang took a step back to avoid being hurt.

Yu Xian looked at Xie Pinggang and suddenly understood that this person could not be provoked.

Rubbing her nose, she stood up awkwardly and squeezed between Xie Pinggang and Zhou Weizong.

Xie Qiao felt a little helpless.

Was her brother and Master Yu's reaction a little too realistic?!

They went through quite many things together, but now they were actually watching her being scolded alone?

"It's not a big deal. Junior Brother, you're making a big deal out of nothing. Look, I've only fainted for a while, and I got better immediately. My spirit is a hundred times stronger, and I don't feel any discomfort at all." Xie Qiao straightened her neck, she displayed her prestige as a senior sister.

"Do you think I'm meddling in your business?" When Zhao Xuanjing heard that, his instincts told him that he was being thrown into a pot to be cooked.

"Of course not." Xie Qiao was not an ingrate. Seeing how angry he was, she immediately said, "Your Highness, Why are you so angry? This lowly Taoist master doesn't know what's good for her. Don't be upset. It's also because I've been very busy recently and did not have time to rest. But after hearing your reminder, Junior Brother, I understood now. I won't do anything else today. When I go back, I'll sleep for 12 hours..."

She was just used to being busy.

When she was at the Water Moon Temple, although the old man was controlling her, he let her do as she pleased. His temper was not as bad as hers, and in addition, her body was special. Every time she fainted, she would be able to endure it. The more times she fainted, the less the old man cared.

However, the Crown Prince was too fierce.

She was the senior sister. She was embarrassed in front of so many people. He deserved to be beaten up.

"No, I think you are scolding me secretly," Zhao Xuanjing observed her eyes and said carefully.

"I swear to God! If I scold you, I will never get married." Xie Qiao raised her hand and was quite ruthless to herself.

When Xie Pinggang heard that, he was amused. "Master, you are already so old. You can't marry anyway..." Yu Xian stretched out her hand and nudged Xie Pinggang's waist. "Brother Xie, are you a fool?"

"I'm just telling you the truth. His Highness is not a fool. Even if I believe these words, His Highness won't believe it either, right? Moreover, His Highness is doing this for the good of Master. Master Yu, you don't know that the people from the Water Moon Temple, no matter their age, have poor bodies. How can they joke about their bodies?!"

“It’s a good thing that she’s a master. If my sister dares to work hard day and night, I’ll definitely chop off her legs! She can die of illness, but if she dies of exhaustion... I still want my dignity. If word gets out and people will think that I’m a good-for-nothing who can’t even afford to raise a sister, I’ll exhaust her until she dies!” Xie Pinggang put himself in his shoes and thought for a moment. “You see, His Highness is also her junior brother. With the master acting like this, it’s obvious that he doesn’t take His Highness, the junior brother, seriously...”

Xie Qiao wanted to shut Xie Pinggang’s mouth immediately!

The Crown Prince smiled faintly and said, “You heard it too. Minister Xie isn’t wrong. Could it be that all five of your junior brothers are useless?”

Xie Qiao felt that she did not look like a senior sister now, but more like a loser.

“Yes, you are right. If I have something to do next time, I should call you guys out to run errands for me.” Xie Qiao did not refute and just said honestly.

She wanted to order these junior brothers around, but she was embarrassed. The junior brothers were all scholars, and Xiao Yurong and Sang You were both teachers. They had to teach students on a daily basis. How could she trouble them with such a small matter...
