

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1030 A Hero's Sacrifice

However, now, whatever the Crown Prince said was true. Xie Qiao did not have the ability or courage to refute.

It was all her teacher's fault for his poor judgement. Why did he take in such a difficult disciple?

How was he a junior brother? He was practically a bully! Xie Qiao sniffed and rubbed her head. "I'm dizzy."

Zhao Xuanjing immediately held back his anger. He did not know whether to scold her or not. He stared at her for a long time, but he did not dare to bet whether she was really dizzy. He could only helplessly swallow his anger, he turned to look at Xie Pinggang. "It's all your fault. What are you waiting for?! Hurry up and call the doctor."

Xie Pinggang's eyelids twitched.

He should not bully people like that.

He went to call the doctor slowly and fiercely. Then, he leaned in front of Zhou Weizong and muttered, "Your Crown Prince can't do anything to the master, right?" "Didn't you see it too..." Zhou Weizong had always been very sensible. He firmly refused to say anything he should not have. In his opinion, His Highness should be fuming in his heart now.

His Highness had never been a good-natured person. All the people who had offended him in the imperial court had been thoroughly exposed. Those who had done illegal and bad things did not have a good ending.

However, now, he had forcefully restrained his desire to scold someone...

It was quite rare.

No one knew what was going through Xie Pinggang's mind. Not long after, the doctor arrived.

While the doctor was checking the master's pulse, Xie Pinggang moved in front of Zhao Xuanjing. He said especially respectfully, "Sigh, the master is a woman after all, and her health is not good. It's only right to give way. My younger sister is also like this. She's so angry that no one can do anything about it. However, Your Highness, don't hold back your anger in the future. If my younger sister makes you angry, don't scold her and beat her up. I have tough skin and thick flesh. It's the same if you punish me... I don't care at all..."

Yu Xian and Zhou Weizong heard what he said.

They felt that it was a hero's sacrifice. His Highness was already in a fit of anger. This stupid bear even came to remind the Crown Prince to let Young Lady Xie have her way in the future...

It was not easy for His Highness. How could he have such a stupid brother-in-law? However, Zhou Weizong felt helpless in his heart. On second thought, he felt that this brother-in-law might not be really stupid.

Looking at how His Highness treated the master, he seemed to be a little too nervous and concerned. Xie Pinggang mentioned Half-immortal Xie because, firstly, it would remind His Highness that his future wife was someone else. Secondly, even if His Highness did not care about Half-immortal Xie, when he saw how weak she was in the future, he would think of the master. He might even love her and be lenient. Zhou Weizong did not know if he was thinking too much.

He had been secretly looking at Xie Pinggang.

Thinking about Xie Pinggang...

He had been by His Highness' side for so long, but he had never offended His Highness' bottom line. He did things that no one could find fault with...

Was it... a coincidence, or was he born intelligent?

Zhou Weizong had been peeking too much, and he found that his cousin's eyes were flirty.

She was also staring at Xie Pinggang!

His heart skipped a beat.

He inched closer. "Cousin, if you don't have anything to do, you can go back first... And aren't you out with your cousins today? Are they waiting for you at some shop?"

Yu Xian was stunned. "En? Oh, I don't have anything to do, that's why I have to stay here! My cousins and I just had a fight, and I don't want to see them. Cousin, I'll stay at the Xie Residence tonight, okay?"

Zhou Weizong's heart turned cold.

Xie Pinggang! What charm did he cast on his cousin?!
