

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1033 Selfish

Zhou Weizong's voice was full of bitterness.

Xie Pinggang did not understand either. He just felt that Zhou Weizong was a fool. He was delirious today, so there was no point in saying these meaningless words to him!

With Zhao Xuanjing's help, Xie Qiao did not have to worry too much. After she went back, she paid a visit to her teacher and obediently went back to rest.

The next day, Xie Qiao found that he had indeed bought all the things that she needed.

"Since you're here today, let's seize the opportunity and for gather the children and test their abilities to see how they are doing." Li Shiyao also learned from the Crown Prince that his good disciple had been very busy ever since she returned from Mengjiabao. She did not have time to rest, and his heart ached very much. He took this opportunity to let her relax a little.

Coincidentally, Xie Qiao also had something to say to her teacher.

At this time, it was still early, and her junior brothers were not around. "Teacher is right, Junior Brother Xiao has taken in two disciples, and they're both... not bad. They should be taught more and acknowledge their masters," Xie Qiao said with a smile.

Li Shiyao took a sip of his tea and acted like an old immortal. "I heard that your younger brother is a rascal? I've heard a few things from others during my time here. They say that the child is mischievous and insensible. Since it's so difficult to take care of him, why did you hand him over to your Junior Brother Xiao? He's the most old-fashioned. I'm afraid that the master and disciple won't get along?"

He also knew that Xie Qiao's health was not good, so she was not suitable to take in disciples.

Fortunately, she was young. If she could recover in the future, it would not be too late to take in a few more.

Li Shiyan had already given Xie Qiao face and did not say that Xie Pinghuai was a little bandit.

The rumors that he had heard were much worse than what he had said.

Among them, the most popular one was this child, Xie Pinghuai... was lustful. If he was an ordinary lustful person, it would be understandable. However, it was said that this person had gone to the brothel at such a young age and had been thrown out by the procuress...

It was not a glorious thing to go through, and he would never be able to wash himself clean again.

"Sigh. I am not satisfied with the two disciples that Yurong took in." Li Shiyan sighed. "But I have accepted both of them. It's not good to chase them out of the sect unless they have made a big mistake." "Both of them have made mistakes, but if they repent, please let them off this time, Teacher." Xie Qiao was embarrassed. After all, she had to go through a backdoor to get her brother to become Xiao Yurong's disciple.

Xiao Yurong had two disciples. The eldest disciple was Chu Jian.

He could not have entered the sect either, but Xie Pinghuai had lost the white jade and Chu Jian had taken it. It could be said that they were fated.

It was improper how Chu Jian obtained the white jade, and Xiao Yurong was a person who respected his teacher and respected the dao. Naturally, he would explain the whole story to his teacher.

Whether it was Xie Pinghuai who had lost the jade or Chu Jian who had gotten the jade, his teacher would definitely not like it.

Not to mention his teacher, even Xiao Yurong had spent a lot of time accepting these two disciples.

“It’s also because my teacher and junior brother dote on me. Otherwise, it would be difficult for that little brat of mine to even receive a few pointers, let alone become a disciple.” Xie Qiao quickly refilled her teacher’s cup of tea. She sincerely said, “Thank you, Teacher.”

“It’s just taking in a disciple. Your junior brother won’t feel wronged.” Li Shiyan’s tone immediately changed. “It’s also fortunate that you interfered. Otherwise, I still wouldn’t have a grand-disciple! The other few rascals only care about their own advancement and don’t know how to teach the younger generation. They’re all selfish and aren’t good people!”

Xie Qiao rubbed the tip of her nose and chuckled.

It really was not her who snitched to her teacher...
