

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1046 He's Right!

The place where these young people held the poetry meet was really not suitable for a Taoist master like her.

There were not many acquaintances inside, so Xie Qiao was prepared to take a detour to leave. However, before she could leave, someone stopped Xie Pinghuai. Xie Pinghuai felt that he was quite innocent.

He was only out to protect his senior aunty. "I heard that Old Master Li is here? Second Young Master Xie is here with the old master, right? I wonder if we are lucky enough to ask Second Young Master to introduce us?" The person who came said. Xie Qiao understood.

Today's poetry meet was probably organized at the last minute because of his grandmaster.

"Grandmaster is in that broken pavilion. If you want to see him, you can just walk over. But there are quite a lot of people." Xie Pinghuai also tried his best to be patient.

If it was in the past, he would have long thrown a tantrum. However, considering that if he took the initiative to stir up trouble, his eldest sister would be angry when she found out later.

So he suppressed his temper. He was young, but he was quite tall. His face was still a little childish. When he was calm, he did look like he was a pushover.

"Isn't it because there are so many people that we want you to bring us there? Let's not talk about the others. After all, they are not from our academy, but the few of us..." That person smiled, "We are all classmates. Second Young Master won't look down on us and think that we are not even qualified to meet Old Master Li, right?"

Xie Pinghuai frowned. "Why are you asking if you know?"

"What?" That person was stunned.

"Since you know that you are not qualified, why are you saying this?" Xie Pinghuai was a little impatient. "There are many people who want to see the old master. Even I, the grand-disciple, only saw him once today. Isn't it normal for you to not see him? You asked me for a referral, and he asked me for a referral. Everyone comes to me. What should I do? Who should I choose?!"

"If I chose you, the others would be unhappy. If I chose someone else, you'd think that I look down on you. I can't collect money, right? Whoever gives me more money, I'll bring them to see the old master?"

"I won't fall for it!" Xie Pinghuai felt that this person wanted to harm him.

Just like the person who gave him the grasshopper, he would be implicated and beaten up.

When Xie Qiao heard Xie Pinghuai's words, she was extremely satisfied.

His words might offend people, but he was right!

She was extremely gratified!

That young master was angered by Xie Pinghuai's words until he laughed. He did not think that he would not give him any face at all and would even say such harsh words. In front of so many people, his face was also a little red, he said, "Second Young Master, a few days ago, we were still talking about... things?"

At that time, it was a horse riding lesson and a few classes were mixed together.

A few people gathered together and were talking about the capital's number one courtesan. He was a little closer to Xie Pinghuai, so the two of them spoke a little more.

"I know. At that time, you said that the courtesan's body needed to be nourished with medicine. I was curious and asked a few more questions." Xie Pinghuai nodded and admitted that he knew him, "But courtesans and courtesans, Grandmaster is Grandmaster. I can't bring anyone over. Someone will break my legs."

His consciousness was very clear. Bringing someone over would offend his grandmaster, and Teacher Xiao would hit him in the palm. Right now, the Crown Prince was his senior uncle. If His Highness were to mention this matter to his eldest sister in the future, she would definitely cry in disappointment and hurt her body.

Most importantly, there was Master Mo Chusheng standing beside him. She was also someone who would complain to Xie Pinggang. That young master's name was Ding Mao. At this moment, he felt really embarrassed.

"This Taoist master." Zhou Sijin suddenly stood up and said with a smile, "A few days ago, my cousin saved you on the street. I wonder if you still remember?"
