

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1066 Useful Junior Brothers

When Xie Qiao heard Jiang Jinlu's words, she knew that her chance had come.

This kid was quite easy to fool.

The Crown Prince was right. She had so many junior brothers. What was she going to do with one or two? Naturally, she was going to order them around. They were all from the same sect, just like her own brothers. If she left her own brothers unmoved, it would be a waste of talent. Instead, it would be a hindrance. The more she used them, the closer she would be with them, and the more effective it would be!

"It's easy to find. I'll give you a way!" Xie Qiao was delighted, "Junior Brother, don't stay in this city. Go to the villages outside the city and take a look. If you walk through a few more villages, there will definitely be an old cow that can't do anything. When it sees that it's about to die, you will wait there. If it cries before it dies, you will immediately take its tears..."

"As for whether the tears that you obtained can be used, you can bring them back and I will know after I take a look."

Some of the tears were taken from the old man, and some were obtained from the old cow after she worked hard to wait for it.

Putting aside whether the tears were good or not, watching the old cow die was not a pleasant scene.

The eyes of the old cow, that had worked hard all its life, would make people sad when it died in front of them. When it recalled the hard work of its life, the people around it would be affected as well...

“Then... should I try?” Jiang Jinlu hesitated for a moment.

“Go, go. Some old cows might not be able to survive this time of year. Besides, it will be a good opportunity as the old cow will have to work hard next spring,” Xie Qiao said seriously.

Jiang Jinlu was a little confused. Next spring?

What she meant was... if he went out to look for the tears of the cows, he would not be able to come back for a few months?

“Eldest Senior Sister...” Jiang Jinlu thought he had just returned to the capital and did not want to go anywhere.

“Junior Brother! I’m entrusting an important matter to you! In the past, I had some prejudice against you and thought that you were arrogant and looked down on me as a Taoist master. Now that I see you, Junior Brother Jiang, you are actually such a tolerant and magnanimous person, and you even want to look for cow’s tears for me...” Xie Qiao looked kindly at Jiang Jinlu. “Thank you, Junior Brother! When you come back, I will definitely welcome you with a fanfare!”

Jiang Jinlu looked at his senior sister’s grateful expression and nodded. “Okay...”

Sang You quickly turned his gaze over.

He was ashamed of his senior sister’s ability to trick her enemies.

Anyone who met her eyes would probably not be able to stand it and do as she asked!

Fortunately, his eldest senior sister was not good-looking... If she was beautiful and had such pure eyes, even he would be controlled by her!

Xie Qiao nodded with satisfaction and held the bottle of tears in her hand.

The task of the tears was finally settled.

Jiang Jinlu was a person who cared about his reputation. Now that he had promised her, he would not come back if he could not find the tears.

Poor Junior Brother Jiang, you must work hard!

Do not worry and go!

However, it was thanks to the Crown Prince's reminder. So at this moment, Xie Qiao looked at the unpredictable Crown Prince and said with a smile, "Thank you, Your Highness."

Sang You and Jiang Jinlu did not quite understand why their eldest senior sister suddenly said that to the Crown Prince.

"As long as it's useful." Xie Qiao was in a good mood, and the Crown Prince was in a good mood.

"It's indeed not bad." Xie Qiao nodded.

The Crown Prince had bought all the things she needed yesterday, which made her worry less. As expected, the more junior brothers, the better.

However, although the things were all purchased, Xie Qiao's time was still limited.

During this Winter Clothes Day, she could not send away many people from the Baili family. away. Xie Qiao pursued perfection, and those who did not have their last wishes fulfilled had to wait before they left, so that they would go at ease.
