

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1071 Exposed

They had spent a lot of time moving so much gold.

They were about to leave, but Xie Qiao looked at the pit and thought for a while. Then, she used a lot of strength to pull up the remaining empty box. When she looked again, there was another box at the bottom...

This windfall was quite big.

Xie Xi thought that she had finished her work, but she did not expect another box. At this moment, she was so scared that she did not dare to move.

“Eldest Sister... the money is too much. I don't dare to take it...”

What if the box below was also gold? What if the carriage was crushed?!

“What are you panicking for? It's just a broken box...” Xie Qiao gritted her teeth and said with an unfathomable expression, “Dig!”

Xie Qiao was Xie Xi's backbone. If her eldest sister did not panic, she could restrain her excitement and fear.

The soil around the second box would be cleaned up and it would not be too troublesome. This time, when she opened it again, it was not gold, but... it was also some valuable items.

Pearls, agates, jade pendants, gems, and many other gold items. They were of a very delicate and complicated type.

They were not as heavy as the box from before, but they were not light either.

Fortunately, there were no other boxes at the bottom.

When the two boxes of good stuff were put into the carriage, it was already late at night.

There were too many heavy things on the carriage. They were afraid that they would crush the frame and tire the horses, so Xie Qiao and Xie Xi got out of the carriage and walked.

They walked toward the city step by step.

Xie Xi's hands were still shaking.

She always looked left and right when she felt guilty.

"Eldest Sister, there are so many things. Who buried them...? If we dig them up, will someone come and look for us? What should we do if they find us? Should we return them..." Xie Xi felt uneasy.

After all, it was a windfall, so it was normal for Xie Xi to panic.

Xie Qiao was also afraid that if she kept thinking about this matter, it would damage her character, so she said patiently, "This is my reward. Earlier, I did something for someone and saved many people's lives. In order to reward me, the other party pointed out this place. Don't worry, the money here is ownerless, just take it."

This money had been buried for a long time. Xie Qiao counted it and it was fine.

Xie Xi still trusted her eldest sister Xie Qiao. When she heard that, she nodded carefully.

“Eldest Sister, you were not at home recently. Were you out doing something for someone? But your health is not good. Father told Eldest Brother that you can’t run around. You have to take care of your health,” Xie Xi said.

She accidentally exposed herself.

Xie Xi was so concerned about her. The way she looked at her was so pure that people could not bear to do it.

“Don’t tell Eldest Brother about this. Otherwise, our money will be taken away by him,” Xie Qiao instructed.

Now that her health was much better, there was no problem telling her eldest brother that she was Mo Chusheng.

No matter how fierce her eldest brother was, he still hoped that she would be alright. Now that she had proven that catching ghouls could heal her body, he would definitely not object.

However, the big problem now was...

She had lied to her eldest brother for too long. Moreover, when she was Mo Chusheng, her eldest brother was especially polite and respectful. If he found out that she was deliberately lying to him, would he not rip her head off?

Xie Qiao was a little scared.

If her eldest brother did not know Mo Chusheng, that would be great!

“Eldest Sister, is your body really okay?” Xie Xi was quite persistent.

“Of course. Look, I went out with you today. We dug pits and carried gold. We walked so far together. I still look fine. I look very healthy, right?” Xie Qiao was actually a little tired, but to prove herself, she straightened her back.
