

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1104: Offense

Meng Jifang's endurance was so bad?!

This sudden shout gave Xie Qiao a fright!

Meng Jifang himself was stunned for a moment and patted his own forehead. "What's wrong with me? I'm in a bad mood. Did you hear what I said just now? Don't spread it out!"

Xie Qiao looked at him with thoughts running through her mind.

With the status of the Meng family, the only one who could make him kneel and apologize was probably a relative of the imperial family.

Considering that Meng Jifang had a great opinion of the Crown Prince, she suspected whether the person who hit him was the Crown Prince.

"Have you discussed with this dirty thing? Tell her to leave quickly!" Meng Jifang said instantly.

This dirty thing must have affected him and made him lose his cool!

"How can she leave just like that? I still have to ask why she followed you." Xie Qiao rolled her eyes at him, then looked at the ghoul and said, "You were forgotten in the village. What happened after that?"

The ghoul still did not put her head back on her neck.

“In the beginning, many people came. They wanted to see what the falling stars looked like. Later, the stars were moved away by the officials, and the villagers left one after the other. In the end, they all left. There were also a few ghouls, and they all gathered together...”

Those ghouls looked down on her and never interacted with her.

They even gathered together and said that she was a fool, serving men and children like a slave. In the end, no one even knew that she had died. Everyone laughed at her. Perhaps her temper had gotten worse after she died, and one day, she could not stand it anymore, so she ate all those ghouls.

“Why are you haunting this young master?” Xie Qiao asked again.

She felt that this shadow ghouls was even more powerful than the average one. To be able to let a living person see her terrifying shadow, she must be quite capable.

That head lifted slightly, and suddenly, a strange smile appeared.

She did not speak.

Half of her soul was still hidden in the shadows, and Xie Qiao really could not do anything to her.

Xie Qiao sighed and put out the burning incense, she looked at Meng Jifang helplessly. “What unusual thing did you do in that village? Usually, the shadow ghouls was not very brave. If it was found out, it would not refuse to leave. But the one beside you is different. I saw that she seemed to be very dissatisfied with you. Did you offend her?”

“No!” Meng Jifang still felt like crying. “That night, I...”

He stood up and suppressed his imposing manner. He looked left and right, and in the end, he was a little angry, he said in a low voice, "I was really scared that night. After burying the little mouse, I didn't come out of the house. I sat on the ground and stayed up all night. The next morning, I left immediately!

"Besides, what could I see in such a run-down village? It's all rotten wood, dust, spiders, rats, weeds, rocks, and dry wells. I can't even be bothered to look at such a place. Who could I have offended?"

He felt wronged!

It was better to follow him!

Meng Jifang was a young master who loved cleanliness. In such a place, he probably would not even want to touch the ground.

"Since you can't remember, then go back to the village with me. Investigate carefully, find out the reason, and apologize to her. Only then can you think of a way to make her forgive you. If I take her for you by force, the ghouls' resentment will be even greater, and it won't be good for your own virtue," Xie Qiao said.

"You want to go again?!" When Meng Jifang thought of that place, he had goosebumps all over his body.

That village was really terrifying.

Especially in the middle of the night, just the sound of the wind could make people's scalp go numb!
