

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1106: Chase Him Out of the Sect

When Jiang Jinlu thought about what he had seen these days, he felt that the prosperity of the capital was somewhat unreal.

When he was young, he was accepted as a disciple by his teacher, and he was given food and shelter. Some people spoiled him. Although he did not get as much money as his senior brothers, compared to ordinary families, it was still much better.

He could not be considered a poor student.

When he was searching for tears in the countryside, he had seen farmers who were as tired as an old cow. He had seen scholars who forgot to eat and sleep. The ones he had seen the most were children who knew nothing but walked the path their families told them to.

It reminded him of the suffering he had suffered when he was young.

Jiang Jinlu looked much more stable than before and spoke less. After passing the bottle to Xie Qiao, he was not in a hurry to ask when the cow's tears would be ready.

"It seems that you learned a lot out there." Xie Qiao was quite surprised.

"I just saw the lives of ordinary people..." Jiang Jinlu quickly lowered his head and said respectfully.

Of course, he also suffered a lot. Due to the tears, people treated him as a lunatic and beat him up.

“When you followed teacher, you didn’t have to worry about food and drink. Even if teacher didn’t reveal his identity, with his bearing, he wouldn’t let your life get any worse. It seems that if you need to travel in the future, it’s better for you to go by yourself.” Xie Qiao saw his smile disappear, she actually felt that IT was quite good.

Jiang Jinlu forced a smile helplessly.

After this trip, he realized how happy he was with his teacher.

Moreover, he had not gone too far!

“Since you’ve obtained the tears, you can travel with me tomorrow. I’ll show you what you’ve always wanted to see,” Xie Qiao said.

Jiang Jinlu nodded obediently, looking forward to it.

Zhao Xuanjing sat next to his teacher and did not say much. Xie Qiao glanced at him occasionally, and he looked serious. He pretended to be completely unfamiliar with her.

Zhao Xuanjing was better at pretending than she was.

He sipped his tea and looked dignified.

If he were in the Crown Prince’s residence, he would have come up to chat with her.

“Junior Brother, I’m going to exorcize the young master of the Meng family tomorrow. Do you want to go with me?” Xie Qiao asked tentatively.

“The Meng family?” Zhao Xuanjing laughed. “Is he possessed? That’s wonderful. I’ll take some time to take a look at him.”

“Your Highness, you just got married not long ago. Don’t you need to spend more time with the Princess Consort?” Sang You asked kindly.

On the day of the Crown Prince’s wedding, he also went.

When she lifted the veil, he sneaked a look at the crowd.

The Princess Consort’ appearance...

Was stunning.

In the past, he thought that the Crown Prince was handsome and unparalleled in the world. He felt that it was a pity that he had to marry an ordinary woman. However, after that day, he felt that the two of them were a perfect couple. There was nothing to be picky about!

He wished that he could see the beautiful two together every day. It would be best if he could paint them and keep it forever.

Unfortunately, after the Crown Prince got married, he did not invite them to his residence.

He wanted to take a few more glances at the Princess Consort, but he did not have the chance...

Of course, Sang You did not know that Zhao Xuanjing actually wanted to invite them. However, when he thought of Sang You’s terrible behavior, he gave up on the idea.

It was enough to have the eldest senior brother to be in love with Mo Chusheng. If Sang You was shameless enough to secretly fall in love with her because of her good looks in the future, then he would probably chase him out of the sect for his teacher.

At this moment, Zhao Xuanjing heard what Sang You said and glanced at Xie Qiao, he said deliberately, "Qiaoqiao is gentle and considerate, virtuous and amiable, and she respects and admires eldest senior sister. If she knows that I'm going out with eldest senior sister, she will feel assured and at ease."
