

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1112: The Rest of My Life

Xie Qiao knew that she felt sorry for her brother.

She just said a few words to help him vent his anger.

Sang You did not know that Xie Pinggang had despised him, and he was still immersed in the beautiful scenery.

In the other carriage...

Jiang Jinlu's face looked as ugly as if he had stepped on dog poop. "S-Stay away from me..."

Looking at Meng Jifang's eyes, he was a little scared.

Meng Jifang was also at a loss. "The carriage is only so big. Do I have to jump out of it? You are Mo Chu... Master Mo's junior brother. How can you be so timid? You are not even as brave as me!"

"That's easy for you to say! I can see the thing on you, can you?!" Jiang Jinlu glared back at him.

"The ghoul is following me. What right do you have to be complaining?!" Meng Jifang was not afraid of Jiang Jinlu.

Among this group of people, the one who was the easiest to bully was the person in front of him. If he could not even raise his head in front of Jiang Jinlu, where would he put his face?

Moreover, now that he saw how scared he was, he felt a little better. "I've been suffering from this illness for a few days. Actually, it's not a big deal. I'm not afraid at all. If it weren't for Master Mo... insisting on treating me, this young master would be with this ghoul for the rest of my life!"

"Heh." Jiang Jinlu sneered.

He was not stupid. He could tell that he was boasting!

"Do you want to know what the ghoul who follows you looks like? How about I describe it to you?" After saying that, Jiang Jinlu went on his own. "This ghoul is a woman. She looks ordinary, but... Her head is twisted off and held in her arms. Her eyes aren't red, just like..."

Updates by

"Have you seen cooked fish eyes?" Jiang Jinlu was scared, but he did not forget to scare Meng Jifang.

Meng Jifang clenched his hands.

The people around the Crown Prince were really vicious!

Forget it that Jiang Jinlu was suffering, he still wanted to make him comfortable!

While Jiang Jinlu was talking, suddenly, the ghoul seemed to be upset. It suddenly spread its hands, and its head rolled to Jiang Jinlu's feet. When it stopped, it was facing up with its dead fish eyes facing him.

"Ah... Ah!" Jiang Jinlu howled in fear and jumped up instantly. However, he did not notice that his head hit the carriage frame.

“Ah! What are you doing?!”

Under his influence, Meng Jifang almost jumped out of the carriage.

Jiang Jinlu’s heart was trembling. “I-I know I’m wrong. T-Take your head back quickly...”

He was wrong. He should not have said that her eyes were like dead fish...

Seeing the head jumping around in the carriage, Jiang Jinlu leaned against the window in despair.

He was really wrong!

Even Xie Qiao heard such a loud noise.

“Will Junior Brother Jiang be okay?” Xiao Yurong was very worried and his voice was gentle.

“It’s spring. All living things like to make some noise. It will be fine once you get used to it.” Zhao Xuanjing was not worried.

Xie Qiao must have made some preparations for them to stay together.

At most, they would be frightened and nothing serious would happen.

Xie Qiao nodded. “It’s good to howl a few more times. It can relieve your depression and make your lungs feel better.”

Xiao Yurong sighed. His senior and junior brothers were too naughty. Unlike him, he did not have so much vitality when he reached the age of 30. He was a little lifeless.

“I heard from the academy that this Young Master Meng is a playboy who likes to play. He seems to be good at eating, drinking, women, and gambling. But today, I see that he was a little spoiled and indulgent, but he was not a bad person.” Xiao Yurong felt pity when he thought of Meng Jifang.