

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1160: Personal Belongings

The sudden appearance of the vase frightened Madam Ruan so much that her heart tightened and her breathing stopped.

Xie Qiao also did not expect the first princess' hostility to come so quickly. When she saw the vase coming toward her, she subconsciously used the horsetail whisk in her hand to block it.

She also secretly complained in her heart and was prepared to be beaten up...

However, she saw that the Fourth Prince acted swiftly and reacted very quickly. The book in his hand instantly flew out and directly hit the first princess' wrist. In the blink of an eye, the vase fell to the ground!

With a bang, it rolled to the side from the blanket.

Xie Qiao's raised hand was a little awkward, but she put it down with a calm look.

"Thank you, Fourth Prince," Xie Qiao said politely.

The Fourth Prince let out a sigh of relief, but he looked like a nerd. "Fortunately, you didn't hurt Master. Eldest Sister, Master Mo is Old Master Li's disciple. Don't mess around."

However, the first princess was currently in a rage and could not listen to him at all.

Her wrist was in great pain from being smashed by the book, and her eyes were red as if she was going to eat someone. She bared her fangs and brandished her claws, wanting to pounce on Xie Qiao. This time, Xie Qiao immediately dodged. Madam Ruan saw this and she immediately had the servant girl next to her control her, in case someone really died.

“It’s all thanks to her sudden trigger that I can probably determine what’s wrong with her,” Xie Qiao suddenly said.

Madam Ruan and the Fourth Prince were stunned when they heard that.

“In that case, she’s really... bewitched? Master, please do something to get rid of that demon!” Madam Ruan was very excited.

“Master, what kind of demon is causing trouble?” The Fourth Prince asked curiously.

“There’s no such thing as evil. It’s just an evil technique. It’s just a little strange...” Xie Qiao hesitated for a moment, but still chose to tell the truth, “Usually, these evil techniques aren’t easy to create. They require the victim’s birth characters, blood, or hair. It’s not easy to obtain them. It’s even more difficult for the princess to stay in the palace for a long time. Moreover, this evil technique is quite powerful. It doesn’t take her life, but her fortune. If they want the evil technique to succeed, not only do one need her blood and birth characters, one would also need the princess to carry the item close to her body.”

The person in front of her was the princess.

Since ancient times, the nobles in the imperial palace had no lack of vicious methods. Killing a few people was not a big deal.

It was also because the imperial harem was so peaceful that Concubine Ruan became more worried. She became suspicious and asked her mother’s family to help her to find help outside.

“She carries it around with her? Then...” Madam Ruan could not help but look at the first princess.

Xie Qiao nodded. “This thing should be hidden very deeply. I’m afraid we won’t be able to discover it just by relying on our eyes. We need to get people over and replace everything on the first princess’ body, including the hairpin and the rings. I’ll check them one by one.”

How could Madam Ruan wait any longer? Completely disregarding the first princess’ emotions, she immediately sent a trusted woman over and had someone escort the first princess into the house.

Xie Qiao thought for a moment and followed her.

This kind of sorcery was a little tyrannical. In just a short month or two, it had made the victim so angry that they had lost their rationality. Something was not right.

She had to watch it personally in case she missed something.

She was thick-skinned. The first princess in front of her was her client. Staring at her, Xie Qiao was no different from staring at a lump of pork. His expression was calm.

“What’s this on her shoulder?” Xie Qiao observed very carefully and asked the first princess’ personal maid.
