

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1163: Spent Them All

Xie Qiao tried her best to keep her head down. She wore a hat on her head, which made her look very strange.

As soon as she arrived, Xie Pinggang stared at her fiercely.

Many people in the criminal division had seen her, Master Mo, and they knew that this was the Taoist master that Xie Pinggang respected the most. In the past, they had seen Xie Pinggang lowering his head meekly in front of this master, but now, all of a sudden... his attitude had changed?

“Sir, could it be that this Master Mo said something terrible?” Some bold people with smiling faces could not help but probe.

There was a group of men in the criminal division. They usually hung out with each other, and they did not have any manners.

Of course, in front of Xie Pinggang, they had to more or less restrain themselves. Xie Pinggang’s temperament was really too scary, and he was easily angered.

Xie Pinggang glared back at him. “I saw that the Taoist master is as timid as a mouse, and I didn’t think she would go up!”

“Didn’t you say that she’s very capable?” After that person said that, he thought about it and decided to follow Xie Pinggang’s instructions. After all, this person was his superior, and he had to respect him, “However, you’re right, Sir. The guards around the Crown Prince always say that this Master Mo is good, but she is a mortal after all, not a god. How can she be as magical as they say? Also...”

As the man spoke, he smiled wretchedly. "Didn't they say that Master Mo relied on her relationship with the Crown Prince to cheat...?"

The officials in the criminal division had not seen much of Mo Chusheng's abilities.

They only knew that this person was powerful and could not be provoked.

At this moment, Xie Pinggang's face turned grim. "What did you say?"

That person was stunned. He felt that Xie Pinggang's expression was even stranger.

"Sir?!" He felt a little guilty.

"Did you say Mo Chusheng is a swindler?" Xie Pinggang's tall figure faced the person in front of him and snorted coldly. "Did I say that in the past? It seems that you have deep doubts about my words? Does that mean you don't trust me?"

No, he did not. "Sir, I only said that Master Mo..."

"You dare to drag His Highness into it? You have guts." Xie Pinggang snorted coldly and directly called someone over. "I'll beat you up a few times for this crime. Do you yield?"

The person was stunned.

He... did not?

He had only said one thing about the Crown Prince, and this was already considered talking bad about His Highness?

However, looking at Xie Pinggang's frightening appearance, he did not dare to say the rest of his words. He resigned himself to his fate and was dragged out.

The others beside him could not help but feel a little fortunate. Fortunately, they were not stupid. Although they could see that there seemed to be a conflict between Xie Pinggang and Master Mo, they did not dare to rashly say anything bad about Master Mo...

This master was favored by many noblemen. There were also those who had interfered in the previous cases. Even if they had not personally witnessed her prowess, it was not right to speak ill of her behind her back.

Xie Pinggang snorted and followed Xie Qiao's direction.

This was his sister. Even if he did not like her, he was the only one who could say it. If he were to fight, what did it have to do with other people?

"Master, I have never seen the two big treasure chests that you dug up. When will you let me take a look?" Xie Pinggang said after he moved closer.

Xie Qiao's expression froze.

She knew it...

"It's really unfortunate, Young Master Xie. I've spent them all..." Xie Qiao chuckled. Her attitude was the same as before, and she was much better at acting than Xie Pinggang.

Facing Xie Qiao's expression, Xie Pinggang was a little absent-minded.

It was as if the fact that Mo Chusheng was his sister was just a dream, and it became more and more unreal.
