

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 1199: Flirting

Thinking back to her days at the Taoist temple, Xie Qiao missed it.

“Master... Senior Brother, what is this thing used for?” Xie Qiao thought for a while. “I remember that the spells on the last few pages are quite overbearing. They can kill people directly, right?”

“Exactly. Young Master Xie, you will know when you look carefully. As long as the mother and child who have their placenta and blood taken are successful in the spells, the child will definitely die young. The pregnant woman would also be plagued with bad luck. Even if she doesn’t die, she would still lose a layer of skin. Also, the blood and qi of the deceased must be used by people who have died of a long illness with resentment. This way, the effect of the blood and qi would be even greater.

“With these two things together with the evil energy in the tomb, the blood of a person’s heart, the hair on his head, and the eight characters of his birth date, can curse this person to have no kins in life. It’s very overbearing,” Mo Lingzi added.

Once he said that, Xie Qiao’s memory of the book she had read became clearer.

She remembered that at that time, she should have asked her master. However, her master said that there were not many Taoist masters who would do this nowadays...

“Then, if this curse backfires...” Xie Qiao hurriedly asked.

“Since it’s not a curse on others, of course it will fall on your own head. If you want to avoid it, you must replace it with your own kins and eight characters. That’s the only way.”

However, the fate of the kins of the person who cast the curse would not be great.

This kind of thing could not be touched.

The evil energy soared to the sky, and the resentment was thick.

Moreover, seven children's lives were sacrificed. This kind of evil spell was not easy to do. Normally, no one would do it, and it would be too easy to fail.

"M-Master Xie, have you checked Great Consort Hui's family? And the Taoist master beside her, is the identity clear? Does that person have a family?" Xie Qiao suddenly asked.

Since the probability of this spell failing was very high...

"Err..." Yu Xian suddenly raised her hand weakly.

Xie Qiao turned back to look at her.

The others were also stunned.

Hearing Xie Qiao's messy address, Yu Xian felt a headache.

"I-I actually know everything. Since Master Xie also knows, then... Master Mo, if you have something to say, just say it. There's no need to avoid it. I think... It's good that Master Xie knows that I know. In the future, we'll have more things to talk about together," Yu Xian said earnestly. After saying that, she went back and forth...

Yu Xian had already laid her cards on the table with Xie Qiao.

However...

Xie Qiao felt that since she was in a disguise now, she had to be in her act.

Even if everyone knew, she had to play her role conscientiously to avoid getting used to being lazy and making mistakes in front of others.

When Xie Pinggang heard Yu Xian's words, he looked at her in shock. "You also know?! Could it be that this wretched girl is hiding it from me?!"

Xie Qiao coughed dryly. "Don't make any noise in this penniless master's shop."

Xie Pinggang was speechless.

Yu Xian was speechless, too.

The two of them subconsciously shut their mouths. Then, they looked at each other and could not help but be speechless.

There was clearly a room full of people who knew everything, yet Xie Qiao still had to put on the posture of a master. Look at her attitude, it was as if she could fly to the sky.

Xie Pinggang had been holding it in for quite some time, and now, he wished he could immediately go back and have a drink with Yu Xian, telling her how hard Xie Qiao had tricked him...

In Xie Qiao's eyes, the way the two of them winked at each other was like they were flirting with each other.

It was not easy. Could it be her eldest brother, who did not understand romance, had become enlightened?

That fate could be changed sooner or later.

However, it was only his fate that changed, and it had nothing to do with his character.

Even if this unromantic temper was influenced by fate, it had been ingrained in his character over time. She was afraid that even if he did not have a lonely fate, he would not be able to find a wife with this irritable and impulsive appearance!
