

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 251: Three Options, Your Choice

Xie Niushan's heart skipped a beat.

He was not used to this young lady shouting and fighting. As for the list of supplements she mentioned earlier, he did not care at all.

How much silver could this young lady spend? She was so petite...

"My daughter, Y-Yuan Rong has been with me since the beginning of time. We're from the same mountain stronghold. Now that I'm doing well, I can't get rid of him, right?" Xie Niushan said carefully.

Xie Qiao narrowed her eyes, looking a little disappointed.

"So in Father's eyes, you need to protect your brother even if he repeatedly offends your daughter? You would tolerate that? He barged into my courtyard today, and even ordered the servants to take my stuff. Maybe you'll give your daughter's life away to him one day, is that right?" Xie Qiao's voice was cold and indifferent, there was even a hint of estrangement in it.

When Xie Niushan heard that, he felt a chill inside.

"He deserves to be killed!" Xie Pinggang was very decisive, "Sister, don't worry. When we return, we'll cripple his limbs and throw him out of the city. In the future, we won't allow this man to get anywhere close to the Xie family again! He humiliated you like this. He will definitely suffer a fate worse than death!"

“You brat!” Xie Niushan was a little anxious.

Yuan Rong had to be punished. It was not a problem to chase him out. However..

It would be a little cruel to hit him...

“That b*stard Yuan Rong has been misbehaving for a long time. The family finance is in a mess. He benefited significantly from Ms. Lu’s lack of management! Although he’s an old man from the mountain stronghold, he’s just a piece of trash. He has never fought with us before. We made him a steward from a crude bandit. Have we wronged him? He actually dared to ride on his master’s head. Even if this kind of person is in the mountain stronghold, he’s still a disloyal traitor. It’s good enough that we didn’t feed him directly to the wolves!”

Xie Niushan understood that. Now that he heard what his eldest son said, he thought about it seriously.

He did not think that Yuan Rong was qualified.

It was just that there were fewer and fewer people from the mountain stronghold. Some of those who got out together had a completely different life now and had long forgotten the friendship between their brothers.

“Thank you, Eldest Brother,” Xie Qiao said.

Xie Pinggang had a serious look on his face. He thought for a moment and said, “It’s time to change the servants in the house. Father is nostalgic, but this is not the mountain stronghold! Those who don’t abide by the rules and don’t behave are not allowed to stay!”

It should have been like this a long time ago!

Only then did Xie Qiao show some relief on her face.

Xie Niushan also felt guilty toward Xie Qiao.

Thinking about it carefully, he had been nice to Yuan Rong and the others. However, Yuan Rong actually bullied his daughter now...

His stance changed very quickly.

As he thought about it, he felt that Yuan Rong was indeed a traitor.

"If Father has nothing to do lately, can you come over and play chess with me?" Xie Qiao suddenly said.

Xie Niushan was stunned and a little puzzled. However, his daughter's voice was soft and sounded very pitiful. He nodded without even thinking about it.

After nodding, he remembered that his daughter... had the fate that was bad luck for her family?! Moreover, he did not know how to play chess!

He suddenly felt a little scared.

However, Xie Qiao was upset now and on the verge of throwing a tantrum.

"Father, Ms. Lu..." Xie Pinggang was a little frustrated. "I'll give you three options. First option, our children would lose their father. Second, divorce. Third option... after the family changes the servants and wife, lock them in the courtyard to reflect. Your choice."

Xie Niushan was about to flare up when Xie Qiao nodded. "My vote goes to divorce. We should have done this earlier. If the old lady dies in the future, Ms. Lu will need to pay her respect. It would be difficult for you to divorce her in the future."

'What the hell?!'

However, Xie Niushan did not dare to express his opinion at that moment!

He was angry. How could Ms. Lu and her servants bully the girl?!

However, even though he was angry, he did not consider divorcing his wife. After all, it was not easy to get a wife...

"Are you guys serious about that?" Xie Niushan felt as if he was sitting on pins and needles.

Xie Pinghuai had an anxious look on his face, but he did not dare to say anything as he had heard that his mother's doings were inappropriate.
