

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 316: Examination

As soon as Lu Lin was sent to the military camp, Xia Yayun received another piece of news.

She was so angry that she broke her beloved teacup, and her expression became ferocious.

“She’s really trying to make things difficult for me! Half of those youths actually went to the military camp. She’s deliberately stealing my credit!” Xia Yayun was so angry that she was fidgety, “Those ungrateful b*stards. I gave them many opportunities, but they didn’t want it. They actually thought that the military camp was a good place! A bunch of idiots!”

Once they were in the military camp, they might even lose their arms and legs!

Moreover, the military camp where Xie Niushan was located was responsible for the war of the Qianyuan dynasty. If there was a riot, they would definitely send out troops, and the possibility of suffering would be the greatest!

They were all ignorant and unruly people. When they died on the battlefield in the future, they would know how good the conditions she offered were!

“Send some new quilts to those youths. They must wear thick and proper clothes, and feed them until they’re fat. When the New Year is over, invite all of them to the academy. When compared to Xie Qiao’s 50 people, we will naturally be able to see who gave them the best things!” Xia Yayun gritted her teeth. She wanted to eat Xie Qiao alive.

Although Xia Yayun was angry, she thought Xie Qiao was laughable.

Xie Qiao had only helped a few teenagers to enter the military camp, and there were not enough people.

As for her?

She only needed to send some things occasionally. Those teenagers were obedient to her.

Xia Yayun had plenty of time now, so she did not need to go out of the city every day.

A new round of examinations had begun in the academy.

Every round of examination in the Royal Academy was very important, especially for the women's academy. If they were to get an "A" in each examination, they could choose to go to the better courtyard or get some silver beans as rewards. If they did too badly, they might be demoted.

This was also to ensure that the students in each courtyard were of the same standard, so that the teacher could teach them better.

The examination was more important. Xie Qiao had to come.

It would take three days. The men's side would use the imperial court's examination, while the women's side would have a variety of questions.

Every teacher had to come up with the examination questions. Other than the courses for armaments, even the embroidery and tea classics courses also had a written examination.

However, if one did not enter the school normally, they could choose not to take those courses.

Xie Qiao usually attended Master Lu's class. He talked about the Four Books and Five Classics, the world style, and history.

However, it was obviously not enough to only take this class only. Therefore, Xie Qiao thought about it and thought she would check out arithmetic and the way of flowers.

The way of flowers was not only to recognize pictures and objects, but also to cultivate flowers and arrange flowers. There were even some poems about flowers in it. It was quite difficult.

When Xie Qiao returned to the academy, she met Xia Yayun. The meeting of enemies, their eyes were bloodshot.

Xie Qiao had almost skipped all of the classes recently, so when she appeared, there were many worried gazes.

"Xie Qiao, you don't have to be worried. You haven't come recently and your body is weak. Even if you can't pass the examination, the teacher will understand. You won't be demoted to the Chrysanthemum Courtyard."

"This is what the teacher has been talking about recently. Try to remember as many sentences as you can. You might just hit the mark!"

There were many people around Xie Qiao who comforted her.

There were even some who expressed their sympathy for Xie Pinghuai's situation.

These few days, Xie Pinghuai was recuperating at home. He was originally from the Begonia Courtyard, and the reason for his injury was admirable. Therefore, he could totally not come to the examination.

Xia Yayun felt the changes in everyone.

When Xie Qiao first came to the academy, everyone clearly hated her!

Was Xie Qiao a vixen? How could he be so bewitching!
