

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 336: Wealth and Fortune

Zhao Xuanjing rode his horse to her side and glanced at her, "Is it true that Young Lady Xie is in a hurry to get married?"

Xie Pinggang had been making many big moves recently.

He had captured all the unmarried men of the right age to the criminal division and interrogated their parents and brothers as if they were criminals. He always got Xie Pinggang to his side, but Xie Pinggang had never asked him anything.

Could it be that his condition was worse than those people?

"My health is lacking. It's normal for Eldest Brother to be a little worried," Xie Qiao's gaze landed on Zhao Xuanjing's waist. His horse riding posture was really beautiful, which showed that his waist strength was strong.

"What are you looking at?" Zhao Xuanjing's lips curled up as he looked at her with a smile.

"The waist is the mountain of the belly. Your Highness, this mountain is straight, wide, thick, and upright. You have all the wealth and fortune. I will look at it a little longer, but I won't steal it," Xie Qiao was envious.

She could not find any flaws in the Crown Prince's body except for the ghouls around him.

Every time she saw him, all she could think of was those rhymes!

A perfect work of art.

Xie Qiao's expression was always calm and relaxed, but her thoughts had long flown to the nine heavens.

She rubbed her small hands. Unfortunately, she could not touch him.

Zhao Xuanjing did not expect her to be so bold. She even learned how to tease people in broad daylight. If he did not respond, would she not take advantage of him and treat him as a monk who cultivated in seclusion?

He bent down with a teasing smile on his lips, "Since Young Lady Xie likes it, why don't I let you take it from me? It's okay to choose a good day to come to my mansion. You can experience this wealth and fortune yourself."

'What?' Xie Qiao's small face tensed up.

With a swish, the curtain of the carriage was pulled down.

There was even a teasing laughter coming from outside.

Xie Qiao's face blushed.

Fortunately, no one else heard what he said.

However, thinking about it again, Xie Qiao thought something was wrong.

The Crown Prince, this scoundrel, was actually quite a player. Earlier, he had clearly told her that before master left, he had entrusted her, Mo Chusheng, to him!

Looking at him, was he ready to take responsibility?

Previously, he had said so much, and he had such a filial disposition. Yet, he actually turned around and started discussing wealth and fortune with her!

Could one discuss wealth and fortune so casually with others?!

His head must have been tied to his waist, and he had taken a liking to Mo Chusheng's... mature and steady personality, and he had also taken a liking to her young and lovely appearance!

Thinking of that, Xie Qiao snorted.

Could it be that he wanted both ladies to himself?

However, she could not help him by splitting herself into two!

Xie Qiao swayed unsteadily, and her thoughts ran wild. The carriage entered the city.

Perhaps she had just suffered a little shock, but as she thought about it, she actually fell asleep in the carriage.

Outside the city, there were people secretly guarding. Now that they saw the Xie family's carriage return, they did not know what was going on inside.

However, some of the Xie family servants were still injured, and the Crown Prince went out to capture quite a number of people. They dared not to confirm whether this matter had succeeded or not.

“The Crown Prince went out to capture people? How can she be so lucky?! Every time, she would run into the Crown Prince, and he would help her!” In the teahouse near the city gate, Xia Yayun exclaimed.

Xia Yayun did not think too much about it.

The Crown Prince was unpredictable. He had never been methodical in his work. Now that he was the supervisor of the criminal division and valued Xie Pinggang, it was normal for him to take care of the Xie family.

It was just that he did not expect it to be such a coincidence every time.

“Where are Yuan Rong and Boss Yang?” Xia Yayun asked immediately.

“These two should be dead already. They’re not among the people captured alive,” the servant reported.

Xia Yayun heaved a sigh of relief when she heard that.

It was good that they were dead. In this way... They would not be able to trace it back to her.
