

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 341: Stir Trouble

Master Xia knew that his daughter was somewhat wronged, but what was the use of being wronged at that moment?

Everyone out there knew about it!

The dynasty was very lenient towards women, but not to such an extent!

However, it was his daughter after all, so he could not really be ruthless and ignore her. He said again, "This matter was only spread yesterday. Ask your mother to visit your aunt. Don't look so dejected, tidy yourself up!"

"Father, I'm already so embarrassed, how can I face others?!" When Xia Yayun heard that, she was in despair.

"You know what embarrassment is?!" Master Xia wanted to hit her again.

Xia Yayun sobbed in grievance.

Master Xia took a deep breath, he said again, "Rumor has it that you met a group of bullies. If you really lose your virginity, your face would still be slightly injured! If you walk out so openly and smile at everyone you meet, if anyone mentions this matter, don't try to shirk it off to Xie Qiao. Just say that you don't know which lady from the Xia family it is! Or maybe someone has mistaken you!"

“No matter what, you must not show that you care too much about this matter, and you must not compete with Xie Qiao! It doesn’t matter what the ordinary people think. As long as the elders of the high-class families in the capital are willing to explain a few things to people, you’ll survive!” Master Xia was both angry and helpless.

Xia Yayun could only listen.

However, she was not sure if she could do it.

Others would definitely look at her with a strange expression. They would definitely think that she was that kind of shameless woman!

Even if there were elders who were willing to explain for her, who would be willing to marry her into the family?

In the future, she would definitely not marry as she wished!

After such a big incident, Xia Yayun really lost her fighting spirit.

She hated Xie Qiao, but she could not care about it now. Her mind was in a mess.

She had never thought that if her scheme against Xie Qiao succeeded, Xie Qiao would be the one to bear all of this.

Xia Yayun immediately packed up and left.

She first visited the Meng family’s aunt’s place to show her face. Then, she went to another cousin’s house on the way. She did not stay too long.

After taking a long walk around, almost everyone who saw her was sure that she was innocent, which made her feel much better.

However, she was still worried, so she took a turn and went to the Dong Residence.

Dong Xiyun was the first-born daughter of the wife, and she had a younger sister.

However, her younger sister was close to her stepmother, and she was second.

Xia Yayun knew about that. That stepmother, Ms. Duan, was not a good person. She always mistreated Sister Dong, and even taught Sister Dong's biological sister to be unruly. She always tried to sow discord between the sisters.

Sister Dong was very pitiful.

After Xia Yayun found Dong Xiyun, she immediately cried and complained.

When Dong Xiyun heard what she said, she was shocked.

After spending so much effort, not only did she not succeed, but she actually...

Dong Xiyun really did not know how to look at this useless good friend of hers.

Calling her a fool? She could understand what she said and even vent her anger on her behalf. To say that she was smart... this revenge almost cost her life!

“Sister Dong, how did you get through being bullied by Xie Pinggang?” Xia Yayun could not help but ask.

Dong Xiyun clenched her fists.

That idiot had insulted her more than once.

She looked at Xia Yayun with a judgmental gaze.

Xia Yayun would not be able to marry into the Meng family now, so she was less useful now. Since that was the case, she might as well use her to... stir trouble for others.

“Don’t cry, I’ll have a drink or two with you,” as she spoke, she got someone to serve wine.
