

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 342: No Light in Her Eyes

Dong Xiyun listened to Xia Yayun's sobbing. When she was done crying, she was drunk.

She sent a maidservant from the Xia family back to report that she was staying the night.

However, in the middle of the night, someone from the Xia family was asked over to personally bring Xia Yayun back.

The husband and wife both had sullen faces, while Xia Yayun was still smiling drunkenly and her clothes were disheveled.

When she woke up the next day, her parents were sitting in front of the bed, looking at her coldly.

Another slap came.

"You don't love yourself!" Master Xia's heart was extremely cold.

"Father?" Xia Yayun looked at him innocently.

She felt that her body seemed to be a little uncomfortable, but she did not realize anything, nor did she think of that.

Madam Xia's heart softened, and she said, "Ya'er, you were drunk yesterday, and y-you actually entered the Dong family's Aunt Miao's house. Master Dong, h-he was also drunk at that time, and mistakenly thought that you were Aunt Miao, so he... ruined you!"

"Ah! That's impossible! Mother, you're lying!" Xia Yayun was going crazy!

How was that possible?!

She remembered... last night...

Xia Yayun tried her best to recall, but when she did, her face turned pale and she became paralyzed.

Last night, she had a little too much to drink. As it was still early, she went to see Aunt Miao.

Aunt Miao was Sister Dong's stepmother. After Sister Dong's biological mother passed away, she was brought in to take care of the child...

At that time, Aunt Miao dragged her to eat and drink some more. Later on, Aunt Miao seemed to have passed out on the table, and then...

She only vaguely remembered that she was drifting. There were so many rooms and doors, and she even fell unconscious when she left.

Where was the guest room...

She searched for a long time before she found it. Later on, she had a dream. In the dream...

Xia Yayun was in despair.

“How could Uncle Dong not recognize me? It can’t be...” she said in despair.

Master Xia was speechless at that moment.

It was his fault. He should not have allowed his daughter to have any contact with Dong Xiyun! Even if Master Dong had recognized the wrong person, this Dong Xiyun was definitely not innocent!

“You... hang yourself or poison wine, your choice,” Master Xia finally said.

“Father?!” Xia Yayun was extremely shocked.

She did not want to die! She did not want to die!

Madam Xia’s entire body trembled, “Forgive her...”

“Forgive her? Do you want her to stay home and not get married, or do you want to send her to the Dong family to be a concubine?!” Master Xia said angrily.

A legitimate daughter to be a concubine? If she was a prince’s concubine, it would be acceptable, but who was she?

That person surnamed Dong was the same age as him and held the same official position. If his daughter became his concubine, it would be a slap to his face!

However, recently, there had been such rumors outside.

If she stayed home and remained unmarried, others would only think that the rumors were true!

Or... he could find a young boy and marry her off.

However, the young boy was not stupid either. Who could endure the absence of his wife's innocence?! If the man who ruined his innocence died, he could barely accept it. However, that man was still alive!

The Xia family was in a gloomy fog.

Outsiders did not know about this matter, so they could only grit their teeth and swallow it, thinking about how to resolve it.

After all, the bet had been prepared for so long. The Xia family would be humiliated to cancel it directly. Furthermore, both parties had signed the agreement, so they bite the bullet and asked Xia Yayun to show.

Xie Qiao had not seen Xia Yayun for a long time, and now she realized that this person had changed a lot.

She was no longer as arrogant as before, and there was no longer light in her eyes.

Xie Qiao had thought that she would be able to last a little longer, but she did not expect that she would not be able to stop her bad luck.

However, judging from her looks, she must have offended a villain.

There were nobles in this world who could make people lucky, and naturally, there were villains as well.

If she were to offend a villain, she would have to get rid of that.
