

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 345: The Lin Family

Grandpa Lin carefully glanced at Xie Qiao.

He knew that this little girl looked delicate and weak, but in reality, her biological grandparents and parents were all bandits...

Not only that, her mother was not captured and brought to the mountain.

Grandpa Lin secretly sighed.

He thought that when his daughter passed away, it would be great if he could get those two children back!

Unfortunately, at that time, he could not take the initiative to contact the bandits, so he kept this matter in his heart. It did not happen.

Fortunately, they finally met.

"I knew that Grandpa Lin was coming earlier, but I didn't think that it would be so soon. I hope you can forgive me for not accommodating you fully. In my haste, I've already cleaned up the guest room. It's cold outside, so we'd better enter first," Xie Qiao was very gentle, she was afraid that she would scare this person away.

Grandpa Lin nodded.

It was not good to remain silent, so he said, "A few years ago, I heard people say that the bandit... General Xie went to the mountain near our village. At that time, I wanted to meet the two children. However, it was difficult at home back then, so I didn't leave. At the beginning of this year, the children's matters were settled. I saved some money, so I thought of coming to the capital to look for them."

They had arrived in the capital a long time ago, but the things in the capital were too expensive!

Thus, they decided to settle down in a village near the capital for the time being.

He was a doctor, so no matter where he went, he was still quite popular.

Xie Qiao's lips curled into a smile.

The Xie family knew some people in their hometown. Before looking for someone, they first sent a pigeon message to ask about the current situation of the Lin family. They found out that this person had left a long time ago, saying that he was looking for his relatives.

There were not many relatives in the Lin family. The people in their hometown also helped to inquire, so they knew that this person was in the vicinity of the capital.

After searching for a few days, they found the person.

The person behind Grandpa Lin seemed to want to say something but hesitated.

The names of the people in the Lin family were quite interesting. The eldest daughter of the Lin family was called Lin Yaxiang, the second daughter Guixin, the third daughter Sangzhi, and the fourth daughter Dengcao. They were all medicinal herbs' names.

Even the name of this son-in-law was given by Grandpa Lin. One was called Gangsong, and the other was called Cebo.

There were three children behind them, and they looked quite obedient at that moment.

This family seemed to be quite good. At least they seemed to be more reasonable than the relatives of the Xie family.

Lin Yaxiang seemed to be unable to hold herself back. After she entered the courtyard, she said, "It's not good for us to stay here for long with our family. But now that we've seen my sister's children, we miss them very much... We thought that in a while, we'll let the men in the family rent a courtyard and stay for a month temporarily. We won't trouble you every day, we just want these two little ones to talk to my Father at the courtyard. Of course, we won't disturb you during the New Year..."

Although Xie Qiao chatted with them politely, in reality, she had always avoided looking up at them.

Fortunately, she was a woman and had a smile on her face. Even if they did not look at each other, she would not appear to be too arrogant.

However, when she heard what Lin Yaxiang said, Xie Qiao could not help but look at her again.

Her tear trough was full, she had a strong personality. She had her own opinions and would not give in.

Her facial features were not particularly unique. She was not born with enough luck, but she could see that she was slightly blessed. Her facial features had a good qi, and good qi turned into wealth. In her later years, she would have a long and prosperous life.

However, her facial features were not fixed.

At this moment, Xie Qiao did not reject Lin Yaxiang's suggestion.

"How could we trouble both Uncles? I'll get the steward to find a suitable place later," Xie Qiao said with a smile.

"We'll pay for it ourselves," Lin Yaxiang immediately replied, as if she felt that her words were a little too abrupt, she said, "In the past, we never interacted with each other. Now that we've suddenly met, and our family has a large population, if we don't pay for it ourselves, we won't feel at ease. We wouldn't dare to come again next time."
