

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 388: Clashing Fate

“Cough, cough, cough...”

Jia Huan had just finished her sentence when the old lady choked on her tea.

Xie Qiao looked at her hand and suddenly pulled it back with force.

“Just speak. Don’t touch me. I don’t like it,” Xie Qiao smiled and looked at the old lady, “Grandmother, be careful with your tea.”

Xie Qiao stepped forward and placed her small hand on the old lady’s back to soothe her breathing.

The old lady did not expect her to be so enthusiastic. She was shocked!

She quickly stood up and lost her balance. Her left foot collided with her right foot and with a thud, she fell to the ground!

Xie Qiao covered her face in “shock” .

“Grandmother!” She rushed forward and was extremely concerned.

“Grandmother Xie!” Jia Huan also rushed forward to support her.

At that moment, Old Lady Xie was in a mess from the fall. Her leg and waist hurt. She looked uncomfortable as she struggled to stand up. However, she saw that Xie Qiao was very concerned as if someone had died in the house.

“What happened to Grandmother? Why are your legs so weak that you can’t stand up? Could it be that you’re abused by uncles at home?” Xie Qiao enunciated each word clearly, after she finished, she was a little upset, “I’ll send people to teach them a lesson! Who asked them to be so unfilial!”

“Shut up!” Old Lady Xie said with difficulty, “It was you who startled me!”

“Grandmother, be careful with your words. I was being filial to you earlier. If your words were to be spread accidentally, you’d be accused of mistreating your granddaughter,” Xie Qiao took her time and sat down next to her, “From now on, I’ll come every day. Grandmother... take care.”

Xie Qiao suddenly smiled.

The old lady looked at that smile and thought it was a little strange.

Xie Qiao came slowly and walked away slowly. She did not say much, as if she really came to pay her respects.

However, the old lady thought about it carefully and thought it was a little strange.

This wretched girl’s fate clashed with hers!

How long had it been since she arrived here? She choked and fell. Fortunately, it was minor, or else she would have lost half her life!

She was old, and this fall could be serious!

It could be said that the old lady had guessed correctly!

The old lady was Xie Qiao's relative by blood. Although she was a generation away from her parents and brother, they could not be any closer. Would it not be a waste if she did not use her ability of harming her blood relatives with her fate on the old lady?

The old lady had just arrived today. That was enough to scare her.

Moreover, she was at home. It would be terrible to make a scene.

"This darn girl... Ugh, she became so obedient suddenly, it scared me to death..." The old lady held her waist at the back and climbed into the chair.

"Grandma Xie, your granddaughter seems to be quite sensible. Look, she seems timid. She doesn't look very healthy and is so thin. It's not like what you said..." Jia Huan frowned.

She thought Xie Qiao was a shrew.

She was so weak. If she shouted twice, this person would probably be scared to tears, right?!

The young lady of the family was so weak and useless.

"Don't look down on her! Just by relying on her ability to cry, she made that kid, Pinghuai, betray me! Before she came, that Pinghuai was the most obedient. But that day, he almost beat someone up because of this sister!" The old lady felt a chill inside her when she thought about it.

How good was she to Xie Pinghuai?! Every time they met, he would call out to her with all his heart and soul. And what happened now?!

He was taken away by the wolf for nothing!

“This young lady has never been taught a lesson!” Jia Huan was a little disgusted when she heard that.

The old lady cried out twice and muttered a few more words. In a short while, the food arrived.

However, when she saw the food, the old lady was filled with anger inside.

She did not even eat such light food at home!

This girl had the nerve to ask someone to serve her such shabby food!
