

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 409: Kill or Behead Them As You Wish

“The Young Heir likes that top very much. He k-knew that the Princess doesn’t like the Young Heir accepting the Eldest Young Master’s things, so he secretly plays with it...” the errand boy was about to cry.

The princess’ expression was gloomy, “Where is it?!”

The errand boy carefully lay under the bed. Then, he took out a small box from the bottom and gently opened it.

When Xie Qiao and Yuan Changzi saw it, their expressions changed greatly.

“It’s exactly it!” The two said together.

Yuan Changzi saw a thick evil energy.. Apart from that, Xie Qiao also saw the vengeful spirits that instantly got out of the golden top.

There was actually more than one vengeful spirit.

There were seven or eight.

However, they were not alone. They seemed to have fused together. Those heads changed from time to time, looking particularly frightening.

These vengeful spirits were actually ten-year-old children.

They stared at Xie Qiao.

Xie Qiao's expression was grave. She immediately took out her copper coin sword.

The doors and windows suddenly began to flap non-stop.

Although the Prince Ning Bei couple knew that it was useless, they still protected the Young Heir on the bed.

"Little fellows, since you guys died early, why didn't you guys reincarnate obediently? Why did you stay in this mortal world to harm others?!" Xie Qiao said angrily.

"Round drum, come and hit it."

"Bang bang, bang bang."

"The inside of the head is empty."

"The inside of the belly had turned into straw."

"Father, Mother, pick up the ax. The red flowers are blooming."

"..."

A strange voice rang in Xie Qiao's ears.

They kept singing and jumping. In a short while, the seven or eight heads rolled toward Xie Qiao. Their heads were covered in blood, and their eyes were wide open.

Xie Qiao had goosebumps.

"The stars in the sky adapt to changes, expel evil and bind demons, protect your life. Live forever, the three souls. Your soul will never fall! Now hear my command!" Xie Qiao immediately took out a talisman and struck out.

In an instant, the strange song became much fainter.

Then, Xie Qiao started to fight with the heads.

Prince Ning Bei and the others could not see those evil things. They could only see that Master Mo Chusheng was holding a copper coin sword and striking out with a talisman continuously. The talisman would suddenly burst into flames, and the surrounding sounds would not stop.

It looked very scary, but... it seemed to be a little more powerful than that master and the talisman from before.

Yuan Changzi looked at the Seven Star Formation under her feet and his heart trembled.

This Master Mo... definitely had the ability to remain calm in the face of danger.

The outsiders would watch the show, while the experts would watch the skill.

The master's sword technique was at the pinnacle of perfection. Every step she took was in formation. Only then could the power of the talisman be maximized!

Amazing. He did not expect that Mo Lingzi, who had offended people everywhere, would have such a... disciple.

He did not know whether this person was a disciple or a junior sister. In any case, she was definitely in the same sect as Mo Lingzi.

At that moment, Xie Qiao had already firmly restrained the vengeful spirits.

A strange smell came from the air, as if something had been burnt.

"You all lost your lives at such a young age, and I feel sorry for you. Don't worry, after I capture you guys, I will help you get rid of your resentment and let you go through reincarnation at peace, okay?!"

"We don't want to be reincarnated! We don't want to be reincarnated!"

They would have parents again after reincarnation. They would be tortured again!

Xie Qiao knew that most young vengeful spirits would have some pitiful past.

"The person you want to harm this time is the Young Heir. His father is Prince Ning Bei. If you have any grievances, you can get Prince Ning Bei to claim justice for you. If your parents have committed a crime, you can kill or behead them as you wish!" Xie Qiao added.
