

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 472: What Master Mo Did Was Right

The Princess thought this Master Mo was too approachable.

See, she was willing to risk her life for a commoner.

She was indeed a kind person!

It was also fortunate that she had such a kind person that her son's illness could be cured!

"It was only a slap to you. It was still considered light," Xie Qiao added.

Zhao Xuzhi should be glad that her combat ability was not that powerful.

Hmph.

Zhao Xuzhi's gaze was sinister, causing the Princess to be stunned. She had never seen Zhao Xuzhi like this before.

Xie Qiao rolled her eyes at him, "Alright, the matter is over. You... cough, cough, leave. Don't be a hindrance and an eyesore in front of this penniless master."

Xie Qiao was not polite at all.

She was Mo Chusheng.

She had a backer.

She was not afraid!

The Princess was also worried that Zhao Xuzhi would get angry and start stirring troubles again. She hurriedly said, "Quickly leave and rest. You've caused the death of someone. Master Mo is only helping you to get rid of your sinful debt."

"That's true," Xie Qiao nodded.

If she did not stop that ghoul from turning into a vengeful spirit, who would be punished later?

Would it not be Zhao Xuzhi?

Although it could make Zhao Xuzhi more miserable, but... it would never be as pitiful as that male ghoul, so the price was too high. She just could not bear it.

Zhao Xuzhi felt that he had been really unlucky recently. He had been repeatedly reprimanded by his father and the Princess, and he had even been bullied by the Crown Prince. Now that there was Mo Chusheng, she actually rode on his neck and pulled his hair!

Zhao Xuzhi suddenly felt that he was too weak.

If he had already been conferred the title of Commandery Prince, who would not treat him with a little respect?!

At that moment, that gaze coldly glanced at Mo Chusheng before he flung his sleeves and left.

Initially, he had wanted to butter up this Mo Chusheng, but that thought was completely gone now. He would definitely make Mo Chusheng pay!

Xie Qiao did not seem to see Zhao Xuzhi leave in anger.

Moreover, Zhao Xuzhi's embarrassed and angry expression seemed to be... something she was used to.

How many times had it been?

Xie Qiao was calm.

"Sorry for making a fool out of myself, Princess," Xie Qiao looked at the Princess gratefully.

If the Princess treated her as a troublemaker and chased her out, then she would definitely not be able to fight against that vicious man.

"You didn't make a fool out of yourself, but Master's actions did give me a fright." The Princess had a kind look on her face, "However, Master has her reasons for doing this. How can a mortal like me understand?"

As she grew older, her faith grew stronger.

In the past, she had often gone to the temple to offer incense. However, in the future, she had to respect both Buddhism and Taoism.

Of course, she respected Master Mo even more.

In this world, there were very few people who were as powerful as Master Mo!

The Princess looked at Xie Qiao with a very gentle gaze. She did not look angry at all. She even asked with concern, "Is Master's health lacking?"

"It's just a tiny problem. I can't get angry," Xie Qiao said slowly.

"Master has a kind heart. That's why you were so angry because of a commoner... I feel really guilty," the Princess sighed.

Xie Qiao shook her head.

The Princess could be considered a kind-hearted person. Take this royal residence for example. Compared to the Zhou family, it was really much cleaner. There were almost no ghouls.

Speaking of ghouls, Xie Qiao remembered the matter she had promised the Young Heir.

After resting for a while, she stood up and said, "I want to take a look at this residence so that I can find the fox for the Young Heir. Would it be troublesome?"

"It's no trouble at all," the Princess immediately nodded.

She quickly found a maidservant and accompanied Xie Qiao to walk around.
