

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 475: Fortune-telling

Xie Qiao was forced to watch a fight scene at home. At that moment, she was quite confused. She did not expect despite the Princess being old, she was still so fierce.

Zhao Xuzhi...

Ha, another unfortunate incident happened. How pitiful.

Xie Qiao grinned at Zhao Xuzhi.

Zhao Xuzhi and his mother were left behind directly. Without giving them a chance, the Princess immediately brought the fox to see the doctor.

The poor little fox had almost all of its fur plucked out. It was shivering and was skinny.

The Princess did not dare to let her son come over to see the fox, worried that the child would be scared.

It was getting late, so Xie Qiao did not stay. Seeing the Princess' worried face, she simply told her everything.

The Princess looked at her in a daze.

She had experienced too much that day!

Seeing the sage-like Master Mo hitting someone, the little fox being abused, and now she was telling her that she could not give birth for decades because... she had been harmed?

And the cousin who harmed her had died long ago!

The Princess suddenly felt a headache.

She was angry and wanted to cry, her old face trembling.

It had been so many years. Many people had mocked her for being a hen that could not lay eggs. Many people had said that she took the position of Princess but did not fulfill her duties. When she finally gave birth to a child, what did others say?

They said that she had only borne a child when she was so old. Some people even suspected that the child was not given birth by her at all...

She had suffered too much over these years.

When she was young, she could not understand why she was infertile!

Now, it was clear. It was finally clear!

She was holding a grudge for no reason!

“Master Mo... Please send Zi Zhu away. I don’t blame her, but I can’t forgive her,” the Princess sighed, her eyes were bloodshot, “Thank you Master for explaining to me.”

Zi Zhu was loyal, she knew that.

However, Zi Zhu had the chance to tell her, but she did not do it.

“I’m not the one who answered your question, but I’ll tell her,” Xie Qiao did not say much. She was exhausted today, so she did not have much strength left in her body.

Xie Qiao left the royal residence and took... four souls along the way.

In addition to the male ghouls from before, there were two other ghouls that had been tamed by Zi Zhu all these years. They thought it was meaningless for them to stay, so they asked the sisters to leave together.

Xie Qiao placed the porcelain bottles that contained the foul souls at the Fortune Pavilion.

She decided to stay at the Fortune Pavilion for the night

The next morning, Xie Qiao first took care of the business at the Fortune Pavilion. The main purpose was to perform divination for the customers.

The Fortune Pavilion initially only sold talismans and expelled evil spirits. However, due to its good reputation lately, even the royal residence had personally brought gifts over to thank them, so the reputation was boosted.

There were often ordinary people who came in to have their fortune told.

If Xie Qiao was here, it would be convenient for them to do it.

However, it was also due to her mysterious appearance that more and more people came to look for her to read their fortune.

The moment the door opened today, Shopkeeper Chang was surrounded. When they heard that Master Mo was here, excitement appeared on the faces of the people in the queue.

According to the old rules, after queuing up, the shopkeeper would draw a number and then choose three people among them.

The first two people were alright, they only asked about household problems. It was nothing more than consulting about marriage and the future.

However, the third person...

When he arrived at the compartment, Xie Qiao's expression became a little more indifferent.

It was Xie Mangshan.

Xie Mangshan looked left and right as he walked in. Then, he glanced at Xie Qiao and found that it was a female Taoist master. His brows furrowed for a moment, but he took his seat. He took out his birth details and placed it on the table and said, "Master, please take a look for me. Let's see which day is more suitable for the marriage that will benefit the woman's family."
