

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 476: Disaster After Disaster

Xie Qiao did not say anything. She only picked up the birth details and looked at it.

When she looked at it, her gaze turned colder.

The names and birth details were written clearly. Xie Pinggang's birth details were on one side, while Jia Huan's was on the other.

There had been no news from the old lady and the rest these days. She thought that they had given up. She did not expect the old lady to be so direct. She had even arranged her eldest brother's marriage.

Xie Qiao was not angry. Instead, she started to calculate seriously.

There was nothing special about Jia Huan's birth details. Her life was not tough enough.

"Are you sure that these birth details are correct?" Xie Qiao asked seriously.

Xie Mangshan was stunned. "Of course. These birth details belong to my nephew. His father isn't home, so the marriage will be decided by me and the old lady. What is it, Master? Is there a problem?"

"There is a problem, and it is a big problem," Xie Qiao said in all seriousness, "This man's fate is not bad, but he's not compatible with this woman. If the two of them were to get married, it could be said that it would be a coincidence, but it would also be a mistake. If they were to get married, the couple's marriage would be short, and it would bring disaster to others. The couple would have conflicts from time to time for the lightest consequence. They would encounter evil, and they would be separated by life and death if it's serious. As for the question you asked earlier, if it is beneficial to the woman's family...

"I dare to say that if the two of them were to get married, the woman's relatives would definitely not be able to gather their wealth easily. As for this woman, she would not be able to live until old. She would be alone and lonely, and she would feel lost and suffer from disasters..."

Xie Qiao did not say anything nice.

Xie Mangshan's face turned grim when he heard that.

What Xie Qiao said was not completely fake.

Her elder brother had a fate of loneliness. Now that his fate had not been resolved and evil energy still lingered around, he was destined to not be able to marry. However, if someone forcefully arranged a wife for him...

She dared to say that if it was serious, this woman would not be able to live past the night of their wedding night. If it was light, even if she was alive, she would be suppressed to death sooner or later.

Even if they really became husband and wife, they would definitely not be able to reconcile.

"Impossible! Do you know what you, a Taoist master, is talking about?! Everyone asked that I should come to you because you're very effective, but you did not say a single nice word! We are here to celebrate a wedding. Who would seek misfortune like you?!" Xie Mangshan was immediately enraged.

He was also a little flustered. After all, Xie Pinggang was very scary. He might really be able to kill someone.

Xie Qiao smiled profoundly, "I can see that the birth details you showed you are not compatible with each other. One of them is willing to get married, while the other doesn't. So I told you the truth. If you don't believe me, you can ask someone else."

If it was someone else, they might say that this man's life was too tough and that he would torture his wife.

Xie Mangshan immediately became listless.

It would cost money to get someone to look at the marriage. The reason why he found Master Mo was because people said that her words were always true.

He also wanted to ask properly. After all, they were meddling with Xie Pinggang's life. He was worried that something might happen.

Now...

Xie Mangshan was a little scared.

This Master Mo could even see that it was a one-sided wish. It was clear that she had real abilities!

He had spent a lot of effort to find out about Xie Pinggang's birth details from Ms. Lu. Jia Huan had already sent the wedding invitation over. He only needed to wait for her to look at the birth details to exchange for the wedding invitation and set a date for the wedding. Then, he could send Jia Huan directly to Xie Pinggang's house.

It was reasonable for the elders to make the decision!

However, what should he do now?

What if the wedding was successful and there were really many disasters?!

“Since you’re here, I’ll read your fortune for you. How about that? I see that your labella is dark, your eyes are lifeless, your lips are cracked, your tongue is charred, and your primordial spirit is scattered. Everything will not go well these days. It must be a great omen of disaster?” Xie Qiao’s gaze was deep. She frowned slightly and said with a complicated expression with a combination of concern, shock, and trouble.
