

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 477: This Matter

Xie Qiao was very intimidating. After Xie Mangshan heard what she said, he first frowned and then became furious.

“Master, it’s early in the morning. Don’t say anything bad. I’ve been doing well recently. What’s with this omen that you’re talking about?” Xie Mangshan was very upset.

Xie Qiao looked at him with a smile.

“I see that you’re an official, right?” Xie Qiao’s tone was relaxed, “However, I’m afraid that your position as an official isn’t high. Moreover, there will definitely be changes within three days. If you don’t believe me, come and look for me here in three days.”

Xie Mangshan looked at her in shock, his heart somewhat uneasy.

He was indeed an official. Although he was only a low-ranking official responsible for supervising the people serving the army and did not even have a rank, in the eyes of ordinary people, his status was very valuable.

Could it be that he would really encounter a disaster recently?

Xie Mangshan was half-convinced and half-doubtful.

There was a duration to Xie Qiao’s fortune-telling. At that moment, 15 minutes had just passed when the shopkeeper knocked on the door and led him out.

Apart from the money to consult for marriage, he did not pay any extra silver.

Master Mo was not greedy for his money, which made him even more uneasy.

The shopkeeper looked at the troubled Xie Mangshan and then at the owner suspiciously.

For a long time, almost all the customers who came in had left with great satisfaction. There were very few people who were so upset.

Moreover, when an ordinary person listened to the consultation from his owner, they would no longer be confused and hesitant.

How could this person be the opposite?

“In three days, this person will definitely come again. Don’t stop him when the time comes,” Xie Qiao instructed Shopkeeper Chang.

Shopkeeper Chang was a little puzzled, but he still nodded in agreement.

Xie Qiao returned to the back door, got into the carriage, took off her curtain hat, and went to the academy to attend classes.

When she returned home at night, he invited Xie Pinggang over.

“I heard that you made a lot of friends in the academy? Not bad, better than those two little ones. They’ve been in the academy for so long, not to mention a friend, they can’t even bring home a fly!” Xie Pinggang was full of disdain.

His stupid father was right about something.

Even if Xie Qiao was an idiot, she could still be the pride of the Xie family just because of her appearance. Moreover, this wretched girl was quite powerful.

“Eldest Brother, you’re not much better,” Xie Qiao said faintly.

After the Zhou family’s big case, Xie Pinggang was almost the King of Hell in the eyes of others.

Xie Pinggang also admitted that he was the same as the two little ones. They were not very popular. At that moment, he was just casually saying just for the fun of it.

Xie Pinggang sat down.

On the stone table in the courtyard, Xie Qiao poured a glass of wine and looked at him with a smile on her face.

Xie Pinggang stared at the wine and looked a little uncomfortable.

Did this girl find out that he had almost stolen all of her wine?

“Eldest Brother, find a reason to remove uncle’s official position,” Xie Qiao said straightforwardly.

Xie Pinggang heaved a sigh of relief.

So it was about this matter.

“Okay, I have been thinking about this recently. Our Father got him this job earlier. I wonder how he is doing. I think he probably has a restless character. We should investigate it carefully so as not to drag down our family’s reputation,” Xie Pinggang nodded.

“Take care of it in three days, okay?” Xie Qiao said again.

“Okay,” Xie Pinggang took it seriously, “But why are you suddenly asking about him?”

“It’s Senior Aunty. She met Xie Mangshan today with your birth details and looked for her to consult about your marriage,” Xie Qiao said very calmly, “Eldest Brother’s birth details... should only be known by our own family, right? We’re not familiar with Uncle’s family. They shouldn’t have specially remembered your birthday...”
