

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 481: A Financial Loss May Prevent Disaster

Previously, when Xie Qiao looked at him, the calamity had yet to appear. However, a variable had recently appeared, and this variable...

Xie Qiao thought that it should be on her.

She thought for a moment.

Recently, she had only mentioned Xie Mangshan's situation to her eldest brother. In that case, Xie Mangshan's calamity must have something to do with her eldest brother.

"Master! I beg you to help me solve this calamity quickly!" Xie Mangshan's expression changed.

He was initially a nobody. One day, he had made a fortune by relying on Xie Niushan's fame. He had been lucky, so he did not have to worry about food.

There were many benefactors around each of them.

To Xie Mangshan, Xie Niushan was actually his benefactor.

However, this benefactor's aura was getting further and further away. He was afraid that it would disappear.

“This calamity isn’t easy to solve...” Xie Qiao thought for a moment and asked, “Do you usually do good deeds?”

Xie Mangshan’s face stiffened, “I-I don’t like to do good deeds...”

At that moment, how could he dare to lie?

“Oh my, that’s even worse,” Xie Qiao pursed her lips and shook her head, looking as if he could not be salvaged, “If you accumulate more good karma on a daily basis, even if you encounter a great calamity, this calamity will be reduced significantly. However, since you don’t have that, then this calamity might get even stronger.”

Xie Qiao was full of nonsense.

She knew a thing or two about being a scammer!

“Master, what should I do?!” Xie Mangshan said impatiently.

“Sir, I’m also helpless,” Xie Qiao shook her head.

“Master, I have silver! Isn’t there a saying that goes, a financial loss may prevent disaster?!” Xie Mangshan suddenly thought of something and hurriedly said, “How much do you think the calamity is worth? Even if I sell my house and land, I will also make up for this calamity!”

What could be more important than his own life?!

He suffered during his childhood, he was poor and destitute. These few years, he suddenly had a good life, but he was not enjoying it!

“Good man, you must know that silver is not omnipotent,” Xie Qiao took a breath, “But... I see that you are sincere indeed...”

“Yes! I am!” Xie Mangshan’s voice was hoarse.

“It’s not that you can’t get rid of this calamity. I have predicted for you. If you can really pay a sufficient price, then your life can be saved. As for the rest, after this calamity is over, you can take it slowly,” Xie Qiao said slowly.

However, it ignited Xie Mangshan’s hope.

“Great! Save my life, you must save my life!” Xie Mangshan’s face was covered in sweat.

“I predicted your situation and found that your family’s wealth is not from an honest source. That’s how your current situation is created. If you want to change all of this, it depends on whether you are sincere or not,” Xie Qiao said again.

When Xie Mangshan heard that, his heart jolted.

The master was too accurate!

Yes, he did not earn the family’s wealth on his own at all!

The house was bought by his second brother. The food in the house was all given by his second brother’s family.

It was just that his second brother did not give enough this year. He always thought the silver was not enough to spend, so he thought of other ways...

Did he suffer retribution?

He regretted it.

“Master, feel free to say it. As long as you can save my life, I’m willing to do anything!” Xie Mangshan said.

“If you have sincere intention, this evil will be resolved,” Xie Qiao said solemnly, “If you want to expel the evil, then you need to return everything that doesn’t belong to you as much as possible. Remember, other than what you have already spent, you cannot leave a single copper or a single cent. Of course, if you are unwilling, you can also leave a little something behind. However... the calamity will get worse because of this little bit that you left behind. Do you understand?”

When Xie Mangshan heard that, it felt like a bolt from the blue.
