

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 484: The Dog Came Back With a Bone in Its Mouth

Ms. Jia had always regarded her husband as her god, and she did not understand business matters. Naturally, she would do whatever her husband said.

She immediately went to make arrangements.

Xie Mangshan stared at the old lady's house.

The title deed and land deed of this house were written in the old lady's name. In addition, she also had a box with some valuables in it.

Her legs had not recovered yet, and she did not like going out. It would not be easy for him to take that box out.

That villain, his third brother...

There were more things in his house.

Xie Mangshan's face was gloomy.

He could not die. No matter what, he had to protect his life!

Xie Mangshan's mind spun. The next day, he simply went to an inconspicuous small medicine shop and bought some sleeping pills. These things were accessible. The people at the brothel he frequented often used them. It was very safe.

After buying the pills, he bought wine and some dishes at the restaurant.

He invited everyone and ate in the big courtyard.

He had told his family about his dismissal, but no one was worried about it. After all, they believed Xie Niushan would send things over in the future. They would not have to worry about food.

Moreover, Xie Mangshan was happy to treat them. It seemed that he had closed a big deal.

The two brothers chatted happily.

They were drunk after all the food and wine.

Xie Mangshan quickly carried everyone into the room and began to search for things in the house.

He had also gone through the jewelry, gold, silver, and title deeds in the old lady's room. He put everything that was worth some silver in a big box by him.

What made him even angrier was his third brother's house.

He had more money than he did!

There were more than a thousand taels for silver notes alone!

Where did all that silver come from? It must have been secretly given by that old lady!

When Xie Mangshan thought of his doom, he no longer cared about how he was going to live in the future. All of a sudden, he cleaned up all the furnishings. Then, he went outside and called for people to carry these things out. He also asked those people who he had arranged in advance to come in. They took the old lady's hand and made a handprint. Xie Mangshan personally signed and sold the house.

He quickly tidied up everything and rushed toward the Xie Residence.

The Xie family's steward felt that the world had changed.

Their family was becoming more and more popular. Not only did the first young lady make friends at the academy, now even people from the old house that she did not like brought gifts?!

What were these big boxes filled with?

Xie Mangshan put the boxes down, "My Second Brother is not at home, right? When he comes back, tell him that these are his eldest brother's sincerity. Compared to my money, naturally, my Second Brother is most important. I was reckless before..."

As he said that, Xie Mangshan wiped away his tears, "You must show Second Brother my sincerity, okay? Now I've sold everything that I can sell at home! You must tell Second Brother that!"

The steward looked at the boxes and suddenly felt a little afraid.

Could it be that some poison had been sent here?

How did this Master Xie become so terrifying?

“Master... W-What do you mean?” The steward was still very confused.

“I have nowhere else to go. These were given to me by Second Brother back then. I’ve practically emptied my house...” Xie Mangshan felt sad just thinking about it.

The steward was speechless, and he went forward to check.

Oh my, they were all property!

In the past, the relationship had always been one-sided. Who would have thought that the dog came back with a bone in its mouth today?!
