

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 511: I Really Like Him

His voice was loud, and he looked very unwilling.

Xie Qiao was very curious as to how such a violent person looked before he was affected by the vengeful spirit. He was able to make the old master so merciless as to personally tie him up.

At that moment, once he was tied up, the vengeful spirit next to him was faintly emitting black energy.

She whispered into Li Qingyu's ear, and evil energy lingered around his body slowly. Li Qingyu struggled but could not move, and his face became much gloomier. He shouted at the top of his voice, "Let go of me, Grandfather! If you don't let go of me, I'll kill myself..."

Xie Qiao stepped forward and took out a piece of broken wood from somewhere and stuffed it into Li Qingyu's mouth.

Elder Li looked and gave Master Mo a look of approval.

What did his grandson just say?

What did he want to do? He wanted to kill himself by biting his tongue?!

Muddle-headed!

Elder Li was also worried that his grandson's matter would affect his reputation in the future. After tying Li Qingyu up, he got all the servants to leave. At that moment, only the direct descendants were left in the courtyard.

Imperial Tutor Li regarded the descendants of the concubine with great importance.

In his eyes, although the b*stards were also his children, they were not from the same mother after all. Unless they were very virtuous, it was inevitable that they would be treated differently. Rather than waiting for the brothers to fall out with each other, it was better to separate them properly from the beginning.

All the children of the Li family had to be taught by the madam. The concubine was not allowed to get involved. The education of the b*stards was equivalent to that of the direct descendants. However, in daily life, their etiquette and rules had to be strictly observed. The descendants were treated differently based on ranking.

In Elder Li's eyes, this was a major event that the b*stards were not allowed to get involved in.

It was a pity that his own b*stards were well-mannered, but the sons of the b*stards were somewhat ignorant.

They were only more obedient in his presence.

At that moment, Li Qingyu could only stare at her.

"Master..." Elder Li looked at her.

Xie Qiao took a breath and stared at the ghoul. Just as she was about to speak, the steward rushed over and whispered something into Elder Li's ear. Elder Li looked at him in surprise and then hurriedly said, "Master, please go ahead. There's a guest in the house. I need to see him."

Then, without waiting for Xie Qiao to nod, he left in a hurry.

It was unknown who the honored guest was.

“Why are you staring at me? Look at what you’ve done to this fine young master...” Xie Qiao rolled her eyes at the vengeful spirit.

Li Qingyu was dumbfounded.

Who was this old witch talking to?

“I really like him!” The vengeful spirit’s eyes rolled as she roared.

“Liar. If you like him, why do you have to harm him? I can see that you don’t have much resentment in you. At most, you only have some obsession. Why don’t you let him off and reincarnate obediently...” Xie Qiao thought for a moment, “Look, he’s only 17 or 18 this year. If you leave, you might be able to reincarnate in three years. By then, the age difference between the two of you won’t be too big...”

Li Qingyu suddenly felt a chill run down his spine, “Old witch, who are you trying to scare?! Quit putting up an act. I’m not afraid of you!”

Xie Qiao hit him on the head with her horsetail whisk, “Be quiet!”

Li Qingyu was so angry that he struggled twice, but to no avail.

“After I leave, he will soon get married and have children. How would he remember me?!” The vengeful spirit said again.

Xie Qiao also saw through it.

This spirit was obsessed with Li Qingyu, and she often entered his dreams. Her initially not very strong abilities had declined even more now. Other than roaring to scare people, she could only influence Li Qingyu. It was not of much use to others.
