

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 524: Dotes on Him

Lin Yaxiang held Xie Pinghuai in her arms.

When Xie Pinghuai heard that, he was a little hesitant, but he could not help but imagine what it would be like to defeat his eldest brother.

When he thought about it, he was quite excited.

Xie Pinggang only snorted coldly and did not refute her.

Xie Qiao thought Lin Yaxiang was indeed a smart person. Although her words offended his eldest brother in every way, in reality, she had figured out that his eldest brother hated him for failing to live up to his expectations. She also knew that Xie Pinghuai was a person who would take persuasion rather than force.

She illustrated the image and gave him another round of encouragement. She looked at him with anticipation and trust. With such an attitude, Xie Pinghuai could not refuse at all.

"What you said is very reasonable." Xie Pinghuai nodded in all seriousness.

They had the same father. He was now young, so he was a little skinny and short compared to his eldest brother. However, it would be hard to say when he grew further!

He remembered that his eldest brother had suddenly grown taller when he was 16 or 17. Perhaps...

He could even be taller than his eldest brother!

“I’ve delivered babies for other families all these years and have seen many children. In terms of talent in martial arts, my Pinghuai is definitely one in 10,000. If you become a general one day, you will definitely be awe-inspiring and admirable. Your Mother in heaven will also be overjoyed. If your official position is even higher than your eldest brother’s, then in the future, won’t everyone in this family... have to listen to you?” Lin Yaxiang said and felt quite happy.

It was as if she could see Xie Pinghuai all grown up.

“Auntie, you’re too good at bragging. Look at my small size now. Do you think I’ll become a great general? That’s still a long way to go. However, I can’t become a great general, but when I grow up, I’ll at least have an official position, right? If I do well... it’s indeed possible for me to surpass Eldest Brother.” Xie Pinghuai thought, and he felt good all over his body.

Being an official was not something that could be done by whoever with the biggest fist!

What did eldest brother have? He did not have a backer.

He was different. Xiao Yurong was his master!

Many teachers in the academy would look up to him when they saw him now!

Xie Pinghuai was a little smug. He even had the guts to make a face at Xie Pinggang.

“I believe in you,” Lin Yaxiang said with a smile. After saying that, she looked at Xie Pinggang, she asked, “Does First Young Master know a good martial arts master? Look, this child has such ambition. It’s really amazing. My Lin family is just commoners, and we don’t know any martial arts masters. Don’t delay him for nothing. Although there are martial arts masters at the academy, they have only taught him for a short period of time. I think we should hire one to the house.”

Xie Pinghuai was stunned. "I don't want a martial arts master!"

It was very tiring to learn martial arts!

Lin Yaxiang was surprised. "Why? Could it be that... what you said earlier... was all a lie to me?"

Lin Yaxiang looked very sad. She was obviously a straightforward person, but now she had to pretend to be a weak victim. She clutched her chest and felt a great blow.

When Xie Qiao saw her acting skills, she did not even dare to take a second look.

It was rather scary.

Xie Pinghuai was really amazing. He had managed to suppress Aunt Lin's fiery temper to the point that she looked like a weak and loving mother!

Xie Pinghuai felt awkward.

He was most afraid of Aunt Lin behaving like that.

After all, Aunt Lin treated him quite well. She would personally cook whatever he wanted to eat. She would also sew the clothes he wore. Even Ms. Lu... had never been this good to him.

Xie Pinghuai was not someone who did not know what was good for him. He also knew that although Ms. Lu loved him, she did not care about anything other than giving him money. When he was cold and hungry, Ms. Lu hardly asked about it.

Unlike his aunt, who loved him like his own mother.
