

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 538: So Annoying

It was impossible to say that Xie Niushan had deep feelings for the old lady.

Xie Niushan was willing to give the old lady money in the past because he was her mother. Even if he had no feelings, they were family. He was now a normal person and was no longer a bandit. He had to be like an ordinary person and show some respect to his elders.

At that time, he had plenty of money. Even if he gave some to the old lady, his family would still be quite well-to-do and there would not be any problems.

However, it was different now.

Xie Mangshan was courting death and wanted to implicate him.

He had severed so many barbarians' heads and laid out such a clean path on the battlefield. If it was ruined by this idiot Xie Mangshan, he would not be able to die in peace!

The old lady was so frightened by Xie Niushan that her entire body trembled. "Y-You are unfilial... I am your mother. I-if I die, you will have to mourn for me. Your sons and daughters will have to stay home and can not get married..."

When he said that, Xie Niushan frowned.

That was true.

His poor daughter's health was lacking. He had gotten her to the capital to find a husband for her and to bear children.

"Father, I've been feeling much better recently. Even if I have to wait for three years, I can still do it." Xie Qiao was very calm.

Getting married was a goal, but it was not all she had.

It was indeed great to find a man who was pleasing to the eye and to experience love. However, if it was not there, she would not force it. It was also not bad to be a Taoist master.

Moreover, she was currently 17. Three years later, she would only be 20.

By then, her body would be healthy enough to get married and have children, right?

Marriage could not be forced. If it was forced, nothing good would come out of it.

Just let nature take its course.

Xie Qiao always blocked a path when the old lady needed it. The old lady almost wanted to kill her. "Son, do you really not care about the relationship between mother and son?"

Xie Niushan said righteously, "Don't give me such empty words. I have not mistreated you all these years. It's all your own fault for not leading a good life. What has it got to do with me? Besides, I've already explained the situation at home to you. I don't have any silver! Take Xie Mangshan and get out while I haven't lost myself. From now on, you're not allowed to come in again!"

He did not believe that a person with limbs would starve to death?

In the past, it was a habit!

When Xie Niushan was ruthless, he was also very straightforward. Xie Qiao had already seen this side of him when Ms. Lu was still around.

The old lady was still unwilling to leave. She actually knelt, grabbed Xie Niushan's leg, and began to cry.

Xie Niushan immediately called the servants over. "Bring them out!"

So annoying!

Xie Niushan was very ruthless. At that moment, Xie Congshan was dumbfounded. He felt that his life would be ruined by his mother and brother.

A load of debt. Fifty taels of silver from his father-in-law and 50 taels from his friends. Who would return this money?

It was all because they said that his second brother would give the silver back. What happened now?

There was nothing, and the connection was cut!

Xie Congshan's eyes were a little gloomy.

However, he did not dare to vent his anger on Xie Niushan.

When the three of them were chased out of the door, Xie Congshan did not know where he got the courage to kick the weak Xie Mangshan. "It's fine if you sell your children and wife. You have to pay me back a hundred taels of silver. Otherwise, I'll make you suffer!"

He only wanted the money. Once he paid off his debt, he would stay far away from his eldest brother!

This jinx really made him suffer!

Xie Congshan still had a job, but it was only 30 to 40 taels of silver a month. In the eyes of ordinary people, the salary was already a lot, but to pay off a hundred taels of silver, it would take several years without food.
