

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 541: Arrangements Before Passing

It was also because everyone had a rigid prejudice against Ms. Peng's appearance. Therefore, when they inquired about it, they mainly asked about her character and actions, which resulted in this scene.

"Master Xie, what do you think... of this play?" The leader had a look of anticipation.

There were already people at the side who were prepared to write down Xie Niushan's words.

What he said would become the basis for judging the bet!

"Nonsense!" Xie Niushan squeezed out one word.

"What?" The leader was stunned.

"Nonsense!" Xie Niushan repeated, "What's this performance? Where's Ms. Peng?!"

After saying that, Xie Niushan flung his sleeves angrily and left.

Leaving the leader standing there awkwardly.

"Young Lady Xie, I wonder... What does Master Xie mean by that? Does he like the play or not? What does he think of your mother?" The leader thought it would be hard to explain.

“Leader, do you think... that the actor you found could give birth to a girl like me?” Xie Qiao was all smiles, but at that moment, she did not particularly like this leader.

Her mother, Ms. Peng, though she was a little rude, she was still the most beautiful woman in the world.

The leader understood with that said!

So... that Tiger Peng was not ugly?

“Fine, I’ll get someone else to perform tomorrow... However, I wonder if you can give me some pointers. Is there anything else that was wrong?” The leader’s courage was commendable.

The play would definitely spread to the outside world, so Xie Qiao did not mind saying a few more words at that moment.

“Although I’ve never met my mother, I know that my Father should be very respectful to her. Besides, although my Mother was brave to the outside world, in front of my Father, she might have a tender side. Also... my Grandfather values my Father very much. He practically treats my Father as his own son...”

With such a relationship, how could Xie Niushan be wronged?

However, the leader had put in a lot of effort. There should be some real events in this play.

It was just that they were a little biased in her mother’s character setting.

The leader was very sensible and recorded everything down.

The next day, he came again. This time, he really found a beautiful lady.

The leader initially thought getting a beauty for the play was a little inappropriate, but when he thought of Young Lady Xie's appearance, he should not get an ugly one.

In addition, the content of this play was slightly altered. The image of Ms. Peng instantly changed from a tiger and Yaksha to a chivalrous and tender woman.

At first, if it was not for the restaurant's free service offer, Xie Niushan really did not want to watch it. However, for the sake of money, he endured it in the end.

However, when he saw it this time, Xie Niushan was a little lost in thought.

His wife had passed for seventeen years.

Xie Niushan looked very quiet.

He did not speak either. His expression was neither happy nor angry, and no one could understand what he was thinking.

This time, four words aside, Xie Niushan did not even leave a single word.

Xie Qiao only smiled and did not say anything else.

Many years ago, she sent a letter to her father and brother. At that time, Xie Niushan wanted to marry Ms. Lu.. Back then, she was a little curious as to why her brother did not care about her father's new marriage, so she asked a few more questions in the letter.

What her brother said was that before her mother passed away, she had made arrangements.

At that time, her father was still young. It would be unfair for him to mourn for her for the rest of his life. She would just let him go as long as he knew his limits.

Her father was a big-hearted person. Since his wife had agreed to it, he did not feel any pressure at all about whether he should remarry or get another wife.

He was an honest person.

At that moment, she reckoned that her father missed her mother.
